The Democratic Central Committee of this county will meet in Albany next Tuesday at 2 o'clock to fill the vacancy on the ticket caused by the resignation of H. J. C. Averill.

The Forks of the Santiam unitedly asked that Jas. H. Peery be nominated for Treasurer, and "the prayer of the petitioners was granted." A better man for the position cannot be found anywhere, and he will carry the Forks by 200 majority.

If you admire men who stick to their friends, resurrect the last copy of the DEMOCRAT and hunt out the supporters of Henry Burmaster for Sheriff. They stuck to him "through thick and thin," and would have been voting for him yet had he not withdrawn.

The Herald calls the late Democratic Convention "a bolter's convention." For a bolter's convention we must say it did good work. It is many a long day since the people of Linn County have seen more real Simon-pure Democrats on their ticket.

The Register, in speaking of the Democratic nominees for the Senate—Hons. W. R. Bilyeu and Enoch Hoult—says: "By the by they are as good, if not two of the best men in the party, and if Republican party beat them work has to be done—and don't you forget it."

COLL VAN CLEVE, of the Register, thinks that probably the old Democratic ship has not completely gone to pieces yet in this county. He says, "Republicans will not forget that it will take persistent and urgent effort to elect the county ticket. Our Democratic friends have put up their best men, and it will take votes to beat them."

The Republican candidates of this county have shown the white feather by refusing to meet their opponents in the coming canvass. This is a very public way of admitting their weakness, but then we have always heard that "an open confession was good for the soul."

On account of old age and ill health Mr. H. J. C. Averill declines to serve as Democratic candidate for Surveyor, and the vacancy will be filled in a few days by the Central Committee. Mr. Averill is one of the old line Democrats of this county and nothing but the excuses he offers would prevent him from abiding by the will of his party.

The harmony which existed in the Democratic ranks at the close of the Convention last week was viewed with disgust by Republican leaders, and fought with the editor of the Herald, who was instructed to misrepresent facts in his report of the deliberations of that body. He followed his instructions to the letter, and let off one of the worst mixed up charges we have ever seen come from that source. It was composed of about equal parts of falsehood, praise, entreaty, prayer, malediction, mixed sparingly with truth in very minute parcels.

Our convention last week was very warm, and the contest between the friends of the different candidates was decidedly interesting. Montara, Scott and Burmaster made a gallant fight for the nomination for Sheriff, but on the ninth ballot Humphrey received the nomination. It is but due to the gentleman who were defeated to say that all announced it as their intention to do everything that lay in their power for the success of the whole ticket. While each one, of course, felt disappointed, there was no ill feeling displayed. This is as it should be, and the people will look upon these gentlemen with pride. It isn't every man that can bear defeat.

OUR TICKET.

It is with great pride that we point to the Democratic ticket put forth by the Convention last week. Hon. W. R. Bilyeu has served this county as State Senator for the past four years, and his services were so valuable to our people that they almost with one voice demanded his re-nomination. The convention did well in honoring him again with the same nomination, and also in putting up with his colleague Hon. Enoch Hoult, of Harborsburg. Mr. Hoult has also served this county in the same capacity before, and no one can say against him. He needs no introduction from us, as he is one of Oregon's pioneers, has a large acquaintance, and is honored by all who know him.

Our Legislative ticket is conceded by all to be a good one, and there is not a man on it that is not in full accord with the people upon all the questions which are now of public interest in this locality. The candidates are generally well-known. Dr. G. F. Crawford is a farmer, of Center Precinct, but resides in Albany a great deal of his time. He has already served the people of this county in the Legislature one term, and will go there again this fall. Henry Cyrus, of Santiam, is comparatively a young man, but has the confidence of all who know him. He is the son of Hon. Wm. Cyrus, late Master of the State Grange, P. of H., and is in every sense "a chip out of the old block." F. M. Kizer is a farmer of Harborsburg Precinct, and is both honest and capable. He has had some experience on the rostrum and will make a very valuable member of the Legislature. J. J. Whitney is an attorney at law in this city and has campaigned so much that you all know him as well as we do. If he don't wake things up during the coming canvass we miss our guess very much. He is a logical reasoner and forcible speaker and Linn county will be heard from when he gets inside the walls of the State House. John Roberts and J. N. Rice are successful farmers, residing in Seald and Crawfordville Precincts respectively. They probably do not have a very extended acquaintance over the county, but we know that in the localities in which they live none are respected more than they. They are both well posted, fair minded men, and as pure and honest as any one in our midst.

