Worse and Worse.

Still there is no sale for wheat and mon matters are getting closer and closer. Eve one is cutting down expenses as much a possible, and doing their level best to pull through. This week a whole batch of clerks had to go, among when were Geo. Settlemier, Fred Blumberg, Jos. Webber, Jr. and Budd Johnson, and probably more yet will be discharged. The time now arriving for merchants to go below for their spring stocks, and as farmers canno may up, the question is-"where is the money to come from ?" Some merchants will have to enforce collection, and that will cause considerable distress. Altogether the prospect looks gloomy, and if we pull through surprise to many.
