

C. H. STEWART Editor and Proprietor.

HOME AND ABROAD.

F. M. French, jeweller. 'Here's our little news boy' County Clerk is in session this week.

The Oliver Chilled Plow is the best plow for dry ground. Nine families of emigrants arrived in Albany last Saturday.

What beautiful silk handkerchiefs I saw at 25 cents each at J. F. D. Wrinkle and Co's.

To go to keep ladies all lined handkerchiefs 3 for 50 cents at J. F. D. Wrinkle and Co's.

Jack P. Ware, who killed Bar. Corcoran at Portland, has been sentenced to be hung Dec. 25th.

Six X black beaver, French diagonal, French plaid, light, for cloaks at J. F. D. Wrinkle and Co's.

Remember that Central Meyer has a first-class stock of crockery on hand, cheap and of the best quality.

Yanag ladies; if you want a neat fitting cloak elegantly trimmed just go to J. F. D. Wrinkle and Co's.

Ed Ballinger has put a new floor in his brewery and is getting things in nice shape at his place of business.

'Good luck' is the name of a new brand of tobacco which C. W. Osborn has for sale. Cues it and good luck is yours without a doubt.

Remember the meeting of Scott's gun at the gunnery evening to organize for Thanksgiving hunt. Every one who can shoot should take part in it.

Adeline Patti has arrived in America and will thrill the hearts of thousands by the sweetness of her voice, which though it is claimed by the best authorities, is not to be compared with the best of the world.

Some of our citizens may remember a gentleman passing through this city about a year ago by the name of R. B. Hayes, although he is forgotten by most people.

Some of our citizens may remember a gentleman passing through this city about a year ago by the name of R. B. Hayes, although he is forgotten by most people.

Imparting the contents of his ring tray, as we are told by some of his organs who saw him through the window. They wanted us to blow the whole affair, but we won't do it for the reason that we know how to feel for him. It hasn't been many years since we were in the same predicament ourselves.

Our young people have at last got started in the right direction. Last Monday evening a number met at the residence of Jas. H. Foster, and made their plans for the organization of a reading club.

That famous old fire insurance company—the Hartford—has come into Oregon at last. C. H. Stewart has been appointed agent at Albany. The Hartford was established in 1794.

No better place to buy groceries and provisions than at Hoffman and Joseph's. Everything a man can want they keep in stock and sell at as low prices as can be afforded.

The only place in town where hot candy can be procured is at C. W. Osborn's. He makes large quantities of it and sells cheap. His place of business is opposite McIlwain's.

Well, daughter, when you want to buy lace collars and cuffs, rashes, shaded ribbons and etc., all of the latest styles, stop into the store of J. F. D. Wrinkle and Co's Albany.

The Oliver Chilled Plow will run and do good work in dry ground when a steel plow cannot be kept in. They are just the plow you want for summer fallowing. For sale by Samuel E. Young.

Miller Morgan, one of the solid old farmers of Shedd precinct, brought us in a bag of most beautiful apples a few days ago, and thus placed our whole office force under obligations to him.

Portland has a young man, we are informed, who takes to the police for anything. He takes off his hat when he talks with the young ladies through the telephone. His name begins with H.

Lewis West bought of Lewis Cox this week a steer which dressed 1082 pounds, and was about the sweetest meat we have seen for some time. 'Uncle Lewis' turns off some mighty fine stock.

Geo. Furry received by express from Lewiston a few days ago the gaudy outfit which old Chief Joseph used to wear on state occasions. Pete Wilson sent it to him. It can be seen at Blain's store.

There were a good many jealous glances observed last Sunday when one of our young men called into church with five of our most charming young ladies. Here's a good field for an anti-monogamy society.

You can't have a first class Thanksgiving dinner without mince pie, and also cranberry sauce with your turkey. Remember that you can get your sweet cider and cranberries of Hoffman and Joseph.

Only one man has been heard of in Portland who was glad that Kallech lectured there and he is W. D. Palmer, to whom Kallech owed $40 in Kansas some years ago. He succeeded in collecting every cent of it.

The Roseburg Independence crew consider-able over Wickwire and 'Honour John,' and think Wickwire has every reason to throw her hat and shout. According to his account of the race Caldwell is still running to catch up with Wickwire.

They have been there ever since, and Mr. K. getting no better they came home. He is now getting along very well. We feel like giving some good healthy individual a crown to induce him to kick us all over town. We could have filled our paper jam full of news this week, and got out a supplement besides, just as well as not if we had embraced the opportunity which offered.

The drawing of Russell Price in the Santiam at Elephant Rock. Our people were shocked last Tuesday by hearing of the drowning of Nimrod Russell Price, which occurred at a point on the Santiam river, about four miles above Lower Soda Springs, known as Elephant Rock.

