A MYSTERIOUS DEATH.

The Body of a Man Found Floating in the River.

Quite an excitement was caused in our city last Monday by the discovery of the body of a man in the river below Parker & Morris's warehouse. On Sunday evening a couple of gentleman noticed the body floating in the edge of the river, but when the proper authorities were informed of the fact it was too late to hold an inquest. The next morning the body which was in an advanced stage of decomposition was taken from the river and placed upon the bank, and, though crowds of people looked at the remains of the unfortunate man, none succeeded in recognizing them. The man was supposed to have been about forty-five years of age, was five feet and eight or nine inches high, sandy complexion with heavy moustache and beard, slightly intermixed with gray, and had on when found a new suit of dark clothes, white shirt, white woolen underclothing, and a pair of boots. In the pockets of the clothing were found ten dimes, two white hankerchiefs, and the fine part of a common comb—no papers or anything else by which the corpse could be identified. In the absence of a Coroner, a jury was empanneled by the Justice of the Peace for this precinct, Jos. Hannon Esq., which, after investigation, brought in a verdict to the effect that the deceased came to his death by drowning. It is certainly not a murder, as there are no traces of violence upon the body, and there is no way of telling whether it is a case of accidental drowning or suicide. From the fact that nobody has been missed from this community it is apparent that the body must have floated down the river, and when the discription of the deceased is circulated through the upper part of the valley the body may be identified.

DEATH OF AN IMMIGRANT.—Mr. Calloway Warwick, one of a colony of Tennesseans who arrived in this county about two months ago, died last Tuesday, from liver complaint, aged about 55 years. Deceased leaves a wife and nine children, as well as a numerous relationship both here and in the far-off home of his nativity, to mourn his death. He was a Master Mason in good standing and his remains were interred by St. John's Lodge No. 62, of this city—Bro. George Humphrey, Worshipful Master, being assisted by Rev. Bro. E. R. Geary as Chaplain. Among the touching scenes at the interment was the presence of the aged mother of the deceased, who, although bearing upon her grief-stricken face the furrows of over four-score years of Time's heavy plowshare, had, in the last years of her advanced life, followed this, her only child, to his far-western home, only to see him laid to rest in a strange land and in the Immigrant's lonely sepulchre. It was indeed a sad and touching spectacle of that tender Masonic burial, and will long remain fresh and vivid in the minds of the Brethern of the Mystic Tie, who so lovingly deposited their stranger Brother in his Occidental tomb.

DR. HASKELL lectured on temperance at the Court House last Sunday evening to a large audience. The lecture was so well received that he decided to give another on Monday evening at the Opera house. The second one was given for the benefit of the Albany Brass Band, and was a complete success. The Doctor received $18 as his share of the proceeds, and when the band had settled the expenses there was $1 87½ remaining in the fund. But the boys can afford to stand it, for the lecture was splendid, and the exhibition of the Doctor's mesmeric powers kept the audience in a continual roar of laughter.

FIRE AT HARRISBURG.—On Saturday night, the 8th inst., a fire broke out in the wagon-shop of B. Windom, at Harrisburg, which destroyed the shop and all the material on hand. The flames spread to some adjacent buildings, consuming the blacksmith shop belonging to Joseph Morris, and a paint-shop of Andrew Condra's. The fire is thought to be the work of an incendiary. Losses: B. Windom, $1,000; Joseph Morris, $700; A. Condra, $1,200. The citizens of Harrisburg have contributed about $400 to enable the sufferers to continue in business.

PERSONAL.—We this week received a visit from Geo. W. Yocum, Esq., who has recently arrived from Albia, Iowa, and entered upon the practice of the law in Portland. From our early youth we have known Mr. Yocum, and can cheerfully commend him to the people of Portland as a talented gentleman, an able lawyer and a brilliant orator. His associate, Mr. Robb, is also an old and valued friend of ours and we know him to be fully able to "hoe his row," with the best in his profession.

GONE TO 'FRISCO.—Our merchants are taking advantage of the present dull times and are all going to 'Frisco for goods, which they will have ready for sale by the time harvest is over and farmers can come to town to buy. The following merchants have already started: N. Baum, S. E. Young, L. Senders, G. Fox and L. Kline.

