The Democrat.

FRIDAY.....JANUARY 13, 1882

PRESIDENT ARTHUR'S career as a Civil Service Reformer has evidently closed.

THE very latest is the mention of Malone's name for the Presidency. This is the best joke out.

SMALL-POX is spreaping rapidly all over the East. In Illinois it has been reported from 61 points.

HON. EDWARD A. STOUGHTON, ex-Minister to Russia, died in New York on the afternoon of the 7th inst.

HON. GEO. H. PENDLETON is being brought forward by his friends as a candidate for the Presidency in 1884.

As a reward for putting Keifer in as Speaker, Cameron, of Pennsylvania, received several chairmannships for that State. Verily Keifer has a kind heart.

THE mortality of Chicago during the past year has been 25½ per 1000. With the exception of London and Philadelphia Chicago is highest in the world.

AN eminent lawyer says that under the law of the District of Columbia Guiteau cannot be executed until sometime in May even if he is promptly found guilty.

IT IS reported that the third boat of the lost steamer Jeanette has been found on the shore of Herald Island. It is supposed that none of the crew in that boat were saved, as it had several corpses in it.

GERMANY'S Crown Prince, Frederick William, will be made Regent of that domain on Emperor Williams 85th, birth-day, which occurs on the 22d, of next March. It will be done at the Emperor's request.

VILLARD has made arrangements to have five or ten thousand Scandinavians brought out and put to work on the Northern Pacific Railroad. They will be offered liberal inducements to settle on the railroad lands.

HALF-BREED Republicans are squealing in all corners of the Union over the committee appointments made by the new Stalwart Speaker Kiefer. Stalwartism is coming to the front rapidly.

WASHINGTON Territory is the leading wheat growing division in the United States. The average yield per acre last year was 26½ bushels per acre, while the average for the whole country was 13 bushels per acre.

A BILL has been introduced into House of representatives restoring to the public domain all the land granted to the Northern Pacific Railroad Co., because of a failure to comply with its charters and the act of Congress making the grant.

A YOUNG Chinaman who was educated at the expense of his government at Chicago, contracted an affection for a young lady of that city. Still persisting in his love for the young lady after arriving in China, he was promptly beheaded by the authorities.

A BULLETIN from the Department of Agriculture, Washington, says that Washington Territory stands at the head of the list of States and Territories of the United States in the yield per acre of cereals, the average being 27½ bushels to the acre. Good for Washington.

JOHN TAYLOR on last Sabbath dedicated the new Mormon winter temple at Salt Lake City, and said in his sermon that if the government lifts its hands against them the Lord will destroy the government, and that the church aks no odds of heaven or hell.

A LETTER was received from abroad at the New York post-office awhile ago addressed to the "Lord's Chief Justice of the United States". Neither Waite nor Noah Davis, nor Daly would open it. Upon consultation of all the Judges it was found to be for Shea of the New York Magazine Court.

SOME of our Pacific Coast half-breeds have been putting up jobs in Washington to prevent the appointment of Sargent as Secretary of the Interior, but then work has failed and Arthur it is said, will give him the appointment. Half-breeds might just as well stand aside, for the Grant men are bound to run the Republican party.

HEAVY land frauds have been discovered in Minnesota, and the Government will shortly send a special agent to investigate the matter. Thousands of acres of land have been located for purely speculative purposes under the law which allows claims to be taken for actual settlement only. It will probably turn out to be another "star route" affair.

A NEW grain route is being opened up between this Coast and Europe. Orders were received at New Orleans on on the 8th inst to provide freight room in March and April for 180,000 bushels of wheat for Great Britian. This wheat is to be shipped from California to New Orleans by the Southern Pacific railroad, thence by steamer to its destination.

THE three or four wings of the Democratic party in New York are using every endeavor to unite and they now seemed to think their efforts will be crowned with success. Unity in their ranks will never amount to anything until they can throw John Kelly overboard.

THE Woman's Christian Temperance Union was getting along finely and doing heavy work in the cause of temperance, but the society has at last spilit on the woman suffrage question, and those who were opposed to allowing the advocates of this doctrine to bring their pet hobby into notoriety through the influence of the other organization, have organized the Woman's Evangelical Association.

