OCHOCO CORRESPONDENCE.

OCHOCO VALLEY, OR., Sept. 15, 1871.

Editor Democrat: As I receive numerous letters inquiring about the country and its resources, will you permit me to reply through the columns of your paper?

Ochoco is a stock country, adapted to raising stock of all kinds, with the exception of sheep (they do not do well here). Farmers moving here should hear this in mind, and not come expecting to find a good farming country. Though there have been some good lands as good as any in Oregon—yet it is in small bodies, lying along the creek bottoms, in small valleys averaging from one hundred yards to three-quarters of a mile wide, and ten to thirty long. These valleys are generally separated from each other by low ranges of hills, covered with bunch grass.

The settlements are situated on Trout, Little Willow and Big Willow Creeks, Ochoco and Crooked River Valleys, Beaver Creek, Pauline Bottom and Upper Crooked River. Ochoco is all taken up, but on all the others good claims can yet be taken.

Our citizens are now considerably excited over a large valley just discovered by a party of men who went out prospecting from here. They report that they found a large valley, some sixty miles south of here, "the largest and finest of any yet discovered." It is about sixty miles long and from ten to thirty wide, and covered with heavy ryegrass. The soil is loose and black and pronounced by them to be as rich as any in the world. The climate is thought to be considerably warmer than Ochoco. Our nights are too cold to allow us to raise only the hardiest vegetables, but our party thought that there settlers could raise anything, melons, beans, potatoes, etc. This new valley is surrounded by low, rolling hills and covered with rank bunch grass, and all well watered—something that cannot be said of every place east of the Cascades. This valley is called "New Texas" or "Shore's Valley."

As to society, we have the best in Oregon—nearly all the settlers are Democrats. No Doctors, Lawyers, Niggers or Chinamen have yet settled here, and very few Union men.

Our climate is very healthy; no sickness to amount to anything.

As to the historic item: Mrs. Wm. Marks was the first white woman that moved here. Mrs. G. Judy gave birth to the first white child. Wm. Foster and Jane Marks were the first couple married. The first death was Rube Stratton, who died last winter, of consumption. The first drunk was Bro. Fickett, formerly of the Albany Journal.

The first store was kept at Bunnerville, and the first city of importance was the aforesaid Bunnerville. Settlers moving in here had better secure lots in that city, as a man's importance is reckoned by the number of city lots he owns. If he lives in Bunnerville he must have a "race horse" must chew a mixture called "backer," made of willow bark, sage leaves and a small amount of tobacco, and, as the cap-sheaf of perfection, he must own a deck of "keerles" and be an Abolitionist. All, or nearly all, of the blacks that have come out here have settled at Bunnerville.

We are laboring under a great disadvantage in regard to our mail facilities. All the mail we get is brought from the Dalles by travelers who are coming from there, and we often go for months without a particle of mail. We hope this will soon be remedied.

OCHOCO.

FROM EASTERN OREGON.—By a letter from Weston, Umatilla county, dated October 1st, we get the following information:

The people are greatly excited about small-pox, as many cases are reported to exist in Walla Walla, and fears are entertained that the terrible scourge will prevail extensively throughout Eastern Oregon.

Our correspondent says the country about Weston is very productive. The soil is of a rich, black character and produces from 30 to 40 bushels of wheat per acre, both on the hills and in the creek bottoms. The country is settled solidly in 160-acre farms, embracing a tract from seven to ten miles wide along the base of the Blue Mountains. There are but few tracts unclaimed in that region.

Weston is situated on Pine creek—near where it makes its exit from the mountain gorge. It is a flourishing village, for a two-year old; contains two stores, a hotel, a livery stable, two blacksmith shops, with prospects for a tinners and a boot-maker. Along the foot of the mountains, not more than three miles from town, any amount of timber exists, where three steam saw mills are daily cutting thirty thousand feet of pine and fir lumber for the Walla Walla market. "Indeed," says our correspondent, "Weston has the most abundant resources, the most enterprising men, the prettiest women, and the smartest babies of any village of its proportions in Christendom!"