They were on horseback and had started with three loose horses, but had lost one by drowning in swimming the Santiam at the Mountain House. When they undertook to pass Elephant Rock the loose horses, instead of passing around it, crossed the stream, George Wiley, who rode a large heavy horse, started in after them and told Russell to stay, but when Wiley had nearly reached the opposite shore he heard some noise about the rear of the water and looking back saw his companion and his horse both floundering in the water in the middle of the stream.

They turned his head a moment to direct his own horse, and when he again looked for his companion both him and his horse were gone. He ran down the stream quite a distance after getting out on the bank but saw no more of them, and getting the horses across into the road he came on down and brought the sad news. A courier came on to Albany that night, and by daylight on Tuesday N. Price, W. K. Price, Bruce Price and Straud and Isaac Froman were on their way to recover the body, but of course they have not yet been heard from.

N. Russell Price was a son of N. Price, one of our oldest, best known and most respected citizens. He had just arrived at manhood, being between 21 and 22 years of age, and was a steady, industrious young man—the pride of his mother and the main stay of his father. We remembered him among our warmest personal friends, and none of them were held higher in our esteem than Russell. His death will be a sad blow to his relations—his parents especially—and they have the sympathy of our whole community. Russell left here about the middle of September to take Mrs. R. S. Price over to her husband, who lives on the headwaters of Crooked river in Wasco county, and was returning home from there when this misfortune befell him.

It does one good to spend an hour or so in the magnificent drug and book establishment of C. A. Plummer & Co. in the Odd Fellow's Temple. Everything is neat and clean, and in arranging the stock so as to please the eye of the customer Mr. Plummer's taste cannot be excelled and is rarely equalled. During his tour through the East this last summer he made large purchases of books, stationery, toilet goods, etc., and thus gets ahead of all other dealers in this State in offering to the public the latest novelties in these lines. It is well known that he purchases generally direct from the publishers and sells at prices as low as to astonish us. Standard books which usually have sold for $1.50 per volume he sells at $1.00, and a beautiful lot of poets which we have known to sell as high as $2.00, he will dispose of for $1.25, and this is the way it runs all the way through his stock of books. In toilet articles, though, he excels. His celluloid sets—comb, brush and mirror—are the nearest and most beautiful goods we have ever seen anywhere, and his cut glass toilet goods are also extremely handsome. For a holiday present for a young lady no one can fall in finding something among these toilet goods to suit. An immense stock of imported English and French perfumery are displayed to advantage and catch the eyes of the ladies immediately. Of his drugs we have nothing to say—not knowing anything about them. We know you can get of him anything in that line you may want, and as his trade is lively his drugs must be fresh and pure. Such an institution is an ornament to our city, and we cannot help pointing to it with pride.

There will be a meeting of this club this (Friday) evening, when a very interesting program will be rendered. An extra effort on the part of our citizens is asked to fill the hall, so that it may be known just what interest is taken in this cause. Following is the program: Prayer. Music—Fido and organ.—'Powers of the Sea'—Wm. W. Waller, (Glee), by Dr. G. Willis Price and Miss Annie Powell. Recitation—'Miss Allie Scott.' A very person interested in said estate is hereby notified to appear and file his or her objections to said final account on or before said day. FRANK TRITZER, Adm'r. Nov. 10, 1881.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the undersigned, administrator of the estate of Edwin T. Rice, deceased, has filed in the County Court of Linn County, Oregon, his final account of said administration and by order of said Court, Saturday, December 10, 1881, at the hour of 9 o'clock A. M. of said day, is to hold the hearing of said estate in hereby notified to appear and file his or her objections to said final account on or before said day. FRANK TRITZER, Adm'r. Nov. 10, 1881.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the undersigned, administrator of the estate of D. M. Thompson, deceased, has filed in the County Court of Linn County, Oregon, his final account of said administration and by order of said Court, Saturday, December 10, 1881, at the hour of 9 o'clock A. M. of said day, is to hold the hearing of said estate in hereby notified to appear and file his or her objections to said final account on or before said day. FRANK TRITZER, Adm'r. Nov. 10, 1881.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the undersigned has been given by an order of the County Court of Linn County, Oregon, as executor of the last will and testament of Wm. H. Ingraham, deceased, and in pursuance of said order, I hereby require to present the same with the proper vouchers to the undersigned, at the law office of J. H. Miller, at Lebanon, Or., within six months from the date hereof. GEORGE KLUM, Executor. October 27, 1881.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the undersigned has been given by an order of the County Court of Linn County, Oregon, as executor of the last will and testament of Wm. H. Ingraham, deceased, and in pursuance of said order, I hereby require to present the same with the proper vouchers to the undersigned, at the law office of J. H. Miller, at Lebanon, Or., within six months from the date hereof. GEORGE KLUM, Executor. October 27, 1881.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the undersigned has been given by an order of the County Court of Linn County, Oregon, as executor of the last will and testament of Wm. H. Ingraham, deceased, and in pursuance of said order, I hereby require to present the same with the proper vouchers to the undersigned, at the law office of J. H. Miller, at Lebanon, Or., within six months from the date hereof. GEORGE KLUM, Executor. October 27, 1881.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the undersigned has been given by an order of the County Court of Linn County, Oregon, as executor of the last will and testament of Wm. H. Ingraham, deceased, and in pursuance of said order, I hereby require to present the same with the proper vouchers to the undersigned, at the law office of J. H. Miller, at Lebanon, Or., within six months from the date hereof. GEORGE KLUM, Executor. October 27, 1881.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the undersigned has been given by an order of the County Court of Linn County, Oregon, as executor of the last will and testament of Wm. H. Ingraham, deceased, and in pursuance of said order, I hereby require to present the same with the proper vouchers to the undersigned, at the law office of J. H. Miller, at Lebanon, Or., within six months from the date hereof. GEORGE KLUM, Executor. October 27, 1881.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the undersigned has been given by an order of the County Court of Linn County, Oregon, as executor of the last will and testament of Wm. H. Ingraham, deceased, and in pursuance of said order, I hereby require to present the same with the proper vouchers to the undersigned, at the law office of J. H. Miller, at Lebanon, Or., within six months from the date hereof. GEORGE KLUM, Executor. October 27, 1881.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the undersigned has been given by an order of the County Court of Linn County, Oregon, as executor of the last will and testament of Wm. H. Ingraham, deceased, and in pursuance of said order, I hereby require to present the same with the proper vouchers to the undersigned, at the law office of J. H. Miller, at Lebanon, Or., within six months from the date hereof. GEORGE KLUM, Executor. October 27, 1881.

