The Democrat.

MART. V. BROWN, EDITOR.

FRIDAY.....NOVEMBER 26, 1880.

"DEAD" AGAIN!

At the recent Presidential election the Democrats carried twenty States and the Republicans sixteen—a majority of four States for the Democracy. And yet the Oregonian and other Radical papers are declaring that the Democratic party is dead. This cry was made in 1864 when the Democrats only carried three States in the Union and when the Republicans had both branches of Congress by a two-thirds majority; and yet the Democratic party wouldn't stay dead. No howling Radical Macbeth could make the Democratic Banquo "down." The frantic abjurations of the Republicans that it must be dead simply made the Democratic corpse kick harder, and to-day it walks in all its majesty over the land, the peer if not the superior of its Republican adversary!

Can such a party be dead? Can such a party die?

Never!

It will move quietly along in the even tenor of its way, and in the near future, when the inevitable dissolution of its adversary must come, caused by its own innate corruption, then the grand old Democratic party, with its escutcheon pure and its banner unstained, will assume its rightful place at the head of the government, and retrenchment, economy and purity in the administration of public affairs will be restored and perpetuated.

SENSIBLE DEMOCRATIC HOOSIERS.

The Democratic candidates for Presidential Electors of Indiana met at Fort Wayne last Friday to discuss the causes of the Democratic defeat, and it was agreed to press upon the attention of the American people, first: a constitutional amendment to have the popular vote elect.

Second—Election of U. S. Senators by the people instead of the Legislatures.

Third—Review of the present unjust and discriminating tariff by capable men.

Fourth—Vigorous opposition to the introduction of Chinese cheap labor in order to preserve the dignity of intelligent labor.

Fifth—Taxation of greenbacks.

Sixth—No coercion by an office-holding public.

Seventh—Simultaneous elections all over the country in November.

Eighth—A Democratic Congress caused the prosperity now existing.

Ninth—Demand that the alleged frauds in New York be investigated in order that if Garfield is elected by fraud that Hancock may be installed.

TREE GRATITUDE.

Tompkins, who was some years ago convicted of mail robbery in Eastern Oregon, but afterwards discovered to be innocent, after having served several years in the Penitentiary, is one of the bondsmen of H. C. Paige, now under indictment at Pendleton for express robbery. Mr. Tompkins went on Paige's bond as a matter of gratitude, as the latter had worked assiduously for years to ferret out the guilty parties, and thereby effected Tompkins' release from punishment for a crime of which he was wholly innocent. This is certainly a noble act of gratitude, and should be especially commended because of the scarcity of that commodity in these degenerate times.

NEW DEMOCRATIC DAILY IN PORTLAND.

The Portland Sunday Mercury announces that a company is being organized for the purpose of establishing in Portland a Democratic daily after the plan of the San Francisco Examiner as to solid editorials and the Chronicle of that city for spicy city and country news and telegraphic intelligence. The paper will start off with sufficient capital to make the enterprise a success. The yearly and route rates of subscription will be lower by 40 per cent. than the leading morning dailies of Portland are now charging.

MEACHAM, THE MODOC SYMPATHIZER.

A telegram from Denver, Colorado, dated Nov. 1st, says:

A. B. Meacham, U. S. Commissioner, arrived last night and was shortly after arrested as an accessory to the murder of Jackson, who was killed by the Utes last September.

We are sorry for Bro. Meacham, but he always did think more of the Indians than of white settlers on the frontier, and it now seems that he is about to meet the fate of his renegade practices.

WE CONVINCED HIM.

A stranger asked us the other day if our Albany Ladies' Band could make good music, and when we coldly answered him that "they played upon their instruments just as we always dreamed that female angels would after that transfiguration which takes away everything earthly, and leaves naught but the soul of music," he lowly bowed his head, and slowly turning away, muttered under his beard, "Wall, Ibedam! They prably kin play some!"

TALLY ONE FOR IOWA.

It seems that the Democrats have elected one Congressman from Iowa—Cook, in the 6th District, who beats M. E. Cutts. So some good can come out of Nazareth, after all.

DEMOCRATS OF ALBANY.