SKEDADDLED.—If our fair young friend, Miss Rovia Alexander, is not the most successful manager of equine quadrupeds, she thinks she can at least drive fast enough for all practical purposes. The other evening, while she was driving from town to her father's farm, the team became excited, or anxious for their regular oats, and started home on "Goldsmith Maid," time, only permitting the carriage wheels to touch the extremely elevated spots in the road. The fair young driver tried to ride for a while, but finding the enterprise more enlivening than safe, jumped out, still holding the lines and attempted to check the fleet steeds in their wild career. But they wouldn't stop; they were headed for those oats in their own stalls, and continued to go for them with undiminished vehemence. The young lady let 'em go, and mounting another horse which she procured from a neighboring farm house, came up with them about two miles further on the road, where a man had headed them off. The carriage and harness can be mended so they will do to slosh around Doc's farm with, but they wouldn't do for a Prince's retinue.

BALLOU'S MAGAZINE FOR SEPTEMBER.—The September number of this popular magazine is issued, and is fully as attractive as ever. It contains more variety, is filled with more live stories than any other magazine in this country, and this is what makes it such a favorite with the people. All find something in it that interests and amuses. The illustrations are seasonable and the descriptions well written and instructive. Just glance over the following lists of contents and see what a rich treat is before the reader: "The English Field Daisy;" "The Sparrow's Nest;" "She went to gather Flowers;" "Haunted: or, Florence Ivington's Oath;" "The Gift of Christ;" "The Moccasin's Prize;" "Life's Contrasts;" "In Shadow;" "Back to Back;" "The Violet;" "English Peg-Legged Bob; "Morning and Evening;" "Will she Marry Him?" "My Love;" A Golden Fetter;" "Mandy's Boarder;" "Ennui;" "Hated to Death;" "Nancy of the Hill Farm;" "A Great Conqueror." Our Young People's Story-Teller—"Lelia Grey: or, Twice an Orphan;" "The Little Rosette Maker;" "Ruthven's Puzzle Page;" "Curious Matters;" "The Housekeeper;" "Facts and Fancies;" "Our Art Gallery"—(Humorous Pictures.) Published by Thomes & Talbot, 36 Broomfield St., Boston, and for sale at all the periodical depots in the country.

$500 REWARD.—The sheriff of Jackson county offers a reward of $500 for the apprehension of John W. Brown and W. A. Brown, who murdered a man in Sprague river valley a short time ago. The Brown brothers are now in Benton county and as Sheriff Palmer of that county will be apt to make it pretty hot for them they may cross the river into Linn. The following description of the two murderers is taken from the Jacksonville Times:

John W. Brown is described as being about twenty-eight years of age, with dark hair moustache and chin-whiskers, heavy dark eye-brows; black eyes; square shoulders, stout build, and about five feet, eight inches in height.

W. A. Brown is aged twenty-two; complexion dark; eyes hazel; moustache and chin-whiskers of light brown; long armed, square shouldered, but slender build; height about six feet.

MATCH HER, IF YOU CAN.—We have a young lady compositor in this office, who, on the third day after she entered the establishment as an apprentice, set up twelve sticks (one column) of type, with scarcely a typographical error in the whole column. The second day of her advent into the office she distributed a column of type, doing the work almost as "clernly" as an experienced jour. During a continual typographical experience of eighteen years we have never known any other apprentice to equal this progress of "our girl;" and we challenge the craft anywhere to "match her if they can." (Now look here, boys! we didn't mean the sort of "match" you're thinking of, so just dry up your snickering.

SEVERELY HURT.—Last week Rev. Jno. Dick, of this county, met with a painful accident, while in company with a surveying party on Beaver Creek, Benton county. While one of the axe-men was engaged in cutting away some timber the axe came suddenly around just as Mr. Dick stepped in the way, cutting his right ankle to the bone and occasioning such a copious flow of blood as to cause the sufferer to be carried to a neighboring house for assistance. At last accounts it was thought the Rev. gentleman would rapidly recover.

PRESTO, CHANGE.—The Dallas Republican has kerflumixed, flattened out, flabbergasted, collapsed—quit; and the Dallas Itemizer has arose out of the ruins, with Messrs. Casey & Hammond as editors and proprietors. Mr. Hammond ("Balsam," as the boys in this office used to call him,) and his partner, whom we don't personally know, are making a most excellent little local dodger out of the Itemizer, and we wish them all good fortune in their enterprise.

