

THE MODOC HORROR.

Elsewhere we give full accounts of the most atrocious murder which has ever stained American soil...

General Canby was fifty-six years old, and leaves a stricken and sorrowing wife in Portland...

Rev. Eleazar Thomas, D. D., who was slain with Gen. Canby, was a prominent and able Methodist divine...

SOMETHING WRONG HERE.

Two different characters of men with distinctly opposite ideas, must edit the Portland Bulletin...

"General Canby and his associates met the Modoc assassins in obedience to instructions from Washington...

We fully concur in this sentiment, and hope the Bulletin will keep up its war upon the Radical murderers...

THE FARMERS' STATE CONVENTION.

This body, which assembled at Salem last Thursday, was remarkably well attended for a first meeting...

SEVERE BUT JUST.—The Bulletin makes the following severe prod at "Old Flaxbrake" and one or two others who urged on the Peace Commission...

THE Prince of Wales was last Monday installed as Grand Commander of English Knights Templars.

ONWARD, THE WATCHWORD!

The Farmers' Convention was a long stride in the right direction. Now let the farmers go on. Progress is the watchword to all great success.

Organize your secret societies of "Granges" and take advantage of all the available means for your protection...

Put your hand to the plow and turn back now and you are more hopelessly slaves than ever. Unite, organize, harmonize, and press your rights upon those who should be made to respect them...

THE Bulletin, in commenting upon the murder of the Peace Commission, says "Secretary Delano is by no means blameless."

General Canby was fifty-six years old, and leaves a stricken and sorrowing wife in Portland. He was a veteran of the Mexican War...

Rev. Eleazar Thomas, D. D., who was slain with Gen. Canby, was a prominent and able Methodist divine and a citizen of California.

It is a pleasure to announce that the Oregon Herald has again wheeled into the Democratic column...

THE Roseburg Pantagraph, a sterling Republican paper, gets the following dig into B. Holladay's short ribs.

"Ben. H., the man who 'rules to ruin,' says he wants Oregon to be in debt to the amount of one and a half million dollars...

We fully concur in this sentiment, and hope the Bulletin will keep up its war upon the Radical murderers at Washington until they are made to suffer the penalty of their atrocious and cowardly murder of Gen. Canby and Rev. Dr. Thomas.

PROMPT ACTION.—Last Monday His Excellency, Gov. Grover, telegraphed to Gen. Ross, at Jacksonville...

THE Bulletin makes the following severe prod at "Old Flaxbrake" and one or two others who urged on the Peace Commission...

OUR readers doubtless remember how, when Congressman Cox was using the Dictionary upon Congressman Butler, "But" took the wind out of Cox by derisively hissing out the words "Shoo Fly!"

THE Prince of Wales was last Monday installed as Grand Commander of English Knights Templars.

MODOC TREACHERY!

FACE COMMISSIONERS ENTRAPPED. GEN. CANBY KILLED! COMMISSIONER MEACHAM WOUNDED! Commissioner Thomas Killed!

Full Details of the Massacre! Gen. Gillem Resumes Active Operations! IN THE LAVA BEDS, CAL., April 11, 1878. Yesterday afternoon five Indians and four Modoc warriors...

MEACHAM'S ACCOUNT OF THE MASSACRE. Meacham made a short speech to the Indians, and then Captain Jack then made a speech, asking for Hot Hook and Cottonwood...

THE PORTLAND HERALD. It is a pleasure to announce that the Oregon Herald has again wheeled into the Democratic column...

THE Roseburg Pantagraph, a sterling Republican paper, gets the following dig into B. Holladay's short ribs.

"Ben. H., the man who 'rules to ruin,' says he wants Oregon to be in debt to the amount of one and a half million dollars...

We fully concur in this sentiment, and hope the Bulletin will keep up its war upon the Radical murderers at Washington until they are made to suffer the penalty of their atrocious and cowardly murder of Gen. Canby and Rev. Dr. Thomas.

THE FARMERS' STATE CONVENTION.

This body, which assembled at Salem last Thursday, was remarkably well attended for a first meeting...

SEVERE BUT JUST.—The Bulletin makes the following severe prod at "Old Flaxbrake" and one or two others who urged on the Peace Commission...

PROMPT ACTION.—Last Monday His Excellency, Gov. Grover, telegraphed to Gen. Ross, at Jacksonville...

THE Bulletin makes the following severe prod at "Old Flaxbrake" and one or two others who urged on the Peace Commission...