IN MEMORIAM. In memory of Mrs. J. A. Morgan, who died suddenly Oct. 10th, 1881, near Shedd, Oregon. And what is life's thought but a dark and winding way Where every step accomplished makes A double task for us to do. And yet when death, with thy grasp, Did take a patient, living friend, We thus would not look back again, In this sad world whose curse is pain. Death does not give a warning sign, Nor wait to find one all prepared, But comes in haste when least we think Of those who have loved one by the hand. Then should we all, at dawn life's stream Were girding, day by day, Remember that this life's dream, And that it soon must pass away. Each bud and blossom soon must fade, Must wither, drop and be blown away, And so with this mortal frame, It can but perish, by and by. How soon, said, there's none can tell, Who will be left when I am dead, 'Till all the angels sing together will, 'Till all the angels sing together will, And follow me without delay.

As True as Gospel. It is a common thing for clothing merchants to advertise the cheapest goods in town, but whenever a customer calls on Blain's sale is sure to be made. He certainly must sell at low prices, and his goods must give satisfaction, or he would not hold all his old trade and be constantly increasing his list of customers. He keeps a mammoth stock of clothing, and in boots and shoes excels any dealer in the valley. A Special Stock. We wish to direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of J. M. Nolan, of the Farmers and Mechanics One Price Cash Store which appears in our paper. It there gives a partial list of what he has to sell, but it doesn't embrace all his stock by a great deal. He is a pleasant gentleman to deal with, and must offer bargains to his customers as his patronage has constantly increased ever since his advent in our city. Give him a call. A New Drug Store. The new drug store to be operated by McCoy & Elliot will open in Provan's brick building during the latter part of the present month, Mr. Elliot leaving San Francisco with the stock to sell, Mr. Elliot has laid in a splendid stock of new and fresh drugs and medicines, toilet articles, perfumery, holiday goods, etc., and when they get ready for business our people will no doubt find it profitable to give them a fair share of patronage. Mr. Elliot is a thorough chemist, which all will admit after giving him a trial. A Sabbath School Convention will be held in the United Presbyterian Church in this city on Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 15th and 16th, for which the following program has been adopted. FRIDAY, AT 7 P. M. 1. Opening exercises—Devotional services and an address of Welcome by Dr. G. W. Gray. 2. Organization and election of officers. 3. Essay—Subject, the right use of bible help, by Miss L. E. Irvine. 4. Discussion—The teachers preparation of the lesson, to be opened by E. B. Skyrworth Esq. 5. Adjournment. SATURDAY MORNING, AT 9 A. M. 1. Devotional services, then a discussion on the book-keeping and its use in the school, to be opened by W. A. Robb. 2. Essay by Miss Maggie Fortner—Subject—Truth in the memory or committing verses. 3. Discussion—The Sabbath School, to be opened by E. B. Skyrworth Esq. 4. Adjournment. AFTERNOON SESSION, AT 2 P. M. 1. Opening exercises. 2. Address—Bible Authority for the Sabbath School, by Rev. S. G. Irvine. 3. Essay—The school meeting a necessity, by Mrs. Dr. Johnson. 4. Discussion—Who should attend the Sunday School? to be opened by S. M. H. H. 5. Adjournment. EVENING SESSION, AT 7 P. M. 1. Opening exercises, to be followed by primary class drill by scholars of the school. 2. Declaration—'Papa says so' by Miss Yesta Mason. 3. Essay—Normal class teaching by Mrs. Jenny Anderson, of Oakville. 4. Address—by Rev. T. L. Wilson, of Halsey, Okla., on the relation of the Sabbath School to the church. After the presentation of each topic by the person appointed it is expected that a short time will be spent in general discussion of the subject presented. A cordial invitation is extended to the community and especially to Sabbath School workers to attend and participate in our sessions. GEO. W. GRAY, Superintendent. Debating Society. Last Tuesday evening several of our most polemical young men met at the office of Judge Strahan and laid the corner stone for a first-class debating society. They mean business, so that our citizens may expect to see our streets traversed by a race of Demosthenes and Ciceros, who are appointed and placed discussed for future work. At the next meeting, which will be held next Tuesday evening at Judge Powell's office, the constitution will probably be adopted and officers elected, after which a debate will be had on this question: 'Resolved that compulsory education is beneficial,' which will be participated in by Messrs, Nutting, Irvine, Bryant, Wolverson, Hackleman, Haven, Blain, Hildout and Hoochstedter on the affirmative, and Mattoos, Skiffworth, W. R. Blythe, L. Blythe, H. H. Hewitt, Sox, Henton, Deacon and Curran, on the negative. It is to be hoped that these gentlemen will be present and prepared to take part in the debate. Eliza Ribben Club. There will be a meeting of this club this (Friday) evening, when a very interesting program will be rendered. An extra effort on the part of our citizens is asked to fill the hall, so that it may be known just what interest is taken in this cause. Following is the program: Prayer. Music—Fido and organ.—'Powers of the Sea'—Wm. W. Waller, (Glee), by Dr. G. Willis Price and Miss Annie Powell. Recitation—'Miss Allie Scott.' A very person interested in said estate is hereby notified to appear and file his or her objections to said final account on or before said day. FRANK TRITZER, Adm'r. Nov. 10, 1881.

Another Sad Death. The drawing of Russell Price in the Santiam at Elephant Rock. Our people were shocked last Tuesday by hearing of the drowning of Nimrod Russell Price, which occurred at a point on the Santiam river, about four miles above Lower Soda Springs, known as Elephant Rock. At this place the Lebanon mountain road passes around the base of a high mountain and to do so has to enter the edge of the Santiam, but does not cross that stream. About one o'clock Monday Russell Price and another young man, named P. Price and another young man, named George Wiley, arrived at this place on their way home from the bunch grass country on the other side of the Cascades. They were on horseback and had started with three loose horses, but had lost one by drowning in swimming the Santiam at the Mountain House. When they undertook to pass Elephant Rock the loose horses, instead of passing around it, crossed the stream, George Wiley, who rode a large heavy horse, started in after them and told Russell to stay, but when Wiley had nearly reached the opposite shore he heard some noise about the rear of the water and looking back saw his companion and his horse both floundering in the water in the middle of the stream. They turned his head a moment to direct his own horse, and when he again looked for his companion both him and his horse were gone. He ran down the stream quite a distance after getting out on the bank but saw no more of them, and getting the horses across into the road he came on down and brought the sad news. A courier came on to Albany that night, and by daylight on Tuesday N. Price, W. K. Price, Bruce Price and Straud and Isaac Froman were on their way to recover the body, but of course they have not yet been heard from.

