The Democrat.

FRIDAY.....JUNE 23, 1871.

THE CALIFORNIA DEMOCRACY IN CONVENTION.

On Tuesday, the 20th instant, the Democratic State Convention of California met at Sacramento, and the Reporter says that it was by far the largest political gathering ever held in that State. Governor Bradley, and quite a number of other distinguished Democrats from Nevada were present and took an active interest in the proceedings of the Convention. As the Reporter was issued before the Convention adjourned, and as the telegraph from California has been too busy in heralding Chinese thefts and the price of bogus mining stocks to give us the particulars of the Convention, we have only a partial list of the nominations to present to our readers. Following are the nominees of the Convention, so far as reported.

FOR GOVERNOR—The present incumbent, Henry H. Haight, was nominated by acclamation, there being no other candidate put forward. The Convention greeted the nomination with three tremendous cheers which shook the building from turret to foundation, the cannons, prepared for the purpose, fired 13 shots in honor of the event, and Gov. Haight accepted the nomination in a short but elegant speech.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR—Col. E. J. Lewis was nominated by 72 majority over two other candidates.

FOR JUDGES OF SUPREME COURT—For the short term, Judge Jackson Temple was nominated by acclamation; for the long term, Judge Seldon S. Wright was nominated by 41 majority after a spirited contest between five candidates.

FOR SECRETARY OF STATE—W. C. Brown was nominated over six other contestants on the third ballot.

FOR CONTROLLER—R. O. DeWitt was nominated on the fourth ballot after a lively contest between seven candidates.

P. S.—Since the above was written the porpoise-gaited telegraph comes waddling along with the following additional nominees, which completes the ticket: For Superintendent of Schools, O. P. Fitzgerald; for State Treasurer, A. Coronel; for Attorney General, Jos. Hamilton; for Surveyor General, J. W. Bost; for State Printer, John Barry; for Clerk Supreme Court, Thos. Laspayer; for Harbor Commissioner, J. Friedlander; for Congress in 2d District, John W. Coffroth.

The Platform of principles was adopted unanimously without discussion. The first and second resolutions are copied almost verbatim from the Ohio "New Departure" of Vallandigham, acknowledging the late amendments to the Constitution as fixed facts and no longer issues before the country. The third resolution is a reiteration of the Democratic doctrine of State Rights and completely knocks the stumps from under the 15th Amendment which assumes to regulate suffrage in the several States. How these antagonistic propositions can be neutralized and reconciled we leave those champion political acrobats who perform the "New Departure" act to demonstrate.

The fourth plank of the Platform demands universal amnesty; the fifth condemns, in scathing language, those twin infamies, the "Bayonet Force Bill" and the "Ku-Klux Bill;" the sixth favors a tariff for revenue only, and denounces the protective system as unjust, oppressive, prolific of corruption, and injurious to the best interests of the country; the seventh opposes Congressional land-grabbing schemes; the eighth arraigns the Radical Congress for its failure to repeal the odious income tax and to restrict the importation of Chinese coolies; the ninth uncompromisingly opposes subsidies to railroad and other corporations; the tenth favors amending the State Constitution so as to provide additional safeguards around the public treasury; the eleventh denounces monopolies of all sorts and favors the elevation and amelioration of the laboring classes; the twelfth opposes Chinese immigration and denounces Congressional interference in the State regulation of that matter; the thirteenth favors the leaving of public lands to actual settlers only; the fourteenth denounces Presidential interference in elections as treason to the Constitution; the fifteenth protests against the ruinous legislation of the present Administration and pledges the Democracy to retrenchment and reform; the sixteenth pledges the Convention to a united effort in behalf of the ticket; the seventeenth recapitulates the reduction of the California State debt under the recent Democratic administration, and recounts the many benefits derived from that administration during the past three years, thus heartily endorsing its action and declaring it entitled to the confidence and support of the whole people.

We believe that the ticket nominated is a strong one, and if the endorsement of the worst measures of the Radical party does not lie too heavily upon the stomachs of the Democracy of the Golden State, there is a fair probability of its triumphant election.

A DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

As a "set-off" against the mongrelized, galvanized, sweetbriar platform of Vallandigham, we present the following genuine Democratic platform, laid down by Thomas Jefferson in his first inaugural address, in the days when our government was in its purity, and statesmen of integrity and honesty managed affairs of State with the desire only to promote the best interests of the people and to merit the commendation of the whole country:

"Equal and exact justice to all men, of whatever State or persuasion, religious or political.

