

STEWART & GREY, Editors and Proprietors.

O. & C. R. R. TIME TABLE. Albany Station.

Table with 2 columns: Train Name, Time. Includes Albany Express, Freight Train, Mail Train.

All trains daily, except Sunday. Notice: On and after this date regular tickets will be sold at our ticket office.

THIS PAPER may be found on file at Geo. Stewart & Grey's office.

OUR LOCALS.

F. M. Rich, jeweller. Choice groceries at Meyer's. Try the Star Brewery Beer.

Star Bakery. Best oranges in the city at C. W. Osborn's Variety Store. Go to Hoffman and Joseph for your cigars and tobacco.

The river is falling and will soon be almost low enough to go. Cannon fish will only 75c per gallon at C. A. Plummer and Co's.

Several very desirable houses to rent. Apply to Stewart & Grey. If you want a number one pair of eyeglasses call on F. M. French.

Plastering hair, a large supply and quality to suit at Thompson and McCoy's. Go to J. E. Sorbin's Palace Beer Hall to spend a pleasant social evening.

Best place in the city to buy tobacco at C. W. Osborn's variety store. The Narrow Gauge Railroad starts in next week with a regular time table.

Call at the Democrat office and see some of the finest specimens of fax ever raised. Dunbar's shoes are all the rage at Samuel E. Young's fit, style, and quality guaranteed.

Remember that you can always get the best of everything in the grocery line at Conrad Meyer's. Premium lists for the next Linn County Fair can be had at the office of Burkhardt Bros. in this city.

of the Albany agricultural warehouses. One young man at least has been reading the revised new testament, for we heard him say last Saturday that it was "as hot as Geneva."

Thermometer of late have been as reckless in conferring their degrees on the community as some one-hour college on medical students. Don't fail to look over the elegant display of fruits and vegetables in front of Hoffman and Joseph's grocery, when you are out marketing.

Some oratory came stole a new collar off that little black and tan dog of Baum's a few days ago. What is it that some people will not do?

It is useless for our physicians to argue against the short-sleeved dress now in fashion. The constitution of the United States says: "The right to bare arms shall not be interfered with."

Monteith and Seibenbach are still offering good bargains in dry goods. Remember that now is the time to take advantage of their low prices.

Repairs on Foster's brick block are progressing rapidly and when completed Messrs Monteith and Seibenbach will have as fine a store as anybody.

Messrs. Huston & Roberts have dissolved partnership in the blacksmith business, and Mr. Wm. Huston will carry on the business alone at the old stand.

Knapp, Burrell and Co., the great farm machinery firm of Portland, guarantee the quality of Skidgate oil. It will not gum. For sale by C. A. Plummer and Co.

Buy your overalls, blouses, jumpers, buck gloves, eye protectors, tobacco and harvesting hats at the Farmer's & Mechanic's store; full stock at bottom cash prices.

New stock of baggy whips just opened at Thompson and McCoy's. Long sevenfoots, specially adapted for Twine Binders. Go and get one before they are gobbled up.

home from the mountain last Monday evening. They caught some trout, but the nearest they came to killing any game was hearing a buck bellow near their camp.

Patrons of our home merchants. C. B. Monteith, of Lebanon, can sell you all the goods in the line of general merchandise just as cheap as you can go away from home and buy them.

We are in receipt of a copy of the "Resources of Oregon and Washington," a publication issued by Messrs. David and G. W. Steel, of Portland, Oregon.

Tom Curran had a bad time of it last week. On Friday he was thrown from a horse and skinned up considerably on Saturday.

John McHugh, living near this city, received the following letter last Wednesday, in relation to a shooting affair in which his son Walter was one of the principals:

DEAR SIR: I write to inform you that your letter of the 18th inst. has been received. I am sorry to hear of the shooting affair in which your son Walter was one of the principals.

For some time past a young man named Kinney, by profession a school teacher and by name an Oregonian, has had a reputation among the settlers of Eastern Oregon.

Joe Tyler paid Corvallis a flying visit last Tuesday. Ed. Cantland, of Seio, was in town last Saturday.

Dr. B. M. Savage has left Salem and located at Halsey. Mr. Perry Spink and family will start for the Bay Monday.

Miss Elva Dickney honored our office with a call last Tuesday. W. W. Piper, an architect of Portland, was up here last Saturday.