INDIANA has a new liquor law which went into effect on the first of the year. It makes the buyer and seller equally liable and responsible. Dealers who sell to drunkards are fined for the first and second offenses, and for the third are liable to imprisonment and disfranchisement. Persons guilty of drunkenness are served in precisely the same way, the law making no distinction between the two.

THE Anti-Monopoly League exerts a great influence in the New York Legislature, and will not use its influence towards promoting immediate organization unless the president pro tem and members of the committe on railroads, and of other committees which deal with commercial and agricultural interests, shall be men who fairly represent the people, and shall not be men who by their past record and present pecuniary, interests are pledged to cooporate with monopolies.

DR RAFFETY, visiting physician at the state insane asylum, furnishes the following report concerning the institution. Number in asylum Sept. 1st: Males, 229; females, 82; total, 311. Admitted during the quarter: Males, 18; females, 6: total, 24. Number discharged: Males, 10, females 3; total, 13. Number died: Males, 5; females, 4; total, 9. Number remaining at end of quarter: Males, 232; females 81 total, 313.

FROM what we can learn from our Republican friends it looks like Moody of the Dalles, would be their candidate for Governor at the coming election. Beekman is strong out in Southern Oregon, but the "stalwart" wing of the party have control of the political machinery and they seem to think that nomination should be given to Moody. Hare, of Astoria, is talked of considerably, but as he is a "half-breed," his chances are not worth much.

EVERY few days we see a head line among the dispatches stating that the star route ring is to be punished; that is all it amounts to. It reads a great deal like the announcements concerning the Morey letter which we read just after the close of the late Presidential election. The facts are just as we stated them when the star route frauds were first discovered—the guilty ones are too closely connected with the Republican political machinery to ever be prosecuted.

REPUBLICANS in this State are having a nice time of it getting their candidates selected. Earheart and his Salem clique had the matter all fixed up and for Treasurer were going to renominate Ed Hirsch, but there are others seeking that office who will not stand such jobs. Col. Thos. Monteith, of this city, and Joe Gray, of Eugene, both aspire for that position, and will wield enough influence in the convention to make it interesting for the Salem crowd.

A BILL has been introduced in Congress making the attempt to assassinate the President punishable by death. While the President should be surrounded by all the safeguards which his position demands, we think this is stepping aside from the spirit of our government and savors very much of the monarchial style of protecting the head of a government. It should be remembered that in our country the people rule, and that, as a person, the President is no more than any one else; and that while his death may disturb the interests of the country it cannot endanger the country itself. It may be that the punishment for the assassinator is not summary enough but this applies to all classes of people, and the prominence of the victim cannot change it.

A SUN correspondent from Washington says of Blaine:

He will be the candidate not of the boiling element of the republican party, but of a convention composed of Blaine delegates. In it will be represented Blaine delegates from the south, and with Blaine there will be nominated a democrat like Joe Brown of Georgia. The party will claim to represent the best elements of the republican and democrat parties. It will justify itself by asserting that only in its organization can the rule of the bosses, the dictatorship of Cameron and Logan be overthrown. It will try to represent what is known as the "Garfield idea," and what is called "the honest progressive democracy of the south." It is also said that it is by no means such a hopeless and chimerical scheme, especially in Blaine's hands, and in view of the fact that it will be impossible to wholly heal the breach in the republican party.

A MODEST CLAIM.

Telegraph tells us that Dr. Bliss has returned from New York, where he met other physicians of the late President Garfield for consultation relative to their fees. The total of the various sums agreed upon foots up to $110,000. It is said that Bliss has taken charge of the claims of all the physicians and will present them to the congressional committee. It is understood that he will ask for himself $50,000, for Drs. Agnew, Hamilton and Reyburn $8000, and for Dr. Boynton and Mrs. Dr. Edson $10,000 each. Dr. Woodward and Surgeon General Barnes get nothing because they were in the government employ, one it is said they are to be promoted by way of recompense for their services. In answer to that question as to what would go to railroads, a friend of Dr. Bliss remarked to-day that he undrestood from the doctor that the Pennsylvania railroad had refused to take anything and that the state of Ohio would pay some other expenses amounting to about $20,000. This is a very modest little bill, but in their joy over the recovery of our President the people would have been in favor of paying it, had he been brought to health again through the skill of these physicians. It is altogether different now. People will reason that the bills should be cut down to a reasonable amount and then paid by the Garfield estate. The fund raised for Mrs. Garfield, his salary, and the property he had accumulated, ought to leave the family in good shape financially, and make them fully able to pay any reasonable bills presented by the President's physicians.

