

For Representatives, JOHN WHITEAKER, Of Lane County. For Governor, T. W. THAYER, Of Multnomah County. For Secretary of State, T. G. REAMES, Of Jackson County. For Treasurer, A. H. BROWN, Of Baker County. For State Printer, A. S. SOUTHER, Of Multnomah County. Superintendent of Public Instruction, T. J. STETTES, Of Lane County.

For State Senators, W. E. BILYEU, J. H. SMITH. For Representatives, J. P. SCHOOLING, JOS. HAMILTON, C. H. HEWITT, JASON WHEELER, F. C. HANSARD, JACOB NEWMAN. For County Commissioners, A. R. McDONALD, H. R. POWELL. For County Clerk, JAS. L. COWAN.

For Sheriff, I. C. DICKEY. For Treasurer, PHILIP GRIGSBY. For Assessor, Z. B. MOSS. For School Superintendent, L. N. LIGGETT. For Surveyor, H. BRYANT. For Coroner, R. JACOBS.

For Justice of the Peace, WM. LISTER. For Constable, GEORGE HUMPHREY. West Albany Precinct, W. Q. STEWART. For Constable, M. H. WALLACE.

Being a minister of the Gospel, as well as a teacher, I have made it a matter of conscience to keep clear from all political engagements, and although the office to which I have been nominated is not strictly a political one, yet it can only be reached through the "muddy pool" of politics. GEORGE HUMPHREY.

What we have to suggest is this: That the election of Bro. Hines to Congress and the establishment of his Heavenly Kingdom might both be furthered at one and the same time by a judicious prosecution of the canvass. Arrangements might be made with the various Methodist churches throughout the State by which Bro. Hines might be invited to preach as he traveled from place to place on the stump, it being understood that the collection taken up on these occasions be divided into two equal shares, the one to be applied to the work of the church and the other to go toward defraying the election expenses of the reverend gentleman in question. A. S. SOUTHER.

One Dr. Felkman is running a German campaign sheet at Portland in the interest of the Republicans. From the looks of the concern it doesn't cost much to run it, and from what our German friends tell us its influence is about commensurate with the cost of the gratuitous concern. The radicals are resorting to base uses when they abuse the confidence and mislead the votes of our foreign born citizens. THE LEAVEN OF DEMOCRACY.

Monday's Oregonian contains a letter signed by twenty-eight prominent Republicans of Marion county, addressed to "Republican candidates for the Legislature of Marion county," asking said candidates to declare themselves openly whether or not, if elected to the Legislature, they will favor Mr. Mitchell's re-election to the United States Senate.

We admire the courage, and believe in the sincerity of these men. They are gentlemen whose Republicanism cannot be brought into question; but who feel compelled by their own self respect, and their desire to witness the prosperity of their State, to oppose the re-election of a bad and dishonest man who has determined to increase his own wealth and power at the expense of the people and without regard to either his own personal honor and integrity, or the welfare and prosperity of his constituents.

These Radical solons of Oregon will know when they passed that Grover condemning resolution that they were doing a mean, contemptible thing, and one of them told a Democratic bystander that it would come back on them in the campaign; and we propose it shall. That Presidential steal shall burn in their ears all over the canvass, and shall reach as far as Democratic journals and speakers shall travel; for when the claim was broadly asserted under the Constitution by Republican leaders that the acts of those who counted electoral votes are not proper subjects of review by Congress, no matter how gross the fraud, a blow was struck at the very life-principles of the nation, from which it is suffering to-day.

"Beek" is bound to make himself known, anyhow. He declined himself into the nomination by publishing a card beforehand that he wouldn't have it, and then telegraphed a vainglorious stump speech to the Convention, accepting the nomination and telling that body what his "strict business qualifications" would do in the office of Governor; and now he is out in the papers with a self-laudatory letter full of egotistical promises and extravagant pledges to the people.