OUR readers doubtless remember how, when Congressman Cox was using the Dictionary upon Congressman Butler, "But" took the wind out of Cox by derisively hissing out the words "Shoo Fly!"

THE Prince of Wales was last Monday installed as Grand Commander of English Knights Templars.

GREAT BATTLE WITH MODOC!

TWO DAYS' FIGHTING! LAVA BED SURROUNDED BY TROOPS!

CLOSING UP ON CAPT. JACK! We are indebted to His Excellency, Gov. Grover, for the following important dispatch: PORTLAND, April 16, 7:30 P. M. M. V. BROWN.—Linn to troops, who hold their ground with their lives...

MEACHAM'S ACCOUNT OF THE MASSACRE. Meacham made a short speech to the Indians, and then Captain Jack then made a speech, asking for Hot Hook and Cottonwood...

THE PORTLAND HERALD. It is a pleasure to announce that the Oregon Herald has again wheeled into the Democratic column...

THE Roseburg Pantagraph, a sterling Republican paper, gets the following dig into B. Holladay's short ribs.

"Ben. H., the man who 'rules to ruin,' says he wants Oregon to be in debt to the amount of one and a half million dollars...

We fully concur in this sentiment, and hope the Bulletin will keep up its war upon the Radical murderers at Washington until they are made to suffer the penalty of their atrocious and cowardly murder of Gen. Canby and Rev. Dr. Thomas.

THE FARMERS' STATE CONVENTION.

This body, which assembled at Salem last Thursday, was remarkably well attended for a first meeting...

SEVERE BUT JUST.—The Bulletin makes the following severe prod at "Old Flaxbrake" and one or two others who urged on the Peace Commission...

PROMPT ACTION.—Last Monday His Excellency, Gov. Grover, telegraphed to Gen. Ross, at Jacksonville...

THE Bulletin makes the following severe prod at "Old Flaxbrake" and one or two others who urged on the Peace Commission...

OUR readers doubtless remember how, when Congressman Cox was using the Dictionary upon Congressman Butler, "But" took the wind out of Cox by derisively hissing out the words "Shoo Fly!"

THE Prince of Wales was last Monday installed as Grand Commander of English Knights Templars.

PACIFIC COASTERS.

Horse disease still in Arizona. The epizootic has got to San Diego. Los Angeles is crazy about borax. Epizootic spreading in the Territories.

MEACHAM'S ACCOUNT OF THE MASSACRE. Meacham made a short speech to the Indians, and then Captain Jack then made a speech, asking for Hot Hook and Cottonwood...

THE PORTLAND HERALD. It is a pleasure to announce that the Oregon Herald has again wheeled into the Democratic column...

THE Roseburg Pantagraph, a sterling Republican paper, gets the following dig into B. Holladay's short ribs.

"Ben. H., the man who 'rules to ruin,' says he wants Oregon to be in debt to the amount of one and a half million dollars...

We fully concur in this sentiment, and hope the Bulletin will keep up its war upon the Radical murderers at Washington until they are made to suffer the penalty of their atrocious and cowardly murder of Gen. Canby and Rev. Dr. Thomas.

THE FARMERS' STATE CONVENTION.

This body, which assembled at Salem last Thursday, was remarkably well attended for a first meeting...

SEVERE BUT JUST.—The Bulletin makes the following severe prod at "Old Flaxbrake" and one or two others who urged on the Peace Commission...

PROMPT ACTION.—Last Monday His Excellency, Gov. Grover, telegraphed to Gen. Ross, at Jacksonville...

THE Bulletin makes the following severe prod at "Old Flaxbrake" and one or two others who urged on the Peace Commission...

OUR readers doubtless remember how, when Congressman Cox was using the Dictionary upon Congressman Butler, "But" took the wind out of Cox by derisively hissing out the words "Shoo Fly!"

THE Prince of Wales was last Monday installed as Grand Commander of English Knights Templars.

ROBBERS PARDONED BY THE PRESIDENT.

It is possible that the wholesale pardoning of thieves, robbers and defaulters by the President may have a salutary influence on the morals of the people...

MEACHAM'S ACCOUNT OF THE MASSACRE. Meacham made a short speech to the Indians, and then Captain Jack then made a speech, asking for Hot Hook and Cottonwood...

THE PORTLAND HERALD. It is a pleasure to announce that the Oregon Herald has again wheeled into the Democratic column...

THE Roseburg Pantagraph, a sterling Republican paper, gets the following dig into B. Holladay's short ribs.

"Ben. H., the man who 'rules to ruin,' says he wants Oregon to be in debt to the amount of one and a half million dollars...

