

Entered at the Post Office at Albany, Or., as second-class mail matter.

FRIDAY, MAY 25, 1883

SITES & NOTTING

FRED F. NETTING, Local Editor

O. & C. R. M. TIER TABLE

DEPARTURE OF TRAINS

Table with columns for destination (Albany, Corvallis, etc.), train name, and departure time.

All Trains Daily, except Sunday

Notice—On and after this date regular tickets will be sold at our ticket office...

Following are the Democrat's duly authorized agents to receive subscriptions...

THE CLORIDES FOURTH

Last Saturday evening the adjourned meeting of the regular Chairman...

The finance committee reported $12 already subscribed.

The Chairman was, on motion, authorized to appoint a committee on arrangements...

At another meeting Wednesday night, the following was announced as such committee...

On motion they were given full power to go ahead, appoint all sub-committees...

Means were suggested by which the amount of the funds will be greatly increased...

Everything of an attractive nature will be put on the program. The new Albany band will be engaged...

At a recent meeting of the regular Chairman...

About five years ago a burglar entered the residence of Mr. E. W. Gundiff...

This afternoon at 2 o'clock sharp, city time, a game of base ball is to be played on Monteth's field...

Following is the program for the meeting of the Blue Ribbon Club to be held at the Y. P. C. A. Hall...

Prayer, Song by the Club, Declaration by Jas. Carter, Address by Rev. S. G. Irvine...

Last Monday and Tuesday Templeton Brothers, of Brown view, were in the city...

Those desiring to be prepared for family use in cultivation, twenty-nine acres, from which, if prices do not go down...

John Millard came in about a week since from Prineville on the W. V. & C. M. W. R. route...

The man who purchased the first through ticket on the Northern Pacific is named Brown...

The statement that there is a substitute for ketchup, which will be shown down to a small price per pound...

Everybody should attend the game of ball between the Hooks and No. 2's this afternoon.

Each of the companies has paid its initiation fee to the State Fireman's Association.

The H. & L. Co. have been working since last week and have succeeded in getting enough of the members pledged...

There will be several fireworks in the celebration on the Fourth, as well as a Fireman's dance in the evening.

Following is the money order business in the Post Office in this city for the quarter ending March 31, 1883:

HOM AND ABROAD

City taxes due. P. M. French, Jeweler, P. M. French, Jeweler...

Considerable real estate is being sold in Linn County. Sunday, May 20, Albany nine, 30, Corvallis nine, 25.

Unaccolored tea, a first-class stock at C B Roland & Co's, Jefferson.

Large stock of ladies' and childrens shoes at Monteth & Seibach's.

Three first-class billiard tables for sale cheap for cash. Enquire at this office.

The Northern Pacific ships are to be located at Albany permanently it is claimed.

A splendid line of canned goods, fruits, peaches, tomatoes, etc., at C B Roland & Co's, Jefferson.

Recherche is a shoddy aristocratic way of our exchanges have of expressing a high tone affair.

Eastern Oregon cattle are said to be in fine condition. They are now being rounded up and branded.

Mr. Frank French is constructing a barn on his premises on the corner of 4th and Washington streets.

The Common Council of Corvallis has passed an ordinance prohibiting the playing of baseball in that city on Sunday.

S. A. DeVany is the Democrat's duly authorized agent to receive subscriptions, advertisements, money, etc., at Jefferson.

The Fourth of July celebration here this year will no doubt be the finest affair ever held in Albany.

In the list of incorporators of the Albany Woolen Mills, published last week, the name of Geo. Peterson should have been included.

A residence on First street between Baker and Montgomery, is being re-erected. We note this improvement with considerable pride.

Splendid ice cold soda water, lemonade, etc., at Hoffman & Joseph's, the leading grocers. Go to them for first-class goods in their line.

A man was killed by whisky at Watsburg last week, so says a W T paper. The culprit should by all means suffer the penalties of the law.

A Portland paper erroneously stated that they were to build a $6,000 school house here. Please correct and put it at $20,000. Give us our dues.

A postal card to her lady lord from Mrs. Sheriff Humphrey at Ogden, says that she had arrived at that point in a good state of preservation.

Our citizens should remember that Francis Williams will be here on the 13th of June and prepare to give her the reception which she deserves.

Hon. T. B. Ford, of Corvallis, has received $5,000 from the American Legion of Honor, the beneficiary to his wife, who died a month or so ago.

We are bound to have good weather now for several months. In order to appreciate it get a pair of those fine summer shoes at L. E. Blain's.

