FRIDAY.....OCTOBER 10, 1879.

Errors in School Districts.

County School Superintendent Liggett is now draughting a map of the School Districts in Linn county for his private use and in doing so has found several tracts of land which are left entirely outside of any organized district. One tract lies just across the Calapooia from this city, and extends west about one mile from the junction of that stream with the Willamette. Another tract lies on the south side of the Calapooia just below the railroad bridge and comprises nearly a whole section. Also over five sections five miles due east of Harrisburg. Another, comprising about a half section, is situated in the bend on the west side of Muddy, about two miles south-west of Shedd. Still another lies about two miles south of Lebanon, and as the map is not yet near completed the probability is that several more will be discovered. The effect of these bodies of land lying outside of any district is that when any special tax is levied for improvements or anything else they are not required to pay a cent, and if any one residing on them sends children to school he draws a proportion from the school fund to which he is not entitled. To remedy this the County Commissioners should by all means have a new map draughted. The one now in use was made by Abram Miller in May, 1860, and of the 36 districts in our county only about 10 still have the same boundaries as when organized, and some of them have been changed as many as ten times; consequently that old map has been scratched up to such an extent that when looking on it you can hardly distinguish the Calapooia creek from the Cascade mountains.

Badly Surprised.

Last Tuesday M. D. Ballard, of the firm of Ballard, Isom & Co., was enticed away from his home; and when he came back in the evening he was surprised to see that all his neighbors had invited themselves over and had full and complete charge of his dwelling and were making it ring with their laughter from top to bottom. Shortly after he made his appearance two of Mr. Buchanan's little girls came forward and in a neat little speech presented him with a beatiful cake in behalf of the friends present. He was considerably bewildered but the words accompanying the presentation enforced upon his memory that it was his 47th birthday, and that accounted for the merry-making. The evening was given up totally to enjoyment, and Mr. Ballard and his estimable lady will long remember the event as one of the most pleasant in their lives.

Free Tuition.

We call the attention of our readers to the fact that this county is entitled to six scholarships at the State Agricultural College at Corvallis, and if any young man wishes to embrace this opportunity of getting the privilege of attending a first class college without paying any tuition, all they have to do is to make known their wish. According to our State law each Senator has the privilege of selecting two young men to attend the College, and of course they will not make an appointment unless an application is first made. If any young man wants the appointment let him address Hon. S. D. Hasley or Hon. W. R. Bilyeu, at this city, or Hon. John. H. Smith, at Harrisburg.

A Saddle Thief.

A few weeks ago Perry Smith, living near Lebanon, had a saddle stolen from him, and by inquiring around he soon ascertained that a young man by the name of Geo. Painter was the thief. He recovered his property and had Painter brought before Squire Smith, at Lebanon, on a charge of petty larceny. He was tried, convicted and sentenced to the county jail for thirty days, and Constable McDonald brought him down last week and turned him over to the tender mercies of Sheriff Dickey. He has no doubt concluded by this time that it is even better to ride "bare-backed" than to use another man's saddle without his consent.

The Blue Ribbon Club.

The committee appointed to prepare a programme for a meeting of the Blue Ribbon Club last Friday evening failed to do its duty, and consequently the meeting was not what could be called a grand success. At that meeting however a committee was appointed to get up a programme for Friday evening of next week, and they have gone to work with a will. Remember the time and be on hand, as it will be one of the most interesting meetings which has yet been held.

The New Barber Shop.

Mr. Leon Cordier, the French barber, has sold out his establishment to Mr. J. H. Surles, late of Salt Lake. The latter gentleman has refitted the rooms, furnishing them in a real tasty manner and is getting a good run of custom. One thing which takes well with his patrons is the custom he has inaugurated of shaving and also shampooing a man for only 25 cents. If this isn't getting prices down to a rust basis we don't know what it could be termed. Read his card.

Appointment to University.

Miss Ida McKnight having passed the necessary examination before our County School Superintendent has been appointed to a scholarship in the State University. There is one more vacant scholarship yet to be disposed of, and any one can get it who can pass the examination, which is just the same as that required of teachers wishing certificates.

Members of the Press.

On Monday last we were honored with a call from Mr. Mosher, of the Benton county Blade, and Mr. Flett, of the Roseburg Star. Both were on their way to the State Fair, which shows plainly that their respective communities are not damaged to any great extent by the rust.

From Ochoco.

Johnny Schmeer came in from Ochoco last week and reports times as lively in that country. Stock is doing well and everybody is happy. He will take a lot of fine young horses over with him when he goes back.

