For all the latest novelties in ladies silk, plush, brocade, velvet and steel belts, go to Fox, Baum and Co.

Fred. Hein has commenced housekeeping in the house recently occupied by our late lamented partner.

Fringes, buttons, gimp, hose, shoes, rings, cord and tassels, for trimming, to match at Fox, Baum and Co.

There will be a grand ball at Sodaville, on Friday evening, Sept. 16th. Tickets, including supper, $1.50.

Fox Baum and Co's stock of hie thread, floss lined, and kid gloves, is complete. Foster kid gloves a specialty.

Fur and plush trimming in endless varieties for dresses and cloaks, which is all the go, at Fox, Baum and Co.

During the month of August our County Clerk issued 9 marriage licenses, and filed 44 deeds and 22 mortgages.

Dr. J. W. Watts delivered an interesting lecture on temperature before the Blue Ribbon Club last Friday evening.

Sheridan, the great actor, has drawn enormous houses at Portland, and did well at Salem for one night this week.

School books exchanged at C. A. Plummer and Co's on the best terms. Send your children to them for an outfit.

Geo. Hardy telegraph operator, tells us that during August he received at his office 3 1/2 messages, and dispatched 290.

Dry goods and groceries of all kinds and of the very best quality as C. B. Montague's.

Fox, Baum and Co. have the nicest stock of dress goods in the city, as the ladies all say, and of course it must be so.

Our cats are going off like "hot cakes." If you want some, come in. We have got what you want, but we can give you a start.

We have always heard that Grey was a fast color and we now need an additional evidence whatever to make us believe it.

L. E. Blain will hereafter make a specialty of hats. In a few days he will be able to fit you out in that line with any style you want.

The new Foster brick, made out of his old one, is now receiving the finishing touches, and the lower part is ready for occupancy.

Everybody buys those splendid Manilla 5 cent cigars at Hoffman and Joseph's. It takes an expert to tell them from a 10-cent cigar.

Folk's, lace, silk and satin collars and cuffs, for ladies and misses, Fox, Baum and Co's stock, without any exception, is the best.

An infallible remedy for Fever and Ague is Ayer's Ague Cure. Wholly vegetable and containing no quinine, it is harmless and sure.

There is going to be another comet—1740, don't you dodge yet; it's the comet of 1740, and it is only expected around once every 122,688 years.

Ladies call at Foshay and Mason's and see that beautiful new style of note paper they keep in stock. Nothing like it ever before in Albany.

Capt. Manning and Levi Fanning were dumped out of a buggy last Saturday and bruised up considerably, but neither one was seriously hurt.

J. F. D. Wrinkle & Co. is the cheapest place in Albany to buy Dry goods.

The Masons have received some beautiful six-light chandeliers for their new hall in Foster's brick. Call at Fox, Baum and Co's and see them.

Schools begin now in a few weeks and parents should remember to go to Foshay and Mason's to have their children's books exchanged.

Track laying on the Narrow Gauge from Brownsville to Corvallis began yesterday and will be rushed along rapidly until the road is completed to that point.

The reason that E. Gosa sells so much furniture at Lebanon is that he buys for cash at the manufactory of Graf and Fromm and then sells at low prices.

Hereafter when you want a chicken, go to Haight and Blumberg's meat market. They expect to keep them constantly on hand either alive or dressed.

Chickens! Chickens! If you buy chickens for sale bring them to Haight and Blumberg at the Central Meat Market and they will pay you the cash for them.

John Foshay will be here next month to lay in a big stock of fresh drugs, medicines, stationery, holiday goods. Look out for their new stock when it comes.

Redford and Irving still keep on hand a magnificent stock of family groceries and provisions. Any thing you want in that line can be had at their store, and if you trade there once you will call again.

The enterprising young firm of Monteith and Seibenschalk is now receiving a magnificent stock of general merchandise which will be sold at extremely low prices.

Ladies, if you want to know about the latest fashions and all about the latest novelties, read what Fox, Baum and Co. have to say in our local columns this week.

The invoice of cloaks, dolmans, circulars, blouses and socks, at Fox, Baum and Co's, is something worth selling. Those fur and plaid trimmed are grand and all the style.

The quarterly public examination of applicants for teachers' certificates will be held at the Court House in Albany on Friday and Saturday, Sept. 23d and 24th 1881.

Blain is now receiving his new stock of clothing, which is the best he has ever brought to Albany. Go to him to buy your outfit, and you will get a bargain as well as good clothing.

