No remedy has been found for fever and ague which proves so uniformly successful as Ayer's Ague Cure.

We have men who will bill me Wednesday evening who cannot pay the subscription to this paper.

We are told that the saw mill at Jefferson was burned on Monday. What the loss is we have not learned.

The graining on the front doors of the M. E. Church was done by H. C. Clement, and a better job was rarely seen.

The Ladies Coffee club dished out about seventy gallons of lemonade on Tuesday, most of it being drunk by firemen.

The Waitburg Times tells of nine sheep which sheared on an average 291 pounds. This is about the best wool story out.

If you would obtain the best groceries go to Hoffman & Joseph where you will find a pure stock at reasonable prices.

The man that told the Oregonian chap that the land about the Bay was worthless for agricultural purposes, is a liar by the watch-word.

At the election Monday only 24 votes were cast. L. M. Mantay receiving 11 for School Director, in place of I. Bilyeu, who resigned.

People appreciate a newspaper most when they want something kept warm. They realize then that its tongue answers to something.

The State fair will open at Salem on Sept. 15, 1882. For trials of speed the largest amount of money ever offered in this state will be put up.

There is a great demand for harvesting hands, and very few to answer the call. There can be no excuse but sickness for a man's lying idle now.

A musical and literary entertainment will be given at the maple sugar party at Mr. J. M. Irving's next Tuesday evening. It will be worth listening to.

We are going to have a hard winter, or else we are badly mistaken. Signs indicate that we are right. Consult another column in this issue for the sign.

One of the Washington threshers has been on exhibition on First Street this week. Jim Gilmore is running it, and will take contracts through the coming fall.

We have received the catalogue of St. Helen's Hall, Portland, which is a neat affair and shows that school to be in an excellent condition. The number of pupils is 186.

It is a penitentiary offense for an outsider to walk into a printing office and read the copy or proofs that may be lying upon the cases or table, so says an exchange.

Farm hands are wanted all through the county. Now will be a good chance to find out whether some of the lazy side-walk measures really want to work or not.

A copy of the Prineville News mailed July 1, reached us on the 17th inst. Evidently the stage route between that place and the Dalles is completely out of order.

Tuesday the "Hooks" made the first run of 200 yards in 28 seconds, but slow ladder work increased the time to about 41 seconds before a man was gotten on top of the ladder.

One of our aristocratic and wealthy millionaires has gone to the mountains in search of a little sun and air, and we learn that he can find a little sun and air by returning to this city.

Mr. Jas. P. Sloan, who is engaged in the Railroad hotel at this city, has the contract for carrying the mail between Harrisburg and Coburg. Mr. Wm. Roach is running it for him.

Self-killers were put to work on last Monday on fully nine-tenths of all the fall wheat in this locality, and harvesting is now in full blast. Threshing will not begin for a few days yet.

There are six vacancies to be filled in the State University at Eugene. Application should be made to school Superintendent Moses so as to stand an examination at the next term of school.

Mr. Ashby Pease is building a new "new" ferry boat, which will be quite an improvement on the old one when completed. It will be 64 feet long, with all the improvements which go to make up a good ferry boat.

A turbine water wheel for sale at this office; a 12 inch wheel, in splendid condition; will be sold cheap. Also 40 feet of 1 1/2 inch shafting and about 12 feet of 1 1/2 inch shaft

ing. If you want a bargain call early.

Joe Purdon, Sheriff of Douglas county, was in the city over Sabbath on his way home from Salem, where he had been with one Boggs who had been sent to the penitentiary for two years for stealing a horse.

Quite a number want from this city to Corvallis on Thursday night of last week and attended the minstrel show given by the Georgia minstrels. They reported a splendid troupe, probably the best ever in Oregon.

Sheriff Humphrey returned from Astoria last Wednesday bringing with him Harcourt, the prosecuting witness against R. Watkins, who failed to be in attendance at last Court. Harcourt was admitted to bonds yesterday.

One of the members of the H & L Co., was on the street Wednesday, with a red edged cap on his head and the letters M. B. R. on the cap. He was somewhat put back when he found out that they meant, "most badly beaten."

That Marriage Insurance Company, at Portland, has ceased business, but is paying back to policy holders the amounts invested by them. These who held policies in that company will now have to lay their plans to make a stake in some other way.

