TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. W. K. DOHERTY RETURNS HIS SINcere thanks to his numerous patients for their patronage, and would take this opportunity to remind them that he continues to conault at his institute for the cure of chronic discases of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Digestive and Genito-Urimary Organs, and all private diseases, viz: Syphills in all Rs forms and stages, Seminal Weakness, and all the horrid consequences of self-abuse, Genorrhom, Gleet, Strictures, Nocturnal and Diurnal emissions, Sexual bebility, Diseases of the Back and Loins, Inflammation of the Biadder and Kidneys, etc., etc., and he hopes that his long experience and successful practice will continue to insure him a share of public patronage. By the practice of many years in Europe and the United States, he is enabled to apply the most efficient and successful remedies against discases of all kinds. He cures without mercity, charges moderate, treats his patients in a correct and honorable way, and has references of unquestionable veracity from men of known respectability and high standing in society.—
All parties consulting him by letter or otherwise, will receive the best and gentlest treatment, and implicit secrecy.

To Females.

When a female is enervated, or afflicted with disease, as weakness of the back and limbs, pain in the head, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpilation of the heart, irritability, nervousness, extreme urinary difficulties, derangement of digestive functions, general debility, vaginitia, all diseases of the womb, hysteria, sterility, and all other diseases peculiar to females; she should go or write at once to the celebrated female doctor, W. In 1894, Dr. Thomas passed his examination at the Royal College of Physicians, London, his examiners consisting of the following eminent Physicians: Sir Thomas Watson, M. D., of Edinburg, W. E. Page, M. D., James R. Bennett, M. D., Arthur Farre, M. D., Henry Oldham, M. D., John Erichsen, F. R. C. S. E., Thos. G. Clarke, P. R. C. S. E.

In 1864, Dr. Thomas met the examiners of the College of Surgeons, and passed the Midwifery examination, his examiners consisting of Robert Lee, M. D., Henry Oldham, M. D., Arthur Farre, Physician, Accoucher to the Princess of Wales.

Farre, Physician, Accoucher to the Princess of Waies.

In 1871, Dr. Thomas made a lengthened professional visit to Germany, with the object of making himself acquainted with the views of several eminent German Pathologists. During this visit he passed his examination at Liebig's celebrated University of Glessen, and received the Degree of M. D., or Doctor of Medicine, with the highest honors, conferred by the Chancelfor, Dr. Frederick William Herman, Wasserschieben; Rector, Dr. John Michael Francis Birabaum; Dena, Dr. Gustavus Adolphus Wernher.

In conclusion, Dr. Thomas desires to state that his treatment is in the highest degree successful, giving increased power to the brain, heart and nervous organization; also enriching the muscular fissues, and patients placing themselves under his professional care will receive a speedy and permanent cure, looked for in vain from quack remedies, or those unacquainted with the Pathology of special diseases.