The Albany municipal election will occur one week from next Monday. The official call for the Democratic Convention and the various Ward Meetings will be found in another column. It is earnestly hoped that every Democratic voter of the city will attend his ward meeting as well as the City Convention. If our party will throw all personal prejudices aside, and, looking only to the general welfare of the city, place a strong ticket in the field, and then stand by it on election day, we can elect every man nominated. With a weak ticket and foolish divisions and treacherous trading the chances are that not one will be elected. Nor should they. If Democrats cannot deal fairly with each other in these contests where is the use of holding a partizan convention? Why not let every fellow pitch in for himself—and the devil take the hindmost!

Treachery, trading, swapping and dickering with the enemy, to gain a personal advantage, have done us more damage than all the assembled cohorts of the common enemy.

Let's have no more of it.

Let every man that's put on the ticket stand by his fellow candidate, and then we have a chance for a grand victory. Otherwise the whole matter is in chaotic doubt and confusion.

An honest candidate would prefer going down with the rest of the ticket rather than trade himself into place at the expense of those associated with him.

A. O. UNITED WORKMEN.

T. S. Readman, of Douglas county, has received $2,000 from the A. O. U. W. as insurance, for the death of his brother in August. This is a noble Order, and one of the safest and cheapest life insurance institutions in the world. There is no lawing about your policies—no taking advantage of technicalities to cheat your heirs out of their just dues, but the obligation to pay is as sacred as human power can make it.

By-the-way, the Order in this Grand Jurisdiction has nearly reached the number required (2,000 members) to allow a severance of its connection from the General Grand Jurisdiction, and when that event transpires the death rates and consequent payment of assessments will be so small as hardly to be felt by any one. But to enjoy these benefits you should join the Order at once. There are two excellent Lodges in Albany, also one at Brownsville, and others will shortly be organized throughout the county. Make your applications at once, and thus provide for your families a sure fund in case of an emergency which otherwise might leave them in destitute circumstances.

GALL THEM TAFFY NOW.

It is amusing to see what a sudden regard for General Hancock fills the soul of the Republican press. It was but the other day when the General was "a mere soldier," a tyro in civil affairs, a vain, mercenary man, who was "crazy to be President," as General Grant put it, an "ignoramus" on the tariff question, and a weak, impressionable creature, wholly in the hands of the solid South, to be moulded to do the will of rebel brigadiers. Now we are informed that General Hancock is "unselfish and patriotic," and that there is "nothing of the trickster in his composition;" that he is "as manly in his acts as in his utterances," and "as brave in the political field as on that of battle;" that he would "spurn to do an unworthy deed," and all that. This to be sure only does General Hancock full justice; but what a pity the Republican press could not have accorded him the same justice while a candidate? May be this is all "taffy," designed to encourage the General in his reported rebuke of the alleged plan to recount the vote of New York.

NEW PAPER AT BAKER CITY.

M. H. Abbott & Sons are publishing a very neat and readable Democratic paper at Baker City. It is edited with Mr. Abbott's accustomed ability, and should be well patronized. Its title is Baker County Reveille, and we trust it may long live to sound the early morning bugle call to the sturdy Democracy of the Bunch-Grass region, assembling them to battle for the noble cause of Democracy and Constitutional Rights.

THE GREAT RADICAL INFIDEL.

Bob Ingersoll and a gang of infidels organized a society at Chicago last week for the purpose of preventing the reading of the Bible in schools and prisons. Bob is a great Radical head-light, and it will be remembered stumped the country for Rev. Garfield this fall!

For pure cussedness Bob Ingersoll and Beecher and Garfield are a trio that will do to bet on every time!

EDITORIAL CHANGE.

J. B. Fithian has retired from the Oregon City Democrat, and T. M. Draper has mounted the tripod. Mr. Draper is a young gentleman of culture and ability, and we predict for him a front seat among our Oregon journalists. We cordially welcome him to the field of newspaperdom—"unt may he lif long unt prosper!"

A SUBSCRIBER living away up in the Cascade mountains writes to ask us "how Iowa went in the late election?" Blacker than the hinges to the gates of Pluto's dominions!

DEATH OF INDIANA' GOVERNOR.

Last Saturday Governor James D. Williams, of Indiana, died at his residence in Indianapolis, of a malady of fifteen years' duration, inflammation of the bladder. His remains, after lying in state at Indianapolis until Tuesday, were conveyed to his home near Wheatland, where they were entombed on Wednesday. The funeral was attended by many distinguished personages, among whom were the Governors of Illinois, Kentucky and Ohio.