It is reported that the maple sugar party to be given next Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. J. M. Irving. Business will begin at 5 o'clock and close at 10 and everybody can do all the maple sugar they please by paying 25 cents for it. Admission 25 cents. By all means go.

Albany needs nothing much more than it needs a new Central school house. We have two good engine houses which are ornaments to the city, and none too good for us; but we deserve also a new school house in keeping with the other public buildings in our city.

The proprietor of a large wholesale establishment in New York, takes the local paper of his customers, and says that he has no hesitation in trusting them as long as they keep up their advertising, but just as soon as they cut down on it or stop, he cuts down on them. This plan has proved of immense value to him.

Have you bought an electric pad. They cure everything, consumption; inflammation of the heart; information of the brain, and, in fact, will do everything but induce people to pay their subscriptions. Agents are around, and if you would seek a spring of eternal youth buy one, and let your family go hungry.

Mrs. C. Mendelhall will leave Lebanon for Portland this week for a short rest and to prepare for her fall opening. In the meantime her clothing store will be in the care of Mrs. Olympia Wheeler who will be pleased to wait on customers wanting millinery or dress-making.

Mont Ague is not the name of a mountain, nor is it the name of a malarial disease, but fasten them together and you have the leading general merchant at Lebanon. C. B. Montague has worked up a splendid trade without the use of quinine, and it is increasing daily. He sells a splendid stock of goods, and if you want a bargain go to him and get your moneys worth.

We have just received an invitation to attend the first annual ball of the O. R. & N. Social Club of Brownsville, to be given at the New City Hall in that city on Friday, July 21, 1882. A fine time is expected. The music will be furnished by the Magic Spell Orchestra and will of course be first class. Tickets $1.50.

Last Saturday the Good Templars of Shedd Station held a picnic at Roberts Bridge near that place. There was a large attendance and a most enjoyable time had. Dr. Watts delivered the address, which is well spoken of. The music was furnished by the Ladies' Cornet Band of this city. Several went from this city and nearly all have the same report to make.

The ninth arrest within a week occurred Saturday evening. As usual it was for too much shoulder striking. By actual count Geo. Simons hit Mr. Hone, living near the city, six solid blows in the face. He was taken before Recorder Henton and on pleading guilty was fined $10 and costs. The affair, we understand was a family quarrel and who was to blame, we do not undertake to say.

Whew, hasn't it been warm, too hot for anything. For many who have felt this heat Mr. E. J. Bellenger has been on hand at the Star Brewery to quench their thirst with the popular beer which he manufactures. The warmer the weather the more his beverage is appreciated, not only here, but through the valley.

We have heard of only one fight on the 18th, which occurred between Pete Riley and Mr. Albright, of Corvallis. Mr. Riley and John Petty were arrested; the former pleaded guilty and paid his fine and the latter stood his trial. The evidence showed that he only interfered to stop the affair, and of course he was discharged.

In about three weeks L. E. Blain will start for San Francisco to lay in his fall stock of clothing. In order to close out his summer stock he will sell his goods at bottom prices, most of his clothing at actual cost. There is no gain about this, so that if you would get bargains call now and purchase while you can get your clothing for cost.

Why does not the proprietor of Ammen's Cough Syrup publish testimonials from those who have been cured or relieved by his medicine? The answer is, the greater the humbug the more testimonials they publish, Ammen's Cough Syrup is no humbug, and to prove that and let it stand on its own merits, a 15-cent sample bottle is prepared, which is certainly more convincing than a testimonial from a stranger. Large bottles, $1.00. Ask your druggist for it.

The building of the new school house at Shedd, will be begun in a few days and completed in time for the fall term. The old one will be moved and the new one built on its foundation. When finished it will put Albany to the blush, and our old Central school building will appear insignificant enough compared with it. The school is to be graded, and two first-class teachers engaged.

While Rev. J. W. Harris and wife were in Portland last week on their way to the Dalles, Mrs. Harris had an accident which marred to quite an extent the pleasure of the trip. In getting from a carriage she slipped and fell, spraining one of her ankles, which she has not been able to use yet. It was found necessary to carry her during the remainder of the journey to the Dalles and back to Albany, in going to and from the cars.