In the meantime Judge Thayer attends strictly to his own business, and leaves the people of Oregon, who have known him so long and well, to judge of his fitness and qualifications for the office of Governor. He will talk to the people on this subject during the campaign in a legitimate manner, and convince an overwhelming majority of them that he is the man who is just now needed in the Executive Chair of Oregon.

Perhaps if "Beek" would "keep his seat" and remain quiet until the proper time for making himself heard, he would save himself from the pen-lashings which the Democratic press of the State are now so very freely administering to him.

Our fellow townsman, David Froman, who was elected Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, evidently doesn't feel very enthusiastic, and has consequently delegated one Simon, of Portland, to do the heavy work of the campaign. As Simon is of the firm of Dolph, Simon & Co., the Mitchell headquarters, it is presumed that the work will be well and faithfully performed in the interest of Senator Mitchell.

Bro. Froman did well in shirking this responsibility just now—but perhaps the radicals of Linn didn't expect him to put it where it would do Mitchell the most good. BILLY CARTER'S PUFF OF HIMSELF IN LAST WEEK'S GAZETTE sounds as much like a dead man's obituary as anything we ever read. He was born—grew up—arrived at the age of maturity—learned the printing trade in Illinois—in '52 came to Oregon—fluctuated around until in '65 some kindly wind wafted him to Corvallis, where he has budded, bloomed and blossomed into a temperance editor and now leaves many friends to mourn his untimely e-nd. REALITY COUNTERS.

Monday's Oregonian contains a letter signed by twenty-eight prominent Republicans of Marion county, addressed to "Republican candidates for the Legislature of Marion county," asking said candidates to declare themselves openly whether or not, if elected to the Legislature, they will favor Mr. Mitchell's re-election to the United States Senate.

We admire the courage, and believe in the sincerity of these men. They are gentlemen whose Republicanism cannot be brought into question; but who feel compelled by their own self respect, and their desire to witness the prosperity of their State, to oppose the re-election of a bad and dishonest man who has determined to increase his own wealth and power at the expense of the people and without regard to either his own personal honor and integrity, or the welfare and prosperity of his constituents.

These Radical solons of Oregon will know when they passed that Grover condemning resolution that they were doing a mean, contemptible thing, and one of them told a Democratic bystander that it would come back on them in the campaign; and we propose it shall. That Presidential steal shall burn in their ears all over the canvass, and shall reach as far as Democratic journals and speakers shall travel; for when the claim was broadly asserted under the Constitution by Republican leaders that the acts of those who counted electoral votes are not proper subjects of review by Congress, no matter how gross the fraud, a blow was struck at the very life-principles of the nation, from which it is suffering to-day.

"Beek" is bound to make himself known, anyhow. He declined himself into the nomination by publishing a card beforehand that he wouldn't have it, and then telegraphed a vainglorious stump speech to the Convention, accepting the nomination and telling that body what his "strict business qualifications" would do in the office of Governor; and now he is out in the papers with a self-laudatory letter full of egotistical promises and extravagant pledges to the people.

In the meantime Judge Thayer attends strictly to his own business, and leaves the people of Oregon, who have known him so long and well, to judge of his fitness and qualifications for the office of Governor. He will talk to the people on this subject during the campaign in a legitimate manner, and convince an overwhelming majority of them that he is the man who is just now needed in the Executive Chair of Oregon.

Perhaps if "Beek" would "keep his seat" and remain quiet until the proper time for making himself heard, he would save himself from the pen-lashings which the Democratic press of the State are now so very freely administering to him.

Our fellow townsman, David Froman, who was elected Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, evidently doesn't feel very enthusiastic, and has consequently delegated one Simon, of Portland, to do the heavy work of the campaign. As Simon is of the firm of Dolph, Simon & Co., the Mitchell headquarters, it is presumed that the work will be well and faithfully performed in the interest of Senator Mitchell.

