BURNT TO DEATH ON AN ALTAR.

[redacted]

Mary Hocker, a religious fanatic, burned herself to death at Willow Valley, this county, yesterday. She was a young and accomplished woman, the daughter of William Hocker, a wealthy farmer of the above place. She had for five or six years labored at intervals under the hallucination that she had committed grievous sin against what she termed "her Immanuel," and was in the habit of building altars in her father's fields and sacrificing lambs as a burnt offering to appease the wrath of her offended deity.

Yesterday Mr. Hocker went to Carbonville after a load of coal. His daughter having manifested signs of a recurrence of her insanity, he left a hired man to look after her her mother being dead. The man went away at noon, and did not return to the house.

Mr. Hocker came back at about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Entering the kitchen of his house he was horrified to find the body of his daughter lying on the coals and ashes of what had been one of her altars, and burned to a crisp. Her face and the upper part of her body alone had escaped. She had constructed the altar or pyre out of a set of quilting frames. She had torn up a portion of the carpet and laid it on the altar, and made a pillow for her head. She reclined on her right side, and her cheek was resting on her hand.

Notwithstanding the intense agony she must have endured, her face wore a calm and peaceful expression, and there was a smile on her lips.

In the family Bible, which was found lying on the parlor table open at the Book of Job, was the following note, addressed to her father:

DEAR FATHER: My Immanuel appeared to me today. He reveals to me that I have committed the Unpardonable Sin; which I can only obtain forgiveness for by passing through the cleansing of Fire. I will intercede for you, my dear Father. You will find my pallet lodges the northeast corner of the house. I wish to have my sacrificial fire on my Immanuel's ground, at the northwest corner of the House. Good-bye. Meet me in the Eternal Ground. CHARITY.

Mr. Hocker went to the corner of the house indicated in the note as the spot where the remains were to be buried, and found that his daughter had staked out a space for her grave.

Martin Prentice, Justice of the Peace, summoned a jury and held an inquest on the remains. The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts.

A TALE OF TWO POETS.

James Russell Lowell, the elegant and high-cultured poet and professor of Harvard University, who has just refused Grant's offer of the Russian mission, took occasion in visiting this place to call upon and make the acquaintance of a more youthful child of Parnassus, whose roseate productions had attracted his notice. The poetical sapling (let me call him X.) felt quite overcome, and, in short, was really in a state of "stiff fusion," when the lofty genius, at once famous and obscure, made his appearance, revealed his name, and stood before him in his limited quarters. As soon as X. had recovered his selfposise he sought to appease the author of The Cathedral by an incense offering, and in softest voice, with gracefullest bow, he tendered him a seductive cigar from a handy box of Flor del Fumas. "But haven't ye got a pipe?" said Lowell; "that's what I'd like." X. happened to have just that sort of thing at hand, produced it with the Killkinnick, and presently vast clouds, rolling from Lowell's mouth, swept around his head. Hereupon, amazed at such queerness, X. produced a decanter of wine, which he placed before the creator of Hosea Biglow.

"But haven't ye anything stronger than that?" was the sound that came out of the smoke-cloud.

X. grappled a bottle of whiskey ("That's what I like," said Lowell,) passing it to the "Vision of Sir Launfel," who seized it by the neck, poured out a couple of stiff horns, and there, over smoking pipes and jovial forums the elder poet and the younger got to know and understand each other, and established themselves in a co-operative attitude of mutual admiration like unto that which they might have enjoyed by reciprocally quaffing the oracular beverage of the Castilian front.—Such is Lowell—one of the friendliest, freest and justest of the high-toned products of literary culture.—Cincinnati Commercial.

THAT DETROIT POLICE COURT.

"Standing there as you do before me, do you pretend to say that you were not drunk last night?" inquired his honor of Charles Diamond.

Charles felt of his nose, gazed down at his yawning boots, and replied:

"I don't purtend nothin'."

"Well, that's a great deal better than if you claimed to have been at the battle of Waterloo, or served as body servant to General Washington, I like your appearance very much, and we'll call it sixty days. If it was some folks I wouldn't make it over thirty."

