An East-of-the-Mountains Trip.
HARRISBURG, July 15, 1871.
Editor Democrat:
Since I last saw you in Harrisburg, some six weeks ago, I have been east of the mountains with cattle. I left Harrisburg June 14, with 118 head of cattle; went via Lebanon wagon road, and arrived at Crooked River without the loss of a single head, in eight days. I stopped on Willow Creek, Wasco county, where I found the very richest of bunch grass, but no hay. There are water and timber in abundance. There are no great numbers of deer in that locality, but there are no small facilities whatever, and the inhabitants complain bitterly of their utter neglect in this respect by the powers that be. They are almost unanimous in attaching the blame to Postal Agent Underwood. I could have secured one hundred subscribers for your paper in that section had there been a mail route through there. Two-thirds of the settlers are Democrats. The people are very anxious to organize a new county, as it works a great hardship upon them to be so far removed from the thirteenth of their county—the Dalles. The Ochoco country is nearly eaten out, and cattle are very much poorer there than in many other valleys of Eastern Oregon. I learn that cattle are cheaper there than in the Willamette Valley.
On the Fourth, at Prineville, in Ochoco, the people observed Independence Day with a grand ball and supper, and had a jolly time generally.
I think the Lebanon road an excellent one, and believe that it will soon be the great thoroughfare between Western and Eastern Oregon. Pleasant seekers will find the Soda Springs and Fish Lake to be very interesting resorts.
I will soon return to Willow Creek, when I will write you again.
Very Truly Yours,
JAMES WHEELAN.

RUNAWAY AT CORVALLIS.—On last Saturday morning the team attached to the West Side Stage, coming down Front street from the post-office, at Corvallis, attempted to enter the Livery Stable of Clark & Houck, when the driver, Wm. Igo, struck the near horse with the whip, starting him to kicking; one of his feet "accidentally" struck the driver's foot, which was on the brake, knocking him backwards out of the stage; they then turned to the opposite side of the street, when one of the horses fell and was dragged along several yards, at which juncture the neck-yoke broke, one end striking the upright horse in the side, cutting a terrible gash. At this moment the horses were caught and stopped. Mr. Igo, at the time, did not feel the effects of the kick he received, but since he is not able to wear his boot, and his side is considerably bruised.
AN EXERCISEABLE WRETCH.—We are informed that the last two weeks a man has been infesting the blackberry patch on the other side of the Calipatria and insulting women by making improper and insulting overtures to them. He has made no open or forcible attempts upon any one, but comes upon them suddenly when no men are about, and displays his vile character in a manner. Many ladies have already been terribly frightened by his approach and demand, and last Monday a gentleman who was out for some time through the woods for the same wretch, intending to give him a taste of cold lead at first sight, but failed to get a head on him. The dirty covey ought to be made an example of for all future villains of his base stamp.
THE "EUGENE TRAIL."—Mr. Purdon returned from Pitt River over the Tenger or Eugene route, and says that it is a miserable failure as a wagon road, as there is no work whatever being performed upon it, and all the bridges and fords are in a dilapidated and worn out condition. He says the Willamette Valley and Cascade road leading over the mountains from this city is almost a macadamized road or a turn-pike as compared to the Eugene route. He thinks that unless a great amount of work is done on the latter road soon it will be utterly impassable for teams in a very short time.
MESSRS. W. J. HILTBEL & Co. have taken a new departure from their heretofore established usage and have enlarged their store room and opened out a fine stock of dry goods, boots and shoes, clothing, etc., in addition to their usual stock of groceries. They have a neat establishment, and one which cannot fail to attract custom as fast as it is known throughout this community. Read their new card and give them a call. They will have a fine, flaming advertisement in our columns as soon as they can get time to prepare it.
John Metzler's raw-hide bottom chairs have gained a reputation second to no other article manufactured in Oregon, and he is improving on them almost daily. He now has the finest assortment—both as to material and finish—that that have ever seen, and he is constantly filling orders for other places in the State. We commend Metzler's chairs to the public, knowing there is no humbug about them. They are the cheapest and best ever made.

LOCAL PICKINGS.
Jake Fleischner is up from Portland. Go to the Baptist Festival to-night. There are already a dozen residences at Sodalville.
Blain, Young & Co. are selling much agricultural machinery.
Fred Teuber, of this city, has just opened a hotel at Sodalville.
Portland is expecting good days soon. We are never without them here.
Rev. Mr. Finley, of Corvallis, called on us last Saturday, looking happy.
Bart. Crooks is erecting a neat and tasty residence in Haekleman's addition.