The flax crop throughout the valley is reported to be more promising than in past years. Several large fields in Linn county, sown early and on good soil, are said to have attained for growth that promises a heavy yield of seed.

Allow us to correct you by saying that such a favorable year for the culture of lint flax has never been known in Oregon. Lint or fiber flax from the Willamette Valley carried off the first prize at the Centennial Exposition in 1876.

Lin Engine Co., No. 2, has an active membership of 40. This company has a fourth class engine, and a second class engine in good serviceable order.

Rescue Hook & Ladder Co. has 25 active members, and has been in service about one year. They have a first-class Fred J. Miller iron frame truck with a complete outfit of fixtures.

The water supply of the city consists of six cisterns, of a capacity of 50,000 gallons, and a hydrant. On my last examination of the cisterns, July 13th, 1881, I found the following depths of water:

Perhaps there is no better fish than carp and our water facilities there is no better location than Albany in this State for the establishment of artificial fish ponds.

The Salem Statesman learns from W. P. Kelly, who arrived in this city on Monday, that the Yakima Bay Railroad is assured and will be built.

The railroad excursion to Portland, under the auspices of the German Aid Society of Albany, commences on Sunday and gives promise to be a grand affair.

The following are the Grand Lodge officers A. O. U. W. of the Jurisdiction of Oregon and Washington Territory, elected for the ensuing year:

Old "Father Worth," as he was familiarly called, died at his home in Halsey last Monday night after a sickness of several weeks, aged about 83 years.

home from the mountain last Monday evening. They caught some trout, but the nearest they came to killing any game was hearing a buck bellow near their camp.

Patrons of our home merchants. C. B. Monteith, of Lebanon, can sell you all the goods in the line of general merchandise just as cheap as you can go away from home and buy them.

We are in receipt of a copy of the "Resources of Oregon and Washington," a publication issued by Messrs. David and G. W. Steel, of Portland, Oregon.

Tom Curran had a bad time of it last week. On Friday he was thrown from a horse and skinned up considerably on Saturday.

John McHugh, living near this city, received the following letter last Wednesday, in relation to a shooting affair in which his son Walter was one of the principals:

DEAR SIR: I write to inform you that your letter of the 18th inst. has been received. I am sorry to hear of the shooting affair in which your son Walter was one of the principals.

For some time past a young man named Kinney, by profession a school teacher and by name an Oregonian, has had a reputation among the settlers of Eastern Oregon.

Joe Tyler paid Corvallis a flying visit last Tuesday. Ed. Cantland, of Seio, was in town last Saturday.

Dr. B. M. Savage has left Salem and located at Halsey. Mr. Perry Spink and family will start for the Bay Monday.

Miss Elva Dickney honored our office with a call last Tuesday. W. W. Piper, an architect of Portland, was up here last Saturday.

The flax crop throughout the valley is reported to be more promising than in past years. Several large fields in Linn county, sown early and on good soil, are said to have attained for growth that promises a heavy yield of seed.

Allow us to correct you by saying that such a favorable year for the culture of lint flax has never been known in Oregon. Lint or fiber flax from the Willamette Valley carried off the first prize at the Centennial Exposition in 1876.

Lin Engine Co., No. 2, has an active membership of 40. This company has a fourth class engine, and a second class engine in good serviceable order.

Rescue Hook & Ladder Co. has 25 active members, and has been in service about one year. They have a first-class Fred J. Miller iron frame truck with a complete outfit of fixtures.

The water supply of the city consists of six cisterns, of a capacity of 50,000 gallons, and a hydrant. On my last examination of the cisterns, July 13th, 1881, I found the following depths of water:

Perhaps there is no better fish than carp and our water facilities there is no better location than Albany in this State for the establishment of artificial fish ponds.

The Salem Statesman learns from W. P. Kelly, who arrived in this city on Monday, that the Yakima Bay Railroad is assured and will be built.

The railroad excursion to Portland, under the auspices of the German Aid Society of Albany, commences on Sunday and gives promise to be a grand affair.

The following are the Grand Lodge officers A. O. U. W. of the Jurisdiction of Oregon and Washington Territory, elected for the ensuing year:

Old "Father Worth," as he was familiarly called, died at his home in Halsey last Monday night after a sickness of several weeks, aged about 83 years.

attention to the matter of providing a suitable house for No. 2. As before referred to, the building they occupy was built by private subscription, and is just large enough to store their apparatus.