Dismond remarked that somebody would catch lightning when he got out, and his honor pointed his finger over the desk and replied:

"Charles, my son, don't throw any rocks at my front gate, and don't imagine that you can roll me in the snow. I'm old and tender-hearted, but if any one should rouse me there'd be a funeral procession half a mile long next day, and it wouldn't be my funeral. Don't fool with a Numidian lion, my boy."

Jones, whose wife's maiden name was Eliza, confided to his destined biographer, the fact that he once (and only once) after wedlock indulged himself in an allusion to the devil as the "father of Lize." Since that he has found it more conducive to mutual confidence to call people by their right names.

Silas Card was married the other day, and hooked on his wedding notice were the words, "No cards." But he doesn't know what might happen.

SOCIAL OBLIGATIONS.

Personal attractions most girls possess to any one in a sufficient degree to render them attractive to somebody—for, although there are standards and models of beauty, yet these do not prevail with all persons. There is something wonderful in the difference of aspect which the same face, seen to different beholders. Probably the philosophical explanation of this is, that what is hidden to all others becomes apparent to the eyes of love.

How can a moderately good-looking girl increase her attractions? By culture. She must cultivate her mind. An ignorant and illiterate woman, even if she attract the attention, cannot retain the interest of an intelligent man. She must do this by reading, by study and reflection, and by familiar conversation with the best and most highly educated persons with whom she comes in contact.

But the heart must be cultivated, as well as the head. "Of all things," exclaimed a most elegant and refined gentleman, after nearly a lifetime's familiarity with the best society—"of all things give softness and gentleness in a woman." A harsh voice, a coarse laugh—trifles like these have suddenly spoilt many favorable first impressions.

The cultivation of the heart must be real, and not feigned. A woman who studies to appear, rather than to be good and generous, seldom succeeds in deceiving the opposite sex in these respects. She who in truth seeks earnestly to promote the happiness of those around her, is very apt soon to obtain admirers among men. No woman ever otherwise so completely triumphs over a rival as when she is in good earnest to prefer that rival's interest to her own.

Above all other requisites in woman is conscientiousness. Without this one touch-stone of character, no matter what her charms and acquirements, she cannot expect to command the lasting regard of any man whose love is worth having.—Frank Leslie's Lady's Magazine.

AN OLD LADY'S LECTURE ON HASTY MARRIAGES.

"Laws-a-massy! When I was young 'twas different then. Why, when folks was going to get married, they took time and meditated upon it, and kinder studied each other out, and reflected and considered, and when they did get married,—married from top to toe—they expected to stay married; there warn't no talk of divorces then. They knew beforehand that they was to 'hev and to hold' until grim death, and most usually did. But now a young fellow sees a pretty gal, and asks her to marry him just as he'd ask her to take a walk, and she's ready—'Yes, sir, and thank you, too'—and they go and get married with no more realizing sense of their responsibility than Cock Robin has when he twitters to Jenny Wren. Well, pretty soon they go at it—she finds that she don't like tobacco smoke, and he don't like a wife that can't do anything but frizzle her hair—so it goes from bad to worse, until at last they sue for a divorce. And they'll get it, too. For what? Why, for uncomfortability of temper. O, laws-a-massy! Soul sake! Now, did you ever? Uncomfortability of temper. O, Lordy."

"Incompatibility of temper, Mrs. Hutchinson," the listener suggested.

"Yes, I know it; I said so; uncomfortability of temper, them's the words that does it. Well, is there not allers uncomfortability of temper in every family, and allers will be? Only in good old times they used to screw it down and keep it under, and you see they managed to get along without none of your divorces."

Pause, rash youth, if you are in the habit of removing the postage stamp from your sweetheart's letter and pressing the under side of the stamp to your lips under the rapturous delusion that the honeyed labials gave it adhesion to the envelope—oh, pause for Willis of the Norristown Herald detected at the postoffice the other morning his lady love's coachman applying the stamps to the last letter sent him. So purchase forever another of boys's young dreams.—Danbury News.

When the Duchess of Edinburg wants to talk nicey-nicey to her boy-baby she has only to say, "And it was its mazzy,s blessed little Albert Alexander Alfred Ernest William?" And then that overburdened infant goes into convulsions that would twist the back-bone right out of a plebian baby.