Workmen have recently been busily engaged in putting up the bridge across the Calapooia at Brownsville on the line of the Narrow Gauge Railroad, and it was finished up last Monday.

Yesterday and today Monteith and Seibenschalk were moving their stock of goods back to their old location in Foster's brick, which has been specially fitted up for them in a fine style.

Family groceries and provisions of all kinds for sale by Hoffman and Joseph at living rates. Don't advertise to give their goods away, but customers will find out that they charge only a reasonable profit.

1500 dozen of hose, all shades and colors, at Fox, Baum and Co's, which were bought at a bargain, and will be sold at astonishing low prices. Call and get your pick, as they go like hot cakes.

The Olive Chilled Plow will run and do good work in dry ground when a steel plow cannot be kept. They are just the plow you want for summer fallowing. For sale by Samuel K. Young.

Schools who need books for the approaching term of school should not fail to call on C. W. Osborn for prices. Books and stationery lower than ever offered here before and a good stock on hand.

The telegraph line through this city will be changed in a few days. Instead of running down the back alley and along Lyon street, it will run direct from the office up Ferry street to the railroad.

H. Brunk, one of the solid farmers of Holt, Polk county, is threshing his large crop of grain and is doing splendid work. He has just headed and threshed thirty-five acres of heavy wheat in one day.

Conrad Meyer is offering better inducements than ever to the people of Albany. Everything, and more than everything, usually found in a first-class bakery and grocery store, is to be obtained at his establishment.

Yesterday C. W. Osborn again commenced the manufacture of red-hot taffy of all flavors. He has acquired quite a reputation for his taffy, and as soon as it is known that he has again commenced its manufacture he will have a perfect storm of customers.

A sleeper is one who sleeps; a sleeper is also a place where a sleeper can sleep; and a sleeper is, too, a thing over which runs the sleeper in which the sleeper sleeps; so that the sleeper in the sleeper sleeps, while the sleeper runs on, as well as sometimes leaps off the track.

Mr. O. P. Tompkins, of Harrisburg, has decided to make a change in his business on account of poor health. Until further notice he will sell all goods in his line, stoves, tinware, copperware, etc., at bed-rock prices. Give him a call and secure some of the largest gains he is offering.

A prepaying subscriber has always occupied an exalted position in our mind until a few days ago. The delinquent subscriber is our hero now. If our delinquent subscriber had squared up accounts with us a short time ago the chances are that the money would now be in his pocket.

Our readers should not forget that I. G. Jackson has just returned from below with a magnificent stock of well selected general merchandise which he will sell at lower prices than ever. Call and examine his goods and learn at what figures he is selling.

Samuel E. Young has just returned from San Francisco with a large stock, containing all the novelties in Fall and Winter goods—These goods are all bought for cost and will be sold low. Parties wanting goods cannot do better anywhere in the city.

C. B. Montague, at Lebanon, is offering for sale a case of groceries unexcelled. The people in that vicinity are relying upon receiving first class articles, and need have no hesitation in dealing with him for fear of not obtaining just what they are paying for.

The firm of Monteith and Seibenschalk is not as old as it is young in Albany, but both members of it are young and energetic and by their fair dealing have already worked up to a prominent place in the front rank of our best mercantile firms. We can recommend them to our readers.

On your way home from the mountain's stop at C. B. Montague's at Lebanon, and lay in your stock of goods, as you will not get another such opportunity, as is offered at the present time. He is offering better bargains than can be found elsewhere in Linn County.

The library at the Y. F. C. A. Hall is open every night from half past six until nine o'clock. Encourage it by your presence, for it is an institution which ought to be built up and made an ornament to our city. There is no reason why in a new city it should not have at least a thousand volumes, where now there are but about a hundred.

Judge Powell and his son Jimmy arrived home from the mountains last Friday. The Judge killed a big blue buck, the largest one of the season, and also caught lots of deer.

Nick Springer and family got home from the mountains last Sabbath, after spending several weeks at Upper Soda. He killed six or seven deer and was never without trout while up there.

Geo. F. Burkhardt heard of our financial basket and came in last Tuesday and subscribed for the DEMOCRAT and paid in advance. Such sympathy as that could be appreciated by any one.

C. E. Stannard, of Brownsville, paid us a visit last Tuesday. He is now conducting a grocery store at Brownsville and is doing a good business. He is an old schoolmate of ours, and is a "mighty" good boy.

Hon. Jas. K. Whitford, and family arrived home this week. He has made a trip back to Missouri, and his wife and children are now stopping at her father's at San Jose during her husband's absence.