For County Commissioners we have S. R. Claypool, of Santiam, and John Iron, of Seald. Both are old settlers in this county and are peculiarly well adapted to look after our financial affairs. They will probably not make as many promises as we learn the Republican candidates have, but will work for the best interests of our county.

P. A. Moses, of Tangent, is our candidate for School Superintendent. He holds diplomas from two of the best educational institutions in the State of Virginia, and teaching has been almost his life occupation. Our educational interests are sure to prosper under his supervision.

We have been intimately acquainted with our candidate for Clerk, C. H. Stewart, for many years, and his nomination suits us to a dot. If elected he will do his utmost to please all who have business to transact at the Clerk's office. An over-abundant share of modesty (?) will prevent us from saying anything else in his favor. He has an extended acquaintance over the county and will let his friends speak for him.

There is not much use in introducing to the readers of the DEMOCRAT Mr. Geo. Humphrey, the candidate for Sheriff; he is known by sight at least, if not intimately, to almost every man, woman and child in Linn County. He has served for many years as Deputy Sheriff, and is acknowledged to be, even by his political opponents, the best man in the county for the position which he seeks. The legal fraternity admit this fact, and one of its prominent Republican members openly pledges him his support. Mr. Humphrey is personally popular, and he will run a race sufficiently strong to effectually knock the bottom out of Mr. Charlton's second term. He will make an honest and efficient officer.

For the office of Treasurer the Democrats have nominated Mr. Jas. H. Peery of Santiam Precinct. A more honest, upright, honorable gentleman never trod the sod of Linn County, and his majority in the Forks alone next June will be from 200 to 300. A year or so ago he met with the sad misfortune of losing his right hand while feeding a threshing machine, but still he does not ask this office as a charity. The nomination was bestowed upon him because he was a worthy and competent man and a life-long Democrat.

Mr. H. J. C. Averill, of Brownsville, was nominated for Surveyor, but declines to run. See his card in another column.

For the important office of Assessor, Mr. N. C. Dozier, of Brownsville Precinct, was nominated. Mr. D. is one of Linn county's progressive farmers and will make a careful, competent and discriminating Assessor.

And last, but not by any means the least, comes Dr. J. A. Davis, as candidate for Coroner. He is the present incumbent of that office, and has transacted the duties devolving upon him in a manner which elicits praise from all. His largest job will be holding the inquest upon the corpse of the Republican party in this county next June.

STATE INDEBTEDNESS.

We have published the fact that the indebtedness of the State—all that for the payment of which a levy has to be made—is paid and how paid. Also after paying the same that the surplus derived from the levy made to pay it, was appropriated to build an Insane Asylum. Notwithstanding the facts in the case, Republican speakers and papers will publish the statement that Grover and Chadwick saddled a debt upon the State of $700,000. As false and bare-faced as this assertion is, it is made with an air of apparent confidence that it will be believed. These State officers are held, and so is the Democratic party, for this so-called maladministration. For a moment let us see what these officers said about that debt. It will be remembered that the Legislatures from and including that of 1872, to and including 1876, were begged of these officers to meet the liabilities Legislatures were creating without providing for their payment.

In 1872, Gov. Grover called the Legislature's attention to that provision in the Constitution of our State prohibiting indebtedness, and to provide for levying a tax when the expenses exceeded the income. The same year, 1872, Secretary Chadwick reported to the Legislature as follows: "Several acts have been passed by the Legislative Assembly creating liabilities without making any provision to meet them. Hence there is an immediate necessity that some steps should be taken, not only to relieve the State of its present burdens, but also to provide for its future and constantly increasing wants."

In 1874, Gov. Grover again called the attention of the Legislature to this fact as follows: "There has been an apparent large increase of outstanding warrants since my last biennial message. This is owing to the fact that nearly all the warrants drawn on the Treasury from 1868 to 1870 were suspended for the reason that they were drawn without an appropriation having first been made for their payment, the Legislature of 1868 having adjourned without making the general appropriations. The Assembly of 1870 provided for the payment of a part only of these warrants, while the balance were carried forward to be provided for by the last appropriation bill. In addition to the payment of the face of these warrants an addition of thirty per cent average increase upon their face has had to be paid for interest on account of suspension.