One of Corvallis' citizens offers for Portland speculators a sale of the whole of that city for a little over $4. The offer has not yet been accepted.

Our readers should always read our outside. This week will be found several interesting communications, the latest general news, etc.

This interesting firm. The County Pioneers Association met yesterday afternoon, but we went to press before its termination.

A curious series of law suits has just been terminated. A judgment was recovered against a certain individual and some property attached and sold.

A newspaper has to be published according to the people among whom it circulates. Articles, for instance, tolerated in a Walla Walla paper, would not be allowed here, and matters of a personal nature would be "set down" on.

There is no use talking, we have got to keep working even if the wheat did get soaked a little. The place to find your working clothes, such as blouses, overalls, shirts, etc., is at L. E. Blain's.

Our subscribers should not think because it is somewhat dull that the newspaper does not need money to run it. It takes just as much and if some will bear this in mind they will confer a great favor.

It is not very strange after all that Jefferson people should all run to C B Roland & Co. for their hardware and tinware.

Last Monday Mrs. K. A. Irvine returned with her two nieces, from Casterville, Unita county. Her son J. H. Irvine sent the Democrat by her two bunches of wheat which show the wonderful spreading capacity of that variety in Unita county.

Albany has a water power sufficient to run all the machinery of a large manufacturing city of the great many thousand inhabitants, and it is a matter of considerable regret for us to see the water running into the Willamette after having turned only a few wheels.

The North American Review for June is to contain a spirited discussion of the "Moral Influence of the Drama," by Rev. Dr. Bookley, the well known opponent of the stage; John Gilbert, the actor; A. M. Palmer, the theatrical manager; and William Winter, the dramatic critic.

In the suit against our old townsman, C. P. Davis, in the District Court, charged with opening the door to a saloon, nothing was found against him and he was discharged. He is held in the highest esteem by all who know him, and why he has been prosecuted in the manner in which he has, we are unable to say.

Only one needs to go into the large foundry and machine shops of Cherry & Parks, to ascertain the fact that at least in this line, Albany is taking a good position as a manufacturer. From ten to fifteen men are kept busy constantly in meeting many orders for work. Their shops are now full of work ready to be sent away.

Robinson's saw mill has been run at full speed lately, eight or ten men being kept at work in the mill. We would like to see it supplied with logs so that it could be kept going at full speed, and while we would like to see the lumber used in our own city, there is considerable satisfaction even in knowing that we are exporters.

Last Monday Senator Jacob Voorhees, of Marion county was shot near Woodburn. It is said that he had discharged a man named I. W. Cannon, from his farm. He felt grieved, purchased a revolver, and shot him three times, each ball taking effect. It was at first thought he would die, but later reports say that he will probably recover.

Tom Sawyer may be a myth, but we know of two real live ones in this city, only three or four years of age. They got hold of some artist's paints and completely covered their faces and teeth with different colors, until they looked like painted cannibals. It took a long time, an immense amount of water and more patience, to make them white again.

During the recent storm the largest hall known full to many of the oldest inhabitants and seemed to be confined entirely, or almost so, on Mr. James Smith's farm, where it left the trees bare of all their leaves. It is supposed that this strange phenomena was caused by two storms coming in contact with each other.

The Y. P. C. A. will meet at the Y. P. C. A. Hall, Saturday, May 26th, at three o'clock p. m. The devotional exercises will consist of a Bible reading prepared by the W. C. T. U. and conducted by Mrs. L. E. Blain. An important business meeting will follow. Members and friends of the work are urged to be present. Mrs. Townsend, Pres., Mrs. Turrell, Sec.

The engineering corps for the extension of the west side railroad to Junction arrived at Corvallis Tuesday evening ready for immediate work, consisting of the following named gentlemen: Alex. H. Auld, J. D. Moore, Chas. Wilder, E. W. Gooding. It is understood that the work will be continued forward until the road is completed to Junction.

The Mother lode is the latest invention for the lead without hooks to catch or strain the lid. They are instantly located by the simple pulling of the cord, they fit the hand and wrist perfectly, and excel all others for durability and simplicity of construction, ease and quickness in operation. Call and examine, Monteth & Seibach, sole agents, Albany.

We are to celebrate the Fourth in big style. There is going to be no limit to the hilarity of the occasion. People are coming from every place in Linn county and West Union. Corvallis people will stop queuing for a moment the engine in their pockets, and sail for Albany. A delegation may be looked for from Iowa, as well as from Missouri and Illinois, so that there can be no doubt of the complete success of the affair.