Mrs. Duncan has the honor of being the first member of the Ladies Corset Band to get married. That institution expressed its appreciation of the fact Tuesday night by serenading her and her happy husband.

Rev. R. J. Thompson and family returned to this county last week from Kansas, and will make this county his home in the future. He is now stopping at the farm of his father-in-law, Andrew Kolb, in Orleans Precinct.

The evening exercise was almost a wedding procession last Monday evening. Dr. Powell and wife, of Lebanon, returned from their wedding tour at that time, and John N. Duncan and his wife came home from St. Paul, Minn.

Sept. 5th, of Harrisburg, came down last Tuesday morning and while here paid us some money which some of our friends at Harrisburg had lent him for us. He is one of our best agents and a better man cannot be found anywhere.

Ed Geary, formerly connected with the postoffice in this city, has been studying medicine for some time in Eugene, and last Saturday started for Philadelphia to complete his studies in one of the great medical colleges in that city.

Eugene Buchanan and family returned home last Tuesday after being absent for several weeks. Mr. B. has been harvesting on his ranch near Goldendale, W. T., and his wife and children have been visiting Mrs. E. Fisher, Hon. N. Ford, at Walla Walla.

We never knew why Henry Clark married while his bosom friend "Ballet" was away until that worthy got back from "Prisco" last Wednesday. It seems that on account of a contract existing between them it was better for the Doctor to commit matrimony in "Ballet's" absence.

Private Bill, of Company D, 6th Cavalry, who was killed in the recent Indian outbreak in Arizona, is supposed to be Henry Bird, formerly of this city, a brother of Mrs. Eason. He was known to belong to the 6th Cavalry, and his term of enlistment would have been up in about one month.

Joseph Liggett and his two sons Wilbur and Clifford, of Brownsville, are all working on the Oregon Pacific Railroad. The old gentleman is foreman of a spur-gang, and the two young men are each bossing Chinese graders. Besides this they have furnished three teams, getting four dollars a day for each.

A Lawn Party.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian Church will give a lawn party at the residence of Mrs. Walter Monteith this (Friday) evening, opening at about 6 o'clock. They will charge an admission of 25 cents for the gate, and refreshments will be furnished free of cost. Arrangements are being made for different kinds of games—croquet, andery, etc., and all who attend will doubtless have a splendid time. Make your arrangements to go and remember that it is to-night.

No Tidings of Gey.

We have received no tidings from our late partner further than that he went to San Francisco, and then all trace of him is lost. It is very probable that at that point he took the Southern Railroad and is now safe in Mexico. During the past week we have ascertained that we are not the only one who has suffered by his departure. He devoted up his patronage very liberally and nearly all our business men are his creditors for various amounts varying from one or two dollars up to $150.

Subscribers in "The Forks."

We are now sending out statements of account to all our subscribers, and some of them who reside in the forks of the Santiam will see that they are not credited with as much money as they have paid in. Mr. Brown sent out a collector by the name of Hopkins last spring and the young man proved to be a disonest and did not report the amounts collected. We wish that all who paid him would send in their receipts so that we can give the proper credits. Subscribers shall not lose a cent by their dishonesty, and as soon as their receipts are sent in we will credit them with the amount paid and return the receipts. We hope our readers will do as we ask at their earliest convenience, as we can have their accounts in some kind of shape.

Linn Engine Co. No. 2.

The annual meeting and election of officers occurred last Monday evening. Following are the new officers:

Foreman—Ed. Zeigler,
1st Ass't—Geo. W. Gray,
2nd Ass't—John Hoffman,
President—W. H. Huston,
Secretary—Geo. Hochstetler,
Financial Secretary—A. C. Layton,
Treasurer—J. W. Balch,
Finance Committee—P. H. Raymond, Geo. F. Simpson and E. R. M. Carter.

Change of Firm.

Last Wednesday M. S. Monteith sold his Job printing office to Messrs. Watts & Godfrey, of Salem, who have taken charge of the business. Mr. Godfrey has had many years experience in the office of E. M. White at Salem and is one of the best job printers in the State. Mr. Watts has never worked at job printing, but has been connected with the Salem "Statesman" for some time, and can soon drop into the traces in this new business.

The Price of Wheat.

On Tuesday last wheat commenced dropping and it now rates in this city 75 cents cash. The prospect for a rise in price is not very great, as charges have stiffened and are now quoted at 90 shillings.

Was He the Man?