THE REPUBLICANS BEGINNING VERY BADLY.

The manner in which the committees of the House are made need not surprise those who have considered the manner in which the Speaker himself was made. He has followed the law of his creation, that is all. Compare the organization of this House by Mr. Cameron's Speaker with the organizations under the austere Kerr or the vigilant and incorruptible Randall! They arranged their committees so as to check jobbery, and save the public money; and they accomplished their purpose. The measures of the lobby were strangled as fast as they appeared, and before Mr. Randall had been at the head of the Appropriation Committee for one session and Speaker for two sessions, the lobby itself had ceased to struggle and taken itself off, to reappear only with Keifer, with Secor Robeson for his sponsor.

Keifer has made no mistakes. He has framed his committees so as to reverse completely the policy of Kerr and Randall. Retrenchment, economy, careful revision of the executive estimates, can have no place in the program which is to be wrought out by Keifer. Almost every one of the committees seems to have been made up with a distinct view to extravagance if not to corruption. The purpose is disclosed not merely in the assignments of the members of the majority party, but in the studied misplacing of the ablest and most trusted men of the minority—the only men to whom the country looks with real confidence for the defeat of vicious legislation.

Certainly nobody will be able to question Keifer's intentions, or perhaps we ought to say, the intentions of those who have him in charge. There is no mistaking either the purpose or the character of his work; and no one can deny that the new Republican Congress has begun its career as badly as possible. It is not by such means that the confidence of the country can be retained, and the election of 1884 made the occasion of new and durable Republican success.—N. Y. Sun.

THE ENGLISH MARKETS.

The Mark Lane express says: The young plant is at present strong and healthy, except in a few districts subject to floods. The scarcity of sound samples of English wheat is becoming pronounced and they are in some markets 1 shilling higher.

Flour is firm, and best is 1 shilling dearer in country and 6d higher in London, as compared with a fortnight ago The rise is due to slackening in supply f the foreign trade. The trade in foreign breadstuffs in London is at least as good as it has been for some weeks.

Wheat is slightly dearer. Fine qualities particularly are affected by smallness of stocks. Red wheat is rathe scarcer and consequently in better demand than white, but trade is very small.

Choice flours are occasionally dearer

TELEGRAPHIC dispatches inform us that the president is being strongly pressed to retain Secretary Hunt, on the ground that he is, in the broadest sense of the word, a representative Southern Republican. If such a man is a true representative of Southern Republicans, then it is no wonder that party favors repudiation and every other unholy thing.

GEN. JOE JOHNSTON says that he never accused Jeff Davis of having stolen confederate funds, but he says he did say Davis should have accounted for the funds. Davis evidently thought as he was President of the Confederacy, and that organization had ceased to exist, he was only accountable to himself for the funds.

KNOX BUTTE CORRESPONDENCE.

Ed. Democrat:

Mr. J. H. Cox, of Darlington, Ind., and J. Miller and family, of Shedd, were the guests of Moses Miller on New Year's Day. Mr. Cox is a large dealer in blooded live stock, and he likes our country so well that he talks of returning here to permanently locate.

J. K. Haight is back from San Jose, having come overland. When asked if he was married he says he is, and that his wife is an invalid and will arrive on the next steamer, not being able to make the overland trip with her "hubby."

Moss Miller says you did Robert Chambers justice when you praised him for getting up that supper. Bob got up several suppers at that place before, and he is now an experienced cook. Bob says he wants the boys to get up another hunt between now and next Christmas, and it may be that he will also be able to furnish an assistant cook of the female persuasion. His actions lately seem to indicate that this prediction is correct.

The Knox Butte school government was moving along nicely until some of the young lads threw a slate into the wheels and clogged them. The affair has set several of the ladies to scolding.

And now, Mr. Editor, give us your advice. Two black dogs killed a sheep on Knox Butte and we want to know whether to kill the dogs or prosecute the owner.

A HUNTER.