HORSE TRAINING.—R. H. Tapp has been giving a course of instruction to the farmers and horsemen of this section in the art of horse training, at Marshall & Schlosser's stables during the past week. He uses a method of his own, and we have never seen a person give such complete satisfaction. He will go to Corvallis next Monday and give the Benton county folks a chance to acquire "horse sense."

AT MARION STATION.—C. H. Friendly, having leased the large warehouse at Marion, is prepared to store 60,000 bushels of wheat and 20,000 bushels of oats at 5 cents per bu. for the former and 3 cents for the latter. Mr. F. also has an excellent retail store at Marion, well supplied with every variety of goods required in that market. He is a gentleman every way worthy of public patronage.

HOME AND ABROAD.

Harvest commenced again.

Measles raging around Tangent.

Council meets now Tuesday night.

Albany Collegiate Institute, August 31st.

T. B. Kent, Esq., Deputy Sheriff of Jackson county, called last Wednesday.

Albany District School commences the autumn term on Monday, August 31st.

Deputy Sheriff Queener is at present engaged in collecting taxes in this city.

A little son of John Thomas's was buried in Albany Cemetery last Saturday.

Eddie Boyd, of Baker, carries his arm in a sling because he tried to argue the case with a kicking horse.

While the farmers are settling their debts, after harvest, let them not forget the printer. (This is an inuendo.)

On motion of Geo. R. Helm Chas. E. Wolverton, Esq., of this city, was last Tuesday admitted to practice in the Supreme Court.

Dr. Haskell and Annie Shepherd created a sensation here. If the Doctor wasn't quite so bashful he would be a trump card anywhere.

Ol. Tompkins writes us that he and J. M. Shelly, of Harrisburg, have been having a gleeful and joyous season of recreation at Clatsop Beach.

Squire Arnold has had his job wagon newly painted and upholstered, and now rides like Jupiter on his thunder clouds, regardless of expense.

"D—n the ground-squirrels"—is what a Benton county man writes us in answer to our dun for subscription. The remark is pathetic but suggestive.

We found something new in the papers the other day—the "Beecher Tilton Scandal" was what they called it, but we don't know whether he died or not.

Our worthy postmaster has a very suggestive sign posted up near the letter-box in the post-office. We don't doubt it, Perry; but we didn't think you would speak right out in meetin' that way.

Who says we havn't a weather prophet in this city? Here is what Calapooia Pete prophesies about the weather: "Mebbe snow next week; mebbe heap damn hot."

Dr. Alexander was able to be on our streets again last week, but looks much worn by his recent severe illness. We earnestly hope he may now speedily regain his former robust health.

A love letter was picked up on the street the other day in which the writer calis his Dulceana a "swamp angel," and signs himself her "ever faithful, Sweet William." Green is not a costive luxury in his neighborhood.

An Albany man who always has been down on the organization of Patrons of Husbandry says he is not surprised that this Beecher-Tilton scandal has grown out of that iniquitous grange movement! He always said something scandalous would come of it.

Clarence Gaylord, of this office (one of the best boys who ever slung into shape the speaking metals or growled over illegible manuscript) is off for a few weeks' recreation in Southern Oregon. He won't stay away very long, as his jimpson posey couldn't go also.

Elder Mattoon has shown us a letter from Nebraska, in which it is stated that the bugistical grasshopper is devouring all herbage and every green thing in that country. In two days after their appearance in the neighborhood of Fairmount, there was not a vegetable or cereal left growing in the fields for miles around. They made a clean sweep of everything, and left for other parts on their devastating and desolating march.

AT CORVALLIS.—Walt. Cushman has sold his liquid resort to Geo. M. Dovendorf, who has overhauled and refitted it throughout.

Corvallis College commences the next Collegiate year on Tuesday, Sept. 1st.

All the necessary fund has been raised in Benton county to insure the construction of the Corvallis and Yaquina Railroad.

PLUMS.—C. H. Mattoon left a branch of plums of the Jefferson variety in our office the other day which beats anything we have ever seen in that line. The branch was about two feet long and on it clustered over one hundred plums.

NEW GOODS.—N. Baum has gone to San Francisco to lay in a large stock of clothing, ladies' dress goods, boots and shoes, and all kinds of dry goods, which he will have in Albany for sale in a short time. Give him a call when he gets back.

DEAD.—We regret to be called upon to chronicle the death of Hon. John H. Hackleman's twin babes, in the early part of the week. They were buried yesterday. The bereaved parents have our most cordial sympathy.

