LAWS OF OREGON.

AN ACT TO PROTECT LITIGANTS. Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon: Secrion 1. It shall be the duty of the Governor of the State of Oregon, within six months after the taking effect of this act, to designate, by order filed with the Secretary of State, one newspaper for every county within this State, in which shall be published all judicial and legal advertisements for said county: Provided, That where there is no newspaper published within a county the Governor may designate, to do the legal and judicial advertising for that county, a newspaper published in some other county. Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State, immediately on Juniper Berries, by distillation, to form a fine gin the receipt by him of an order from the Governor designating an official paper for any county, as provided in Section 1 of this Act, to forward a certified copy thereof to the Clerk of said county, and such certified copy shall by said Clerk be filed in his office for the information of all whom it may concern.

SEC. 3. When the proprietor or proprietors of a newspaper designated as the official paper of any county, ple), leaving a dark and glutinous decoction shall file with the County Clerk of said county, a written stipulation accepting the conditions of this act, together with a bond in the sum of five hundred dollars with good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the Judge of the Judicial District in which said county is situated, for the faithful performance of the legal and is it a Syrdp-and therefore can be used in case judicial advertising of said county, and when such action on the part of where fever or inflammation exist. In this, you the proprietor of a designated newspaper and the District Judge has been certified by the Clerk of said county to the Secretary of State, and notice of the same has been given to the Governor by the Secretary of State, the Governor shall, without delay, by that upon inspection it will meet with your approclamation, appoint and confirm said newspaper as the medium through | Probation, which all judicial and legal advertisements for said county shall be published for the term for which he may have been elected, and thereafter all notices, summons and advertisements of whatever nature, authorized or required to be published by any law of this State, which shall be published in any other newspaper than the one so designated, shall be illegal and void: Provided, That at any time, upon proof of a failure on the part of the proprietor of any newspaper to properly publish legal and judicial advertisements, or of their non-compliance with any of the conditions of this Act, the Governor may designate and appoint and confirm, according to dence, and was successful in conducting the business. the provisions of this Act, some other paper as the official organ of the county in which such failure or default is him. Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State and all County Clerks to make and forward, within ten days from notice thereof, all certificates required of them by this Act, and to receive and file all papers, bonds, and other documents mentioned in this Act, as to be filed in their respective offices.

SEC. 5. All notices or advertisements required prior to or during the course of any legal or judicial pro-ceedings, shall be made in the newspaper which has been designated, appointed and confirmed, as hereinbefore provided, as the official organ of charged for such advertising shall not exceed, for each square of twelve lines of nonpareil type, two dollars and of society. fifty cents for the first, and one dollar for each subsequent insertion.

SEC. 6. Each newspaper designated under this Act shall furnish, free of charge, one copy of each of its issues to the Secretary of State, the State Librarian and Clerk of the Supreme Court of the State of Oregon, and two copies each to the Clerks of all Courts of Record in the county for which it is the official organ. And it shall be the duty of the Clerks of the Courts of Record aforesaid to have any other preparation, as in Chlorosis, or Retenone copy of said newspaper filed and from time to time bound; and the Courts may determine any question that may arise as to the publication of any legal or judicial advertisement by reference to such files.

Sec. 7. All Acts or parts of Acts in conflict with this Act are hereby re-

SEC. 8. As the present laws relating to the publication of legal and judicial advertisements are imperfect, and important advantages to litigants and others are to be secured by this Act, therefore this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval by the Governor.

Approved Oct. 24, 1870. Attest, S. F. CHADWICK, Secretary of State.

THE BARBER'S POLE .- Hundreds of people there are who do not understand centuries ago, it was customary for barbers to bleed people, and the pole, with alternate winding stripes of white and red, represented the bandage of the phlebotomized victim. In the course of time the apothecary excelled the barber as a blood-letter; but the old sign of the craft was retained by the latter after the function which gave it significance had