Gov. Williams—commonly known as "Old Blue Jeans"—was aged something over sixty years. He was a farmer but a man of large ideas and quick intelligence, added to which his strict honesty and conspicuous probity placed him in the front rank of Indiana's sturdy citizens. He was in the State Legislature several terms, and was, we believe twice elected to Congress, where he made himself prominent as the champion of the agricultural industries of the country and of economy in public expenditures. While in that body he voted against all measures of luxurious extravagance, and by his strictly economical course he gained for himself the not unenviable sobriquet of "Bull-dog of the Treasury." At the expiration of his second Congressional term in 1876 the Democracy of Indiana nominated and elected him Governor of that State, and his term of office would have expired with the current year.

Governor Williams was a pure, upright, incorruptible and honest man, and in his death the State of Indiana loses one of her best and noblest citizens.

Would that the country had more like him.

PUSHING FORWARD.

The O. R. & N. Co. Commence Running Trains to Blalock's, and Transfer there to Umatilla—Stage Line, Etc.

Sunday morning the first passenger train of the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company went over the road from Celilo to Blalock's, 33 miles east of the former station. Yesterday morning trains began running regularly to Blalock's where close connections are made with steamers for Umatilla. The hull of the old sternwer Tenino has been utilized as a wharf boat, and the steamer Northwest as a waiting room. Both are moored near the pro tem terminus of the railroad, and give ample accommodation for freight and passengers.

The stages of the Northwestern Stage Co. will hereafter arrive and depart from Blalock's, instead of The Dalles. A large stable is in course of erection for the accommodation of stock. The O. R. & N. Co. announce this morning the establishment of the following new stations on their line: Des Chutes, Grant's, John Day's, Quinns and Blalock's.

The track from a point opposite Ainsworth to Wallula will be completed to-morrow at noon. The Northern Pacific Railroad has ordered a telegraph line from Wallula to Ainsworth, which will be erected within a few days. The announcement that freight will be received in this city for the Northern Pacific to the present terminus of the track on the Pen d'Oreille division will probably be made before the end of this month.—Oregonian.

A SENATORIAL COMPLICATION.

The Tribune's Cincinnati special says Gov. Williams' death causes a new Senatorial complication in Indiana, and threatens to leave the State without a head and prevent the election of a United States Senator. The law requires that before either the Governor or Lieut.-Governor can take their seat the two houses must be organized. The Senate is a tie While Gray was Lieut.-Governor he had the casting vote, as he had two years ago; but the death of Williams leaves the tie to be broken by defection from one side or the other. The Democrats have determined, as heretofore, to organize the Senate, and will cling to their determination. If each side stands firm the Senate cannot organize, and without it neither Governor nor Lieut.-Governor can take a seat, and at the same time the constitution terminates the office of acting Governor on the second Monday of January. If the two sides of the Senate lock horns and remain in that attitude the State can be kept indefinitely without a Governor. A United States Senator is to be elected to succeed Senator McDonald. It is claimed a U. S. Senator must be elected at a stated time, and if the time goes by the Democrats say no legal election can be made by the present Legislature, and the next they hope to make Democratic.

GEN. ZEELER—HIS SERVICES.

Brig. Gen. Jacob Zeeler, commandant of the marine corps, who died last week in Washington after a long illness, was first lieutenant of marines in the Pacific squadron in 1846-47. He participated in the conquest of California; was commissioned captain Sept. 14, 1847, and brevetted major the same year for gallantry in action. He is remembered by old Californians for active service with Stockton, with whom he arrived in the frigate Congress and participated in the battle near Los Angeles.

IT is reported that General Sherman, having served over thirty years, will go upon the retired list after presenting his annual report.

TIMELY SUGGESTIONS.

