POLICY VS. PRINCIPLE.

The telegraph informs us that on last Thursday, at the Montgomery County (Ohio) Democratic Convention, Hon. C. L. Vallandidgham introduced a series of resolutions which were adopted, "accepting the results of the war, the validity of the three Constitutional Amendments adopted since 1861, and favoring the equal rights of all American citizens, without regard to race, color or previous condition!"

We freely acknowledge that this is a little ahead of any "progressive Democracy" that has come under our observation—in fact it fairly takes away our breath with its lightning speed!

A few years ago Mr. Vallandidgham was denouncing the war as unconstitutional—an unholy crusade against the rights of the States, and subversive of the principles upon which our Government was founded. He was arrested without cause, imprisoned without trial, and banished from his native State because of his denunciation of the measures which he now declares are the legitimate results of the war, and ought to be accepted as such by Democrats as well as Republicans. In other words, he jumps on to the rear car of the Radical express train that is carrying the country to destruction at lightning speed, and boldly swinging his hat in the air, calls the Democracy to follow on as fast as the devil can take them!

He wants them to discard every principle that was but yesterday regarded as essentially Democratic, and bury the fundamental landmarks of the party under the filth and scum of the Fifteenth Amendment and the other infernal iniquities of Radicalism, trimming the sails of the good old Democratic ship to the Radical breeze and tuning the Democratic harp to Radical music. He says to Democrats, "Let the dead past burry its dead, and let us all join in with the Radical party, shouting with them in chorus, 'Viva la nigger and death to the White Man's Government!'"

Democrats, will we do this? Will we bury down deep in the grave of forgetfulness those dear and cherished principles for which our patriot fathers fought bloody battles and suffered sorest privations? Will we deposit in the grave of our country's ruin the once glorious rights of the States, the freedom of the Commonwealths and the independence of their people, and upon this sacred pile gently lay the Old Constitution and the hallowed memories that cluster lovingly about it's musty pages, and with the last blush of departing honor mantling our cheeks and a swelling sob almost bursting our hearts, reverently close the sacred sepulchre, and depart without leaving even a perishable head-board to mark its last rest? Or will we, as in days of yore, stand by the Constitution and the Union, defend the teachings of the fathers, and holding aloft the old Democratic banner on which is inscribed the Jeffersonian landmarks of a civil Constitutional Government, fight for those living PRINCIPLES which demagogues call dead issues?

There can be but one reply from consistent, honest, true and unchangeable Democrats!

Let traitors, trimmers, political weather-cocks and aspiring demagogues prate of "dead issues" and "buried principles"—true principles can never die.

"Truth, crushed to earth, will rise again.
The endless years of God are hers;
But Error, wounded, writhes in pain,
And dies amid her worshipers."

EXECRABLE.

Last Wednesday the insurgents in Paris destroyed the magnificent Napoleon column in the Place Vendome. This column was erected by Napoleon Bonaparte to celebrate his remarkable victories in 1805. It was 135 feet high, and at its base 12 feet in diameter. Some 1,200 cannon, the trophies of Napoleon's victories, were used in its construction, and its architecture is said to have been of the most superior order. A few months ago these Vandals would have worshipped at its shrine as a holy altar; now they spurn and spit upon its shattered ruins with fiendish glee. Such characters can expect very little sympathy from the civilized world which has been outraged by this wanton act of desecration.—The sooner they are subjugated by some rational power the better for all christendom.

THE Herald proves by the official records that the editor of the Bulletin is a Kanaka—he having several years ago sworn allegiance to the "King of the Cannibal Islands." With its owner, Holladay, a citizen of New York State, and its editor, O'Meara, a Sandwich Islander, the Bulletin is a fit instrument with which to abuse, malign and traduce citizens of Oregon. Out with it!

We are pleased to learn that Judge Prim will not resign the Judgeship of the First District. He is an ornament and a credit to the Supreme Bench of Oregon, and we hope he may be long prevailed upon to give the people his services in that capacity.

GRANT AS A SABBATH SCHOOL SCHOLAR.

Rev. Mr. Parrish, of Salem, made a talk to the M. E. Sabbath School Scholars of this city, last Sunday. In the course of his remarks, in attempting to stimulate the children to more constant attendance upon the Sabbath School, he informed them that many great men had "got their start" by being Sabbath School scholars.—"Why," said he, as he waxed warm on the subject, "even the great President of the United States was once a Sabbath School scholar!"

Now, preachers, as a general rule, may assert almost any absurdity, and the people are prone to believe them; but when one of them invents a fable of such glaring proportions as that of the Rev. P., then even the little children are excusable for displaying a want of confidence in his words and a lack of respect for his clerical robes.