Under this caption the Daily Register of last Saturday publishes the following in relation to the past history of our former partner, Grey, North, or whatever his name is:

In the month of September, 1879, the city of Madison, Wisconsin, was thrown into a fever of excitement by the rumor that a forgery and breach of confidence had taken place in such a quiet manner that the perpetrator had several days the start before the crime became generally known, and the trace of the man was lost, with this exception, a few months later a man answering the description of the forger was heard of in St. Paul, Minn., and from thence all further traces of him were lost, and his whereabouts remain till this day a mystery.

On the 23rd day of July a gentleman by the name of Jackson, arrived in this city from California, who had about nine months prior, come from Madison, Wisconsin. Being of a quiet and unassuming nature, he was known in this city beyond his immediate associates. About two weeks ago, one evening, while standing in front of the postoffice talking to another gentleman, Grey made his appearance and passed into the office after some mail, and in a few seconds returned, and met Jackson face to face, and the two men were gone. After he (Grey) had left, Jackson asked his companion who the gentleman was, when he was told, and he remarked, "I have known him some where before." Nothing more was said on the subject. That evening, when Jackson retired to his room, he had been thinking of the one being confident that he had met him somewhere, and being a stranger in this city, he thought perhaps, after exchanging views with Grey he might find in him an old acquaintance. Although his memory refused to call up the name, Grey, yet he felt assured he had once upon a time been acquainted with him. A few days later he met him and Grey met again upon the street, and Jackson, thinking that he would interview him and perhaps settle up an old acquaintance, spoke to Grey, but he was only a man who gave when his suspicions are aroused, and he refused to talk to the postoffice. On coming out, he again met Jackson, when he appeared to be somewhat agitated. Jackson had seen enough, and he felt that he had met the man before, and his appearance and actions lead him to believe that it is the man that the authorities in Madison, Wisconsin, would like very well to interview. He says that if Grey is not the man he had in view, who was he? and why did he treat him in such an ungentlemanly manner? We are led to believe that Grey recognized Jackson, and fearing detection, committed another crime and skipped the country, rather than to be identified.

There is no doubt in our mind but that Mr. Grey had at some time in his life been in Madison, Wisconsin, and committed a crime for which he had not made amends to the law, and that he had received word that his whereabouts had been discovered, but it is only barely possible that he and the Madison forger are one and the same. He came to St. Paul in the spring of 1880, and instead of having money, as would probably have been the case had he been the Madison forger, he was almost penniless. He remained at St. Paul until about the second week of August, when he married and came almost directly to Albany, arriving here about the first of September. We can very truthfully testify that his supply of "bullion" has been decidedly short since he arrived in Albany, and as he had none at St. Paul, we are inclined to believe that if he did commit forgery at Madison he was certainly not so successful as he was here.

Our Public Schools.

To the patrons and pupils of the Albany public schools: The next term of school begins Oct. 3d, 1881. Following is the arrangement of grades and teachers for the ensuing year:

Lower ward, first and second readers—Miss Minnie Allison, teacher.

Upper ward, first and second readers—Miss Rova Alexander, teacher.

Room C, third reader—Miss Ella Sparks, teacher.

Room B, fourth reader—Mrs. Scraftford, teacher.

Room A, fifth and sixth readers—C. C. Hogue, teacher.

Recitation teacher—Miss Laura Houk.

As the time allowed for exchange of introduction of the new school books expires before school commences, or on Oct. 1st, 1881, you will save much money by completing the purchase or exchange of your books before that date.

All pupils not present at the final examination of last year will pass examination at entrance into school, or be reentered one grade.

Any pupil who is in doubt in regard to any book or books, can apply to his teacher for information.

The higher class in Clark's Normal grammar will be allowed to complete the course in that book. All others desiring to study this branch will purchase or exchange for Brill's grammar. The regular attendance of all pupils of the school to assist me in attaining this end. Whenever any of the patrons or pupils think they have just cause for grievance, I shall be very glad to have them call on me, either at the schoolhouse or at my residence.

C. C. HOGUE, Principal.

Go from Home for News.

Sam'l E. Young returned from San Francisco last Wednesday and brought home with him a copy of the San Francisco "Call" of Sept. 31, which contains the following notice:

Both members of the firm of Stewart & Grey, who were in the late fire, were published at Albany, left town to-day under circumstances which lead the publisher to believe that they were not the same $4,000, it is said, is unaccounted for. Stewart has a wife and several children in domestic circumstances.

It is in some way strikes us that this must be a mistake, or else the recent change in the firm has "permeated."