Our correspondent sends us a small club of new subscribers and promises to enlarge it to a handsome list shortly. He has our thanks and good wishes for his prosperity in his pioneer Eden.

YESTERDAY—Messrs. Hiltabrid & Co. have gone into the vineyard business on a large scale. They will soon have the best quality of elder vinegar for sale in quantities large or small.

AT HOME AGAIN.—Well, here we are at our post again, after many hair-breadth escapes by flood and field—after steaming up the broad Columbia and breasting the alkali plains to the Walla Walla—after catching trout from the Tumalum and shooting prairie hens near the Tizerum—after being hurled from the stage-coach into the bowels of the earth and blown from the back of a whittling knife to the lofty peaks of the mountain-tops—after escaping the small-pox at Walla Walla only to "catch the 4-1" at Sleepy Hollow. In point of fact, in the past month we have "seen the elephant and rode on his proboscis" but as many of our readers have doubtless learned to "furn" parts as well we, and have experienced even more fearful and harrowing adventures than even ours, we shall not enter into further description of our journeyings around the world, but simply remark that our physical condition is much improved, our exchequer greatly diminished and our moral nature about at a stand-still since we last wielded the editorial quill of the DEMOCRAT. And this is why we rise to explain that things are thus with our moral, physical and financial arrangements, and that we are now again ready for all the labyrinthine mazes of the newspaperial mill.

SMALL-POX IN WALLA WALLA.—On the 1st inst., when we left Walla Walla, there were ten cases of small-pox in that city and three deaths had occurred already. The sudden development of the epidemic to such an alarming extent of course causing much excitement, and people were fleeing from the city in every direction. Many families packed up their "dunnage" and fled to the mountains and trout streams of that vicinity, while others took advantage of the lethargy in business to visit Webfoot and our State Fair; but by far the greater portion of the people acted with better judgment and more discretion and remained at home to assist the stricken ones and to confine the terrible scourge within their own limits. Since our arrival home we learn that most of the cases have recovered and that the epidemic shows visible signs of abating—there being only five or six cases reported, and they being mostly of the inchoate or varioloid type, and confined to some three families. The utmost precaution was being taken by the city authorities to prevent its spread, and we do not apprehend any danger of an extensive epidemic.

THE METROPOLIS HOTEL is the name of the new house opened last week in Portland by Messrs. Packard & Sprenger, the advertisement of which may be found in our columns. We had the pleasure of being the guest of the Metropolis last week, and unhesitatingly pronounce it fully equal to any hotel in that city, and much superior to the others in some respects. The furniture, upholstery and carpets are of the most modern and luxurious order, while the apartments and appointments are of the most convenient character. The house contains about seventy-five rooms, besides the bath rooms, dining rooms, offices, etc., all furnished with water, gas, and other conveniences incident to a cosmopolitan first-class hotel. The kitchen is a distinguishing feature of this house, as its appointments are such as few hotels can boast. The ever obliging and affable Jake Sprenger, with his gentlemanly assistance, Mr. Packard, will take special pains to render their guests at home.

MRS. FROST gave her second lecture against woman suffrage, in this city, last Saturday night. Walla this lady hardly comes up to our ideal of a successful lecturer, we yet were favorably impressed with her line of argument and believe that she successfully refuted the positions assumed by the Anthony on the suffrage question. She has fully as much eloquence and a better flow of language than Susan, and, having naturally the best of the argument, she could not fail to make many telling points against the pernicious doctrines inculcated by that antiquated spinster. She was at times rather sarcastic, and at the close of her remarks it was plainly visible that Mrs. D. and Susan B. were both pretty badly Frost-bitten. She asserted her desire to meet Miss Anthony in debate, and if her wish is gratified a lively tournament of words may be expected.