There was a very pleasant meeting of 'The Seven's,' at the residence of Mr. Thompson, on Washington street, last Friday evening. A marriage is to come off shortly in this city. Don't ask who it is, but just watch the list published in the Democrat and you will get it. The debating society last Tuesday evening after a hotly contested disputation decided that women should not have the right of franchise. Invitations are out for the wedding of Fred R. E. Watson and Dr. Angie L. Ford, which is to take place at Portland on Thanksgiving day. Miss May McDonald has removed her dressmaking establishment into the late residence of M. V. Brown, where she will conduct her business as in the past. Mr. F. P. Carless, of Island City, is in the city, and has been a guest of Mr. Jas. Danneals. He is as young and vigorous as of old, and has yet a good many years of activity before him. Dr. Chas. R. Templeton was up from Portland last week. He and Dr. Ed Clark have formed a partnership in the practice of dentistry in Portland and will no doubt build up a fine business. Success to them. Lyle Rice, of Roseburg, is stopping in Albany learning telegraphing with his brother, Will B. Rice. Mrs. W. B. Rice has also been studying telegraphing and is becoming quite proficient in it. Ex-Sheriff Rice was down last Wednesday, and while here honored the Democrat with a call. He has changed so much in one particular that many of his friends did not know him. Geo. Furry arrived here from the Linn Agency last Tuesday, and looks just as natural as ever. He starts in a few days for his old home in Illinois, and his friends here will be very sorry to part with him. Miss Mattie Allison, of Albany, now attending St. Mary's Academy, at Portland, was the gold medal for greatest improvement and general deportment during the past term. We are glad to hear of Mattie's success. Miss Mand Haley, the grand-daughter of Judge Haley of this city, left the latter part of last week for Eugene City, where she will reside with her uncle in the future. Her many young friends here parted with her with a great deal of reluctance. H. L. Ruid, of Peoria, was in town last Saturday and while here made us a pleasant call and squared up accounts. Besides taking the Democrat himself, he sends it to a friend in the East. The paper is a great deal better than a letter, and there should follow his example and send it to their friends. Mrs. E. N. Beach, of Colfax, W. T., a daughter of Mrs. Dr. Miller, arrived in the city Tuesday noon, and will remain here during the winter. It has been nine years since Mrs. Beach was in Albany, so that she finds many changes on every hand, but her many friends here have not forgotten her, and will be glad to meet her again after such a long lapse of time. Mr. Sturtevant and wife returned from California last Saturday and are now settled down again in their home in this city. Mr. S. went away last summer on a visit to his relatives in the East, and on her way home a couple of months ago she joined her husband at San Francisco, and had gone down there to lay in goods and was taken sick.

They have been there ever since, and Mr. K. getting no better they came home. He is now getting along very well. We feel like giving some good healthy individual a crown to induce him to kick us all over town. We could have filled our paper jam full of news this week, and got out a supplement besides, just as well as not if we had embraced the opportunity which offered. The drawing of Russell Price in the Santiam at Elephant Rock. Our people were shocked last Tuesday by hearing of the drowning of Nimrod Russell Price, which occurred at a point on the Santiam river, about four miles above Lower Soda Springs, known as Elephant Rock. At this place the Lebanon mountain road passes around the base of a high mountain and to do so has to enter the edge of the Santiam, but does not cross that stream. About one o'clock Monday Russell Price and another young man, named P. Price and another young man, named George Wiley, arrived at this place on their way home from the bunch grass country on the other side of the Cascades. They were on horseback and had started with three loose horses, but had lost one by drowning in swimming the Santiam at the Mountain House. When they undertook to pass Elephant Rock the loose horses, instead of passing around it, crossed the stream, George Wiley, who rode a large heavy horse, started in after them and told Russell to stay, but when Wiley had nearly reached the opposite shore he heard some noise about the rear of the water and looking back saw his companion and his horse both floundering in the water in the middle of the stream. They turned his head a moment to direct his own horse, and when he again looked for his companion both him and his horse were gone. He ran down the stream quite a distance after getting out on the bank but saw no more of them, and getting the horses across into the road he came on down and brought the sad news. A courier came on to Albany that night, and by daylight on Tuesday N. Price, W. K. Price, Bruce Price and Straud and Isaac Froman were on their way to recover the body, but of course they have not yet been heard from.