We are greatly pleased to observe the tone taken up in regard to national politics since our defeat on the 2d of October last, by our country Democratic exchanges. It is altogether admirable, and if vigorously maintained, cannot fail to have its effect in strengthening the hold which the Democratic faith has upon the people of this Coast, as shown by the figures of the late contest. The interior of this State has for a long time better supported Democratic journals than has the city, but we have cause, in our own success, to believe that that period has passed and gone forever. It is the duty of every Democrat, whether residing in the city or out of it, to subscribe for his own paper, especially when it supplies all the news. If Democrats do that, they will be promoting the cause they so thoroughly believe in, and in the end will promote their own individual prosperity. They will build up an able and honest Democratic press, that will, at least, hold its own with its opponents, and will in the end drive some of them to the wall. If Democrats give their patronage to their own papers, the balance that remains will not support as many Republican organs as now exist, and some of them would have in consequence to succumb. That is the plain, common sense, business way of putting the case. Republican organs in this city have almost monopolized both Democratic and Republican patronage. Fully one-half of the newspaper support is derived from Democrats. Let that go where it rightly belongs, and it will follow that there will be fewer organs to lie about us, and those which remain will find it to their interest to be more considerate in their statements.

As things have gone on for a long time, the best [illegible] of a party have been grossly misrepresented, our principles have often been made to appear the opposite of what they really were, the great men of our party, all over the country, have been wickedly maligned, and even the good they have accomplished in Congress, and elsewhere, has been made to redound to the credit of our opponents, who opposed it. In this condition of things, it is really marvelous that our party has held together as well as it has. There must be a strong, abiding confidence in the soundness of Democratic principles in the minds of the masses, or otherwise the Democratic faith had been smothered under the load of misrepresentation to which it has been subjected.

By helping the Examiner with readers in the country who take a city paper, our country exchanges will be helping themselves in a variety of ways that we need not point out. An opposition organ ought not to be taken by a Democrat, in either city or country, to the exclusion of the Examiner. We mean to fill the bill, and trust our friends, in return, will see to it that our subscription list is full. We are very sure they desire to see the Examiner a power in the State, which it can only be by being read by a majority of the people in the State. The Democrats have it in their power, without costing them a single dime, to make the organ of their party the most influential paper, by all odds, that is published on the Pacific Coast. They have but to transfer their patronage from organs they do not believe in to one that they do. It is not enough, reader, that you take the paper yourself, but you will be helping the good work along by seeing that your neighbors take it also.

WHAT WILL HE DO WITH 'EM?

A Chicago dispatch of the 23d says: "The superior court had before it this morning a case of curious complications. Some months ago Wm. A. Sloan married a woman in Ohio, moved to Iowa and obtained a divorce through a Chicago lawyer, and upon the same day married another woman in Iowa. The courts of the latter State declared the divorce proceedings illegal and the second marriage adulterous. To-day the Chicago court held that the divorce was valid according to the laws of Illinois. It is therefore illegal for Sloan to live with either of his wives although he has children by both. He might, however, legally live with his Ohio wife in Iowa and with his Iowa wife in Illinois, but could not live with the Ohio wife in Illinois or with the Iowa wife in Iowa."

The Oregonian sententiously suggests that he should "take them both to Utah" and he would be all O. K. Not a bad scheme, considering the poor devil's predicament. After all, the Mormon business may do a fellow a good turn now and then, you know!

DEMOCRATIC ELECTOR FROM INDIANA.

The Times' Indianapolis special says the fact develops that through a blunder in making up the Republican ticket, H. S. Parker being substituted as elector for Gen. Bennett of Richmond at a late hour before the election, the Democratic candidate has a majority of 5,000 in a Republican stronghold of the State, Indiana is one for Hancock.

Edwin Booth has stopped the "Passion Play" in his theatre.

A VOICE FROM "BLACK MARION."

SALEM, Nov. 22, 1880.

Editor Democrat:

I see in the last issue of your paper a communication taken from the Standard of the 9th inst., headed "Good Advice." Now we wish to say that it is good advice, and we indorse it in toto. I hope Democrats may learn a lesson from the writer of those lines. Never give aid to the enemy—no, never under any circumstances. Let us now prepare for the battle of 1882, and make up our minds to kick out every enemy from our camp.

Our next Legislature will be one of great magnitude. We will have to elect a U. S. Senator, and pass upon those proposed amendments to the Constitution which will be of no little importance to us as a people for weal or woe. "Then make up your minds to take Democratic papers, and thereby sustain your own men and build up your own cause; never give aid to the enemy, but spurn them as you would poison."
