FROM YAKIMA, W. T.

Our people are preparing for the June election. Our new country out here is very sparsely settled but is rapidly filling up, and the political grounds will be very closely contested by both parties, but with Judge McFadden as our standard bearer, we hope to carry the election throughout the Territory.

In regard to this country you may say to your readers, that notwithstanding the hard winter just past, our people here in general got through safe, with but a small loss of stock. From the best information from all sections of Yakima county, the loss of cattle, all told, will not exceed 150 head, and the loss has been mostly confined to new comers, who got here too late in the fall for their stock to get in condition for the winter, and not prepared with feed. A great deal of stock has wintered through on the range without being fed. A number of the old settlers have plenty of hay left after wintering their stock. The price of hay has ranged from $5 to $10 per ton through the winter.

The snow on the low valley land, along the Yakima river, was from 8 to 10 inches in depth, while back near the foot hills it was from 10 to 15 inches. The snow went off in the fore part of February and we have had very pleasant weather since. The grass is growing and stock is doing well. The farmers are plowing, and sowing their grain with high hopes of reaping a heavier crop of hay and grain than heretofore. The snow went off very gradually and was absorbed into the ground, so that our farmers and stock raisers anticipate a more abundant crop of grass and produce of all kinds than they have had for several years.

Our county seat is situated at the mouth of Attamuck creek, a central point of the county, and bids fair to make a lively business town. We already have two stores, one hotel, one blacksmith shop, and will be supplied with another in a few days by a man from Salem one saloon, and a flouring mill in contemplation, to be built the coming season in time for the fall grain.

Respectfully yours, E. P. BOYLES.

"A PUBLIC INFAMY."—The Yreka Union, under this heading, execrates the Common Council of that city for its failure to enact stringent measures excluding Indian harlots from the town. It says they shamelessly parade their infamy upon the public streets of the city, spreading demoralization among our youth and casting a moral poison over an entire community. Albany is infested in the same way and our decent citizens need protection against this revolting state of affairs. If the Indian agents cannot be compelled to keep these filthy creatures upon their reservations, then our city authorities owe it to our citizens to exclude them from publicly parading their beastly practices upon the very thresholds of the pure and sensitive class of our people.

AN ATTRACTIVE PLACE.—To those who admire the beautiful and artistic in the mechanical line a visit to Mr. Whitlow's furniture store will certainly be a rare pleasure. There may be seen the very finest of parlor and bedroom sets; marble-top tables, stands and bureaus; all walnut and walnut-trimmed furniture; whatnots and dining room-cases, and everything to be found in a first-class furniture establishment. Mr. Whitlow himself is a superior mechanic and can turn out as fine work as any cabinet maker in the State. Our lady readers would be particularly fascinated with the beautiful display of furniture at this establishment. Don't forget to call.

U. P. PRESBYTERY.—The Presbytery of Oregon (U. P.) will meet in Albany, Thursday, April 5, at 7 P. M., and will be opened with a sermon by W. R. Stewart, on the subject of "Presbyterian Church government." On Friday afternoon, at 2 P. M., a conference will be held on the subject of Sabbath Schools, and in the evening Rev. J. M. Dick will preach on the subject of "Prayer," and in the evening Rev. R. J. Thompson will preach on Sabbath Rev. N. N. Fee will preach and introduce communion service.

TRESPASSING.—The Herald will please remember that the heading, "Pacific Coast," is ours by virtue of originality, and although we have not yet copy-righted it, we would esteem it a special favor if it were not used by our distinguished contemporary. It doesn't really matter very much, but somehow or other a fellow hates to have other folks step right over into his domains and take about the only thing away which is likely to ever immortalize him. You know how it is yourself, Bro. Taylor.

THE AMERICAN JOURNALIST AND ADVERTISER'S INDEX is a fresh cart on the journalistic sea and one which is certain to attract attention rather than the symmetry of its literary cargoes than for its size or pretensions. It is engineered by Cole, Withrill & Co., and has for its proprietor, its pilot, Edwin E. Freese, who is a man pen-runner with rare dexterity, and will, if he perseveres, steer the Index safely to the harbor of renown.

RATIFICATION MEETING.—Last Saturday night the Democracy held a rousing ratification meeting at the Court House. The Albany Brass Band discoursed some stirring airs, and after the meeting was called to order by Hon. N. H. Cranor the following gentleman were in turn called for and responded with speeches, all warmly endorsing the ticket and pledging their hearty support to its election: Hon. Geo. R. Helm, Hon. N. H. Cranor, T. B. Stiles, Judge S. A. Johns, C. P. Burkhardt, J. J. Whitney, Hon. I. N. Smith, G. W. Powell, G. A. Hill, Hon. H. I. Brown, and Jas. Shields. Mr. H. I. returned his thanks to the County Convention in feeling and appropriate language for the distinguished honor they had conferred upon him by endorsing him for the Congressional nomination, and made some excellent hits at the present aspect of the Radical party in Oregon. Mr. Cranor signified his acceptance of the nomination for Representative in a few neat and expressive sentences, and made some stirring and eloquent allusions to State and national politics. Many other good points were made by the various speakers of the evening. Good humor, wit and enthusiasm prevailed throughout the meeting, and at a late hour it adjourned with three rousing cheers for the whole ticket. We can truly assert that we never saw the Democracy of Linu in a better condition for a political campaign. The harmony and unanimity of the party is complete. Not a ripple of dissent or strain of discord is heard from any section of the county—even a murmur of dissatisfaction is heard from a single defeated candidate, which is something that all most confides is remarkable in a county where a party is so greatly in the majority as is the Democracy in Linu.