And we respectfully submit if it is very encouraging to the good little boys who attend Sabbath School to have Grant pointed out to them as having once been an exemplary Sabbath School scholar? The man who has been proved a willful liar by the highest officials in the land; who was, while at Fort Vancouver and at Portland, such a drunken sot that respectable ladies would draw up their skirts when passing him for fear of contamination, and boys would shrink away from his blood-shot eyes as from the gaze of a venomous reptile; the man whose name was associated in disgraceful connection with the vile and loathsome creatures who still infest the borders of the Pacific coast to ply their nameless avocations and spread their leprous infections; the man who was a drunkard in adversity and is a tyrant in prosperity—who is devoid of the finer instincts of mankind and wholly oblivious of the sufferings of those victims whom he sees fit to oppress for pelf or power—is hardly a fit example for the rising generation or a model for the Christian child. Washington, who combined all the graces and virtues of a Christian gentleman with the elements of a wise ruler and statesman; or Lee, whose humility, piety and firm reliance upon the Most High God, even in the darkest hour of adversity, was the strengthening rod which sustained his almost despairing soul,—would be an eminent type of the beauties of a Christian education and the fruits of early religious teachings. But Grant?—who probably knows about as much of the Ten Commandments as a Digger Indian knows of Hebrew, and whose knowledge of Christ's Sermon on the Mount is as obscure as the pagan's ideas of a Risen Savior! Please don't infect the pure atmosphere of a church with the mention of his name, or poison the children's minds against the good and pure by citing to them his pernicious examples.

GRANT GETS ANOTHER SLAP.

Sherman, the great incendiary and barn-burner of the late unpleasantness has been recently punching Grant up pretty lively in a speech at New Orleans. A few weeks ago a lot of Hiram Ulysses' minions and carpet-bag appointees at New Orleans gave Sherman a "spread," consisting of wines, etc., stolen from Southern cellars, and when hash and drinks had been discussed pretty freely, the man who vandalized more Southern homes than any other General was called out for a speech, and here is the way he prodded up Grant's Ku-Klux infamies:

"I believe this Government will keep on growing until it spreads itself over the entire American continent, but in order to gain this much desired end, and to maintain ourselves as a free and independent republic, we have got to show more charity toward each other. It has been remarked by some gentlemen who has preceded me, that it was generally conceded by the soldiers of both armies at the close of the war, that if the questions and all the matters of the settlement of the differences between the North and South, were left to the armies it would be settled at once and everything would become quiet and orderly. I so believed, and before signing the agreement with Gen. Joe Johnston, I called together all the Generals under my command, and without a dissenting voice they agreed with me. I believed they surrendered, in good faith, and would have lived up to the very letter of agreement and in my opinion, if there had been no reconstruction acts of Congress, and the armies been left at the time to settle all questions of differences between the different sections of the country, the people would at once have become quiet and peaceable. I probably have as good means of information as most persons in regard to what is called the Ku-klux, and am perfectly satisfied that the thing is generally over-estimated; and if the Ku-Klux bills were put out of Congress, and the army kept at their legitimate duties, there are enough good and true men in all Southern States to put down all Ku-Klux or other bands of marauders."

In private conversation, he was even more emphatic and unreserved. Speaking of the San Domingo scheme, he said:

"We have territory enough, more than we have use for. We can hire a coaling station in the West Indies for $3,000 a year, and we had better do that."

Congressman Slater will deliver a Democratic speech at La Grande to-morrow.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 6, 1871.

Commissioner Pleasanton yesterday decided that under the recent decision of the Supreme Court, city and county officers are not exempt from income tax.

Secretary Boutwell has returned from his Western trip and is busily engaged in arranging the details for Assistant Secretary Richardson's visit to the principal commercial cities in Europe, for the purpose of placing the new loan in the market there. So far not a penny has been subscribed in Europe, and I hardly think that any persuasiveness that the narrow-minded Richardson possesses will effect a change in the minds of European capitalists who thoroughly understand all the advantages of the new loan. The subscription to the loan yesterday was about $50,000.—Something less than this will not pay the expense of advertising. Boutwell's failure with the new loan will not only damage him as a Presidential aspirant but will give Grant an excuse to oust him, which he secretly desires.

