When fraud, violence or incompetence controls, the noblest Constitution and wisest laws are useless.

It is only by a full vote, free ballot and fair count that the people can rule in fact, as required by the theory of our Government.

The right of trial by Jury, the habeas corpus, the liberty of the press, the freedom of speech, the natural rights of persons, and the rights of property, must be preserved.

The Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, embodying the results of the war for the Union, are inviolable.

ALL classes of people must share alike the blessings of the Union, and are equally concerned in its perpetuity, and in the proper administration of public affairs.

A sedulous and scrupulous care of the Public Credit, together with a wise and economical management of our Governmental expenditures...

Public office is a trust, not a bounty bestowed upon the holder. The basis of a substantial, practical Civil Service Reform must first be established by the people...