P. C. HARPER & Co., have just received a new supply of fancy goods and notions, glassware, groceries, etc., which they are still offering to sell at bedrock prices.

IN MEMORIAM.

ALBANY, OREGON, Aug. 20, 1874.

To the Worshipful Master, Wardens, and Brethren of St. Johns Lodge, No. 62, A. F. & A. M.:

Your Committee, appointed to prepare and present to this Lodge appropriate resolutions in reference to the demise of our brother, CALLOWAY WARWICK, late of Anderson county, Tennessee, beg leave to submit the following:

WHEREAS, It hath pleased the All-wise Supreme Architect of the Universe to remove from our midst, by death, on the 18th day of August, A. L. 5874, our worthy brother, CALLOWAY WARWICK, aged 55 years, late of Anderson county, Tennessee, and of Lodge No. 3[illegible] of that jurisdiction: Therefore,

Resolved, That in this sad affliction we recognize the hand of Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That to the widow and family thus bereaved, we tender as a Lodge and a brotherhood our heartfelt sympathy and condolence in this sad dispensation of Divine Providence, which has removed from the domestic circle the husband and father, to whom it looked for counsel and guidance in this, to them, strange land; and around whom clustered all those hallowed ties of conjugal and filial love. And to the aged and honored mother of the deceased, whose paternal love followed even to the grave, we humbly invoke divine consolation.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Lodge, and that a copy thereof be presented to the family of our deceased brother, and that the city papers be requested to publish the same.

BRIDGE ACROSS THE SANTIAM.

The increasing demand for a bridge over the North Fork of the Santiam river, in order that the farmers of this locality may be placed in closer proximity to the main lines of transportation running through this State, is becoming more and more apparent. It is a fact, which only needs to be mentioned, that the wealth of a country depends almost entirely upon the demand of that which it produces. This is the case not only with nations and States, but is equally as true of smaller and more isolated districts.

The old doctrine of Political economy that demand and supply must of necessity be in equilibrium, is being so clearly and forcibly shown in these days of railroads and canals, that men, and especially farmers, are giving the subject more attention at this present time, than at any period in the past.

The by no means inconsiderable district of country known as the Forks of the Santiam, is a great agricultural region, and is as well adapted to the producing of vast quantities of grain, as to the growing of fine herds of stock. Now, since our granaries will be full, this Fall, of wheat and oats, which we shall offer for sale, the question will be, Is there any demand? Of course, there is demand now, and men are riding through the country trying to engage our grain. And if we refuse to engage to them, they ask us to store with them on certain conditions, until we shall have succeeded in producing such an equilibrium between the laws of demand and supply as will justify us in selling our grain.

But where are the farmers of the Forks requested to store their grain, if they store; or to deliver it when they sell? Where are the compelled to haul it when they dispose of it either by sale or otherwise! To the railroad, of course.

So far all is legitimate and right, and the shortest and best road to the track on the other side is the one to take with your loaded wagons and teams. But if you sell now you may not get the highest price that your grain may, after waiting a while, bring. Then, what will you do? There are but two alternatives; and these are either to store at some available point, and then to wait until the price is reasonable, or to let your grain remain in your barns till you see fit to dispose of it. Now, which of these alternatives will you take? I say store. And further; store at Jefferson. Why store at Jefferson? Why store? Because your grain must go to the track any way, and you had better haul it before the winter rains set in and render the roads and river almost, if not quite, impassable. But the question further arises, Why store your grain at Jefferson? Simply for two reasons: The first and most important is, you will then have two lines of transportation instead of one, which is better for reasons clear and impressive; the second is, because Jefferson is the most available point in two aspects: It is the nearest point—for the greater number as good a road—and those with whom you store will pay your ferriage.

Now, having shown that the farmers of the Forks should store their grain at Jefferson, if store at all, and haul it there when they sell it, we proceed to the main question of a bridge across the North Santiam at or near Green's ferry. It is a question that we shall take as admitted, that, where there is a river that is impassable for a great portion of the time, a bridge, if it can be had at an available point, is far, yes infinitely better and more safe than a ferry.

The difficulty of building a bridge across the Santiam is all overcome when a place is found where there are no intervening sloughs, and the land is sufficiently elevated to rise above the level of ordinary high water mark. All these advantages are met with at the point we have mentioned. In case of intervening sloughs, the trouble is this: the Santiam being a rapid stream, is like to, from the effect of the vast amount of drift-wood that runs in it, change its channel, and where there are no sloughs, the channel is very apt to remain fixed.