Bro. Froman did well in shirking this responsibility just now—but perhaps the radicals of Linn didn't expect him to put it where it would do Mitchell the most good. BILLY CARTER'S PUFF OF HIMSELF IN LAST WEEK'S GAZETTE sounds as much like a dead man's obituary as anything we ever read. He was born—grew up—arrived at the age of maturity—learned the printing trade in Illinois—in '52 came to Oregon—fluctuated around until in '65 some kindly wind wafted him to Corvallis, where he has budded, bloomed and blossomed into a temperance editor and now leaves many friends to mourn his untimely e-nd. REALITY COUNTERS.

Monday's Oregonian contains a letter signed by twenty-eight prominent Republicans of Marion county, addressed to "Republican candidates for the Legislature of Marion county," asking said candidates to declare themselves openly whether or not, if elected to the Legislature, they will favor Mr. Mitchell's re-election to the United States Senate.

We admire the courage, and believe in the sincerity of these men. They are gentlemen whose Republicanism cannot be brought into question; but who feel compelled by their own self respect, and their desire to witness the prosperity of their State, to oppose the re-election of a bad and dishonest man who has determined to increase his own wealth and power at the expense of the people and without regard to either his own personal honor and integrity, or the welfare and prosperity of his constituents.

These Radical solons of Oregon will know when they passed that Grover condemning resolution that they were doing a mean, contemptible thing, and one of them told a Democratic bystander that it would come back on them in the campaign; and we propose it shall. That Presidential steal shall burn in their ears all over the canvass, and shall reach as far as Democratic journals and speakers shall travel; for when the claim was broadly asserted under the Constitution by Republican leaders that the acts of those who counted electoral votes are not proper subjects of review by Congress, no matter how gross the fraud, a blow was struck at the very life-principles of the nation, from which it is suffering to-day.

"Beek" is bound to make himself known, anyhow. He declined himself into the nomination by publishing a card beforehand that he wouldn't have it, and then telegraphed a vainglorious stump speech to the Convention, accepting the nomination and telling that body what his "strict business qualifications" would do in the office of Governor; and now he is out in the papers with a self-laudatory letter full of egotistical promises and extravagant pledges to the people.

In the meantime Judge Thayer attends strictly to his own business, and leaves the people of Oregon, who have known him so long and well, to judge of his fitness and qualifications for the office of Governor. He will talk to the people on this subject during the campaign in a legitimate manner, and convince an overwhelming majority of them that he is the man who is just now needed in the Executive Chair of Oregon.

Perhaps if "Beek" would "keep his seat" and remain quiet until the proper time for making himself heard, he would save himself from the pen-lashings which the Democratic press of the State are now so very freely administering to him.

Our fellow townsman, David Froman, who was elected Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, evidently doesn't feel very enthusiastic, and has consequently delegated one Simon, of Portland, to do the heavy work of the campaign. As Simon is of the firm of Dolph, Simon & Co., the Mitchell headquarters, it is presumed that the work will be well and faithfully performed in the interest of Senator Mitchell.

Bro. Froman did well in shirking this responsibility just now—but perhaps the radicals of Linn didn't expect him to put it where it would do Mitchell the most good. BILLY CARTER'S PUFF OF HIMSELF IN LAST WEEK'S GAZETTE sounds as much like a dead man's obituary as anything we ever read. He was born—grew up—arrived at the age of maturity—learned the printing trade in Illinois—in '52 came to Oregon—fluctuated around until in '65 some kindly wind wafted him to Corvallis, where he has budded, bloomed and blossomed into a temperance editor and now leaves many friends to mourn his untimely e-nd. REALITY COUNTERS.

Monday's Oregonian contains a letter signed by twenty-eight prominent Republicans of Marion county, addressed to "Republican candidates for the Legislature of Marion county," asking said candidates to declare themselves openly whether or not, if elected to the Legislature, they will favor Mr. Mitchell's re-election to the United States Senate.

We admire the courage, and believe in the sincerity of these men. They are gentlemen whose Republicanism cannot be brought into question; but who feel compelled by their own self respect, and their desire to witness the prosperity of their State, to oppose the re-election of a bad and dishonest man who has determined to increase his own wealth and power at the expense of the people and without regard to either his own personal honor and integrity, or the welfare and prosperity of his constituents.