COSMOPOLITAN DRAWING.—The drawing of the prizes in the cosmopolitan Benevolent Society will take place Monday, November 27th. The distribution will be made immediately after the drawing is completed.

FIRE.—Fifteen tons of hay and a barn containing several hundred bushels of grain were destroyed by fire in Benton county about nine miles from this city, last Friday; all the property of Charles Logsdon.

ALL OCCUPIED.—There is scarcely a house in town unoccupied. The demand for houses is on the increase, and many moving families go elsewhere to locate, in consequence.

CANNOT ALBANY contribute her mite to the aid of the Chicago sufferers?—Tens of thousands of men, women and children are homeless and destitute, and we should cheerfully assist in relieving their want and suffering. "He that giveth to the poor lengtheneth to his Lord."

THE M. E. chapel of this city has been newly papered and carpeted and now presents a neat and elegant interior.

WANTED.—Furnished room with board, in Albany. Address Lock Box 63, Albany postoffice.

PURGATIVE PILLS have become a settled necessity with the American people. Indeed, cathartics always have been and always must be used, in some form, by all mankind. In this country the plural form of administration has been growing in favor since pills were first made of Aloes and Rhubarb, rolled into a ball, their high position in the public confidence has finally been secured and fastened into permanency by Ayer's Cathartic Pills, the most skillful combination of medicine for the diseases they are intended to cure, that science can devise or art produce. Those who need pills, no longer hesitate what to take if they can get Ayer's Pills.—(Whetling (Va.) Press.

NEW LAW FIRM.—Elsewhere may be found the professional card of Messrs. Cranor & Humphrey, attorneys-at-law. Mr. Cranor is one of the oldest and most successful lawyers in this section of Oregon, and Mr. Humphrey is a rising star in the legal profession.

SOAP.—We have been presented with several varieties of soaps from the Albany Soap Factory of Cartwright & McCord, and from a limited trial we regard them as equal to toilet soaps of Eastern manufacture. They are richly colored and highly scented, and will eradicate dirt or assist the tonsorial artist as successfully and readily as any other soaps in the market. We trust our Oregon dealers will remember the Albany Soap Factory when they want anything in the way of a dirt eradicator.

THE FIGHTING PARON "ON IT."—A personal altercation took place on the streets of Eugene last week between Rev. I. D. Driver and another equally belligerent individual, in which the "live dragon" and other ugly words were exchanged. The assertion that the Rev. Driver called his opponent a lineal descendant of a furniture canine quadruped we believe is erroneous. Each one of the belligerents interviewed the City Recorder of Eugene to the amount of a V.

CEMETERY NOTICE.—Read the notice in the above heading elsewhere. It is important that there should be a meeting of the Trustees of the Albany Cemetery Association, at an early day, as the President of the Board is going away and another must be elected in his stead in order that lots may be sold and deeds made out when occasion requires. Remember that every lot owner is a member of the Association and entitled to a vote next Tuesday at the Court House.

PIPFAX BITTERS.—Through the cordiality of Mr. O. V. Gerabek, we have had a sample of these celebrated bitters and find them to be a pleasant and wholesome tonic. Being a strict temperance drink and only used for dyspepsia and indigestion, for which they are sure cure, according to the certificates of the most celebrated physicians on the coast, they must be considered a general drink. Try them.—Henry Myer is agent for Albany.

THE STATE FAIR attracts a great crowd and there were many brilliant and useful articles of workmanship on exhibition, but we do not remember to have seen anything so superb and elegant there as one may find by stepping into Mealey's furniture establishment in this city. For beauty of finish and durability of manufacture, Charley's furniture cannot be excelled, and his upholstery is universally acknowledged to be the best in the Valley.

HYMNICAL.—Our friend and fellow-citizen, Sam. E. Young, returned to this city last Wednesday with his Eastern bride, formerly Miss N. Althouse. We tender the newly wedded pair our warmest congratulations and wish them all the happiness and bliss in the vocabulary. Sam. is one of the very best of gentlemen and eminently deserving that of which he is doubtless possessed—a true and loving wife.