A little child of Mr. Houck, of Corvallis, died last Monday, and another is very ill.
Wm. S. Newberry, agent for Comstock & Co.'s warehouse, has settled with his family in this city.
Mrs. Martha Hoon, of Walla Walla, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Humphrey, in this city.
Salem farmers have been invited to participate with the Albany Onesies in housing their engine next Friday.
The demand for agricultural machinery, mowers, etc., in this vicinity, has been greater this year than ever before.
R. P. Earhart, the gentlemanly and enterprising proprietor of the Chemeketa Hotel, of Salem, was among us during the week.
The new railroad town of Halsey already numbers 12 or 15 houses, and about an equal number are in process of construction.
Here is a toast for our firemen at their celebration next Friday: Our fire engine—may it be like an old maid—ever ready but never wanted.
In the haste of going to press last week several grievous typographical errors were left uncorrected. Don't view us with a "cricket's eye."
Mr. Backus, of this county, informs us that he has a 40-acre wheat field which will this year yield 45 bushels to the acre. Match him if you can.
George Turrell has leased Lee Burkhardt's fire-proof brick, now occupied by A. Cowan & Co., and will shortly open out a large stock of merchandise there.
A swooning woman can't be handled. You may hold an eel, a pick-pocket, a pickle or a politician; but a woman, now. Take a sample home and try.
Mrs. Martha Smith, grandmother of Hon. I. N. Smith, of Peoria, this county, arrived from the East a few days ago. She is 93 years old and is still quite vigorous.
We now receive the daily San Francisco Chronicle when it is four days old. It tickles us to be thus early supplied with the latest news from the metropolis of the Pacific.
Our energetic County Assessor, J. B. Steery, is engaged in assessing the county at the present time. He began last March and expects to finish up in a couple of months.
Bro. Van Cleave, with his family, is this week spending a season of rest and refreshment at Portland, and Mr. Heuling, a young gentleman lately from the East, is ad interim on the Register.
Cherry's foundry is turning out a vast amount of the very best of work. Farmers will not forget that the Albany Foundry is the place to get their agricultural machinery promptly and properly repaired.
Those who desire a good article to restore gray hair to its youthful color, we would recommend to purchase Hall's Vegetable Sillian Hair Renewer, a most excellent and valuable preparation. Sold by all Druggists.
We are informed that a party of fellows started to the mountains the other day with five kegs of beer, seven gallons of whisky and a loaf of bread. The question naturally arises, what do they want with so much bread?
Dr. H. Parrish, one of Linn county's oldest and most respected citizens, died last Sabbath at his residence near Knox's Butte. His remains were followed to the grave by a large procession of his sorrowing relatives and neighbors.
Do not forget that A. B. Paxton, at Brownsville, makes those superb Rembrandt pictures in the very best style known to the art. Mr. P. is always prepared to take your picture in any style or at almost any price demanded.
A fine young mare belonging to Wm. Morgan, of this county, accidentally had one of her legs nearly severed in two by stepping backward on an up-turned cycle in Powers' blacksmith shop, the other day. She will doubtless have to be killed.
We are informed that at the last meeting of the Council it was ordered that the owners of inside lots be required to pay proportion to value in grading streets and building sidewalks; also antioneer's license reduced to $3 per quarter.
Rev. Mr. Lattimer, of Los Angeles county, California, preached at the Court House last Sabbath. He is of the M. E. Church, South persuasion, and is the father-in-law of Prof. Finley, of Corvallis, to whom he and his wife are now paying a visit.
Our genial and affable friend, Gus Wheeler, has accepted a situation as book-keeper and salesman in W. H. Barber's store, at Harrisburg. He is one of the cleverest of boys and is a business man of competence and experience. Good luck, my boy.
Albany probably has fewer loafers of its size than any city on the coast. We have no vagabonds and no such doubtful luxuries as gamblers infest our peaceful and favored city. Hall moral, industrious and beautiful Albany, the "Gem of the Valley!"
There will be twice as many potatoes raised in Linn county this year as there were last. It is hoped that our dealers will not be required to send to San Francisco and Portland to supply our potato market this winter, as they did last. We have the best potato soil in the world, and certainly ought to raise sufficient for home consumption, the weather and tater bugs permitting.
L. Blain and wife, Hamilton Evans and Mrs. John Barrows, started Fish Lake wagon last Tuesday. We wish them a jolly time and hope they won't lose a wagon the 50 miles from a blacksmith shop, and get out of horse feed, and lose their horses, and get eaten up