THE HARMONIOUS AND ENTHUSIASTIC ratification meeting last Saturday night is a death blow to the hopes of the Radicals in Linu county, who vainly hoped that something would "turn up" at our Convention from which they might manufacture a discordant element upon which to creep into some of the county offices. But their hopes are now blasted, and they have crept off to their dens with their caudal appendages lowered beyond a hope of future elevation.

THE CLARKE-WATKINS CASE.—This case, in which Sam. Clarke, late editor of the Salem Statesman, sues W. H. Watkins, Penitentiary Superintendent, for $10,000 for damages received by a pistol shot, was transferred from Marion to this county, and Tuesday and Wednesday of this week were consumed in its trial. A crowd of witnesses were present from Salem, among whom were nearly the whole medical faculty of the Willamette University. The court room was occupied during the entire progress of the trial by an attentive and even an eager crowd of people, attracted thither by the importance of the case and the high standing of the parties involved; and on Wednesday night, during the argument of the case by the learned counsel on either side, the court room was literally jammed by people, among whom were several ladies, all anxious to hear the forensic efforts of Messrs. Strong and Mallory for the Plaintiff, and Messrs. Curl and Hayden in behalf of the defendant. Four hours were occupied in the arguments, after which the court adjourned to 9 o'clock Thursday morning, at which time His Honor, Judge Bonham, delivered an excellent and comprehensive charge to the jury and submitted the case to them for deliberation. After two hours they returned a verdict for plaintiff for damages in the sum of one dollar! This throws Clarke in the costs of the suit, which will perhaps foot up $500 or $600.

CLOSING EXERCISES.—The closing exercises at the Albany College, last Thursday evening, were highly interesting and were witnessed by a crowded hall. The papers, essays, declamations, orations, collations, etc., were of a superior nature and were highly appreciated. The singing of the whole school was beautiful. We were especially impressed with the "Sweet Echo" song—and more particularly with the two "sweet echoes" themselves. The College, under its present management, is fast attaining an enviable notoriety, and must in time occupy the very highest rank among the educational institutions of Oregon.—The new term commenced last Wednesday.

ONTO IT.—That Orleans "feller" who resented so terrifically in their late Radical Precinct meeting fairly "bites" over in last week's Register because we undertook to untangle and interpret his incomprehensible hash. For incoherency his last week's effort is worse than the first. If he will just poltice his head in vinegar and drink catnip tea freely it is probable that he will not have such a "turn" for a month or two to come. The Welchman's advice to his rebellious son wouldn't be out of place in the case of our Orleans friend. "William," he said, "I wouldn't be such a doll-sinked fool if I had a bit o' sense!"

BENTON.—The Democracy of Benton last Saturday nominated the following excellent county ticket: For Representatives—John Foster, Jacob Modie; for Clerk, W. J. Robertson; for Sheriff, J. S. Palmer; for Treasurer, M. Jacobs; for Assessor, W. H. Johnson; for School Superintendent, Eli Hinkle; for Surveyor, Alonzo Lock; for Commissioner, John Wells, Ira Zutter. The Convention instructed for Hon. John Burnett for Congress, and elected the following delegates to the State Convention: J. C. Avery, G. B. Smith, John Burnett, R. S. Strahan, John Foster, John T. Hughes.

THE FUNERAL OF MR. HENRY YOUNG, printer, was followed to the grave last Friday by a large procession. Albany Fire Company, wearing badges and emblems of mourning, escorted the procession and the pall-bearers consisted of eight printers and eight firemen. Albany has seldom witnessed a more imposing funeral procession. The bereaved mother of deceased speaks in the highest terms of praise of the Fire Company and printers' fraternity of this city and says she will ever hold their kinds acts in grateful remembrance.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. Mr. Lovell, of the M. E. Church, South, preaches regularly in the Court House in this city on the second and fourth Sabbaths in each month.

PERSONAL.—Following are the attorneys in attendance upon the Circuit Court: Judge Strong, Judge Shattuck, R. Williams, of Portland; R. P. Boise, C. G. Curl, R. Mallory, Salem; Judges Burnett, Strahan, Kelsey, Chenoweth, Corvallis; Dist. Attorney Butler and Ben. Hayden, Polk; I. N. Smith, Peoria; E. N. Tandy, Harrisburg; N. H. Cranor, Geo. R. Helm, S. A. Johns, N. H. Humphrey, J. C. Powell, L. Finn, J. J. Whitney, Jos. Hamon, Albany.

THAT Democratic battering-ram, the Lexington (Mo.) Caucasian, continues its vigorous blows against the falling wall of Radicalism. Noticing the announcement that the American Tract Society issued 157,000,000 of tracts during the past year, it remarks that "it will take a million billions, printed on forked lightning-blot type and lead-battered paper, and bound with deadly scorpions, and adders, to reach the sin-hardened hearts of this vile, Radical generation."

A burglar was caught at Somerville, from the circumstances of meeting a young lady in her night clothes. On seeing him she fainted and fell into his arms, and when the people of the house came in he was trying to bring her to with a bottle of camphor. He said no gentleman would go off and leave a lady in such a condition as that.

"Madam," said a cross-tempered physician to a patient, "If women were admitted to paradise their tongues would make it purgatory." "And some physicians, if allowed to practice there," replied the lady, "would make it a desert." The oppressed one had him there.

DISPOSED OF.—Following cases were disposed of in the Circuit Court up to the hour of going to press last evening: Ben. Holiday vs. J. D. Price. Withdrawn at cost of p. l. f.

Ben. Holiday vs. N. Houston. Withdrawn at cost of p. l. f.

Ben. Holiday vs. M. Houston. Withdrawn at cost of p. l. f.

R. H. Hughes vs. M. D. Smith et al. Sheriff sale confirmed.

W. A. Starkweather vs. O. Taylor. Judgment for plaintiff.