The San Francisco Commercial Reporter has the following to say, in an article on the Pacific Coast States. "We see the grand districts of the northwest, Oregon and Washington, pushing forward with a speed and vigor surpassing anything in their history, impelled by a constant tide of home seekers, who will develop the wonderful wealth which lies in the forests, the mines and the soils of the new northlands."

A curious series of law suits has just been terminated. A judgment was recovered against a certain individual and some property attached and sold. Then the old Grange Store building on Wednesday evening, June 6th, in cream 21 cents a dish. No admission charged.

When the Northern Pacific is completed a cheap if not a free ride will be given to pioneers on an extended trip east. We understand several from this county intend taking advantage of it.

Zuccalante is good. It means the name as bacchalaureate. Most who noticed the word in the Democrat last week were in the impression that there was no such word.

Worder's dictionary. There is no use talking, we have got to keep working even if the wheat did get soaked a little. The place to find your working clothes, such as blouses, overalls, shirts, etc., is at L. E. Blain's.

Mr. John Ison and daughter, Lizie, returned to Albany last Thursday, after a visit of several weeks to Mr. Ison's old home in Virginia, where his father resides, at quite an advanced age. We are sorry to hear that Miss Lizie was ill part of the time while gone.

Also Pardon, brother of S. J. Pardon, arrived in this city Saturday evening, and will remain with us, in the capacity of deputy sheriff. Mr. Pardon is a printer by trade, formerly ran the Western Leader, but worked later in Pendleton and last in The Dallas. —Rochester Plaindealer.

Messrs. I. C. Dickey and H. J. Clark, of Albany, will remove to this city in a few days. They purpose engaging in brick-making on an extensive scale near the Red House, about three miles south of the city limits. Mr. Dickey is an ex-Sheriff of Linn county, and both he and Mr. Clark are worthy citizens. —Mercury.

Willis Nash, of Corvallis, in writing to the Oregonian of Portland, says: "As to the possibility of the average farmer's producing dried fruit of first-class quality by means of a family drier, allow me to say that I sent a sample box of dried apples to New York last December. They were submitted to three leading houses in the trade (here, and priced at 16 cents per pound at that time. I also sent a bottle of dried plums, similar to one I have just prepared by me, and they were pronounced equal to the best foreign fruit in that market. Similar fruit is extensively sold in London for dessert purposes at retail prices varying from 45 cents to 60 cents a pound."

And yet we have a great quantity of Oregon dried apples in this market which we cannot ship East on account of their poor quality. For our export and East trade we need good fruit, and our Oregon friends should be very careful in the drying and packing of their fruit, as the great item in the selling of the apples is their appearance. Bleached fruit, neatly packed in cases, will always command quick sale at remunerative prices, while dark fruit in sacks will not be touched. A customer in a retail store will buy the clean-looking white apples every time in preference to the dirty-looking dark fruit covered over with the fluff of the sacks, and of course if the retailer cannot sell dark fruit he will not buy it. Our Oregon fruit-growers will do well to keep this in mind, for though it costs a little extra to put the fruit up properly, at the end of the year they will find that they have made more money. —Statesman Standard.

"Busted." We were hard driven for the other day, and so, becoming desperate, tackled a forlorn looking farmer from the lowlands, hanging around from street, who, by the way, happened to be our debtor for a small amount.

"Well, I suppose your crops are in a fine condition."

"Yes, there you're mistaken, busted, from down in this market, we're looking for a good crop all through Linn county," we stammered.

"There you're completely off, young man, they're the biggest failure out, and I am a ruined man."

"But-but, your fruit crop will make up for a few acres of wheat drowned out, will it not?"

"Jewfisher, what's the matter of you, it all gone up the spout, not a cherry, plums complete loss, and apples only a half crop."

"What do you propose to do?"

"Do, why I'm going to practice law or run a drug store, pray on the people some way. Here I've been farming thirty years and haven't sent a dollar to show for it."

"We are really sorry for that, because we have a bill with us for two or three year's subscription to the Democrat, which would come quite handy during these quiet times. It takes money to run a newspaper, and every little helps."

"Oh, that's what you are getting at it, well, I'll send you the money, but I'll pay it. It is an honest debt and shall be paid," and he handed off into a saloon. —"Busted."

The monument erected over the grave of the late W. Q. Stewart, by G. W. Harris, of this city, is said by judges of the art to be a fine piece of workmanship. The first base is of Oregon City granite twenty-seven feet high, and the shaft is of the same material. The second base is also of Oregon City granite polished, twenty-two inches square and ten inches high. Marble base is eighteen inches square and eight inches thick with ivy leaves in each corner, the same "flow" in raised letters on the side. The shaft is fourteen feet square, and two feet six inches high with oak leaves in crown and inscription. Our readers would do well to call and see Mr. Harris' work.