Is It Taffy You're Giving Us?

No, it isn't; but Hoffman & Davis are now prepared to give it to you at the old prices. They this week again commenced the manufacture of red hot candy, and will keep it up through the coming winter.

An Estray Notice.

We wish to call the attention of our readers in the upper end of our county to an estray notice we publish this week.

THE TALE OF A PIN.

Only a pin, yet it calmly lay
On the tufted floor in the light of day,
And it shone serenely fair and bright,
Reflecting back the noonday light.

Only a boy; yet he saw that pin,
And his face assumed a fiendish grin;
He stooped for awhile, with look intent,
Till he and the pin alike were bent.

Only a chair; but upon its seat
A well-bent pin found safe retreat;
Nor had the keenest eye discerned
That heavenward its point was turned.

Only a teacher; but he chanced to drop
Upon that chair, when fizz-bang-pop!
He leaped like a cork from out a bottle,
And opened wide his valve de throttle.

Only a yell; though an honest one,
It lacked the element of fun;
And boy, and man, and pin, and chair,
In wild confusion mingled there.

A Costly Smash-up.

Last Tuesday "Uncle Johnny" Gilmour started for this city with three teams loaded down with flax-seed, carrying about 70 bushels on each wagon. Himself and son had each driven across the the bridge over the Canal near Mr. Cooper's place, and just as the third team, driven by Mr. Cassady, was coming off the main stringer on the lower side of the bridge broke. The horses had just gone off the bridge onto the apron, but when the stringer broke the decking slipped off the lower side into the water, taking the wagon with it. This drew the horses back and threw them above the upper stringer, with the wagon on the other side. The harness being strong held the horses in that position with their heels in the air and their heads most of the time under water. Unfortunately no one had a knife, and the horses had to remain in that position until Rob't Gilmour ran to a house near by and secured one. The harness was then cut and the horses set free. They were found to be considerably bruised and one nearly drowned, and, besides, the wagon was badly demoralized, about half the load of flax lost, also a good overcoat, some bed quilts which covered the load, and several other articles. The driver, Mr. Cassady, was bruised severely, and it is a great wonder he got off with his life. He says (and we believe him) that he did some lively scratching around when the wagon, in sliding into the Canal, made the horses describe a half circle through the air and then dropped them headforemost into water with their heels flourishing around his head. The damage resulting from this accident will probably amount to over $100, and the next question is: who foots the bill? Mr. Gilmour is certainly entitled to redress, and if the county keeps up the bridges over the Canal the sum will have to come out of the treasury.

The Stranded Steamer.

A Port Orford correspondent of the Coos Bay News furnishes that paper with the following: The steamer Alexander Duncan still remains high and dry upon the sands. She lies in a good position, and it is thought that there will be no trouble in getting her off on the next full moon tides which occur on the 30th inst. The only injury that she has sustained as yet is the breaking of her shaft, as was at first reported. Capt. Carroll has gone to San Francisco; he left Rogue river on the 20th, on board of the tug Vanessa, for Eureka, Humboldt Bay, whence he expected to go below on the Constantine or Humboldt. He takes the broken shaft with him. The Yaquina people will be glad to learn that the vessel will soon be on the route again, as she is a great convenience to that locality.

The Katie Cook.

C. Seastream, who was on the Katie Cook at the time of her disaster in the Alsea, came down the coast a few days since, says the Coos Bay Mail, accompanied by William Hammerburg and another of the crew. He reports that she struck on a bar in attempting to enter that river, and was very roughly handled. She lost her rudder and propeller, and broke her rudder post; a piece of her keel was also carried away. They moved her some distance over the south spit and launched her into the river. She now lies about four miles up the river, where she will remain till she can be repaired and got to sea, which time is very uncertain, as there is but little water on the bar.

Business Change at Lebanon.

Dr. J. M. Powell, late of Monmouth, has purchased the drug store belonging to Ballard & Ebert at Lebanon, and is now adding a new and well selected stock, and will offer special inducements to old customers. Dr. Ebert will remove back to his old home at Vancouver, and Dr. Powell has also taken his place in the practice of medicine, going into partnership with Dr. Ballard. Dr. Powell is an enterprising young man, and we feel sure that he will succeed in his new location.

Look Out For Poisons!

Many of the nostrums put up and sold for the cure of various diseases are very injurious by reason of the poisons which they contain, and which cannot be detected save by a chemical analysis. The Oregon Kidney Tea is not open to any such objections, but is a purely vegetable remedy, which needs only to be "drawn" like any other tea, and it is ready for use, curing without fail the worst case of kidney complaint or any disease of the urinary organs in either sex.