These Radical solons of Oregon will know when they passed that Grover condemning resolution that they were doing a mean, contemptible thing, and one of them told a Democratic bystander that it would come back on them in the campaign; and we propose it shall. That Presidential steal shall burn in their ears all over the canvass, and shall reach as far as Democratic journals and speakers shall travel; for when the claim was broadly asserted under the Constitution by Republican leaders that the acts of those who counted electoral votes are not proper subjects of review by Congress, no matter how gross the fraud, a blow was struck at the very life-principles of the nation, from which it is suffering to-day.

"Beek" is bound to make himself known, anyhow. He declined himself into the nomination by publishing a card beforehand that he wouldn't have it, and then telegraphed a vainglorious stump speech to the Convention, accepting the nomination and telling that body what his "strict business qualifications" would do in the office of Governor; and now he is out in the papers with a self-laudatory letter full of egotistical promises and extravagant pledges to the people.

In the meantime Judge Thayer attends strictly to his own business, and leaves the people of Oregon, who have known him so long and well, to judge of his fitness and qualifications for the office of Governor. He will talk to the people on this subject during the campaign in a legitimate manner, and convince an overwhelming majority of them that he is the man who is just now needed in the Executive Chair of Oregon.

Perhaps if "Beek" would "keep his seat" and remain quiet until the proper time for making himself heard, he would save himself from the pen-lashings which the Democratic press of the State are now so very freely administering to him.

Our fellow townsman, David Froman, who was elected Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, evidently doesn't feel very enthusiastic, and has consequently delegated one Simon, of Portland, to do the heavy work of the campaign. As Simon is of the firm of Dolph, Simon & Co., the Mitchell headquarters, it is presumed that the work will be well and faithfully performed in the interest of Senator Mitchell.

Bro. Froman did well in shirking this responsibility just now—but perhaps the radicals of Linn didn't expect him to put it where it would do Mitchell the most good. BILLY CARTER'S PUFF OF HIMSELF IN LAST WEEK'S GAZETTE sounds as much like a dead man's obituary as anything we ever read. He was born—grew up—arrived at the age of maturity—learned the printing trade in Illinois—in '52 came to Oregon—fluctuated around until in '65 some kindly wind wafted him to Corvallis, where he has budded, bloomed and blossomed into a temperance editor and now leaves many friends to mourn his untimely e-nd. REALITY COUNTERS.

Monday's Oregonian contains a letter signed by twenty-eight prominent Republicans of Marion county, addressed to "Republican candidates for the Legislature of Marion county," asking said candidates to declare themselves openly whether or not, if elected to the Legislature, they will favor Mr. Mitchell's re-election to the United States Senate.

We admire the courage, and believe in the sincerity of these men. They are gentlemen whose Republicanism cannot be brought into question; but who feel compelled by their own self respect, and their desire to witness the prosperity of their State, to oppose the re-election of a bad and dishonest man who has determined to increase his own wealth and power at the expense of the people and without regard to either his own personal honor and integrity, or the welfare and prosperity of his constituents.

These Radical solons of Oregon will know when they passed that Grover condemning resolution that they were doing a mean, contemptible thing, and one of them told a Democratic bystander that it would come back on them in the campaign; and we propose it shall. That Presidential steal shall burn in their ears all over the canvass, and shall reach as far as Democratic journals and speakers shall travel; for when the claim was broadly asserted under the Constitution by Republican leaders that the acts of those who counted electoral votes are not proper subjects of review by Congress, no matter how gross the fraud, a blow was struck at the very life-principles of the nation, from which it is suffering to-day.

"Beek" is bound to make himself known, anyhow. He declined himself into the nomination by publishing a card beforehand that he wouldn't have it, and then telegraphed a vainglorious stump speech to the Convention, accepting the nomination and telling that body what his "strict business qualifications" would do in the office of Governor; and now he is out in the papers with a self-laudatory letter full of egotistical promises and extravagant pledges to the people.