Wagon, Wagon. Samuel B. Young has just received direct from the manufacturers, a car load of the Celebrated Bain Wagons, improved for 1883. He also has for sale the Bain wagon with steel wheels and the Bain Springs wagon with half or screw spring and steel wheels. Just the wagon that every farmer needs.

Besides the above he has three, four and combination spring hacks. Buggies, covered and uncovered. All of which will be sold at popular prices.

Seen Readings. A man at Jefferson the other day, was seen running at a terrific rate. Upon inquiry it was found that he was bound for C. B. Roland & Co's, where, he said, the best bargains in dry goods, hardware, tinware, clothing and merchandise generally could be found. We understand that nearly every body in that vicinity, is getting the same idea in their heads and are going to C. B. Roland & Co's for goods.

Ladies! Allen & Martin wish to call your attention to their full stock of dress goods, to suit the spring styles and new shades. They will always be pleased to show their stock, whether you purchase or not.

A small collecting book. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving the same with Frank Leavitt, or at Miss T. Levitt's millinery establishment.

Will Brox, maker repairing of sewing machines, fine instruments, locks, etc., especially.

Mo., who has just arrived in our State. Mr. Williamson is a teacher by profession and a very pleasant gentleman.

Mr. John Ison and daughter, Lizie, returned to Albany last Thursday, after a visit of several weeks to Mr. Ison's old home in Virginia, where his father resides, at quite an advanced age. We are sorry to hear that Miss Lizie was ill part of the time while gone.

Also Pardon, brother of S. J. Pardon, arrived in this city Saturday evening, and will remain with us, in the capacity of deputy sheriff. Mr. Pardon is a printer by trade, formerly ran the Western Leader, but worked later in Pendleton and last in The Dallas. —Rochester Plaindealer.

Messrs. I. C. Dickey and H. J. Clark, of Albany, will remove to this city in a few days. They purpose engaging in brick-making on an extensive scale near the Red House, about three miles south of the city limits. Mr. Dickey is an ex-Sheriff of Linn county, and both he and Mr. Clark are worthy citizens. —Mercury.

Willis Nash, of Corvallis, in writing to the Oregonian of Portland, says: "As to the possibility of the average farmer's producing dried fruit of first-class quality by means of a family drier, allow me to say that I sent a sample box of dried apples to New York last December. They were submitted to three leading houses in the trade (here, and priced at 16 cents per pound at that time. I also sent a bottle of dried plums, similar to one I have just prepared by me, and they were pronounced equal to the best foreign fruit in that market. Similar fruit is extensively sold in London for dessert purposes at retail prices varying from 45 cents to 60 cents a pound."

And yet we have a great quantity of Oregon dried apples in this market which we cannot ship East on account of their poor quality. For our export and East trade we need good fruit, and our Oregon friends should be very careful in the drying and packing of their fruit, as the great item in the selling of the apples is their appearance. Bleached fruit, neatly packed in cases, will always command quick sale at remunerative prices, while dark fruit in sacks will not be touched. A customer in a retail store will buy the clean-looking white apples every time in preference to the dirty-looking dark fruit covered over with the fluff of the sacks, and of course if the retailer cannot sell dark fruit he will not buy it. Our Oregon fruit-growers will do well to keep this in mind, for though it costs a little extra to put the fruit up properly, at the end of the year they will find that they have made more money. —Statesman Standard.

"Busted." We were hard driven for the other day, and so, becoming desperate, tackled a forlorn looking farmer from the lowlands, hanging around from street, who, by the way, happened to be our debtor for a small amount.

"Well, I suppose your crops are in a fine condition."

"Yes, there you're mistaken, busted, from down in this market, we're looking for a good crop all through Linn county," we stammered.

"There you're completely off, young man, they're the biggest failure out, and I am a ruined man."

"But-but, your fruit crop will make up for a few acres of wheat drowned out, will it not?"

"Jewfisher, what's the matter of you, it all gone up the spout, not a cherry, plums complete loss, and apples only a half crop."

"What do you propose to do?"

"Do, why I'm going to practice law or run a drug store, pray on the people some way. Here I've been farming thirty years and haven't sent a dollar to show for it."

"We are really sorry for that, because we have a bill with us for two or three year's subscription to the Democrat, which would come quite handy during these quiet times. It takes money to run a newspaper, and every little helps."