By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that the books and the right for selling pools at the coming Linn County Fair will be sold at public auction on Wednesday, Sept. 14th. The time for entries for the races has been extended to Sept. 20th.

Services Resumed.

The work of repairing the Congregational Church has been almost completed and regular religious services will be resumed next Sabbath.

A Pleasant Visitation.

Last Tuesday night our slumbers were dispelled by ravishingly sweet music from somewhere near our chamber window. At first we thought it might be that we had passed (accidentally, of course) into "that upper and better kingdom" and were listening to an air from "the angel throng." Walking to the window and gazing out beneath the curtain the light which met our eye might not have dispelled the illusion, had it not been for the absence of wings on the musicians, and the presence of several young men whom we knew St. Peter would never allow to enter at the golden gate. This had the effect of bringing us down from our exalted but troubled mental situation, and by reasoning as a common mortal should, we soon ascertained that it was our Ladies Band trotting us to a serenade. We cannot find words sufficient to express our thanks to the young ladies and shall ever remember the event as one—

Old Mail Service Resumed.

We are glad to be able to announce that none of the orders discontinuing any of the mail lines to Albany are to be carried out—all have been countermanded. The mail service between this city and Lebanon had been ordered discontinued; also the one from here down through Polk to Dallas. It was rumored that the one to Corvallis was to be stopped, and the order had been issued, discontinuing the one between Marion and Seio, which would cut off all connection between Albany and the forks of the Santiam, but it is now announced officially that none of these routes are to be interfered with, and the news will be received with pleasure by our people.

The Ess Threshing Outfit.

Gilmour & Watkins are getting away with all competitors in threshing grain this season. They have a Westinghouse engine and separator and in a 12-day run have threshed 16,000 bushels of wheat, and during that time have moved as far as eighteen miles in a day. On account of the rapidity of their machine and the small number of hands it takes to operate it, the expense of harvesting is reduced to $3.00 per acre. They have threshed for W. M. Powers and Porter State, near Seio, and for Smith Bros., W. H. Power, John P. Reitor and others near Halsey, and take pleasure in referring to them as to the quality of their work. They charge only the customary price, and if a farmer is a little dubious of the weather they will put on two men's hands and run night and day. Farmers wanting grain threshed should hunt them up. They are now working at Jas Finlayson's farm.

New Livestock Sale.

Or not exactly that but a new firm. Last Saturday Hon. Javan Wheeler sold his interest in the livery business to Lewis Silmson, and the new firm of Dickey & Silmson opened last Monday. Although Lewis is a good farmer he will make a better livery man, and with I. C. Dickson as a partner, the amount of business they will do will simply be enormous. They have some splendid turnouts, and can fit out a person with almost any kind of a vehicle wanted, and their charges for teams or for feed will be very reasonable. To add to their popularity, they propose advertising in the DEMOCRAT and make the start this week. When you want anything in their line give them a call and you will find them two of the most accommodating gentlemen in the county.

Advertisement.

This temperance question is becoming a gigantic proportion, or rather opinion, of the subject here. We this week received four long communications on the subject besides the one from the Rev. Stevens. If we had published them all we would have had to throw out all our other matter, and also cut out a supplement. We would like to give every one a chance, but the present size of our paper will not allow it. If you have any new idea to advance on the subject, we would be glad to receive it, but put it in as few words as possible as our space is limited.

The New Reading Room.

The new reading room under the auspices of the Temperance organizations and Christian Associations of this city, opened on Thursday evening, the 1st of this month under very favorable circumstances.

The papers and magazines for which we have subscribed had not all reached here, yet but we hope we are growing older to be more worthy the liberal patronage so far shown us. The room will be open for the fall and winter from 6:30 to 9 P. M. No paper or books are to be taken from the room. Come all and use them freely there. We hope by keeping the room quiet that many will find it a pleasant and comfortable retreat.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Committee Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Public Reading Room Committee at the Y. F. C. A. Hall Friday evening, Sept. 9th. Let every member of the committee be present; important business to transact.

E. R. SEIPSWORTH, President.

W. S. PETERS, Secretary.

Blue Ribbon Officers.

Last Friday evening the Blue Ribbon Club elected the following officers:

President—Miss Maggie Hooker,
Vice Presidents, T. F. Haeckle and H. L. Finn.
Secretary—E. R. Skipton,
Treasurer—W. S. Peters,
Chaplain—Rev. J. W. Hartwright,
Executive Committee—E. F. Sox, Mrs. H. L. Templeton, Miss Hattie Miller, Dr. Geo. W. Price and Miss Minnie Monteith.
Finance Committee—Dr. J. A. Davis, Mrs. L. E. Blain and W. B. Scott.

