The most interesting topic at present is the Credit Mobilier investigation, caused by the charge that the stock was literally subscribed or given away to members of Congress. The committee has hitherto sat with closed doors. On the 14th of January, 1873, Mr. Garfield testified before the committee as follows: "I never owned, received or agreed to receive any stock of the Credit Mobilier or of the Union Pacific Railroad, nor any dividends nor profits arising from either of them." And on the 24th of January Ames and Mc-Comb testified and gave in evidence a letter of the 25th of January, 1868, in which he says : "You say I must not put too much in one locality. I have assigned as far as I have gone four to Massachusetts, one to New Hampshire, him: one to Delaware, one to T one set, one