Caleb Cushing, who is constantly engaged by Grant and his administration in doing jobs of one sort or another, always with good pay, from settling Mexican claims down to writing an address, has been giving his views on the High Commission and says: "That instead of making a treaty adjusting the Alabama question and providing for the payment of damages, they have simply declared that hereafter no armed vessels shall be equipped in neutral ports to attack friendly commerce. All claims go to a mixed court." Caleb states the case very plainly and truly, for that is about all this much-talked-of Joint High Commission will amount to. When its provisions are made known the disappointment and dissatisfaction of the American people will be extreme. This same Caleb Cushing has received another crumb, brushed into his hat from the Grant table. He has been appointed an attorney to represent the claims of citizens of this government against Spain, in accordance with the agreement made by Minister Sickles.—Many who remember Caleb Cushing as a prominent Democratic leader and Attorney General under a Democratic administration no doubt wonder at his being so favored with fat jobs by Grant & Co. The secret is that Cushing reviles the South in a manner not excelled by Ben Butler, and Grant does not forget to pay him for his slanders and malignity towards a section which no longer has the power to reward as Grant has for services. Cushing is a free lance in politics; a Swiss guardsman; he serves for pay and no matter the side which he fights on. One party's gold is as good as another. An estimable character is Caleb Cushing.

The Radical editorial snakes, in the bitterness of their envy at the unity of the Democratic party, could almost turn and sting themselves.—But in lieu of that they are trying to cast their venom into the midst of the Democratic ranks, and in their tender care for the "Democratic masses" they warn them that Tammany Hall rules their party, and say that the withdrawal of the name of Gov. Hoffman as a candidate for the Presidency in 1872 is all pure humbug. Instead of healing the dissentions in their own ranks their sympathetic hearts and wide-spread philanthrophy forces them to try and save the "Democratic masses" from the Tammany Society. Those Tammanyites are fearful fellows to the Radical imagination, a sort of northern Ku Klux. When the Tammany sachems, after due deliberation, and no doubt for the best reasons, withdrew the name of their favorite son from the Presidential race in 1872, and expressed a preference for a Western man, they did so in good faith, and all the base charges made by the Radical journals, as to their intending trickery and deception, is an insult to their ability and shrewdness. Let the Radicals call the Tammanyites hard names, for they have no reason to love them, but do not charge them with being fools, as the world knows better. Messieurs Radicals, we don't discord worth a darn.

J. H.

A SOUTHERN exchange has the following account of a late Radical Ku-Klux horror: "Information has been received at Greensborough, N. C., of a brutal outrage in Gaston county, committed by two negroes, upon a young girl of fourteen, in presence of Mrs. Stroup, her sick and widowed mother; the atrocity being committed by each, while the other held a loaded pistol at the invalid's head to prevent alarm." This, it is to be remembered, is one of these strictly loyal proceedings which do not find their way into congressional investigations—but if somebody should happen to hang those niggers, all radicalism would fairly froth at the mouth over it, and demand that Gaston county be put under martial law forthwith.

BRICK POMEROY is coming on a visit to the Pacific coast this summer, and the trooly loil are already gathering up their shirts and preparing to burn brimstone upon their premises. They needn't worry; Brick won't steal their spoons or runaway with their wives!

A MODEL STRONG MINDED WOMAN.

Mrs. Victoria E. Woodhull is the avowed candidate for President on the Woman's Rights ticket, and is engaged with others in publishing a paper for that object in New York. The following from a recent New York paper tells what a nice kettle of fish she has stewed up for herself:

"A curious case came up yesterday afternoon before Justice Ledwith, in the Essex market police court. It was an application for the issue of a warrant for the arrest of James H. Blood, alias Dr. J. H. Harvey, the "Co." of the firm of Woohull & Claflin. The application was made by Annie Claflin, mother of Mrs. Woodhull. Mrs. Claflin says in her affidavit that Blood, otherwise known as Dr. J. H. Harvey, occupies the same bed with her daughter Victoria, and that said Blood has been in her family for the last six years; that since his entrance into her family he has made every effort to corrupt, and has corrupted, not only her daughter Victoria, but through his machinations and intrigues has excited her daughter Tennessee, and entirely weaned them from deponent; and deponent says that during the time she resided in said house, she has often heard said Blood insist that her daughter Tennessee should make efforts to secure the attention of different married gentlemen, in order that said Blood and said Victoria and Tennessee might combine to make money out of said persons; deponent says that she has known such married gentlemen, who have been taken in and blackmailed in said house. She had often heard Blood, who is receiver of all moneys that come into possession of the firm of Woodhull, Claflin & Co., say that no books or any account has been kept by said firm until very recently, and that in case any trouble should arise between the dealers with said firm and themselves, a great trouble would come upon said firm, and that Broad Street would be too hot for them. She further says she believes Blood is endeavoring to ruin her daughters, especially Tennessee, and that, as he has threatened her life, she does not feel safe from Blood, and prays that he may be arrested and dealt with according to law. The affidavit is supported by others, and signed by Mr. and Mrs. Sparr, daughter and son-in-law of Mrs. Claflin.

"Mrs Woodhull indignantly denies these assertions; says it's merely an attempt to levy black mail; that her mother, old and weak minded, has been induced by some means to make the affidavit, which is a black and infamous lie."

DESTRUCTION OF COLUMN VENDOME.

