THE EUROPEAN WAR.

BRUSSELS, Jan, S .- King William has abandoned the idea of entering Paris .-Upon capitulation the forts of Paris are to be garrisoned and provisioned for two years, and the Germans are to hold Al-sace, Lurraine, Belfort, Bitche and all the the line of communication with Paris, after an unconditional surrender, which will alone be accepted. The Guardes army are to be made responsible for the preservation of order in the capital, and the Corps Legislatif will be summoned on the third of the following month.

By the surrender of Mexieres, 2,000 prisoners and 106 guns fell into the hands of the Germans.

The Duke of Cambridge is to be succeeded by Lord Napier, of Magdala, as Commander in Chief of the army, and Cardwell as Secretary of War. England is determined to arm.

MADRID, Jan. 5 .- The Cabinet will probably be composed of the following members: De Rhodas, Secretary of War; Wheat Taken for Goods or Book Accounts! Olazaga, Secretary of State; Lopez, Secretary of the Navy. The Liberals seem to be in the ascendant. Marshal Prim's body was removed today to the Church of Alecha, without disturbance. There were 6,000 people in the procession. Officers, Deputies, Members of the Cabinet, and various diplomatic bodies, followed on foot. The carriage in which he was assassinated was in the procession. It is riddled with bullets, and the glass windows are shattered. The body lies in state in the church, and will be guarded by the invalides until Thurs-

LILLE, Jan. 4.- The battle fought by the Army of the North on the 3d inst., resulted in a great victory for our arms. Gen. Faidherbe reports that the fighting gowers and Sacramento streets, San Francisco. lasted 10 hours; that he drove the Prussians from their positions and occupied ing. Losses on both sides heavy. The villages of Bapaume and Dehaignies are anything. The return fire is weak, particularly from Noissy to Rosny, and the destruction of the forta is certain. It is believed the attack is intended to prevent a sortic from that side, and only prelimin.

LONDON, Jan. 6 .- The French army have returned to their encampment near Bealle. After the battle of the 3d inst., the Prussians, on the morning of the 4th, surprised and dispersed a French force on the left bank of the Seine, near Reuen, and eaptured 3 colors, 2 cannon and 450 prisoners. An Indiana town rings a bell every half hour to notify the people that it time to take their quinipe.

It is considered to be cool to take a man's hat with his name written in it simply because you want to get his autograph. An organ goes in proportion as its steps are put on; and a talkative woman rushes on most when the attempt is to make her silent. Two well-dressed shoemakers being in the company of some gentlemen, were asked their profession. Says one of them, 'I practice the heel-ing art," "and I," says the other, "labor for the good of men's

A man in South Hadley, who has just got out of a law-uit, wants to obtain a large framed picture of a cow, with one client at the head and the other at the tail pulling, and the lawyers meanwhile quietly milking.

A portrait of Luther, painted by Lucas Cranab, was discovered not long ago in Silsia. It was hidden under successive layers of dust and cobwebs, in a passage leading from a church in Reichenbach to a school-ro-m. - This portrait is considered the best to existence.

Mr. Agassiz tells us that in certain Amazonian tribes, on the day of his marriage, while the wedding festivities are going on, the bridegroom's hand is tied up in a paper bag filled with fire ants .-If he bears this torture suilingly and unmoved, he is considered fit for the trials of Matmmony Public dinner orators should be careful how they express, themselves. We read the other day that the builder of a church now in the course of construction, when the toast of his health was given, rather enigmatically replied that he was "more fitted for the scaffold than for publie speaking?' and follower have