The support of the State governments in all their rights as the surest bulwarks against anti-republican tendencies.

The preservation of the General Government in its whole Constitutional vigor, as the sheet anchor of our peace at home and safety abroad.

A jealous care of the right of election by the people.

The supremacy of the civil over the military authority.

Economy in public expenses, that labor may be lightly burthened.

Encouragement of agriculture, and of commerce as its hand-maid.

The honest payment of our debts, and sacred preservation of the public faith.

The diffusion of information, and arraignment of all abuses at the bar of public reason.

Freedom of religion, freedom of speech, freedom of the press, and freedom of person, under the protection of the habeas corpus, and trials by jury impartially selected."

The Ottumwa Democrat says these doctrines were good enough for Jefferson; they were good enough for the country during its golden period, and all we ask is for a return to those sacred principles. They guided this government through an unexampled period of happiness and prosperity, and it was only upon the abandonment of these doctrines that misfortune fell upon the country, North and South.

These are the political principles to which the Democratic party is attached, and anything which falls short of this standard is but as "sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal."

A FIGHT OVER THE SPOILS.

A couple of Grant's minions at Washington have got into a lively little skirmish over the letting of a fat government contract, of which the telegraph of last Monday gives the following account:

"On Friday last Pleasanton awarded a contract for furnishing paper for new whisky, beer and tobacco stamps to a Connecticut firm. The award is said to have been made without consulting the Secretary of the Treasury, who disapproved of the paper and the manner of awarding the contract, as he thinks the bids of other contractors who have hitherto faithfully fulfilled their contracts were not duly considered. The Secretary, therefore, annulled the contract. Pleasanton is displeased with the Secretary's action, and in a correspondence with him denies the right of the latter to interfere in contracts made in the Internal Revenue Bureau. Law officers of the Treasury Department support the Secretary, and both officers are preparing papers in the case to present to the President on his return this week."

If the stealings were less in these Government contracts these little disturbances between officers whose business it is to award them would be less frequent. Of course the bidder whom Boutwell champions offered Boutwell a big price for the contract, and it isn't just the thing to have an "underling" officer, like Pleasanton, rush in and snatch the bone for some one else to wag off with. It will not be astonishing if the bull-terrier, Grant, compromises the difficulty by taking the bone from both of them and giving it to one of his own satellites.

MORE TESTIMONY.—Every witness yet called before the Congressional Outrage Committee has given the lie to the report of outrages upon which the Ku-Klux Bill was predicated, and thus that pet measure of Grant is becoming more infamous as the examination into the facts continues. The following dispatch, dated Washington, June 24, contains another refutation of that base libel upon the Southern people:

Judge Busteed, of Alabama, was examined by the Southern Outrage Committee. He said he did not believe there was any such organization as Ku Klux in Alabama, and person and property are as safe there as in any State in the Union. On his being questioned as to the testimony of Rev. M. Laken, portions of which represented that three indictments had been found in Busteed's Court for violation of the Civil Rights bill, and had been tried, but the truth was only one indictment had been found, and that had not yet been tried.

HORACE GREELEY is the only open Radical candidate against Grant for the Presidency. But "those little creatures whom God for some inscrutable purpose permits to edit Republican country newspapers" will make it too hot for "Old Drab" in this fight, and he will doubtless have to subside. Republican offices are not given to such old wheel-horses as Greeley in these latter days.

SOME enterprising newspaper Jenkins has discovered that President Grant and wife sleep together, on three mattresses, and are both fond of a soft bed! That inquisitive cuss ought to be sent South to nose out Ku-Klux outrages.

RETURNING TO ITS FIRST LOVE.

The Sacramento Reporter says that Democrats may expect more good news from New Hampshire shortly. The term of service of Jas. W. Patterson, one of the United States Senators from that State, will expire March 3, 1873; so the Legislature will at its present session have to elect his successor. Patterson has been one of the most dangerous of the Washington usurpers, to whose programme he has zealously adhered. He has been taken by surprise by the Democratic victory in his State, and the prospect before him is anything but cheerful; but in retiring from public office he can (as miscry loves company) solace himself with the reflection that his associates will share the same fate—their hopes will be blasted, and one after another they will rapidly follow Warner, Williams, Willey and Patterson out of the Senate chamber, the doors of which will close upon them forever. Slowly, but surely, that once dignified and revered body, the United States Senate, is becoming Democratic again. Patterson will be accompanied into the shades of private life by Morton, Cole, Kellogg, Nye, Conkling, Pool, Cameron and Corbett. All of these will reach the end of their row March 3, 1873—the same time that Grant will reach his. What a day of jubilee that will be!