There was a very pleasant meeting of 'The Seven's,' at the residence of Mr. Thompson, on Washington street, last Friday evening. A marriage is to come off shortly in this city. Don't ask who it is, but just watch the list published in the Democrat and you will get it. The debating society last Tuesday evening after a hotly contested disputation decided that women should not have the right of franchise. Invitations are out for the wedding of Fred R. E. Watson and Dr. Angie L. Ford, which is to take place at Portland on Thanksgiving day. Miss May McDonald has removed her dressmaking establishment into the late residence of M. V. Brown, where she will conduct her business as in the past. Mr. F. P. Carless, of Island City, is in the city, and has been a guest of Mr. Jas. Danneals. He is as young and vigorous as of old, and has yet a good many years of activity before him. Dr. Chas. R. Templeton was up from Portland last week. He and Dr. Ed Clark have formed a partnership in the practice of dentistry in Portland and will no doubt build up a fine business. Success to them. Lyle Rice, of Roseburg, is stopping in Albany learning telegraphing with his brother, Will B. Rice. Mrs. W. B. Rice has also been studying telegraphing and is becoming quite proficient in it. Ex-Sheriff Rice was down last Wednesday, and while here honored the Democrat with a call. He has changed so much in one particular that many of his friends did not know him. Geo. Furry arrived here from the Linn Agency last Tuesday, and looks just as natural as ever. He starts in a few days for his old home in Illinois, and his friends here will be very sorry to part with him. Miss Mattie Allison, of Albany, now attending St. Mary's Academy, at Portland, was the gold medal for greatest improvement and general deportment during the past term. We are glad to hear of Mattie's success. Miss Mand Haley, the grand-daughter of Judge Haley of this city, left the latter part of last week for Eugene City, where she will reside with her uncle in the future. Her many young friends here parted with her with a great deal of reluctance. H. L. Ruid, of Peoria, was in town last Saturday and while here made us a pleasant call and squared up accounts. Besides taking the Democrat himself, he sends it to a friend in the East. The paper is a great deal better than a letter, and there should follow his example and send it to their friends. Mrs. E. N. Beach, of Colfax, W. T., a daughter of Mrs. Dr. Miller, arrived in the city Tuesday noon, and will remain here during the winter. It has been nine years since Mrs. Beach was in Albany, so that she finds many changes on every hand, but her many friends here have not forgotten her, and will be glad to meet her again after such a long lapse of time. Mr. Sturtevant and wife returned from California last Saturday and are now settled down again in their home in this city. Mr. S. went away last summer on a visit to his relatives in the East, and on her way home a couple of months ago she joined her husband at San Francisco, and had gone down there to lay in goods and was taken sick.

They have been there ever since, and Mr. K. getting no better they came home. He is now getting along very well. We feel like giving some good healthy individual a crown to induce him to kick us all over town. We could have filled our paper jam full of news this week, and got out a supplement besides, just as well as not if we had embraced the opportunity which offered. The drawing of Russell Price in the Santiam at Elephant Rock. Our people were shocked last Tuesday by hearing of the drowning of Nimrod Russell Price, which occurred at a point on the Santiam river, about four miles above Lower Soda Springs, known as Elephant Rock. At this place the Lebanon mountain road passes around the base of a high mountain and to do so has to enter the edge of the Santiam, but does not cross that stream. About one o'clock Monday Russell Price and another young man, named P. Price and another young man, named George Wiley, arrived at this place on their way home from the bunch grass country on the other side of the Cascades. They were on horseback and