CATTLE MARKET.—We learn that cattle are much lower in the Willamette valley this fall than they were last year. Fears are felt of a severe winter, and consequently very few buyers are about. The prices, as near as we can get them, are as follows:—Last spring calves, $10 per head; yearlings, $15; two-year olds, $25; three-year olds and cows, $30. The supply is said to be quite plentiful.

ANOTHER FIRE.—Last Sunday Lee Burkhardt's fence, about a mile south of town, caught fire either from a burning straw stack or from some careless smoker passing that way, and burned over a mile in length next to Jason Wheeler's farm, causing a loss of $200 to Mr. Burkhardt. This dry weather is propitious for the fiery element, and too much care cannot be observed in preventing its ignition.

DR. ABRON the successful Oculist, Aurist, Catarrh, Throat and Lung Physician, of San Francisco, whose remarkable success is well known on the Pacific coast, has been effecting some wonderful cures in Portland, during the past few weeks. Dr. Abron can be seen professionally at the Chemetka Hotel, Salem, from the 3rd until the 17th of October.

ALBANY COLLEGE has nearly 80 students and the roll is increasing daily. President Warren and his able assistants are already reaping golden opinions.

An opposition line of boats will probably soon be put on the Willamette. Two boats are already purchased, one of which is now in use on the lower river.

Uncle Jimmy Douthit goes back to Ochoco next week; also Jas. Elkin's goes to that country to reside hereafter. Jimmy is a good boy anywhere, and our loss is Ochoco's eternal gain.

With half our citizens gone to the State Fair and the other half at home busily engaged in counting their twenty-dollar pieces, it is rather difficult for ye poor editor to manufacture an acceptable local column.

The Register has become octagonal in shape and enlarged in proportions, thus showing that its proprietor has much wealth at his command as well as "great expectations ahead." We congratulate Van and his patrons.

MARRIED.—WILSON.—At Solo, on the 1st inst., by Rev. J. Ostrander, Mr. E. Sewell Cranore and Miss Francis C. Wilson, all of Lin county.

The brightly shining amalgam which accompanied this notice abundantly demonstrated the beauty of the happy couple and justify them the richest blessings of our celestial household.

HOME AND ABROAD.

Polonaises will be worn this winter. Silk dresses will be trimmed in satin this year. Rev. H. H. Spaulding is lecturing in Portland this week.

Charley Harper came overland from San Francisco in four days. Our great grandmothers' style of hair dressing is becoming the agony. Coal oil has been found to be an excellent cure for sprains and rheumatic pains.

The residence of Lewis Wilson, near Corvallis, was burned last Friday; loss $1,200. Bro. Titus has a glittering and gorgeous display of jewelry in his show window.

Blain, Young & Co. have any amount of new goods, and are constantly in receipt of more.

An autumn is upon us we await some glowing original poetry on the "season and yellow leaf!" Comstock & Co. have stored nearly 70,000 bushels of grain in their warehouse in this city this year.

Nobody should go bootless so long as Dow & Crane keep so large and handsome a stock over the way.

Robinson & Richter have fitted up a neat resort for the "imbibulous" on the corner of First and Ferry streets.

A Portlander was so severely stung the other day that it took four men to drink whiskey enough to cure him.

Ambrose Sloan, who but four weeks ago married Miss McLaughlin in this city, died at Eugene last Saturday.

If somebody don't bring us wood on subscription pretty soon we'll have to buy it and charge cash for our paper.

Hall's Vegetable Siallan Hair Remedy comes very handy by carrying it to return to its youthful color and vigor.

Winter's Gallery is turning out an almost fabulous number of pictures. The "Rembrandt" seems to be the favorite. The proprietor of Willamette Valley passed over his domain from Portland to Eugene last Sunday in his palace car.

