ley, has rit a book with the abuv name, and altho i haven't had time to peroose it, yet i don't hesitate to pronounce it bully. Pharmin (now daze) is pretty much all theory, and therefore it ain't astonishing that a man kan live in New York and be a good chancery law-yer, and also know about pharming. A pharm (now daze) ov one hundred akers will produce more buckwheat and pumkins, run on theory, than it would sixty years ago, run on manure and hard knoks.

There is nothing like book larning, and the time will eventually come when a man wont hav to hav only one of "Josh Billings' Farmers' Almanax" to run a pharm, or a kamp meeting with.

Even now it ain't unknown tew see three or four men on a pharm with three or four spans of oxen all standing still while the boss goes into the library and reads himself up for the day's ploughing.

If I was running a pharm (now daze) I suppose I would rather have thirty six bushels ov sum new breed of patateze razed on theory, then tew have eighty-four bushels got in the mean, benighted and underhand way ov our late lamented grandparents. pharming, after all, is a good deal like the tavern bizzness; enny body thinks they kan keep a hotel (now daze), and they kan, put this is the way that poor hotels cum tew be so plenty, and this is likewise what makes pharming such easy and profitable bizzness.

Just take the theory out ov pharming, and there ain't nothing left but hard work and all fired lite krops. When I see so much pholks rushing into theory pharming, az there is (now daze), and so menny ov them rushing out agin I think ov that remarkable piece ov skripture which remarks, "menny are called, but few are cho-

I onst took a pharm on shares miself, and run her on some theorys, and the thing figured up this way: I dun all the work, phurhished all the seed and manure, had the ague for 9 months out of twelve, for mi share ov the profits, and the other phellow paid the taxes on the pharm for his

By mutual konsent iquit the pharm at the end ov the year.

What i know about pharming aint wuth braggin about, and i feel it mi duty to state, for the benefit ov mi kreditors, that if they ever expekt me tew pay five cents on a dollar, they musn't start me in the theoretical pharmin employment.

If a man really is anxious tew make munny on a pharm, the less theory he lays in the better, and he must do prety much all the work hisself and support his family on what he kant sell, and go ragged enuff all the time tew hunt bees.

I kno ov menny pharmers who are so afflikted with superstition that they wont plant a single bean only in the last quarter ov the moon, and i know others so pregnant with science that they wont set a gate post until they have had the ground analised bi sum professor of anatomy tew see if the earth haz got the right kind of ingredience for post holes.

This is what i call runing science into the ground. The fact ov itiz, that theories of all kinds work well except in praktiss;— they are too often designed to do the work of practiss. They aint no theory about breaking a mule only tew go at him with a klub in your hand and sum blood in yure eye, and brake him just as you would split a log. What I know apout pharmin aint with much enuy how, but I undertook to brake a kicking heifer once. I read a treatise on the subject and phollowed the direkshuns cluss, and got knokt endwaze in about five min-

I then sat down and thought the thing over. I made uy my mind that the phel-low who wrote the treatiss was more in the treatiss bizziness than he was in the kicking heifer trade. I cum to the konklushun that what he knu about milking kiking heifers he had learnt by leanin over a barnyard fence and writing the thing up. I got up from my reflekshuns strengthened, and went for that hief-

I will draw a vail over the language I used, and the things I did, but I went in to win, and won!

The heifer never bekum a cow. This is one way to break a kicking heifer, and after a man has studyed all the books in kreashun on the subject, and tried them on, he will fall back onto mi plan and make up his mind, as I did, that a kicking heifer is wuth more for beef than she is for theoretic milk.

I have worked on a pharm just long enuff tew know that there iz no prayers so good for poor land as manure. and no theory kan beat twelve hours each day (sundaz excepted) of honest labor applied to the sile.

I am an old phashioned phellow, and heartily hate most nu things bekause I hav bin bent by them so of- CUTS, SCALDS, BURNS, SCALDHEAD,

I never knu a pharm that waz worked pretty much bi theory, but what waz for sale or to let in a few years, and I never knu a pharm that waz worked by manure and muscle, on the good old ignorant way ov our ancestors, but what wazhanded down from father to son, and alwus waz noted for raising brawny-armed boys and buxom lasses, and fust-rate pota-

What I kno about pharming is nothing but experience, and experience now daze ain't worth a kuss.

shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and langs beyond any other medicine. The most dengerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves ta, was lately the victim of a reck-tie in Bohemia, were convicted, in December last, of having poisoned their husbands at a party which one of them had given for that purpose. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of childhood, Cherry Pectoral, is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them.