[Kill the dogs first, because you may not be able to prove your point on their owner; then go after that owner "red-eyed." If you can't have him fined $10,000 or such a matter, make him furnish as many oysters as the married men did at the last match hunt, give a supper for all owners of sheep in that locality, and let the man who owned the deceased mutton cook the oysters.—EDITOR.]

YAQUINA BAY NEWS.

ONEATTA, Jan. 8th., 1882.

Ed. Democrat:

A young man named G. M. Lakin attempted suicide by cutting his throat with a razor at Newport yesterday. Dr. Rich dressed the wound promptly and the young fellow will be apt to have to brave the trial of this world again. No cause is given for his rash act.

The schooner "Emily Stevens" is still in the Bay.

The steam schooner "Yaquina" arrived off the bar on the 1st. inst., and laid at the outside buoy until Monday, and then went back up the Coast. The captain was evidently faint-hearted as any pilot could have brought the vessel in without difficulty. The captain of the "Emily Stevens" said he only remained in the bay on account of there not being wind enough to allow him to sail out.

The hull of a new steam-boat is being built at the Oneatta mill yard.

On the bay front from Ford's Point to the Oneatta Mills, a distance of 1½ miles, the work of leveling up is rapidly progressing. The continuous reports of blasts has inspired the inhabitants with the utmost confidence in the permanency of the improvements going on, and when a 1500 lbs. blasting exploded it also inspires them with terror.

The frame work of the new wharf belonging to the O. P. R. R. Co., is nearing completion.

If any of your readers were to come over here and witness the improvements going on, and see what large sums of money are being expended they certainly would have no doubts as to the early completion of the road,

MABEL ITEMS

MABEL LINN Co., OR. Jan 5th, 1882.

Editor Democrat.

As we live away in the S. E. corner of the county, and are but little known to the rest of you, we take this plan of making ourselves known to you. Six years ago there were but four families living in what is now Mabel precinct. And to show you how fast this country is settling, we now have fifteen families and six bachelors, making in all twenty-one settlers. We can't say that these last named settlers are of any particular benefit to our school, of which we shall now speak. Three years ago we had the first school of this district, six months, and three months each the following two years, making in all twelve months of school, for which we have paid forty dollars per month for teachers $480,00 paid for teaching in three years. I presume that, that is better than some of the older districts. We will have enough money this year for a six months school, for which we will want a teacher. Teachers holding No. 1 certificates, who understand governing a school, might do well to correspond with either of the Directors, J. L. Stewart or A. J. Workman. The average daily attendance of our school last year was something over 30.

We also have preaching once a month by each of the following men. P. Workman, of the Tunkers or Dunkards, and J. Mulky, of the Christian church.

Everything was very quiet here during Christmas and New Year's. Santa Claus seemed to be partial in this neighborhood, only visiting a few families.

A wedding is beginning to bud, but can't tell exactly when it will bloom.

The health of this neighborhood is unusually good, only one case of sickness, that of Mrs. David Rhodes, an old resident of this county. She has the consumption. Keeps her bed the most of the time, is following closely in the footsteps of her son, Robert, who died with the same disease less than one year ago.

Your Cousin,

The Weather in Ochoco.

Persons writing from Prineville say the roads are dry and dusty over there yet, and grass and vegetables of all kinds is fresh and green. The winter has been unusually fine so far, and bad weather is not feared now. Stock of all kinds is doing remarkably well.

LEBANON ITEMS.

LEBANON, Jan: 4,1882,

Ed. Democrat:

On the 5th Charley Foley, only child of Dr. and Mrs. Foley, aged 3 years and 8 months, died with the diphtheria. He was an uncommonly bright little fellow, and was not only the pet of his parents, but loved by all. His remains were consigned to the narrow tomb the following day, a large number of friends and neighbors attending. The bereaved father and mother have the sympathy all in their loss of their darling boy.

The beautiful thoughts of one of our poets suggests itself.

I say "when Charley died"—and then
Go on with some dull word. He "died"
No, no, that is not true. For when He went, 'twas time not he that died.

The Linn County Business Council held their annual meeting here on last Saturday. Almost every subordinate Grange in the County was represented. Near 200 delegates were in attendance, composed largely of the leading farmers. After transacting such business as is usual on first coming together and the hour of dinner, having arrived all the council postponed farther business in order to participate in a sumptuous repast, which only the tillers of the soil can get up. When called in session again topics of legislation were discussed in a very able and satisfactory manner. Harmony seemed to prevail throughout.