Some of our wealthiest people are feeling the hard times keenly. A lady yesterday declined to pay more than $175 for a velvet cloak, on the ground that "there were so many poor laboring people out of employment and needing the necessaries of life."

According to a Cincinnati paper, John Thomas was recently sued by Hester Prim for breach of promise. "John Thomas, come into court!" shouted the constable. "John Thomas needn't come in to court me any more," said Hester primly.

In one of our district schools the master was examining a class in orthography. "Spell and define flowret," said he. "F-l-o-w-e-r-e-t, flowret, a little flower." "Wavelet." "W-a-v-e-l-e-t, a little wave." "Bullet." "B-u-l-l-e-t, bullet, a little bull," shouted urchin number three.

A lady asked a waiter at the festival last evening for a drink, saying: "I could eat four times as much if I had some water," unfortunately there was none of the precious fluid attainable and she was choked off early in the evening.

Scipio Africanus, all dressed up in his new clothes, yesterday called at Harris Brothers' for a "two-bit cigar, sah." Would he have it "strong or mild?" "Well, boss," said Scipio, "not too strong or too mild—one dat's about pro rata!"

Insurance mottoes: For a fire company, "Honesty is the best policy." For a life company, "Never say die." For a mining company, "Don't give up the ship."

A man may grow to weigh a ton
When taste in mind with pungent fun:
But to grow corpse in simple way
Will cause to others no delay.

A CHRISTIAN CASE.

Some foods may be confidently held indigestible. Among these two or three packets of tobacco boiled into a tea. Yet that is what a young woman in a French hospital lately swallowed and lived. She tried in this way to commit suicide. At another time she swallowed fifty pins. Finally, she procured half a pound of gunpowder, and made an external application of it.

She blew herself up, but that, too, only made her ill, and she slipped. A very little thing taken into the system may have very serious consequences, however. A certain waiter in a restaurant received a severe blow on the chest. He went to a neighboring hospital complaining of pain in the chest, and was discharged cured. Soon after, however, he again came into the hospital for an abdominal affection, to which he succumbed.

At the necropsy old adhesions between the pericardium and corresponding wall of the lung were found. These two organs were held together by a pin, of which the point issued into the interior of the pericardium, where it was perfectly free. It but barely touched the heart, on the surface of which was found a series of concentric curves produced by the point of the pin, which inscribed the heart's movements on itself, just as the stylet of a sphygmograph would have done. This case, besides being very interesting from a physiological point of view, proves that the swallowing of a single pin will sometimes cause death.

"Where a woman," says Mrs. Partington, "has been married with a congealing heart, and one that beats desponding to her own, she will never want to enter the maratime state again."

We are pleased to note an editorial in an exchange on "The uses of Greece." Together with perseverance it will accomplish wonders.

Hair Vigor,

For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so unctuous and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.

Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest in childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.

Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or toil is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.

ADVERTISEMENTS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is always asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swollen Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Typesetters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worm, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors, and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuge, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

SEWING MACHINE SALES OF 1873

The table shows the number of Sewing Machine Sales for 1873, which is 113,254 less than one hundred and forty-two thousand, four hundred and forty-four Machines being a larger increase over the sales of the previous year (1872.)

The table shows that our sales exceed those of any other company, for the period named, by the number of 113,254 Machines, or nearly double those of any other Company.

It may be further stated that the sales of 1873, as compared with those of 1872, show a relative-ly larger increase, beyond the sales of other makers, than of any other year.

For instance in 1872 we sold 43,000 more Machines than any other Company, whereas, in 1873, the sales were

113,254 MACHINES IN EXCESS

—OF—

OUR HIGHEST COMPETITOR.

These figures are all the more remarkable, for the reason that the sales of the principal Companies in 1873 are less than their sales in 1872's over-so, as has been shown, our sales have largely increased.

The annual results is from sworn returns made to the Owners of the Sewing Machine Patents.

It will hardly be denied, that the superiority of the SINGER MACHINES is fully demonstrated—as all events that their popularity in the household is unquestionable.