Again, no building tax was levied for the construction of the New Penitentiary and the entire cost, except proceeds of convict labor, was paid by warrants on the General Fund, which was sufficient only for current expenses, and the devotion of convict labor to this work swelled the appropriations for the support of the prison.

Gov. Grover again calls attention of the Legislature to the necessity of levying a tax sufficient to meet these deficiencies, referring to the provision of the Constitution which requires a levy to meet an appropriation. In 1874, Sec. Chadwick referred to this matter at length. Speaking of the increasing liabilities of the State through the neglect of the Legislatures to provide for their payment, "And here in this connection, we desire to state that there is not an outstanding warrant reported that is not covered by an appropriation." This substantiates what is here said in reference to legislation where appropriations are made without providing the required means to meet them.

In 1876 Gov. Grover again called the attention of the Legislature to this indebtedness and to the Constitutional provision requiring the Legislature to provide against indebtedness, and in his remarks says: "The Legislature is made responsible that the State be free from debt. These resolutions were also brought to the notice of the Legislative Assembly of 1873 in a special message, but their injunctions have remained unexecuted."

In 1876 Secretary Chadwick again called the attention of the Legislature to this subject and said, "In a former report I referred to this subject and there stated that a cets were passed and that Legislatures heretofore have failed to provide funds in most cases for the payment of extraordinary expenses when created. Hence they have crowded on the revenue raised for ordinary current expenses which of themselves have somewhat increased. In this way these unpaid warrants have accumulated and become a charge against the State."

It should be remembered by voters that E. D. Shattuck, candidate for Supreme Judge, is not a party man, while Judge Lord is known to be a very active partisan. The people want a non-partisan court, one that will look to the well being, peace and prosperity of the people rather than the interest of party. For that reason, men without regard to their party relationship have concluded to elect E. D. Shattuck. The court with Shattuck on the bench, would stand two active Republicans and one no party man, while if Judge Lord should be elected it would be composed of three active partisan Republicans.

CAN any lawyer be found that understands the ground upon which Judge Lord declared the law reducing the fees of Clerks and Sheriffs unconstitutional? If so, let him show himself.

THE CORRUPT RING.

The little man of the Herald is in great tribulation over the Democratic ticket of Linn County, and in an agonizing manner hoo-hooes about the corrupt ring of Albany bull-dozing the county candidates and Grangers, and in its usual and unfair way the Herald insinuates that the men placed upon our ticket are dishonest and incapable. Ah! this fuss and feathers on the part of the Herald will amount to nothing. So far as any ring in Albany running the county convention is concerned, we refer our readers to the men who represented the two Albany Precincts in our county convention. The two Albany Precincts had in the convention fifteen delegates, and out of the fifteen only six were from the city, the rest were all farmers and Grangers from the country. Three of the six from town were Grangers; thus twelve out of the fifteen delegates were farmers and Grangers. The following are the names of the fifteen who the Herald insinuates compose the corrupt ring: Mart Miller, G. P. Crawford, Geo. Hochstetler, I. C. Dickey, O. Fry Jr., Phil Swank, Robt Houston, Wm Rals, ton, L. C. Marshall, J. J. Davis, Cooper Turner, Jesse McChae, J. B. Jenks, A. Blovis and A. W. Gordon. These are the men the Herald claims and announces are the Albany ring. We say to the Herald man, and to every other person, that these are no ring men, but are of the very best citizens of the county. Men that have the interests of the people at heart, and are a credit to the party to which they belong. They are as far above the gushing quill shaver of the Herald as truth is above falsehood and the insinuation by the Herald that they have engaged in anything dishonest or corrupt is not true and such statement was conceived in falsehood and is a libel upon the good name of these gentlemen. All the assertions by the Herald about bolting contains about as much truth as the above statement about rings, etc. Grind on, ye little man; your effusions are but the expression of the impressions produced upon your troubled mind while wandering through the labyrinth of fraud and corruption in the late Republican State Convention, and so heavy do they weigh upon your mind and conscience, that you are irresistibly forced to disgorge in order to obtain partial relief at least. Don't let the Democratic ticket worry you so. You have been highly honored (?) by your Republican State Convention, and no doubt through your own personal influence as a delegate to that convention you succeeded in securing for Linn County the high compliment of being allowed a member of the State Central Committee, and by reason of your influence as such delegate together with the powerful influence of your paper, Sol will send his man Friday around with his little satchel and the Herald press will run easy. A little grease helps, eh?

