CAPTUREN.—Hon. Ex-Senator G. H.
Williams, Attorney General of Ben
Holladay and the United States, Candidate for the United State Senate, arrived in town on the Tuesday morning train. Not a single Bad. could be found at the depot to escort him to his found at the depot to escort him to his hotel. He was taken charge of by Billy Cannon, who drove him to the "Bank Exchange," where, after taking a smile, he was turned over to the blocks away, but not even the clerical Bro. could muster courage sufficient to entice Williams from his comfortable position in front of the Exchange, where he sat sandwiched between those two sterling Democrats. The poor Rads. looked dejected. They seemed to have lost all the feeling of pride once so manifest among them when they met the "greatest man in the they met the "greatest man in the United States." What! has "G. H." stock fallen so low that not one satel-

In the meantime it behooves every man to keep his conscience clear and prepare to vote the straight Democratic ticket on the 3rd proximo.

PAY THAT BAND .- Upon the arrival at Jacksonville. of Burnett and Wilson at this place, some time since, a certain Republican from Connecticut. came to the editor of this paper and made arrangements for the employ-ment of the Brass Band to give them music. Twenty dollars was the bill.
The Democratic ter was paid at the time; but a member of the Band informs us that the Rads, have not yet come to time. Come, gentleman, those that dance must pay the-Band.

GOT IT .- The Indians of this vicinity have "got it bad." The small-pox? No; Not the small-pox, but the Base Ball fever. They were out in torce, Sunday, displaying their prowess at "hot liners" and "sky-scrapers." Co-quille Dick, captain of the first nine, rather scooped up his opponents, under the supervision of Santiam Bill. Bill says he will play them fellows again next Sunday, and a fively match may

In Consequence of the firm of Driggs at Carter, from the State, it become necessary to settle up the business of said firm, as far as practicable, to the present date; and if order to do so, we, the partners of sabl firm, have made a settlement of our accounts and division of the claims due to said firm, whereby claims to the amount of $510 65 have been duly transferred to Jerry Driggs, and placed in the hands of Powell & Flint for collection, and claims to the amount of $991 S1 have been duly transferred to Eli Carter, who will attend to the collection of the same in person. Parties having claims against said firm will present them to Eli Carter for settlement.

The business of said firm will be continued for the present with E. R. M. Carter as book keeper and general superintendent, and Mart. Bringham as principal mechanic. We return our thanks for the liberal patronage heretofore roceived, and ask the continuance of the same from a generous public. Our machinery having the same has a weakness of the back and limbs, pair in the head dimness of sight, less of minguing.
