

SCISSORINGS.

The grates game now-poker. A put-up job-an auction. Indian Reservations-scaips. An inn-ovation-tending bar. Coming to grief-meeting trouble half way.

Preferred creditors-those who don't dun. The vegetable for hangmen-the artichoke. Crinoline has been adopted by the Madagascarian queen.

An irrevocable butcher styles his shop a meeting-house. Noon-day weddings, English fashion, will be in order next season. When may a man be said to be a book? When he is 't' home (tome).

Mrs. Conway is the contractor on a section of the Western Maryland railroad. Truth is as impossible to be soiled by any outward touch as the sun-beam. A Georgia girl gently bit her swain's arm, and was shot in the knee by his revolver.

Four belles of New York are said to be engaged to as many English noblemen. Let every minister remember while he is preaching that God makes one of his hearers. An Evansville school-boy defined a lady to be a "grand-up-girl-doesn't cuss nor swear."

A seven-year old boy at Greenbush, Canada, stabbed his father with a fork while being spanked. A disgusted youth in Nashville advertises his girl as a liar, because she broke the engagement. A woman lecturer opposes the co-education of the sexes, because "it is not safe to hold fire to flax."

"What is home without a mother?" as the idle daughter said when she sent the old lady out to chop wood. Is this a temperance movement? Miss Tenny Grogg has been appointed Postmistress at Bradford, Va. Seven young ladies from Oregon have just entered their names as students at the Boston Conservatory of Music.

"You talk of your troubles," said the oyster to the fisherman, "but your case don't begin to be as hard as mine." "You seem to walk more erect than usual my friend." "Yes, I have been straightened by circumstances."

A young lady writes to a friend: "Miss Smith is stay'g with us. We went out sailing yesterday. I didn't know there was so much in her." Mary had a little corn That grew upon her foot; And everywhere that Mary went The corn was on her foot.

"Are you good at riding on horse-back, Judge?" "No," said His Honor, "I never backed but no horse in my life, and that was into a shop window." Girls are advised not to smile much in the face of the man they desire to secure. A little pretense of quiet sadness will do the business more expeditiously.

"How did you learn that graceful attitude?" asked a gentleman of a fellow leaning in a maudlin way against a post. "I've been practicing at the glass," was the reply. "May it please your Honor," exclaimed a jurymen, "I am definin one ear." "Then you may be excused, as it is necessary for a juror to hear both sides," said the Judge.

A society of women has been organized in Norway who advocate celibacy. They can see no fun in marriage, but propose to have St. Valentine's day once a year. A New Orleans young man recently stole a young lady from a North Carolina school and married her. She had been placed there so that she would be out of his way.

"Every tree is subject to disease," said a speaker in a Fruit-Growers' Convention. "What ailment can you find on an oak?" asked the chairman. "A-corn," was the triumphant reply. Enraged parent-"Did you throw the half-brick at random?" Weeping boy-"No; I threw it at Johnny Williams." "And did you strike him on purpose?" "No; I struck him on the nose."

The free-thinking Lucy: "Do you know, May, sometimes when I hurt myself, the place gets well without nobly never kissin' it?" The Faithful May: "I don't believe you, Yucy." A precocious boy in a public school out West who stands high in geography, was recently asked by his teacher where Africa was located. He promptly answered: "All over the United States."

A gentleman having just lost his wife visited a friend, and being asked how long he would remain in town answered: "Oh, for about a fortnight-long enough to spend the honeymoon of my widowhood." Cotton speculators are not content with predicting a short crop this year, but they are now prophesying a reduction in the area planted next year. What mournful falls these cotton prophets always are.

A lady had her dress trimmed with "bugles" before going to a ball. Her little daughter wanted to know if the bugles would howl when she danced. "Oh, no," said mother, "papa will do that when he sees the bill." In case the Grand Duke cannot visit the oil regions, the Titusville Herald proposes to send on a tank of crude oil and sprinkle the contents around him, so that he can get an idea of how those regions smell.

A Texas paper says: "We have been asked why we stopped publishing the list of marriage licensees issued by the Clerk. Because a great big stand-up-in-the-mud-out-there-in-the-sand hills said we published his daughter as married when she wasn't, and that he would hit us on the head hard enough to knock our ankles out of joint for it. Is the explanation satisfactory."

HAIR RENEWER.

Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation; which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring GRAY OR FADED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair-glands. By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR Dressing ever used, it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid, glossy appearance. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes."