BEAUTIFUL BROTHERS.

Rufus Mallory and I. F. Watson have become the chief mourners in the solemn funeral rites about to be celebrated over the remains of the Mongolian sympathies in this State. This fellow Mallory was kicked out of his office for reasons published by the Statesman and Oregonian and republished in this paper some time since, and now like the dog that kisses the foot that kicks it he is around howling for his party and thus admitting the justness of the aforesaid kick. There is Tom McF. Patton, who never paid a dime for party purposes or made a speech, keeps right on his third term, having already like Mallory served eight years. There was a Watson after Patton's place, but Patton has done no crookedness to elongate his salary, nor had the second Watson forsaken himself to obtain Patton's place. This makes a big difference. And the examples of Mallory and I. F. Watson are such as Patton and the other Watson cannot follow, hence Watson the second has no Republican ground to stand on; not such as would cause the removal of Patton. Therefore let Mallory and I. F. Watson speak. A waggish Republican remarked to us the other day that the democracy were as big fools as ever for they had not sense enough to pay the expenses of Mallory and Watson, when traveling and speaking in the interest of the Democratic party. We gave it up.

THOSE LOCKS.

Had it not been for Rufus Mallory the State to day would own the Looks at Oregon City and the Willamette river would be the cheap highway for the people of the Willamette Valley. As it is the river is virtually locked up to prevent competition and a reduction of freights. And this is to be forever. The people's right in this regard has gone into the hands of the monopoly that will rule with an exacting rod. When the question of purchase was in the Legislature, Mallory favored the sale to the State and worked hard for it until some political consideration was sprung upon him and suddenly he change tactics and detested the bill. The mystery was never solved.

MR. AVERILL DECLINES.

W. C. Peterson has been employed by Mr. J. L. Cowan as clerk in his store. The question with the boys is whether so many of the young lads who go there to purchase goods or to see the handsome clerk. In either case Walter gets the benefit and is happy.

MR. AVERILL DECLINES.

Last night the leading citizens held a meeting to consider the propriety of holding a grand festival of July celebration at Lebanon. From present feeling it will likely be decided to celebrate on that day, if so it would be well for all to make arrangements to come as no effort will be spared to make it a grand success.

REPLY FROM SENATORS GROVER AND ALABAMA.

The following reply was received from Senators Grover and Flator to the dispatch sent them by order of the Democratic State Central Committee: WASHINGTON, D. C., May 12, 1882. Hon. Al. Zeiler, Chairman of Democratic Central Committee of Oregon.

We thank you for your congratulatory telegram on behalf of the Democracy of Oregon on the passage of the bill restricting Chinese immigration to our coast. The Democratic party here was the working force which secured the favorable result. The bill which was matured under Republican direction was practically worthless. Democratic amendments, forbidding Chinese naturalization and excluding Chinese skilled laborers and miners, were stricken out by the Republican majority of Senate Committee on Foreign Relations. They were reinstated by the solid Democratic vote, with a few Western Senators. Vigorous Democratic logic in debate constrained the approval by the President.

OUR CONGRESSMAN.

From every part of the State where Mr. Fenton has been we hear glorious accounts of him. In Southern Oregon he will lead Mr. George in the race far beyond expectations at the outset. The next House of Representatives will be Democratic and we intend to swell the majority with a member from Oregon. Mr. Fenton will complete the canvass of the State and take with him at every place deserved commendations.

SECRETARY OF STATE.

Hon. J. K. Weatherford is the man for the office for which he is nominated—honest, capable and qualified. We hear grand reports of his strength from every part of the State. He will fill the office of Secretary of State in a manner that will comport with the expectations of every honest voter in the State.

RETIRE.

Considering the manner in which Rufus Mallory, lost the office of U. S. District Attorney and that in which I. F. Watson obtained it, these fellows out of regard for the feelings of the thinking people of this State and their own sense of shame should retire from public gaze. The people have had all they want of these men.

THE STATE TREASURER.

