CROP PROSPECTS IN THE STATE.

The Cincinati Price Current of this cannot be estimated, week publishes an extended report on the winter wheat crop, embracing reports from nearly 400 points in the winter wheat belt. Taking all the evidence into consideration, with an indication of some increase in the acreage, the crop may now be considered generally promising with a prospect of a fair yield, not much, if any less, than the preceeding year. In Ohio, returns indicate a pretty fair condition of the or p and a generally favorable outlook, There is more complaint in Indiana and the outlook is generally less favorable than a year ago. In Illinois favorable reports predominate and with an apparent increase in acreage, as the prospect seems to favor an outcome equal to last year. Missouri and Kansas reports are almost uniformly favora'de and there is an increase in acreage In Michican and the winter wheat sections of Wisconsin and Iowa, there is south, and with a small fraction of a much uncertainty, yet the prevailing popular majority in the north and condition is seemingly less favorable than a year ago, excepting perhaps in Iowa, In Kentucky prospects are less favorable than a year ago. Unfavorable weather now and in the early future, may considerably impair the intimidated-their faith is founded outlook, but on the other hand favor- upon the eternal principles of justice, able conditions of weather which now exist, if they continue a few weeks, will do great benefit.

KALLOCH's trial is now dragging along slowly, and it is probable that he will be acquitted. The defense is trying to prove that he was crazy, that he acted in self defence, that he is entitled to a leather medal for killing De Young on general principles, and the Lord only knows what else, and what surprise; us most is that they can prove anything they wish to.