Eli Perkins, the infamous liar who humbugged our people in this city a few months ago, has gone back East and put the following, which avers somewhat of the truth for a wonder, into the mouth of a Chinaman: "Oregon farmers will wheat for a cent and a half a pound to contractors. Contractors ship it over the railroad to the flouring mill. The flouring mill grinds it, bolts it and puts it in costly barrels. Then he ships it back again over the railroad to the merchant. The farmer buys the same wheat back from the merchant at five cents a pound. Farmer, he heap dam fool."

This week the extension of the east side narrow gauge road, from Brownsville south to Coburg on the McKeanie river, was opened to traffic. It runs through the finest agricultural section of this county. The grade was nearly finished by the old Scotch company, and the road put in running order by the O. R. & N. Co. A convenient and handsome depot has been built at Coburg and side tracks have been put in where necessary between Brownsville and Coburg. The train will leave the latter point at 7 a. m. and arrive at 4:50 p. m.—Discriminator.

A big fire occurred at Colfax, W. T., last Friday morning, burning five or six business blocks. The loss of property will amount to about $300,000. Among those completely burned out was Mr. E. N. Beach, proprietor of the Baldwin House, a son-in-law of Mrs. Dr. Miller of this city. We were glad to hear though that his loss is partly covered by insurance. This is the second disastrous fire that has occurred in Colfax within a year. Had she had an efficient fire department it would never have spread. As it is, we understand they have an engine, but it is out of order, and probably could not be worked at all.

The oil painting presented by Marx Stocker to Linn Engine Co. No. 2, on Tuesday is a piece of workmanship which confers considerable credit on the artist. A shield with the stripes and blue is the center figure. On the stripes is a large figure 2. Above the shield is an eagle, with the word "Protection" below it, and reaching from under it in several directions are ladders, hooks, axes, saws, etc. In the lower corners are two handsome banners, on the left one being the words: "Organized September 13, 1875," and on the right "Dedicated July 18, 1882." Between them are two hands grasped together, one backed with a red sleeve and the other a blue one. It was inferred from this that one represented the H & L Co., and the other the O. R. & N. Co. The artist, whose name was asked why he did not represent and be answered, "Because they always have their hands in their pockets," but their activity in running would indicate that this was not exactly so. Taking the whole picture a good blending of colors is noticed. About the only things criticized are the two hands, which some claim are not as natural as they might be.

D. V. Reid and wife are sporting amid the breezes at Diamond Point, Yaquina Bay.

Miss Ollie Kirkpatrick's school has closed and she is now taking her vacation in this city.

Clarence Smith, a jury member of the Willamette, of Portland, was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. A. B. Paxton arrived here last Monday, after a sojourn of several months in California.

Walter Huston of Harrisburg was in the city this week and made our office a pleasant call.

Mr. F. P. Cavines is visiting friends in this city, having come up from Portland the first of the week.

Mr. J. H. Scales left this last week for East Portland, where he has opened a barber shop.

Miss Osa Strang, a sister of Chas. Eugene Strang, of Siletia, was in the city the first of the week.

Billy Rainwater left for Dayton, W. T., last Thursday. He intends making that his home in the future.

We acknowledge the receipt of a Ukiah paper from J. W. Baldwin, Esq., who is practicing law in that city.

Misses Nancy and Annie Parker returned to their home at Onatka last Tuesday, after a visit here of several weeks.

Mr. John Crawford arrived here from a trip to Boise City on Thursday last week, after an absence of several weeks.

Mrs. B. D. Wilson, of Oregon City, is visiting friends in this city and while here is a guest of Hon. J. K. Weatherford.

Miss Hattie Miller closed a successful term of school at Shedd Station last Friday and returned home on Saturday.

Mr. Jack Titus, an old Albany boy, but now in the stock business in Eastern Oregon has been in the city this week.

Miss Belle Young and Eva Street, were in the city on Tuesday, coming here with the excursion from Portland.

Frank Wood, H. C. Clement, and Messrs. Northrup and Waldman, of Portland left yesterday for a few weeks trip to the mountains.

Charlie and Edwin P. Piper, sons of Excelsior Attorney Peter of Salem, were in the city the 18th. We acknowledge a call from the latter.