Mr. Hyman Abramson will poll a very large vote wherever he is known. We hear that in his own county he will receive a majority of several hundred. He is very popular at home and abroad also. He will be elected.

By Judge Lord's decision one-half of the public roads of this State were declared null and void. This entails a heavy expense upon the people of the State, for in order to render their roads legal public highways they will have to get up new petitions, have viewings and Surveyors appointed, and thus relocate their road anew as though they had never been established as roads. Lawyers say they have never been able to see the force of the reasoning of the court in that decision.

That gallant young son of Linn county, Hon. Jas. K. Weatherford, is making a splendid canvass of the State and gaining friends on all sides. Word reaches from every county in which he has spoken that the yeomanry of the land are flocking to his standard. Ring triumph is about over, and Earhart will rue the day that he and Hirsch put up the job which nominated the Republican ticket.

LEBANON NOTES.

LEBANON, May 17th, 1882. The sounds of the saw and hammer is heard in various places in town. Mr. Jacob Houk is putting up a new butcher shop on Front St. and will have the same completed and ready for work in a few days. Dr. L. Foley has commenced to prepare the ground for the erection of a fine residence on Second St. From the plan and style of the building it will likely surpass anything of the kind in the place. Mrs. Welch is also making arrangements to put up a neat dwelling house on the land recently purchased from J. M. Ralston. There will likely be several more buildings erected during the summer.

C. H. Harmon has removed his barber shop to the St. Charles Hotel Block. He has added a soda fountain with olive cigars and tobacco to his establishment. Charley is one of the best barbers in the country and with his temperance drink and choice Harvans he will find plenty to do. Mrs. Arthur Wheeler has opened a dress making shop in town and is prepared to cut, fit and make dresses in the most fashionable style.

W. C. Peterson has been employed by Mr. J. L. Cowan as clerk in his store. The question with the boys is whether so many of the young lads who go there to purchase goods or to see the handsome clerk. In either case Walter gets the benefit and is happy.

Last night the leading citizens held a meeting to consider the propriety of holding a grand festival of July celebration at Lebanon. From present feeling it will likely be decided to celebrate on that day, if so it would be well for all to make arrangements to come as no effort will be spared to make it a grand success.

CORRESPONDENCE.

WELL SATISFIED. Scio, May 15th, 1882.

We were shown a copy of the Herald the other day by one of our Republican friends and our attention called to a leader in that paper undertaking to show that the late Democratic County Convention was not conducted in a fair and honorable way, and the editor of that sheet in a sort of school boy style has a great deal to say about bull-dozing and bolting. We have talked with nearly all of the delegates who attended the Democratic County Convention from this part of the county, as well as some who were candidates before the Convention, and all, without an exception, say that while the contest was close and spirited, yet every candidate seemed to realize the fact that merit alone would win. I have also been informed by those who were members of the Convention that for all the positions on the ticket there was any contest at all, many ballots were required to decide the matter, showing that there were no underhanded jobs or corrupt combinations; and the people of the Forks, while they failed on some of their candidates, are well satisfied with the ticket, believing that it was fairly and honestly selected by the Convention, and knowing that the men who have been placed upon the ticket are, without a single exception, honest and capable. Many of them have heretofore been elected to and filled positions of public trust, with credit to themselves and their party. No, Mr. Herald, you cannot say, truthfully, anything derogatory to the character of any of the candidates on our ticket, and your silly waddle about the "grangers sitting down on this bolter's convention," etc., is entirely too thin. The fact is the grangers are well represented on our ticket and you know it, and we believe that their interest, as well as the interests of the whole people, will be subserved by electing the entire Democratic ticket in June. And we warn you, Mr. Herald, to confine yourself to the truth throughout this campaign. The people have not forgotten your course two years ago. Bitter personalities will not avail you anything at this time, and if you will examine the record of the different candidates on our ticket fairly and honestly (as you say you will) you will find them all honest and capable. Mr. Herald, we now give you notice that the people of the Forks are solid for the Democratic ticket—State and County—and will roll up her two hundred majority and don't you forget it.

OCCASIONAL.

RECO NOTES.

The Convention is over and every one new feels contented. If the harmony still continues, but little difficulty will be experienced next June. Farmers are still busy seeding and are sanguine a good yield will be obtained, as some have sown heretofore as late as June.