In the meantime Judge Thayer attends strictly to his own business, and leaves the people of Oregon, who have known him so long and well, to judge of his fitness and qualifications for the office of Governor. He will talk to the people on this subject during the campaign in a legitimate manner, and convince an overwhelming majority of them that he is the man who is just now needed in the Executive Chair of Oregon.

Perhaps if "Beek" would "keep his seat" and remain quiet until the proper time for making himself heard, he would save himself from the pen-lashings which the Democratic press of the State are now so very freely administering to him.

Our fellow townsman, David Froman, who was elected Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, evidently doesn't feel very enthusiastic, and has consequently delegated one Simon, of Portland, to do the heavy work of the campaign. As Simon is of the firm of Dolph, Simon & Co., the Mitchell headquarters, it is presumed that the work will be well and faithfully performed in the interest of Senator Mitchell.

Bro. Froman did well in shirking this responsibility just now—but perhaps the radicals of Linn didn't expect him to put it where it would do Mitchell the most good. BILLY CARTER'S PUFF OF HIMSELF IN LAST WEEK'S GAZETTE sounds as much like a dead man's obituary as anything we ever read. He was born—grew up—arrived at the age of maturity—learned the printing trade in Illinois—in '52 came to Oregon—fluctuated around until in '65 some kindly wind wafted him to Corvallis, where he has budded, bloomed and blossomed into a temperance editor and now leaves many friends to mourn his untimely e-nd. REALITY COUNTERS.

Monday's Oregonian contains a letter signed by twenty-eight prominent Republicans of Marion county, addressed to "Republican candidates for the Legislature of Marion county," asking said candidates to declare themselves openly whether or not, if elected to the Legislature, they will favor Mr. Mitchell's re-election to the United States Senate.

We admire the courage, and believe in the sincerity of these men. They are gentlemen whose Republicanism cannot be brought into question; but who feel compelled by their own self respect, and their desire to witness the prosperity of their State, to oppose the re-election of a bad and dishonest man who has determined to increase his own wealth and power at the expense of the people and without regard to either his own personal honor and integrity, or the welfare and prosperity of his constituents.

These Radical solons of Oregon will know when they passed that Grover condemning resolution that they were doing a mean, contemptible thing, and one of them told a Democratic bystander that it would come back on them in the campaign; and we propose it shall. That Presidential steal shall burn in their ears all over the canvass, and shall reach as far as Democratic journals and speakers shall travel; for when the claim was broadly asserted under the Constitution by Republican leaders that the acts of those who counted electoral votes are not proper subjects of review by Congress, no matter how gross the fraud, a blow was struck at the very life-principles of the nation, from which it is suffering to-day.

"Beek" is bound to make himself known, anyhow. He declined himself into the nomination by publishing a card beforehand that he wouldn't have it, and then telegraphed a vainglorious stump speech to the Convention, accepting the nomination and telling that body what his "strict business qualifications" would do in the office of Governor; and now he is out in the papers with a self-laudatory letter full of egotistical promises and extravagant pledges to the people.

In the meantime Judge Thayer attends strictly to his own business, and leaves the people of Oregon, who have known him so long and well, to judge of his fitness and qualifications for the office of Governor. He will talk to the people on this subject during the campaign in a legitimate manner, and convince an overwhelming majority of them that he is the man who is just now needed in the Executive Chair of Oregon.

Perhaps if "Beek" would "keep his seat" and remain quiet until the proper time for making himself heard, he would save himself from the pen-lashings which the Democratic press of the State are now so very freely administering to him.

Our fellow townsman, David Froman, who was elected Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, evidently doesn't feel very enthusiastic, and has consequently delegated one Simon, of Portland, to do the heavy work of the campaign. As Simon is of the firm of Dolph, Simon & Co., the Mitchell headquarters, it is presumed that the work will be well and faithfully performed in the interest of Senator Mitchell.