Joe Webber, Jr., came up from Portland, Monday night and remained during the 18th. He is well located in an insurance office, and is as happy as a clam.

Mrs. Fleming, of Portland, was the guest of Mrs. Duno Monteith for several days, and on Wednesday, left for Corvallis accompanied by Mrs. M.

Jas. M. Perry, our new County Treasurer has not yet brought his family over to Albany, but will do so after harvest. In the meantime he boards at Bryan's.

Frank Moore came up from Portland Monday evening in order to play with the College Band on the 18th. He is working in that city, having secured a position there.

Mr. H. Williams, of Halsey, was in the city Wednesday on crutches, carrying one foot in bandages. He was hurt worse by his late runaway than we were informed last week.

Mr. John Shea, the most pious and virtuous citizen of Sweet Home, called on us last Friday and let his benign countenance shine around our office for some time in a very fascinating manner.

Mr. J. F. Backenack, agent for the Champion Fruit Drier, is stopping in the city, and taking orders. The Champion is well recommended by parties who have used it.

Waltburg Times.

Frank F. Hodgkin, Assistant Secretary of State, a most genial gentleman and a good fireman, was in the city Tuesday evening and Wednesday forenoon, and while here made our office a very pleasant call.

Mr. Robt. Dickson, manager of the Imperial London, Northern & Quebec Insurance Companies, of San Francisco, and B. F. Cohn, Esq., connected with the same company in Portland, called on last Thursday.

Mr. Wm. D'Arcy, local editor of the Statesman, a very modest and bashful young man, was in the city during the firemen's Dedication services on Tuesday, and we understand broke—but we won't go back on a brother in language.

Mr. Geo. Turrell and Mr. Emily came back from a trip to Fish Lake on Thursday last week. They caught no fish. An old fisherman sojourning here had only captured nine, but they had been there some time; but they will begin biting in a short time.

Last Tuesday Judge R. S. Strahan, Judge S. D. Halsey, Dr. S. W. Dodd, Mr. Martin Payne and Mr. John Hackleman left for a two weeks trip in the mountains. We understand that Judge Strahan and Mr. Hackleman were taking along as ballast to keep the load from upsetting.

Mr. Geo. Hulbrook has returned from a pleasant trip through this county, beyond Prineville and across the mountains to Albany where he joined his wife, who was visiting friends there, and together, returned via Portland. Mr. H. reports it quite a rough experience but very agreeable and interesting.—The Dalles Sun.

On the 5th we received a call at our new office from a party of Linn county excursionists consisting of Misses Jennie and Annie Bardwell, Flora and Viola Temple, Messrs. A. Hardwell, E. B. and D. W. Barnett, Frank Miller, Charles Thomas, Henry Parrish and wife. It was a pleasant occasion to us, and we extend an invitation to all to call again.—Prineville Post.

Drowned.

Monday afternoon Coroner Davis received a telegram that the body of a man had been found in the river at Harrisburg. Taking the freight train he immediately started for that place and after a long journey ascertained the following fact: The name of the drowned man was L. B. Jones, aged about 50 years. He came from Illinois seventeen years ago, and afterwards left and went back. He had only been in the state a short time when the drowning occurred, coming here this time from Texas. He was missed first on the 10th of July, but it was not known what had become of him. His body was discovered by some boys near the wharf at Harrisburg, and the indications were that it had been in the water about a week. What was the cause of the drowning it is not known, but it was surmised that he had gone down to the wharf while slightly intoxicated and fallen in. The jury found simply that he came to his death by drowning on July 10th.

Mr. Henry Kees knew Mr. Jones well when a boy in Illinois. He leaves a wife and five children in that state. He has a brother, Sylvester Jones, residing at Moline, Illinois, and another brother, Harvey Jones, in Winterset, Iowa.

Goggles and buckskins.—Best stock in town at the Farmers' and Mechanics' Store, Skidgate oil.