had started with three loose horses, but had lost one by drowning in swimming the Santiam at the Mountain House. When they undertook to pass Elephant Rock the loose horses, instead of passing around it, crossed the stream, George Wiley, who rode a large heavy horse, started in after them and told Russell to stay, but when Wiley had nearly reached the opposite shore he heard some noise about the rear of the water and looking back saw his companion and his horse both floundering in the water in the middle of the stream. They turned his head a moment to direct his own horse, and when he again looked for his companion both him and his horse were gone. He ran down the stream quite a distance after getting out on the bank but saw no more of them, and getting the horses across into the road he came on down and brought the sad news. A courier came on to Albany that night, and by daylight on Tuesday N. Price, W. K. Price, Bruce Price and Straud and Isaac Froman were on their way to recover the body, but of course they have not yet been heard from.

There was a very pleasant meeting of 'The Seven's,' at the residence of Mr. Thompson, on Washington street, last Friday evening. A marriage is to come off shortly in this city. Don't ask who it is, but just watch the list published in the Democrat and you will get it. The debating society last Tuesday evening after a hotly contested disputation decided that women should not have the right of franchise. Invitations are out for the wedding of Fred R. E. Watson and Dr. Angie L. Ford, which is to take place at Portland on Thanksgiving day. Miss May McDonald has removed her dressmaking establishment into the late residence of M. V. Brown, where she will conduct her business as in the past. Mr. F. P. Carless, of Island City, is in the city, and has been a guest of Mr. Jas. Danneals. He is as young and vigorous as of old, and has yet a good many years of activity before him. Dr. Chas. R. Templeton was up from Portland last week. He and Dr. Ed Clark have formed a partnership in the practice of dentistry in Portland and will no doubt build up a fine business. Success to them. Lyle Rice, of Roseburg, is stopping in Albany learning telegraphing with his brother, Will B. Rice. Mrs. W. B. Rice has also been studying telegraphing and is becoming quite proficient in it. Ex-Sheriff Rice was down last Wednesday, and while here honored the Democrat with a call. He has changed so much in one particular that many of his friends did not know him. Geo. Furry arrived here from the Linn Agency last Tuesday, and looks just as natural as ever. He starts in a few days for his old home in Illinois, and his friends here will be very sorry to part with him. Miss Mattie Allison, of Albany, now attending St. Mary's Academy, at Portland, was the gold medal for greatest improvement and general deportment during the past term. We are glad to hear of Mattie's success. Miss Mand Haley, the grand-daughter of Judge Haley of this city, left the latter part of last week for Eugene City, where she will reside with her uncle in the future. Her many young friends here parted with her with a great deal of reluctance. H. L. Ruid, of Peoria, was in town last Saturday and while here made us a pleasant call and squared up accounts. Besides taking the Democrat himself, he sends it to a friend in the East. The paper is a great deal better than a letter, and there should follow his example and send it to their friends. Mrs. E. N. Beach, of Colfax, W. T., a daughter of Mrs. Dr. Miller, arrived in the city Tuesday noon, and will remain here during the winter. It has been nine years since Mrs. Beach was in Albany, so that she finds many changes on every hand, but her many friends here have not forgotten her, and will be glad to meet her again after such a long lapse of time. Mr. Sturtevant and wife returned from California last Saturday and are now settled down again in their home in this city. Mr. S. went away last summer on a visit to his relatives in the East, and on her way home a couple of months ago she joined her husband at San Francisco, and had gone down there to lay in goods and was taken sick.