Col. Long, the State Temperance Lecturer, was on hand at the time appointed. Quite a large crowd was out to hear him. He is a very pleasant speaker and makes up with amusing anecdotes what he lacks in sound logic. At the close of the address he proposed to organize a Lodge of Good Templars, and proceeded to take the names of all those who would join. About 40 signified their intention, and the Colonel being tired and having to leave on the early train, concluded to administer the pledge to all at one time. When he arrived at the portion which included cider, he was abruptly stopped with "hold, enough," "I long" cried the would-be Templar "for the pure juice of the apple. Every man must stop somewhere, and I will rest at the cider." The Colonel failing to convince the lover of apple juice of his duty to go the full length, politely requested him to take his hat and depart in peace, which was hastily done. The Lodge was organized with the following principal officers.

C. B. Montague W. C. T.
Miss Frank Gilbert W. R. H. S.
Miss Emma Roberts W. L. H. S.
Mrs. S. J. Houk W. V. T
E. E. Montague W. Sec'y

There were several prominent candidates for Sheriff at the Council meeting. Among them we noticed Mr. Hays, Matt Scott and Thos. Munkers. All good men, any one of which would make a good sheriff.

LEBANON LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.

Editor Democrat:

The Library Association of Santiam Academy has been recently organized for the purpose of securing to the students of the Academy and these interested a permanent library of standard and miscellaneous literature. Quite a number have shown themselves interested, and the sum of $125.00 has already been subscribed. It is thought a larger amount can, with a little exertion, be secured, and the friends of the cause are greatly encouraged by their success.

CALIFORNIA RAILROAD.

Railroad or no railroad, is what is agitating the public mind at present. To all who are leth to believe that the railroad will be built south the coming season, we will say that if it is not there are lots of contracts the company will have to pay for, and an immense amount of money spent in surveying. Messrs. Riddle and Manning have a contract for furnishing 20,000 ties at points along the road. And Mr. Abraham informs us that he has bills for 2,000,000 feet of lumber, and is anxious to make contracts for the delivery of the same. The company has a contract with Andrew Jones for his time to overlook the carpenter work, and Henry Bowen the blacksmith work, and has a large number of men here under pay, waiting for the necessary orders and powder to begin blasting, which will, no doubt, be begun soon.—Roseburg Plaindealer.

OREGON SHORT LINE.

Neither Men Nor Money Will be Spared in Its Rapid Construction.

Colonel George Wolcott, the head of the Oregon Short Line surveying corps, tells the Idaho Statesman that there are many who fear that the coming of the railroad will be delayed by tunneling operations near Granger. The company has decided that time is of more importance just now than a few miles of track, and will build around the hill, fully expecting to lay the track to Soda springs before cold weather shuts down operations. That the work is being pushed is shown by the fact that Colonel Wolcott now has two corps in the field, locating each from two to six miles a day. One of these parties is on Little Wood river, working that way, and the other between Boise and Old's ferry, to which place the line is to be located this Winter. Whether or not the Short Line will be built to Baker City depends upon the progress the Villard lines make when the Short Lines taps Snake river. Colonel Wolcott states that the old Hudnutt survey will be followed in a general way, but not exactly, as more practical routes have been discovered in some places for short distances. The order of the company to the surveyors is to lose no time in getting through, and from other sources comes news that neither men nor money will be spared to put a railroad within ten miles, and this before 1883.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—Wrecks of Humanity.—Indiscretions of Youth.—No object is more soul appalling than the premature sensibility of youth, daily witnessed among the habitues of our public promenades, where may be seen the terrible results of disease in its most frightful forms of the ghastly and candaverous wreck of manhood, the deluded victims of unprincipal scoundrels, who, by pernicious nostrums, have impregnated the systems of their unsuspecting and confiding patients with mineral poisons. For all ulcers and impurity of blood consequent upon such imprudence, Holloway's Pills and and Ointment are powerfully efficacious, being composed of rare balsams and vegetables that are antagonistic to all disorders of the blood, and ulcers arising from virus in the body. They contain not a particle of mercury or other mineral poison. 191

IMPORTANT CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the signature of J. HAYDOCK, surrounds each box of Pills and Ointment. Boxes at 25 cents 62 cents and $1 each.
