For Fever and Ague, Informittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remissont Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, Co., and indeed all the affortions which arise from maiericus, marsh, or missmatic poisons.

This is a compound remedy, prepared win scientific skill from vegetable ingredients, which rarely fails to cure the severest cases of Chilis and Fever and the concominant disorders. Such a runwely the necessities—of the people in melarious districts demand. He greatemperiority over any other medicine—yeighsovered for the curs of Intermittons is, that is contains no quinine or mineral, and these who take it are free from danger of quinism or any injurious effects, and are as healthy after using it as before. It has been extensively employed during the last thirty years in the treatment of these distressing disorders, and so unvarying has been its success that thas gained the reputation of being infallible. It can, therefore, he safely recommended as a swive remedy and specific for the Fever and Ague of the West, and the Chills and Fever of the South. It counteracts the minematic poison in the bicod, and frees the system from its infusers, or that fever and ague, chalars or chilis, once broken up by it, do not return until the disease is again contracted.

The great variety of disorders which arise from the irrination of this poison, such as Neuralgia, Bheumatism. Gout, Hendache, Blindness, Toothache, Eurache, Catarris, Asthma, Palpitalion, Splenic Affections, Hysteries, Fain in the Bowels, Colle, Frantysia, and derange of the Stomach, all of which become intermittent or periodical, have no speedior remedy than Arm's Aour Crims, which cures them all allic, and protects the system from future attacks. As a preventive, it is of immense service in those communities where Fever and Ague prevails, as it stays the development of the disease if taken on the first approach of the premonitory symptoms.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity, it is an excellent remedy; it stimu