At the sale of the above named machine oil is steadily increasing and is giving better satisfaction than any other oil now used several dealers in oils are selling an inferior oil, under the name of Skidgate. From one dealer we obtained a sample of oil and sent to Messrs. Knapp, Barrett & Co., Portland (the exclusive agents for Oregon), asking if it was Skidgate, and the following letter was received in reply:

The sample oil, which you send by six, press, we think is nothing but common dog-fish oil, which is sold here at 10c to 50c per gallon, and has been sold as low as 47 1/2c. We have not sold any Skidgate oil to any one at Albany except ourselves and we have the exclusive sale and agency for it in this market. Genuine Skidgate oil cannot be sold at the price you name, and the parties are evidently selling common dog-fish oil and calling it Skidgate.

A Big Day Among the Firemen—Hot Contests, etc.

Last Tuesday was a big day in the history of Linn Engine Company Number Two. The dedication of the new house of that live young company was a complete success, and the program was carried out in every respect in a manner satisfactory to everybody.

The Corvallis Hook & Ladder Company, arriving here in carriages in the forenoon, followed by many citizens of that city. At 11 o'clock the companies formed and met the Salem boys, about 20 in number, and several Portland firemen, at the depot, bringing them back to No. 2's hall, when an adjournment was had till one o'clock. The firemen met at that time at the same place, where a very handsome banner for the department, and two guides for each of the companies, were presented by Mrs. L. E. Blain, on behalf of the Ladies' Coffee Club. Proper responses were made by Mr. D. P. Mason for No. 1's, Mr. Ed. Zoyas for No. 2's and Mr. E. R. Skilpworth for the "Hooks." After this the firemen drew No. 2's engine and hose cart through First street to in front of their new house, when Mayor Diekey in a short pointed speech, turned over the house to Linn Engine Company No. 2, and then the members of that company formally housed their engine and took possession of one of the prettiest and best arranged engine houses in the state of Oregon. Well and substantially made, completely and elegantly furnished, it can hardly be excelled. The hall above has a handsome Brussels carpet, appropriate pictures are on the walls, the president has a rich easy chair, and the secretaries elegant desks, the work of Graft & Frost, having attracted considerable attention. At the back hangs Marx Stocker's oil painting, which is described in another place. Taken altogether, a presentation hall is rarely found. In the meantime Hon. J. K. Weatherford has been introduced in front of the hall, and proceeded to deliver an able, forcible address to the firemen, which is highly commended. The firemen were then served to a most beautiful repast, gotten up by the Ladies' Coffee Club. Sufficient was served to be used in praise of the members of this club. They did everything that was to be done. They not only furnished the excellent repast which was devoured with energy by the hungry firemen, but they dealt out lemonade free all day, during the contest as well as at the hall. The absence of drunkenness would indicate that their work had a great influence.

A rest was taken till about four o'clock, when the tournament began. Haseus, H. & L. Co. No. 1, of Albany making the first run. It was the fastest time made during the day, but the judges got in a quarrel and no official time was kept, so they had to run it over. This time 11 1/2 minutes followed them; the ladder catching on the side, making it impossible to get it off. This was unfortunate, as they had gotten the ladder over the side, and completely tired out they ran again, getting a man on top of the ladder in 47 seconds. The Corvallis boys took the truck and levered the time to 43 winning the first money. The hose companies then run, making the following time: Albany Hose Co. No. 1, 47 1/2 seconds; Linn Engine Hose Co. No. 2, 50 seconds; Salem Hose Co. No. 1, 51 seconds. No. 1's taking the first prize and the Salem firemen the second.

In the foot race second entered and made one of the warmest contests of the day. Willie Emery, of Corvallis, came out first by about 1 1/2 inches, and Abe Clark, of Salem, second. He would have beaten, but, thinking the first crossing was the end of the race he slackened his speed. Young Northrup, who is claimed to be one of the best 300 yard runners in Portland, supposed he was running that distance and so reserved his strength. Consequently got left on 240 yards. Ray Raber, of Corvallis, would have beaten if he had only run faster. The best time was 22 seconds.

In the evening a hall was given in No. 2's new hall, which was completely crowded. About 75 couples were present, McKnight brothers furnished some excellent music and a more orderly dance is rarely witnessed. The supper was taken at the Depot Hotel, and was gotten up in splendid style. We acknowledge the receipt of a large load of 300 gross of Gross, who has our thanks for the same. The party dispersed at a later early hour Wednesday, closing everything in connection with the affair but the sweeping up of the crumbs.

Just received 10,000 of the National five cent cigars.—Marx Baumgart, sole agent.

