

LINN COUNTY FAIR.

Tuesday, October 6th, 1874.

This, the first day of the Fair, could hardly be called a success, though the attendance was nearly as large as at any previous fair held on these grounds.

In the afternoon there were two races. The first, at 1:30, was a trotting race, mile heats, 2 1/2, for mares which were suckling a colt.

The second, at 3 o'clock, was running, single dash of one mile, free for all. G. J. Baskett, entered Butralf; M. L. White, Norway; Girl, Buckskin, and R. Landers, Dove.

Wednesday, October 7th, 1874. The pavilion made a great deal better show on this day than it did on Tuesday. Several fancy articles were entered by the ladies, also a fine lot of fruit from G. W. Walling's nursery.

The races for this day consisted of a pacing race at 1:30, 2 for 3, free for all and trotting, at 2, for 3, in 2:45.

Thursday, October 8th, 1874. This, the third day of the Fair, was a decided improvement on the previous day, so much so indeed as to make it arise almost to the dignity of a Fair—something that could scarcely be said of the features of the previous days.

Friday, October 9th, 1874. This, the fourth day of the Fair, was a decided improvement on the previous day, so much so indeed as to make it arise almost to the dignity of a Fair—something that could scarcely be said of the features of the previous days.

The Aldine.—Four full-page pictures embellish the Aldine, a number which glows with all the beauty and richness of the season.

FRUIT DRYING COMPANY.—The first meeting of the incorporators of the Aldine Fruit Preserving Co., of this city was held last Tuesday.

THE FIRE LADDERS.—Last Wednesday's train brought to our city a large delegation of Willamette Engine Co. No. 1, of Portland, accompanied by their steam engine, and horse engine, for exhibition at our County Fair.

There are about sixteen sewing machine men at the fair this week. One of the finest things on the fair ground is the little stream of water running through it from the Sautian Canal.

Hugh Small, the Northwest, of the Oregonian, was in town during the week engaged in writing up the Fair for that paper.

Thos. Parker, late foreman of the Roseburg Plasterer, has thrown up his position on that paper and anchored himself in Albany again.

A BEAUTY.—One of the prettiest things we saw at our county fair was a large doll, about three feet high, dressed in the height of fashion, which the Titus Bros. had on exhibition for the purpose of showing how well the Singer machine is adapted for doing work.

FIREMAN'S BALL.—The complimentary ball, given by our "Onesters" to the Portland firemen on Wednesday night, was grand, hilarious and glorious.

A HANDSOME TESTIMONIAL.—That was a pleasing feature of the Firemen's Ball on Wednesday night, when just as the various couples had formed on the floor for a quadrille, Wm. Benjamin, 1st Assistant of the Albany Engine, stepped on the platform, commanded silence and introduced Mr. Chapman, 1st Assistant Engineer of the Portland Fire Department, who addressed the audience in a few well chosen words of gratitude for courtesies extended, and then turning to our Foreman, Joe Webber, paid him some very beautiful and well chosen compliments and presented him with a most superb badge as a testimonial of the regard and esteem in which he is held by the members of old Willamette Engine Company No. 1, of Portland, of which he was the first Foreman.

STUBBEN DEATH.—Last Sunday morning Harris Watts, stepson of Judge Halsey, died very suddenly at his father's residence near Florida. He was taken ill in the night and only lived four hours. Mr. Watts was 22 years of age, had just graduated in the medical department of the Willamette University, and was one of the most promising young men of the county.

A NEW SEEDLING.—Mr. John Millard placed upon our table last Wednesday a couple of the finest seedling apples we have ever seen. They grew on a tree which was planted by John C. Worth, of Peoria, about five years ago.

HOME AND ABROAD.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE PORTS OF SAN FRANCISCO.

I desire space in your paper to answer an article that appears in the Democrat of Oct. 2d, over the signature of James Crabtree. I wish only to state a few facts concerning the matter referred to by Mr. Crabtree, and then leave to the public to judge whether I am guilty or not as charged in the article referred to, of being a liar and a man of base and malicious disposition. Mr. Crabtree accuses me as follows: "His name is William A. Paul, and to gratify his spleen and his selfish and malicious disposition, he has been circulating a report (I suppose of his own concocting) that I have without the consent or knowledge of the petitioners, changed a certain petition and presented it as changed to the County Court of Linn county; and that I positively refused to comply with certain conditions concerning said petition. All of which I declare to be unqualified, willful and malicious falsehood." As to circulating such a report as the writer above referred to, I have this to say: I have been informed and have so stated myself, that the petition presented to the County Court was not the one circulated by the Crabtrees, (meaning James Crabtree, and his father D. F. Crabtree, who were the persons principally interested,) and that the name of some of the persons on the petition presented, were placed there without their knowledge or consent; and as to the truth of those statements, I refer the reader to the accompanying affidavit of Joe Crabtree, George Crabtree and Thomas Martin, and will say further, that I can produce more names to substantiate those statements, and I have also said that the agreement concerning changing the petition, has not been carried out by the Crabtrees, (meaning the said James Crabtree, and D. F. Crabtree,) and as to the truth of those statements, I refer the reader to the accompanying affidavit of David Bilyett. I have no desire to traduce or malign the character of any man, and I claim to have made no statements but what are true, and to vindicate myself against the charges of falsehood, it is all that I have to make the statements I have.