BOWED IN THE DUST.—The Sacramento Reporter, Sonoma Democrat, Mendocino Democrat, and the dozen other Democratic papers of California who so violently assailed Haight before the State Convention, now find themselves in a beautiful pickle! Haight was nominated unanimously, notwithstanding their bitter philippics against him, and now they must of course support him or whiz goes their occupation among the Democracy. We have seldom seen a more reprehensible blunder than those papers made in the Gubernatorial contest, and the result utterly prostrates them in the dust at the feet of the Democracy of California. As they have learned this lesson from bitter experience, it is to be hoped they will profit by its teachings.

As nearly every Oregon editor has denounced the "Oregon Style" since the recent shooting affrays in Salem and Roseburg, the natural inference would be that the arena is a more potent reformer than the forum. An occasional judicious explosion of gunpowder seems as successful in purifying our journalistic atmosphere as is a thunder storm in dispelling malaria.—The writer hereof confesses to an intense hankering after the newspaporial "New Departure" from the "Oregon Style;" but, with all the rest of our brethren, we solemnly insist that it was somebody else that has been doin' it, and not us! As Jasper Johnson and Enoch Adams have retired from the tripod, why not lay it all to them?

THE telegraph tells us that Captain Hall has sailed from New York with an expensive outfit to discover new things in the Frigid Zone and at the North Pole. We believe that this new Arctic Expedition, at the expense of the people, is a piece of costly folly. Nothing more is to be learned of those regions than we already possess.—Books, exhaustive of the subject, have been published, with which the public is familiar, and innumerable lectures have been given on the "regions to the North of us," illustrated and otherwise. Capt. Hall will be a smart man if he can bring us home anything new.

THE most sickening fulminations now coming from the mongrel radical press are those treating of the "Ku-Klux Outrages." Will nothing ever induce these waillsts to acknowledge the disagreeable truth that if the northern spy carpet-baggers, peddlers and government thieves were called back, we should hear no more of "Ku-Klux Outrages."

JOHN W. FAITH, editor of the Chariton (Iowa) Democrat, recently received a pig as a present by express from a gentleman in a neighboring county. He says he has it already in training, but fears it will cut loose soon and start an opposition Republican paper. If it would come out here it might secure an opening as editor of a "personal organ."

WE are not sure but it looks a little like persecution to arrest a man three times within forty-eight hours for an assault and then bind him over in $5,000. Why didn't the Sheriff take Bill Watkins before every Radical magistrate in Marion county and let each one have a dig at him?

As the Radicals have the first and second resolutions on the California Democratic platform it is hoped that many of them will view it with a "child-like and bland" feeling, and that it will receive that respect from them which it can hardly expect from Democrats.

The Portland papers contain full particulars of a murder committed in the Court Room of T. J. Dryer, Justice of the Peace, on Wednesday morning. A suit was pending against a colored man, named Thomas Ward, brought by Josiah Graham, another colored man, on charge of threats to assault. While Graham was giving his testimony, which was taken down, when Ward drew a navy revolver, advanced towards him and shot him dead. The parties were involved in great difficulty and trouble. Graham was under indictment for the seduction of Ward's step-daughter, and all possible ill-will existed between them, but the murderer had no just cause for the act committed.

TARRANT'S SELTZER APERIENT.

OF A FAR HIGHER CLASS than any other proprietary medicine of the day, stands

Tarrant's Effervescent Seltzer Aperient,

And for this reason: it is an exact counterpart of one of the most valuable natural medicines in the world. We refer to the great Seltzer Spring of Germany, to which thousands of the dyspeptic, the bilious, the rheumatic, and the victims of venal diseases resort annually, and return to their homes convalescent or cured. The Aperient is one of the first, and by far the most successful of all the efforts made to reproduce, in a portable form, the popular mineral waters of Europe. See that you Purchase only the Genuine Article.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.