Important to Odd Fellows.

In the annual session of the United States Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, held at Baltimore, a resolution was adopted that members delinquent in assessments or dues be retired from active to dormant members and be debarred from voting or otherwise acting with lodges or encampments. Members heretofore dropped or suspended for non-payment of dues are restored as dormant members.

Heard From.

Last week we received a newspaper from Washington, Iowa, which contained the following notice:

Mr. Chas. Templeton and lady, of Albany, Oregon, on their bridal trip to Philadelphia, have been visiting relatives and friends in this city during the past week. They resumed their journey yesterday (Sept. 18), intending to spend the Sabbath in Chicago.

Beautiful and Cheap.

Mrs. Blevins & Powell have just received from San Francisco and Portland an unusually fine and well selected stock of fall and winter millinery goods which are now open at their fashionable millinery store and ready for inspection by the ladies of Albany and vicinity. Their stock is rich, rare, beautiful and cheap. Call and see them.

Losses at Kahn's Fire.

The loss at the fire in Mr. Kahn's mercantile establishment has been adjusted and the amount he receives is $3,133.24. Of this sum the North British and Mercantile Insurance Co. pays $1,535.72; the Connecticut, $829.65, and the Liverpool, London and Globe, $767.87.

Tuffy the News to Jimmy.

Last week Mr. Cundiff tore down the old building that stood on his property on Broadalbin street, between Second and Third, and will put up a new one at the same place. Our old citizens have probably forgotten it, and those who came here lately may never have heard it, but nevertheless it is a fact that the STATE RIGHTS DEMOCRAT got its start in that old building. It was opened out there in August, 1865, by Jas. O'Meara, now one of the editors of the S. F. Daily Examiner, and when Abbott, Brown & Traverse took hold of it in 1866 it was still in that building. In that little tumble-down shanty O'Meara wrote some of his strongest articles on State rights, and it was from the same that he went forth daily in quest of some Democrat with a weak head and a plethoric purse from whom he could borrow a piece. The DEMOCRAT was small at that time and its subscribers were few, and we cannot help but feel proud now when we see how it has progressed in both particulars.

Coming Back.

S. Canon and C. Westlake, both old Linn county farmers, are now back here looking after their farms, which have been rented out. Mr. Canon owns a large farm at Waitaburg, and Mr. Westlake has for the past year or two been located near Hollister, California. They both have large farms in this county, and the rust has struck the renters so that Mr. Canon will lose about $4,500 and Mr. W. about $2,000. Mr. Westlake has already written for his family to join him here and they will immediately take possession of their farm. Mr. Canon has rented his farm for one year and he tells us that next fall he will move back here and take charge of it. We look for less rust on those farms when the old proprietors take hold of them.

A Staunch Insurance Company.

The North British and Mercantile Fire Insurance Co. has already paid out over $4,000 on losses in this city during the present year, and still there is no whining by its managers. When they take a risk and lose, the cash is paid down inside of a week after the adjustment. There is no waiting for sixty or ninety days for your money, and the company doesn't root around, compromise, pay half, and all that. It is an insurance company in the pure sense of the term. Call on C. H. Stewart and learn the rates.

A Chance for Bargains.

At the late fire in Mr. Kahn's store his goods were considerably damaged in their general appearance, and he advertises this week that he will sell them off at a great reduction. He has stacks upon stacks of blankets, cloaks, ladies' underwear, shirts, etc., that have only been damaged slightly in looks, and are in reality worth just as much as ever, and he offers all at a bargain. For a list of his goods read his advertisement, and then give him a call.

The Sick Recovering.

We are glad to be able to state that M. V. Brown has so far recovered that he now sits up during the greater part of the day, and in a week or so he will probably be able to leave his apartments. He hopes to be able to resume his active duties on the DEMOCRAT in a short time. Mr. Herren is also recovering and is out on the streets nearly every day.

Gone to Rest.

Clifford, the infant son of W. H. Brunk, died at Walla Walla last Monday and the remains will probably arrive in this city tomorrow for burial. Since the death of Mrs. Brunk the baby has been under the care of its grandmother at Walla Walla, and has never been in good health. Mr. B. has the sympathy of his many friends in this city.

Second Hand Books.

A catalogue of about 20,000 second hand and shelf-worn books, in every department of literature, to be sold at nominal prices, will be issued January 25th, by the American Book Exchange, 55 Beekman street, New York. It will be sent post-paid for 10 cents, and the dime afterwards credited toward the price of any books ordered.