The department consists of 120 officers and men, 1 chief engineer, 1 assistant engineer, and 1 engineer for the steamer, who is also one of the night watchmen for the city.

The department is divided as follows: Albany Engine Co., No. 1, has 15 active members, second class engine, and a hand engine in good serviceable order.

The water supply of the city consists of six cisterns, of a capacity of 50,000 gallons, and a hydrant. On my last examination of the cisterns, July 13th, 1881, I found the following depths of water:

Perhaps there is no better fish than carp and our water facilities there is no better location than Albany in this State for the establishment of artificial fish ponds.

The Salem Statesman learns from W. P. Kelly, who arrived in this city on Monday, that the Yakima Bay Railroad is assured and will be built.

The railroad excursion to Portland, under the auspices of the German Aid Society of Albany, commences on Sunday and gives promise to be a grand affair.

The following are the Grand Lodge officers A. O. U. W. of the Jurisdiction of Oregon and Washington Territory, elected for the ensuing year:

Old "Father Worth," as he was familiarly called, died at his home in Halsey last Monday night after a sickness of several weeks, aged about 83 years.

The took social which was advertised to be given on Wednesday, August 3rd, has been changed to Friday evening, July 29th.

attention to the matter of providing a suitable house for No. 2. As before referred to, the building they occupy was built by private subscription, and is just large enough to store their apparatus.

The department consists of 120 officers and men, 1 chief engineer, 1 assistant engineer, and 1 engineer for the steamer, who is also one of the night watchmen for the city.

The department is divided as follows: Albany Engine Co., No. 1, has 15 active members, second class engine, and a hand engine in good serviceable order.

The water supply of the city consists of six cisterns, of a capacity of 50,000 gallons, and a hydrant. On my last examination of the cisterns, July 13th, 1881, I found the following depths of water:

Perhaps there is no better fish than carp and our water facilities there is no better location than Albany in this State for the establishment of artificial fish ponds.

The Salem Statesman learns from W. P. Kelly, who arrived in this city on Monday, that the Yakima Bay Railroad is assured and will be built.

The railroad excursion to Portland, under the auspices of the German Aid Society of Albany, commences on Sunday and gives promise to be a grand affair.

The following are the Grand Lodge officers A. O. U. W. of the Jurisdiction of Oregon and Washington Territory, elected for the ensuing year:

Old "Father Worth," as he was familiarly called, died at his home in Halsey last Monday night after a sickness of several weeks, aged about 83 years.

The took social which was advertised to be given on Wednesday, August 3rd, has been changed to Friday evening, July 29th.

FOR THE ANNUAL VICTORY. For D. M. Osborn & Co. Harvesting Machinery at the Oregon State Fair.

This certifies that D. M. Osborn and Co. was awarded the first premium on their Twine Binding Harvester, No. 8, at the Oregon State Fair, held at Salem, Or., July 11, 1881.

The above speaks for itself. The competition was between the "Osborn" and "Woods" Twine Binders. The McCormack and Marsh-Binders acknowledged defeat, and did not enter for premiums, but found time to exhibit on the Fair Grounds, but attracted no attention whatever.

The following statement of Wm. J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we feel it our duty to give it the attention of our readers.

STOP THAT COUGH. If you are suffering with a severe cough, cold, asthma, bronchitis, hay fever, consumption, loss of voice, tickling in the throat or any other pulmonary affection, you should try King's New Discovery for Consumption.

WRINKLED FACES. It is a painful sight to see young ladies in their teens with wrinkles and premature oldness of face. Nevertheless, it is quite common, and to any one who observes the signs of the time, the reason is very apparent.

BUCKLEY'S ANEMIA SALVE. The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sore ulcers, skin rashes, fever sores, leech, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all kinds of skin eruptions.

AMMON'S COUGH SYRUP. Ammon's Cough Syrup cures coughs, colds, bronchitis and consumption. It is a powerful agent in the treatment of all pulmonary affections.

Notice to Wool Owners. I have a first class wool carding machine at Corvallis and am prepared to card wool in good shape and at reasonable rates. Give me a call. W. J. GIBSON.

King of the Blood is not a "cure-all," but in all disorders attributable to impurity of blood and its defective circulation, nothing equals its effect. See advertisement.