They have been there ever since, and Mr. K. getting no better they came home. He is now getting along very well. We feel like giving some good healthy individual a crown to induce him to kick us all over town. We could have filled our paper jam full of news this week, and got out a supplement besides, just as well as not if we had embraced the opportunity which offered. The drawing of Russell Price in the Santiam at Elephant Rock. Our people were shocked last Tuesday by hearing of the drowning of Nimrod Russell Price, which occurred at a point on the Santiam river, about four miles above Lower Soda Springs, known as Elephant Rock. At this place the Lebanon mountain road passes around the base of a high mountain and to do so has to enter the edge of the Santiam, but does not cross that stream. About one o'clock Monday Russell Price and another young man, named P. Price and another young man, named George Wiley, arrived at this place on their way home from the bunch grass country on the other side of the Cascades. They were on horseback and had started with three loose horses, but had lost one by drowning in swimming the Santiam at the Mountain House. When they undertook to pass Elephant Rock the loose horses, instead of passing around it, crossed the stream, George Wiley, who rode a large heavy horse, started in after them and told Russell to stay, but when Wiley had nearly reached the opposite shore he heard some noise about the rear of the water and looking back saw his companion and his horse both floundering in the water in the middle of the stream. They turned his head a moment to direct his own horse, and when he again looked for his companion both him and his horse were gone. He ran down the stream quite a distance after getting out on the bank but saw no more of them, and getting the horses across into the road he came on down and brought the sad news. A courier came on to Albany that night, and by daylight on Tuesday N. Price, W. K. Price, Bruce Price and Straud and Isaac Froman were on their way to recover the body, but of course they have not yet been heard from.

There was a very pleasant meeting of 'The Seven's,' at the residence of Mr. Thompson, on Washington street, last Friday evening. A marriage is to come off shortly in this city. Don't ask who it is, but just watch the list published in the Democrat and you will get it. The debating society last Tuesday evening after a hotly contested disputation decided that women should not have the right of franchise. Invitations are out for the wedding of Fred R. E. Watson and Dr. Angie L. Ford, which is to take place at Portland on Thanksgiving day. Miss May McDonald has removed her dressmaking establishment into the late residence of M. V. Brown, where she will conduct her business as in the past. Mr. F. P. Carless, of Island City, is in the city, and has been a guest of Mr. Jas. Danneals. He is as young and vigorous as of old, and has yet a good many years of activity before him. Dr. Chas. R. Templeton was up from Portland last week. He and Dr. Ed Clark have formed a partnership in the practice of dentistry in Portland and will no doubt build up a fine business. Success to them. Lyle Rice, of Roseburg, is stopping in Albany learning telegraphing with his brother, Will B. Rice. Mrs. W. B. Rice has also been studying telegraphing and is becoming quite proficient in it. Ex-Sheriff Rice was down last Wednesday, and while here honored the Democrat with a call. He has changed so much in one particular that many of his friends did not know him. Geo. Furry arrived here from the Linn Agency last Tuesday, and looks just as natural as ever. He starts in a few days for his old home in Illinois, and his friends here will be very sorry to part with him. Miss Mattie Allison, of Albany, now attending St. Mary's Academy, at Portland, was the gold medal for greatest improvement and general deportment during the past term. We are glad to hear of Mattie's success. Miss Mand Haley, the grand-daughter of Judge Haley of this city, left the latter part of last week for Eugene City, where she will reside with her uncle in the future. Her many young friends here parted with her with a great deal of reluctance. H. L. Ruid, of Peoria, was in town last Saturday and while here made us a pleasant call and squared up accounts. Besides taking the Democrat himself, he sends it to a friend in the East. The paper is a great deal better than a letter, and there should follow his example and send it to their friends. Mrs. E. N. Beach, of Colfax, W. T., a daughter of Mrs. Dr. Miller, arrived in the city Tuesday noon, and will remain here during the winter. It has been nine years since Mrs. Beach was in Albany, so that she finds many changes on every hand, but her many friends here have not forgotten her, and will be glad to meet her again after such a long lapse of time. Mr. Sturtevant and wife returned from California last Saturday and are now settled down again in their home in this city. Mr. S. went away last summer on a visit to his relatives in the East, and on her way home a couple of months ago she joined her husband at San Francisco, and had gone down there to lay in goods and was taken sick.

