Rest equestrienne, Mrs. H. S. Crowder, 1st pr. Foot race, W. J. Saunders, 1st pr. A TOAD UNDRESSING.—Audubon relates that he once saw a toad undress himself. He commenced by pressing his elbows hard against his side, and rubbing downwards. After a few smart rubs his hide began to burst open along his back. He kept rubbing until he worked all his skin into folds on his sides and hips; and then grasping one hind leg with and then grasping one hind leg with and then grasping one hind leg with his hands, he hauled off one leg of then stripped off the other hind leg in the same way. He then took bi in the same way. He then took his cast off skin forward between his fore legs into his mouth and swallowed it; then, by raising and lowering his head, swallowing as his head come down, he stripped off his skin underneath, until it came to his fore-legs then, grasping one of those with the opposite hand, by a single motion of the head, a d while swallowing, he drew it from the neck and swallowed the whole.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

OREGON

The undersigned will commence soliciting for a BUSINESS DIRECTORY of the STATE OF OREGON in a few days; and to make it successful, respectfully request the co-operation of all persons interested in the welfare of the country. The State has now reached that position when a yearly summary of her progress is necessary, hence the value of a work which combine, in a condensed form, all matters of public interest.

The work in contemplation will embrace a general sketch of the State; its physical aspects, geology, climatology, botany, zoology, commerce, manufactures, societies, public buildings, productions, and all other subjects on which information is required. The work will be illustrated with sketches of some of the leading prominent scenery of the State, and its compilation will be under the charge of J. MORTIMER MURPHY, Esq., whose recent work on Washington T. The Business Directory of each town and city will be complete; and that with sketches of each place, should make it invaluable to the merchant, farmer and mechanic.

As an advertising medium it will be the best yet introduced in the State, as it will be of such importance that it will always be retained in a prominent position for reference. THE RATE OF ADVERTISING WILL BE AS FOI