Carothers' soda fountain squirteth at the State Fair this week, consequently we have to take ourn in something milder.

Red silk parasols are to be the novelty next season, to be made very large, and edged with fringe, feathers, or black lace.

The potato bug throws up the sponge in the presence of a Pennsylvania fly bearing the name of thyridopylix epheborum for its title.

Walla Walla Valley ought to be the nervous woman's heaven—there isn't a flea or a crack-voiced preacher in that latitude.

Don't forget that Julius Gradwohl has a large invoice of new goods and some elegant new cook stoves of the latest patterns.

The West Side says thirteen cases are now in Walla Walla. He don't say what kind of cases, but we suppose he means hard cases.

Our Brownsville readers will not forget that A. B. Paxton, the classic artist, is still taking those superb Rembrandts at that place.

The Long, one of the best "prints" in the business, and at present foreman of the New Northwest, called on us during the week.

Mr. Henry Myer is refitting and repainting his establishment, and will shortly be prepared to receive his friends in elegant shape.

As everybody has sold his wheat and received his pay, we trust he will remember that the printer is entitled to compensation for his paper.

Several grievous typographical blunders appeared in our Walla Walla letter last week, but do not view us with a cricket's eye on that account.

Alf. Tureman, one of the good men of old Linn, has taken a new departure from this region and cast his lot with the people of Eastern Oregon.

We understand that Rev. J. W. Vanderve, a Methodist minister, and brother of Coll. I., is the new editor of the Register. He drives a prolific quill elsewhere. If he is entering a gossip, and we trust his author will favor us with frequent lucubrations from his pen.

The Albany College has nearly 80 students and the roll is increasing daily. President Warren and his able assistants are already reaping golden opinions.

An opposition line of boats will probably soon be put on the Willamette. Two boats are already purchased, one of which is now in use on the lower river.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Trust what Time has sanctioned. The maxim that the voice of the people is the voice of the deity, may in some cases be applied to doct, but the testimony of honest and enlightened witnesses extending through a series of years, and all to the same point, is worthy of credence, admits of no question. Upon such testimony the reputation of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as an antidote and cure for many ailments is based. During the twenty years that it has been used, the progress that incomparable tonic has made with and steady—always upward and onward like the eagle's flight. Its introduction procured a revolution in therapeutics, and it proved to be one of those salutary revolutions that cannot go backward. To-day Hostetter's Bitters is one of the most popular remedies in christendom, and commands a larger sale than any other medicinal preparation, domestic or imported, on this side of the Atlantic. It is a cure for dyspepsia, bilious disorders, nervous affections, general debility, and as a preventive of epidemic fevers, it takes precedence of every other remedy. This fact should teach the substantial country dealer who endeavor to foist their local abortions on the public in its stead, how little their small attempts to cajole the community must necessarily be. Where the game fish have failed there is no chance for the "suckers."

UNDER A BURNING SUN, where Bilious affections and Fevers of various descriptions so generally prevail. Tarrant's Effervescent Seltzer Aperient, has been successful beyond all parallel. Hence the physicians of the tropics give it their enthusiastic sanction, prescribing it in preference to every other aperient in use. The patient, of course, gladly acquiesces, for this preparation is one of the most delightful, as well as mild and soothing cathartics. Chemistry has synthesized, and possesses every medicinal virtue of the famed German Seltzer Spa. It is a powder that only requires the addition of water to produce in an instant a delicious effervescent beverage, as well as an invaluable medicine. Ask for and accept none but the genuine. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

HEGEMAN'S CARDIAC ELIXIR OF CALIAYA BARK. A pleasant Cordial which strengthens and improves the Digestion, an excellent preventive of Fever, Typhoid, Cholera, and great Remedy for all cases of Indigestion, Biliousness, Headache, and all the ailments of the Stomach. Sold by all Druggists. Jan 1871.