They have been there ever since, and Mr. K. getting no better they came home. He is now getting along very well. We feel like giving some good healthy individual a crown to induce him to kick us all over town. We could have filled our paper jam full of news this week, and got out a supplement besides, just as well as not if we had embraced the opportunity which offered. The drawing of Russell Price in the Santiam at Elephant Rock. Our people were shocked last Tuesday by hearing of the drowning of Nimrod Russell Price, which occurred at a point on the Santiam river, about four miles above Lower Soda Springs, known as Elephant Rock. At this place the Lebanon mountain road passes around the base of a high mountain and to do so has to enter the edge of the Santiam, but does not cross that stream. About one o'clock Monday Russell Price and another young man, named P. Price and another young man, named George Wiley, arrived at this place on their way home from the bunch grass country on the other side of the Cascades. They were on horseback and had started with three loose horses, but had lost one by drowning in swimming the Santiam at the Mountain House. When they undertook to pass Elephant Rock the loose horses, instead of passing around it, crossed the stream, George Wiley, who rode a large heavy horse, started in after them and told Russell to stay, but when Wiley had nearly reached the opposite shore he heard some noise about the rear of the water and looking back saw his companion and his horse both floundering in the water in the middle of the stream. They turned his head a moment to direct his own horse, and when he again looked for his companion both him and his horse were gone. He ran down the stream quite a distance after getting out on the bank but saw no more of them, and getting the horses across into the road he came on down and brought the sad news. A courier came on to Albany that night, and by daylight on Tuesday N. Price, W. K. Price, Bruce Price and Straud and Isaac Froman were on their way to recover the body, but of course they have not yet been heard from.

There was a very pleasant meeting of 'The Seven's,' at the residence of Mr. Thompson, on Washington street, last Friday evening. A marriage is to come off shortly in this city. Don't ask who it is, but just watch the list published in the Democrat and you will get it. The debating society last Tuesday evening after a hotly contested disputation decided that women should not have the right of franchise. Invitations are out for the wedding of Fred R. E. Watson and Dr. Angie L. Ford, which is to take place at Portland on Thanksgiving day. Miss May McDonald has removed her dressmaking establishment into the late residence of M. V. Brown, where she will conduct her business as in the past. Mr. F. P. Carless, of Island City, is in the city, and has been a guest of Mr. Jas. Danneals. He is as young and vigorous as of old, and has yet a good many years of activity before him. Dr. Chas. R. Templeton was up from Portland last week. He and Dr. Ed Clark have formed a partnership in the practice of dentistry in Portland and will no doubt build up a fine business. Success to them. Lyle Rice, of Roseburg, is stopping in Albany learning telegraphing with his brother, Will B. Rice. Mrs. W. B. Rice has also been studying telegraphing and is becoming quite proficient in it. Ex-Sheriff Rice was down last Wednesday, and while here honored the Democrat with a call. He has changed so much in one particular that many of his friends did not know him. Geo. Furry arrived here from the Linn Agency last Tuesday, and looks just as natural as ever. He starts in a few days for his old home in Illinois, and his friends here will be very sorry to part with him. Miss Mattie Allison, of Albany, now attending St. Mary's Academy, at Portland, was the gold medal for greatest improvement and general deportment during the past term. We are glad to hear of Mattie's success. Miss Mand Haley, the grand-daughter of Judge Haley of this city, left the latter part of last week for Eugene City, where she will reside with her uncle in the future. Her many young friends here parted with her with a great deal of reluctance. H. L. Ruid, of Peoria, was in town last Saturday and while here made us a pleasant call and squared up accounts. Besides taking the Democrat himself, he sends it to a friend in the East. The paper is a great deal better than a letter, and there should follow his example and send it to their friends. Mrs. E. N. Beach, of Colfax, W. T., a daughter of Mrs. Dr. Miller, arrived in the city Tuesday noon, and will remain here during the winter. It has been nine years since Mrs. Beach was in Albany, so that she finds many changes on every hand, but her many friends here have not forgotten her, and will be glad to meet her again after such a long lapse of time. Mr. Sturtevant and wife returned from California last Saturday