PARIS, May 16—Evening.—There was a tremendous scene at the fall of Column Vendome this afternoon. The fall was announced for two o'clock. All the balconies in Place Vendome were crowded. Rues De La Paix Castiglion were also crowded. When M. Abadie arrived and inspected the windlass, the excitement was intense. Rochfort next appeared, the people giving him loud cheers. Soon arrangements were completed and bugles sounded. The column, like the walls of Jericho, was to fall from a blast. The cable was stretched and tightened, but the column stood firm. The windlass broke and the pulley flew into the air, and descending striking a sailor and wounding him.

After this accident Abadie declared he needed two hours to repair the tackle. Word was given out that the column would not fall before seven o'clock. A general expression of disapprobation went through the crowd. Abadie was accused of complicity with the Versailes Covernment, and threatened with the guillotine. At twenty minutes past five o'clock the cable was again stretched. Suddenly the vast column moved and swayed and then swept magnificently down, bursting into fragments as it struck the earth. It fell lengthwise in Rues de la Paix, exactly on the mauve cushion prepared for it. The crowd gave tremendous shouts, "Vive la Commune," and the band played the Marseillaise.

When the dust cleared away there lay the glorious column splintered to pieces, its bronze and masonry in two masses, together with the middle and statue of the Emperor several feet from one end of the column with the head knocked off. The crowd rushed forward to collect fragments as relics, and the guards were unable to resist the rush. Orators commenced speeches and indulged in all sorts of extravagant language. The statue of the Emperor was treated as if it were the Emperor himself. The National Guards spat into its face and struck it with their rifles.

VISIT TO THE HOME OF JEFF DAVIS.—A private letter, received by a citizen of Chicago from a gentleman at Vicksburg, describes a trip made by the latter, in company with Jefferson Davis, to the plantations formely owned by Joseph E. Davis, now deceased. The following are extracts:

"We left at night on the R. E. Lee, one of our finest steamers, and landed at the Hurricane plantation about daylight the next morning. This plantation, and another known as Briarfield, were occupied before the war by Joseph E. Davis and his brother, President Davis. They were sold by Joseph E. Davis, who owned them both, to his favorite freedman, Ben. Montgomery, for $30,000, payable at the end of ten years (1st of January, 1876), interest at 6 per cent., payable annually. Ben, who is very black, but thoroughly educated before the war, met us and gave us a breakfast, waiting on the table himself, but not offering to take a seat. After breakfast we had a carriage and rode over the magnificent estate, the extent of which you can form some idea of, when I tell you that Ben Montgomery made last year 2,500 bales of cotton, and a large quantity of corn. We dined at Briarfield, the former residence of Jefferson Davis, and now occupied as a residence by the aforesaid Ben, and you will not be surprised to learn that the former slaves of Davis greeted him with all the warmth of affection that they were capable of expressing. Davis met them very cordially, and encouraged them by many kind words. After dinner, at which our wealthy host again waited on us in elegant style, we passed on to a very large and valuable plantation which has been purchased by Ben Montgomery and added to the Davis estate, and which will add to his crop this year probably 1,000 bales more, making 3,500 in all if it is a good crop year.

THE Rads all over the country are cussing Winans, the New York Republican Legislator who sold out to the Democrats. They're only mad because they did'nt have the same chance to make a spec. Meantime, Winans pockets his winnins and is happy. No doubt he is a degraded cuss for betraying his constituency, but he was only following the example of more distinguished members of his own party.

THE political struggle in California during the coming summer will be a desperate one, and one of great importance, as the following officers are to be elected: A full set of State officers, two Judges of the Supreme Court, three Congressmen and a United States Senator. Both parties seem to be sanguine of success.

The originator of this wonderful medicine, claims to have discovered and combined in harmony more of Nature's most sovereign medical properties than was ever before combined in one medicine. The evidence of this fact is found in the great variety of most obstinate diseases which it has been found to conquer. In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and hundreds of the best physicians pronounced it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. By its great and thorough blood purifying properties it cures all Humors from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple or Eruption. Mercurial Disease, Mineral Poisons, Syphilite and venereal diseases, and their effects are eradicated and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all the numerous diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful purifing and invigoration medicine For "Liver Complaint," Bilious Disorders and Habitual Constipation, it has produced hundreds of perfect and permanent cures where other medicines had failed.

The proprietor offers $1,000 reward for a medicine that will equal it in the cure of all the diseases for which it is recommended. Beware of counterfeits and worthless imitations. See that my private Government Stamp, which is a positive guarantee of Genuineness, is upon the outside wrapper. This medicine is Sold by Druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Prepared by R. V. PIERCE, Sole Proprietor, at his Chemical Labratory, 133 Seneca street, Buffalo, N. Y.
