HOT POETRY.

BY A PAR-BOHLED WRETCH.

Blaze on, Old Sot, braze on ! With all your pent-up heat-Blaze on !

Although I am cooked from head to feet Although I'm soaked from feet to head Although my nose is blistered red. Although I've wished that I were dead Never you mind, Blaze on !

Blaze on, Old Sol, blaze on ! With all your piercing rays -

You have my blessing on your blaze. 'lis true, I'm over shouting "phough !" 'Fis true I've sworn the hot air blue ! Tis true a sunstroke soon comes due; Never you mind!

The Thomas Fruit Dryer is rapidly taking the lead and distancing all competing dryers. We learn from the Agent, Mr. C. A. Curran, that over twenty machines have been put up the past week and all of them have worked to the entire atisfaction of the purchasers, Mr. A. Tripp living near Peterson's Butte, and W. K. Temple and A. Bardwell, of Sand Ridge, are among those who have the Thomas Dryers in use, and the manufacturers of this dryer take pride in referring to these gentlemen as to the merity of their machine. Mr. C. A.