Lower Than Ever.

W. H. Hartless wishes us to announce that he has made a reduction in the price of all meats to cash customers. Remember that if you pay cash down at his market you will get a great deal more for your money. Don't you imagine that this is an advertising dodge—it is business, and so you will ascertain when you call on him.

A Good Chance for You.

Owing to continued illness Mr. C. P. Davis is unable to attend to the duties devolving upon him in his business, and consequently he this week advertises his half of the Albany Soda Factory for sale. Any good, reliable man with a little ready capital now has the opportunity of buying into a well established business.

Acknowledgement.

Some "Good Samaritan," signing himself simply "A Friend," this week sent to the editor of the DEMOCRAT, by express, a box of very fine, large and luscious peaches, all the way from Weston, Umatilla county. We can assure our modest friend that his kindness is thoroughly appreciated.

Choice New Books.

A large catalogue of a careful selection of standard and valuable works, offered at prices much less than they have ever known such books to be sold, has just been issued by the American Book Exchange, 55 Beekman street, New York. It will be sent free on request.

Christian Association.

The subject for next Sabbath afternoon at the rooms of the Young People's Christian Association is in the 4th verse of the 4th chapter of James; on Wednesday evening, in the 3d verse of the 3d chapter of St. John.

Haffenden's Removal.

To-day the Haffenden Brothers will remove their stock of groceries from the old stand to the Foster building lately occupied by P. C. Harper & Co. Remember this when you want groceries.

Mrs. Smith Coming.

Our ladies will take notice that Mrs. Sarepta Smith, the female physician, will be at the St. Charles Hotel in this city to-day, and at Corvallis from Sabbath until Tuesday. Read her advertisement.

Sour Krout! Sour Krout!

Conrad Meyer has a fine lot of splendid sour krout for sale. If you are a lover of it call on him and purchase a supply.

WHY SHE WANTED TO GO.

Tell me ye winged winds,
Around my pathway roaring,
Is there no spot on earth
Where men folks cease from snoring?
If such there be,
Pray let me know,
And to that place
I'll quickly go;
I'll pack my trunk
This very night;
I'll go alone,
Without a light;
I'll crawl clear there
Upon all fours
Before I'll sleep
With a man who snores!

THE GREAT SECRET.

A merchant rich in stocks and bonds
Was asked by one as poor as dirt,
How it had come that one was great
While each was equally expert.
"How is it," he went on to say,
"You see just where the kernel lies?"
"Oh, well, you know," the other said,
"The eyes I use is advertise."

Boys, you can get a nice knife at Clarke's for 10 cents, and for 25 cents you can get one with a white bone handle and two blades.

Uncle Jimmy Charlton called yesterday and settled up for the paper. This would be a better country if we had a few more men like him.

When you want any dress-making done in the very latest style and at low prices call on Mrs. Parks, one door below Saltmarsh's drug store.

Johnny Schmeer bought a splendid Pathfinder colt of Orlando Parrish a few days ago. He will take it over to his stock ranche on the Ochoco.

Still another large invoice of clothing, mens' furnishing goods, boots, shoes, etc., opened this week at the Farmers' and Mechanics' Store.

Farmers should take great care not to sow fall wheat on low, flat ground. In such places wheat will not fill and all labor and seed will be lost.

Through the kindness of Rev. J. T. Wolfe, our new Methodist minister, we have received a copy of the minutes of the last Conference of the M. E. Church.

John Foster was down here during the first of the week. He rented the building recently occupied by P. C. Harper & Co. to Haffenden Brothers while he was down.

You don't know how badly you have missed it if you have been roasting yourself over the stove this fall putting up tomatoes and peaches. Haffenden Bros.' have a large supply of luscious canned fruit and they sell it very cheap.

Mr. R. Koehler, President of the West Side Road, visited Corvallis last week. The City Council has not yet granted the company the right to run a track through the city.

For all sorts of ladies' and children's underwear, millinery or dress-making, go to Mrs. Parrish's at the Revere House. She has a splendid stock on hand and sells very low.

Love rules the court, the camp, the grove, the earth below and the heaven above, but it never sewed a gray patch on a husband's black trousers. That isn't love. That's revenge.

Geo. A. Webb, State Agent for the Commercial Union Insurance Co., gave us a call last Wednesday. He went up to Corvallis last Saturday to look after the interests of his company.

Persons who have been out over the county during the past week or so inform us that plows are running in every field. Our farmers are preparing to put in an immense amount of fall wheat.