Bro. Froman did well in shirking this responsibility just now—but perhaps the radicals of Linn didn't expect him to put it where it would do Mitchell the most good. BILLY CARTER'S PUFF OF HIMSELF IN LAST WEEK'S GAZETTE sounds as much like a dead man's obituary as anything we ever read. He was born—grew up—arrived at the age of maturity—learned the printing trade in Illinois—in '52 came to Oregon—fluctuated around until in '65 some kindly wind wafted him to Corvallis, where he has budded, bloomed and blossomed into a temperance editor and now leaves many friends to mourn his untimely e-nd. REALITY COUNTERS.

Monday's Oregonian contains a letter signed by twenty-eight prominent Republicans of Marion county, addressed to "Republican candidates for the Legislature of Marion county," asking said candidates to declare themselves openly whether or not, if elected to the Legislature, they will favor Mr. Mitchell's re-election to the United States Senate.

We admire the courage, and believe in the sincerity of these men. They are gentlemen whose Republicanism cannot be brought into question; but who feel compelled by their own self respect, and their desire to witness the prosperity of their State, to oppose the re-election of a bad and dishonest man who has determined to increase his own wealth and power at the expense of the people and without regard to either his own personal honor and integrity, or the welfare and prosperity of his constituents.

These Radical solons of Oregon will know when they passed that Grover condemning resolution that they were doing a mean, contemptible thing, and one of them told a Democratic bystander that it would come back on them in the campaign; and we propose it shall. That Presidential steal shall burn in their ears all over the canvass, and shall reach as far as Democratic journals and speakers shall travel; for when the claim was broadly asserted under the Constitution by Republican leaders that the acts of those who counted electoral votes are not proper subjects of review by Congress, no matter how gross the fraud, a blow was struck at the very life-principles of the nation, from which it is suffering to-day.

"Beek" is bound to make himself known, anyhow. He declined himself into the nomination by publishing a card beforehand that he wouldn't have it, and then telegraphed a vainglorious stump speech to the Convention, accepting the nomination and telling that body what his "strict business qualifications" would do in the office of Governor; and now he is out in the papers with a self-laudatory letter full of egotistical promises and extravagant pledges to the people.

In the meantime Judge Thayer attends strictly to his own business, and leaves the people of Oregon, who have known him so long and well, to judge of his fitness and qualifications for the office of Governor. He will talk to the people on this subject during the campaign in a legitimate manner, and convince an overwhelming majority of them that he is the man who is just now needed in the Executive Chair of Oregon.

Perhaps if "Beek" would "keep his seat" and remain quiet until the proper time for making himself heard, he would save himself from the pen-lashings which the Democratic press of the State are now so very freely administering to him.

Our fellow townsman, David Froman, who was elected Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, evidently doesn't feel very enthusiastic, and has consequently delegated one Simon, of Portland, to do the heavy work of the campaign. As Simon is of the firm of Dolph, Simon & Co., the Mitchell headquarters, it is presumed that the work will be well and faithfully performed in the interest of Senator Mitchell.

Bro. Froman did well in shirking this responsibility just now—but perhaps the radicals of Linn didn't expect him to put it where it would do Mitchell the most good. BILLY CARTER'S PUFF OF HIMSELF IN LAST WEEK'S GAZETTE sounds as much like a dead man's obituary as anything we ever read. He was born—grew up—arrived at the age of maturity—learned the printing trade in Illinois—in '52 came to Oregon—fluctuated around until in '65 some kindly wind wafted him to Corvallis, where he has budded, bloomed and blossomed into a temperance editor and now leaves many friends to mourn his untimely e-nd. REALITY COUNTERS.

DR. SPINNEY. THE CELEBRATED ENGLISH DRAFT STALLION. BLACK PRINCE! WESTERN CHIEF. C. L. SHAW. BEST BUSINESS YOU CAN ENGAGE IN.