Strawberries are just beginning to get ripe, and from indications there will be an immense crop. In fact fruits of all kinds will be plentiful this year. With private parties, public balls, etc., the people of Scio have had something at which to amuse themselves. The latest was a public performance indulged in by Mr. John Shore, J. C. Johnson and a cat. The fellow attempted to get one of Uncle David Murray's delicious oysters out of a can, where it got its head fastened. The above named gentleman (through sympathy) attempted to help his catship out of the predicament. The first act was a tableau. Oh, it was grand! it was sublime to see brother Johnson in the street holding that cat by the tail to see if the cat wouldn't drop off. It was a scene to make angels weep. It was the cat wouldn't drop. He then took hold of the man to see if the cat wouldn't drop; but "nary" a drop. At this juncture Bro. Shore appeared on the scene, after several ineffectual efforts they at last succeeded in freeing his catship. The cat, however, got the oyster.

Mr. Martin Hughes has been buying cattle for the past six months, sold his entire band numbering 250 head to Mr. Stanton of the Waldo Hill for the snug little sum of $3500.00. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brown left Tuesday morning for their new home in Colorado. A farewell social was held at their residence on the residence of Mr. G. W. Johnson and appropriate resolutions were passed, signed by those present, and presented to Mr. and Mrs. Brown as a token of their high regard. We wish them a pleasant voyage and we feel assured they will prosper in their new home as they possess the happy faculty of making friends wherever they go.

The Blue Ribbon Club held its usual meeting last Friday evening and the program presented was entertaining throughout. CIVIL.

FOURTH AT SCIO.

Scio, April 2nd, 1882.

The citizens of Scio and vicinity, pursuant to notice, met at the City Hall on Monday evening, May 1st, to consider the propriety of having a celebration on the coming forth of July. After a few short, but patriotic, speeches it was decided to have a barbecue celebration, and the following committee on arrangements was appointed: J. C. Johnson, W. E. Kelly, M. I. Smith, A. J. Houston, W. A. Paul, A. M. Shelton, G. W. Johnson, John Bryant, W. W. Richardson, J. H. Kelley, Wm. Cyrus, H. H. Irvine and Jas. A. Bilyeu.

MR. AVERILL DECLINES.

BROWNVILLE, May 15th. Editor Democrat: I notice in the last number of your paper that the late Democratic Convention had placed me in nomination for County Surveyor. While I am thankful to the Convention for the honor, I most respectfully and decidedly decline the nomination for the reason that my age, as well as continued ill health and lack of physical strength, render me unable to attend to the duties of the office. I hope that the Central Committee will at once appoint some suitable person to fill the vacancy on the ticket.

OUR YAMHILL LETTER.

YAMHILL, May 15th, 1882.

Thinking that a few lines from the bunch grass regions might be of some little interest to the readers of your valuable paper, I will try and write you a few items. Jason Wheeler, of your city, accompanied by Mr. Connor, of Benton, spent a few days in our town the past week. They expressed themselves much pleased with our town and country.

Col. W. H. Edinger, of Portland, will address the citizens of this place to-night on the political issues of the day. The Col. will have a good house, and a good time is expected. He will speak in Weston also. We have an excellent County ticket and its election is assured. Notwithstanding the money that is being used to defeat Hon. S. M. Farnington for the Senate his election is predicted by 300 majority.

Prof. L. J. Powell, of your county, delivered a political speech here on the 13th inst. The Professor is a very pleasant gentleman, but we think better calculated to make a picnic speech than a political one. He had but a small audience, and he used most of his time telling them that he was not sure over his defeat, but could not say much for the ring ticket.

Our State ticket gives entire satisfaction, and it is not an uncommon thing to hear men of both parties say the convention could not have acted wiser, and I don't think that I am misrepresenting things when I say the ticket will more than receive its party vote, especially Hon. J. S. Smith and J. K. Weatherford. Both of these gentlemen will poll a very heavy vote in the county. They are spoken of as the purest men we have, and men that claim to be posted say they will carry the banner Democratic county by 400 or 500 majority, as many Republicans declare their intention to support them. We hear cheering news from Baker and Union counties, and predict a rousing Democratic majority in Eastern Oregon, so large that it will take an extra steambath to land it safely in Portland.