A special dispatch by our grape-vine telegraph informs us that another young lady in this city is getting ready to change her name and promise to "love, honor and obey" a certain gentleman who lives down the valley.

There never yet was a boy so good that he didn't have an overwhelming desire to look for lump sugar when he came home and found that his mother had gone over to a neighbor's to "borry flat-irons."

If some kind of an amendment could be added to the marriage service which would make it mandatory on the part of the bride to arise in the morning and kindle the fire, there would be fewer old bachelors thumping about the country.

You couldn't throw a cat up our streets just now without its paws scratching a candidate for clerk or sheriff. If Senator Bilyeu had got his "fee bill" through at the last term of the Legislature there would probably not have been so many.

REMOVAL.

Do not forget that Haffenden Bros. have removed to the brick store formerly occupied by P. C. Harper & Co., nearly opposite the Odd Fellow's Temple, where can be found one of the largest, finest and most elegant stocks of staple and fine Groceries in the country.

Fine Lumber for Sale.

Ike Conn has made arrangements with S. Nickerson to do all his planing, and a large stock of flooring, rustic, furnishing lumber, etc., will be kept on hand at the planer in Lebanon. Flooring and rustic will be sold at $20 and $21 per thousand, and other lumber in proportion. Our readers will remember that the lumber from Conn's mill cannot be excelled anywhere.

Boots and Shoes.

Hard times has always been the cry in Oregon, but now it is hard times in reality, and money is as scarce with me as a ben's teeth, so you who have an interest in my welfare please step to the front. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Very respectfully,
ENOCH BOYLE.

Without a Rival, and the reason is obvious after a trial of over a quarter of a century. No family should be without a supply of that good old remedy, Emil Frese's celebrated Hamburg Tea. It is purely vegetable, mild, yet efficient in its action—carrying off all impurities from the system, and imparting a glow and vigor which only those who have used it can appreciate.

Do You Want Furniture?

Jas. Dannals, in this city, now has on hands a larger stock of furniture than any other establishment this side of Portland, and if you want to purchase any it will pay you to give him a call. He has something to tell you in regard to his prices.

Economy Club.

Harper's Magazine for $3.15, Scribners $3.30, New York Weekly Tribune $1.20, and other periodicals in proportion, are supplied through the Economy Club of the American Book Exchange, 55 Beekman street, New York.

Why will you suffer? Send to A. E. Mintie, M. D., Mo. 11 Kearney street, San Francisco, for the Restorative and be cured. Price, $3 per bottle. Four times the quantity, $10. Try a bottle. Dr. Mintie treats all private diseases successfully.

False Impression.

It is generally supposed by physicians and the people generally that Dyspepsia cannot invariably be cured, but we are pleased to say that GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER has never, to our knowledge, failed to cure Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint in all its forms, such as Sour Stomach, Costiveness, Sick Headache, palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, &c. Out of the 50,000 dozen bottles sold last year, not a single failure was reported, but thousands of complimentary letters received from druggists of wonderful cures. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sample bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. For sale by all druggists.

HOW TO SAVE MONEY.—Instead of going to a doctor for a prescription, if you have Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Pain in the Back and Loins, Smarting, Inflammation, Calculi, Brick-dust Deposit, or any trouble of the Kidneys or Bladder, buy a bottle of Dr. Mintie's Nephreticum, the great Buchu Compound. It is the most wonderful prescription for these troubles ever compounded. Messrs. Abrams & Carroll, wholesale druggists, say: "We regard Nephreticum as the best kidney and bladder remedy in the market." Woodard, druggist, Portland, Or., says: "Everybody speaks highly of it." Childs, druggist, Portland, Or., says: "Sold lots of it; it always does the work." Many have been cured of obstinate kidney complaints after the doctors have given them up. Price, $1.25. For sale by all druggists.

Summons.

In the County Court of the County of Linn in the State of Oregon:

J. L. Cowan, Plaintiff, vs. William Settle, Defendant.

To William Settle, the above named Defendant.

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint of the Plaintiff in the above entitled Court, now on file with the Clerk of said Court, by the first day of the next regular term of said Court after the publication of this summons for six weeks, to be begun and held on the first Monday of December, 1879, and answer the complaint of the plaintiff herein; and you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, as hereby required, the plaintiff will take judgment against you for want of such answer for the sum of $143 14, and for interest on $70.14 thereof from Aug. 1st, 1878, at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum, and for interest on $73 00 from Oct. 2d, 1878, at the rate of ten per cent. per annum, and for the costs and disbursements of this action.

Published by order of S. A. Johns, Judge of Court, which order bears date Sept. 29th, 1879.
