Last Monday Wm Westfall was arrested charged with having swiped the pocket handker- can have by calling at this office. chief of another young man, which, in stealing such a small thing as a linen handkerchief attracted considerable attention in the preliminary examination which was held before ER Skipworth, Esq., at the Court House Tuesday afternoon. The taking of the handgerchief was easily proven, as well as the fact that it was not returned. This, in fact was admitted by the defense, but it was claimed to have been done for fun and that the boys had been doing considerable swiping among each other, the defendant stating that the same handkerchief was afterwards taken from him by some one else. BY R. L. B.

If we would help one another And each others sorrows share, Our burdens would be lighter

In this world of toil and care.

How much better it would be If the rich would he!p the poor, That are striving so hard To keep she wolf from their door, Just think of the little children

That are starving in the street And the ries wan never offers them One mouthful to est. I don't mean to condem them all For some are kind and true, But I tell you what my friends

They are very very few.

The rich man never stops to think Of how the poor have striven : I suppose they want to keep their eash To pay their way to heaven. But if they will lend a helping hand While in this world they roam.

will inspre them a free pass To that heavenly bome.

successfully sought security in the wilder ness near the desert place. Now in those days there lived without the very walls of the city, near the West gate, a certain phy. ters. sician whose surname was H who longed covetously to possess himself of two or address on "How to grade our district three goals both male and female, for he said the milk of the goat is good even as the milk of the cow is, And the farmer said nuto the physician even so shall it be. If thou wouldst possess thysolf of the g ate then mayest if thou will catch them. Now the farmer thought privately to himextch a goat, because of their great wildness. But the physician with much spirit placed himself on his chariet and made haste to the desert place near the hills and with mighty efforts so confounded the goats that they yielded themselves to the control of the physician, even so that he carried them within the walls of the city to his place of abode near the west gate, and the farmer and his neighbors marvelled at his wonderful skill in controlling geats. And even unte this day are they sore in mind over the manifestation of eccentric power which Dr. H. wields over goats. And when the citizens of the cky ask the Dr. concerning his goats, he replies, "yes verily gost," This is a true RESOLUTIONS OF CONDICENCE.