A Bad Tumble.

Last Thursday evening about half past seven, while the Hook & Ladder Company were practicing in front of No. 1's Hall, for the contest on the 15th, an accident occurred which was not down on the program. The truck had been drawn out of the house, and the ladder raised perpendicular in the air, when Robt. Bowman went up and started to go down on the other side head first, a trick done with ease by some, but never attempted by him before to our knowledge. In swinging back he caught the ladder with his hands, but his feet also followed, unintentionally, and being unable to hold himself, he went to the ground, turning again and falling head first. Very fortunately his arms and shoulders struck two of the ladder men, breaking his fall slightly and turning him so that he fell on his shoulder and back of his head, otherwise he would have struck fairly on the head and probably broke his neck. As it was his left shoulder he received a severe fracture. It was feared at the time that the fall would prove fatal. Drs. Hill and Davis were called, and Mr. Bowman was taken into the engine house and the fracture attended to. He was carried home in a hack and placed under good care. He is now doing well and will come out of it in much better shape than was expected at first.

A Judge's Experience.

Judge J. T. Bossier, of St. Tammany Parish, La., and of the State Legislature, thus expressed his opinion to one of our representatives: "I have found St. Jacobs Oil to be very efficacious in sprains and bruises. In my opinion there is no oil or ointment equal to it."—New Orleans (La.) Times Democrat.

DEDICATED.

"What Foot's These Horrors Be?"

"A fool and his money are soon parted." One of those humbug letters, and card friends was in the city Wednesday night, and bilked every hundred dollars out of our citizens, in a couple of hours, and served them right, inasmuch as they had just enough sense to bite his deceptive bait. We supposed every intelligent person knew something about this fraud, but were astonished to see that some of our leading citizens were entirely ignorant on the subject. They thought they were investing in a lottery, because they saw the red figures before them, so they got excited and gambled with the rest of them, paying one dollar a chance to get nothing. The fact is the business is not even a lottery, and it was surprising that men had not sense enough to know it. The fellow has complete control over the cards, so as to give any other person, and could make the same cards show prizes or not just as he pleased, a trick that has been done for years at every county fair we ever attended. During the whole evening there was not a single prize number drawn, except in the pool of ten cards at $5 a man, and of course that was only $1, which showed on its face that there was no chance in it. In order to keep up the interest and make his victims bite again the honest friend would buy back the chances, sometimes paying as high as $5. If he bought all of them back he would open the envelopes and show a big prize, if he didn't he would show numbers "in favor of the firm," as he called himself, and even this did not open the eyes of his victims. If he were to be here again to-night he would find that the fool-killer had not yet been found the same as he does wherever he goes.

50 pair men's box toe shoes at $1.50 worth three dollars at Nolan's Bargain Store.

L. E. BLAIN & COMPANY.

Mr. Diekey has leased the salaried, warehouse and is completely overhauling it, and putting it in a more substantial condition. By the time grain bins to come in at this season to none in the city. The bins which were slightly under water a year ago last winter in one of the highest freshets ever had in the valley, have been raised seven feet making every bin in the warehouse about four feet above the highest water mark. No greater assurance of safety could be needed, for there is not the least probability of the water ever reaching that height again. The other arrangements are just as complete. Combine these facts with Mr. Diekey's known integrity and business qualities, and it will be seen that the farmers of Linn County can find no better place to store their wheat. Mr. Diekey will also pay the highest cash price for grain. Those wishing sacks can get them at any time at his warehouse. See adv. in another column.

Twice Bled.

The Osborne Twins Binder has today made the finest record of any harvester that started in Oregon. Road Mr. E. P. Walker's statement to the farmers. Mr. Walker came to Oregon two years ago and purchased Mr. Wm. Herren's farm in Siletia Prairie, paying $16,000 for it. Mr. W. is one of our best farmers, and a most reliable citizen.

SALERIE PRAIRIE June 22, 1882.

To my fellow farmers:

DEAN SIR: I have heard a great deal about Osborne Binders and their relative merits, and I have this to say. I have to day started my Osborne Twine Binder in my field, and it has done the best work of any machine I ever used. It has run a single bind in the ten rounds I have cut around a five acre tract. Binding tight and nice. E. P. WALKER.