Ladies Coffee Club.

The Ladies Coffee Club will hold a meeting at No. 1 Hall next Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock sharp. The fire bell will be tapped five times. All should remember to bring their dues.

MRS. J. A. UPHAM, SECRETARY.

BOUN.

WHITNEY.—In this city on Wednesday, August 31st, 1881, to the wife of Hon. J. J. Whitney—a son.

MARRIED.

DUNCAN—PAXTON.—At Portland, on Monday, Sept. 6, 1881, by Rev. T. L. Elliott, Mr. JOHN DUNCAN and Miss EVA PAXTON—both of this city.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS!

We wish to inform the farmers and the public in general that our Mr. Baum has just returned from San Francisco, and brought with him the largest and best selected stock of General Merchandise ever in Albany, which we propose to sell cheaper than any other house in the city, and to convince you that we mean what we say we would respectfully ask you to call and examine our goods and prices. A great many dealers advertise that they will sell cheaper than any one else and then FAIL TO DO SO, BUT WE MEAN JUST WHAT WE SAY, AND WILL SELL GOODS AT BED ROCK PRICES. COME ONE! COME ALL!

Respectfully Yours,
FOX, BAUM & CO.

MONEY TO LOAN ON BETTER TERMS THAN EVER.

I am now better prepared than ever before to negotiate loans on good unproved farm lands. The departure of my late partner has not interfered with my connection with the firm for which Stewart & Grey were loaning money and I can obtain loans on more liberal terms than ever. If you must have money, remember that I can get it for you.

CLAB H. STEWART.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.

Wrecks of Humility.—Indications of Youth.—No object is more soul appealing than the premature oldness of youth, as lately witnessed among the habitues of our public promenades, where many can see the terrible results of disease in its most frightful forms of the ghastly and cancerous wreck of manhood, the dejected victims of unprincipled quackery, who, by perniciouss nostrums, have impregnated the systems of their unsuspecting and confiding patients with mineral poisons. For all such cases, before commencing Holloway's Pills and Ointment are powerfully efficacious, being composed of rare balsams and vegetables that are antagonistic to all disorders of the blood, and ulcers arising from virus in the body. They contain not a particle of mercury or other mineral poison.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the signature of J. H. HOLLOWAY, near London, is on the wrapper, and the name Holloway & Co., New York, is on the box.

There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

HOLLOWAY & Co., New York.

Adjudged an Issue.

Last Monday morning Silas Condra was brought before Judge Finn, and upon being examined by Dr. Davis and Jones was pronounced insane, and was taken to the asylum at East Portland on the noon train. He was a son of Aaron Condra, who lives near Harrisburg, and was about 35 years of age.

To the Public.

J. A. Gross, proprietor of the depot hotel, keeps one of the best public houses in the State. His rooms are kept scrupulously neat and clean, and on his tables can be found the best food the market affords. Parties going off on the morning train can get coffee and cakes or an entire breakfast just before the train leaves.

Notice.

All parties indebted to me are hereby notified that I have left my accounts in the hands of John Cunmer and D. H. Looney, and that I shall require immediate settlement of the same either by cash or note. No other parties are authorized to settle for me except the above.

Albany, Or., Aug. 28, 1881.

DISSOLUTION NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between C. H. Stewart and A. J. ## MARKING WATCHES.

Defective Watch Cases are one of the chief causes of so many watches not doing good time pieces. The cases being thin and not fitting well, admit dust and dirt, to the movement, which soon interferes with the running of the watch necessitating cleaning, repairing, etc., and the amount thus paid out if applied toward buying a good case, being made one of the necessities of the jewelry trade, possessing all does so many advantages over all other watch cases, being made of solid heavy plates of solid gold over a plate of composition, and we advise all our readers to ask their jeweler for a card or catalogue that will explain the manner in which they are made.

It is the only SWITZERLAND CASE made with two plates of gold, seamless pendulum, and center, solid joints, crown pieces, etc., all of which are covered by letters patent, and for every year of service the watch becomes a jewel which keeps the JAS. BOSTON PATENT SWITZERLAND GOLD CASE, that you may learn the value of the watch and all its limitations that claim to be equally as good.

For sale by all responsible jewelers. Ask to see the warrant that accompanies each case, and don't be persuaded that any other make of case is as good.