A bridge at the point before mentioned can be erected, we think, for ten thousand dollars, and my opinion is that the money can be raised. At least let some one make an effort in that direction. Such an enterprise as this, if successful, will be the making of the town of Jefferson; and we predict that its beneficial effects on the Province of Canada, will be felt till the latest time.

W. R. BILYEU.

BIG SPEC.—Doc Gray and John Millard are going into a big speculation. While wandering around the Yaquina country last week they discovered the woods were full of wild cherries; and they have written to Doctor Wistar, of Cherry Balsam fame, for the contract of furnishing him the raw material at greatly reduced rates.

TALL OATS.—John R. Smith, of Lebanon has left in our office some stalks of oats which measures nearly 7 feet; also another specimen measuring 4½ feet. They are of the same varieties, but he accounts for the difference in the growth by the fact that the tall oats was sown in very deeply plowed ground, while the other was only cultivated in the ordinary way.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

BY VIRTUE OF A DECREE OF FOREclosure and order of sale, issued out of the Circuit Court, of the State of Oregon, for the County of Linn, in favor of the Board of Commissioners for the sale of school lands and the management of the Common School fund, plaintiff, and against Richard Fox, defendant, for the sum of eight hundred dollars principal, and two hundred and fifty-seven dollars and seventy-six cents, in U. S. gold coin, interest, with interest on said sums in U. S. gold coin, from the 23d day of March, 1874, together with the costs and disbursements of the said suit taxed at thirty-seven dollars and sixty-five cents, also the costs of and upon this writ to accrue, I did on the 30th day of July, 1874, levy the same upon the real property described in said decree, which is as follows: A portion of the original Donation Claim of Harvey Gordon, deceased, being claim No. 54 Notification No. 1781; Tp. 11, S. R. 4 W., Linn County, Oregon, and particularly described as follows: Begining at a point 30 rods west of the S. Seminal Weakness.

Seminal emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combated by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions on the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained the sufferer should apply immediately either by person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

Cured at Home.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use. By enclosing $10 in a registered letter or through the Post Office, or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded by Express to any part of the Union.

PARKER & MORRIS'

—NEW—

ELEVATOR,

Is now ready for the reception of wheat and oats. We call the attention of farmers to the fact that we have erected the finest warehouse in the State, at a large expense, and are in position to handle satisfactorally, an immense quantity of grain. Our house has capacity for

200,000 Bushels

of wheat at one time, and is located on the margin of the Willamette river, and provided with a side track from the O. & C. R. R. so that shipments may be made daily by rail, and as often by water as boating facilities offer. We have two large suction fans, in addition to other fans, attached to the house, run by water power, and are thus prepared to all the wheat received. Can take in 10,000 bushels a day. Cleaned Wheat is worth much more in all foreign markets than foul wheat, and none should be shipped without cleaning. Our charges will be five cents a bushel on wheat, and four cents on oats. We have to furnish those storeing wheat with us, free to those whose wheat we purchase, and at the lowest cash price to those who sell their wheat from our house to other buyers. Persons storing with us are at liberty to sell to whom they see proper. Those who reside on the west side of the river will have ferrage free. Will be in the market as buyers, and expect to be able to pay the highest possible price. Having prepared ourselves to do a large business, we hope for our share of the public patronage.

SEWING MACHINE SALES OF 1873

The table shows that the Sewing Machine Sales for 1873, of our sales last year amounted to 232,444 two hundred and thirty two thousand, four hundred and forty-four Machines being a large increase over the sales of the previous year (1872.)

The table shows that our sales exceed those of any other company, for the period named, by the number of 113,254 Machines, or nearly double those of any other Company.

It may be further stated that the sales of 1873, as compared with those of 1872, show a relatively larger increase, beyond the sales of other makers, than of any other year.

For instance in 1872 we sold 45,000 more Machines than any other Company, whereas, in 1873, the sales were

113,254 MACHINES IN EXCESS

—OF—

OUR HIGHEST COMPETITOR.

These figures are all the more remarkable, for the reason that the sales of the principal Companies in 1873 are less than their sales in 1872; whereas, as has been shown, our sales have largely increased.

The account of sales is from sworn returns made to the owners of the Sewing Machine Patents.

It will hardly be denied, that the superiority of the SINGER MACHINES is fully demonstrated—at all events that their popularity in the household is unquestionable.