We fully concur in this sentiment, and hope the Bulletin will keep up its war upon the Radical murderers at Washington until they are made to suffer the penalty of their atrocious and cowardly murder of Gen. Canby and Rev. Dr. Thomas.

THE FARMERS' STATE CONVENTION.

This body, which assembled at Salem last Thursday, was remarkably well attended for a first meeting...

SEVERE BUT JUST.—The Bulletin makes the following severe prod at "Old Flaxbrake" and one or two others who urged on the Peace Commission...

PROMPT ACTION.—Last Monday His Excellency, Gov. Grover, telegraphed to Gen. Ross, at Jacksonville...

THE Bulletin makes the following severe prod at "Old Flaxbrake" and one or two others who urged on the Peace Commission...

OUR readers doubtless remember how, when Congressman Cox was using the Dictionary upon Congressman Butler, "But" took the wind out of Cox by derisively hissing out the words "Shoo Fly!"

THE Prince of Wales was last Monday installed as Grand Commander of English Knights Templars.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT.

Notice of Jonathan Brattain, deceased. PAUL BRATTAIN, EXECUTOR OF THE ESTATE OF JONATHAN BRATTAIN, deceased, having filed his final account...

MEACHAM'S ACCOUNT OF THE MASSACRE. Meacham made a short speech to the Indians, and then Captain Jack then made a speech, asking for Hot Hook and Cottonwood...

THE PORTLAND HERALD. It is a pleasure to announce that the Oregon Herald has again wheeled into the Democratic column...

THE Roseburg Pantagraph, a sterling Republican paper, gets the following dig into B. Holladay's short ribs.

"Ben. H., the man who 'rules to ruin,' says he wants Oregon to be in debt to the amount of one and a half million dollars...

We fully concur in this sentiment, and hope the Bulletin will keep up its war upon the Radical murderers at Washington until they are made to suffer the penalty of their atrocious and cowardly murder of Gen. Canby and Rev. Dr. Thomas.

THE FARMERS' STATE CONVENTION.

This body, which assembled at Salem last Thursday, was remarkably well attended for a first meeting...

SEVERE BUT JUST.—The Bulletin makes the following severe prod at "Old Flaxbrake" and one or two others who urged on the Peace Commission...

PROMPT ACTION.—Last Monday His Excellency, Gov. Grover, telegraphed to Gen. Ross, at Jacksonville...

THE Bulletin makes the following severe prod at "Old Flaxbrake" and one or two others who urged on the Peace Commission...

OUR readers doubtless remember how, when Congressman Cox was using the Dictionary upon Congressman Butler, "But" took the wind out of Cox by derisively hissing out the words "Shoo Fly!"

THE Prince of Wales was last Monday installed as Grand Commander of English Knights Templars.

FAIR FOR SALE.

A fair, situated three miles from Portland, Oregon, on the 23d day of June, 1878, at 10 o'clock P. M. is set for hearing objections...

MEACHAM'S ACCOUNT OF THE MASSACRE. Meacham made a short speech to the Indians, and then Captain Jack then made a speech, asking for Hot Hook and Cottonwood...

THE PORTLAND HERALD. It is a pleasure to announce that the Oregon Herald has again wheeled into the Democratic column...

THE Roseburg Pantagraph, a sterling Republican paper, gets the following dig into B. Holladay's short ribs.

"Ben. H., the man who 'rules to ruin,' says he wants Oregon to be in debt to the amount of one and a half million dollars...

We fully concur in this sentiment, and hope the Bulletin will keep up its war upon the Radical murderers at Washington until they are made to suffer the penalty of their atrocious and cowardly murder of Gen. Canby and Rev. Dr. Thomas.

THE FARMERS' STATE CONVENTION.

This body, which assembled at Salem last Thursday, was remarkably well attended for a first meeting...

SEVERE BUT JUST.—The Bulletin makes the following severe prod at "Old Flaxbrake" and one or two others who urged on the Peace Commission...

PROMPT ACTION.—Last Monday His Excellency, Gov. Grover, telegraphed to Gen. Ross, at Jacksonville...

THE Bulletin makes the following severe prod at "Old Flaxbrake" and one or two others who urged on the Peace Commission...

OUR readers doubtless remember how, when Congressman Cox was using the Dictionary upon Congressman Butler, "But" took the wind out of Cox by derisively hissing out the words "Shoo Fly!"

THE Prince of Wales was last Monday installed as Grand Commander of English Knights Templars.