"Oh, that's what you are getting at it, well, I'll send you the money, but I'll pay it. It is an honest debt and shall be paid," and he handed off into a saloon. —"Busted."

The monument erected over the grave of the late W. Q. Stewart, by G. W. Harris, of this city, is said by judges of the art to be a fine piece of workmanship. The first base is of Oregon City granite twenty-seven feet high, and the shaft is of the same material. The second base is also of Oregon City granite polished, twenty-two inches square and ten inches high. Marble base is eighteen inches square and eight inches thick with ivy leaves in each corner, the same "flow" in raised letters on the side. The shaft is fourteen feet square, and two feet six inches high with oak leaves in crown and inscription. Our readers would do well to call and see Mr. Harris' work.

Wagon, Wagon. Samuel B. Young has just received direct from the manufacturers, a car load of the Celebrated Bain Wagons, improved for 1883. He also has for sale the Bain wagon with steel wheels and the Bain Springs wagon with half or screw spring and steel wheels. Just the wagon that every farmer needs.

Besides the above he has three, four and combination spring hacks. Buggies, covered and uncovered. All of which will be sold at popular prices.

Seen Readings. A man at Jefferson the other day, was seen running at a terrific rate. Upon inquiry it was found that he was bound for C. B. Roland & Co's, where, he said, the best bargains in dry goods, hardware, tinware, clothing and merchandise generally could be found. We understand that nearly every body in that vicinity, is getting the same idea in their heads and are going to C. B. Roland & Co's for goods.

Ladies! Allen & Martin wish to call your attention to their full stock of dress goods, to suit the spring styles and new shades. They will always be pleased to show their stock, whether you purchase or not.

A small collecting book. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving the same with Frank Leavitt, or at Miss T. Levitt's millinery establishment.

Will Brox, maker repairing of sewing machines, fine instruments, locks, etc., especially.

The Linn County Sabbath School Convention will meet in the United Presbyterian Church, Albany, Or., June 10th, at 2 o'clock p. m. 1883.

2:30—Song, Scripture reading and prayer.

2:45—Address of welcome by Rev. S. G. Irvine, of Albany.

3:00—Origin and object of this convention by the County Secretary, Dr. O. W. Gray.

3:15—Temporary organization and appointment of committees with a view of permanent organization.

3:30—Address, Aim of the Sabbath School, by Rev. D. W. Cameron, of Albany.

3:45—Essay, Benefits of the Sabbath School, by Mrs. M. Fuller, of Harrisburg.

3:55—Address, Aim of the Sabbath School, by Rev. D. W. Cameron, of Albany.

4:10—Discussion of the above topics and opening of the question box.

4:25—Miscellaneous business and adjournment.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

9 A. M.—Devotional exercises.

9:30—Discussion of permanent organization, adoption of constitution, and election of officers.

10:00—Essay, The relation of Church members to the Sabbath School, by Mrs. T. J. Wilson, of Halsey.

11:00—Discussion of the above topics.

11:20—Question box, miscellaneous business.

12—Adjournment.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

2 P. M.—Devotional exercises.

2:30—Miscellaneous business.

2:45—Reports from all Sabbath Schools in the county.

3:00—Essay, The ordinary exercises of the Sabbath School worship, by Mrs. E. E. Paulson, of Sebe.

4:00—Discussion on the above topic, question box.

4:15—Adjournment.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

9 A. M.—Devotional exercises.

9:30—Discussion of permanent organization, adoption of constitution, and election of officers.

10:00—Essay, The relation of Church members to the Sabbath School, by Mrs. T. J. Wilson, of Halsey.

11:00—Discussion of the above topics.

11:20—Question box, miscellaneous business.

12—Adjournment.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

2 P. M.—Devotional exercises.

2:30—Miscellaneous business.

2:45—Reports from all Sabbath Schools in the county.

3:00—Essay, The ordinary exercises of the Sabbath School worship, by Mrs. E. E. Paulson, of Sebe.

4:00—Discussion on the above topic, question box.

4:15—Adjournment.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

9 A. M.—Devotional exercises.

9:30—Discussion of permanent organization, adoption of constitution, and election of officers.

10:00—Essay, The relation of Church members to the Sabbath School, by Mrs. T. J. Wilson, of Halsey.

11:00—Discussion of the above topics.

11:20—Question box, miscellaneous business.

12—Adjournment.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

2 P. M.—Devotional exercises.

2:30—Miscellaneous business.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.

WHEREAS, Death has invaded our Lodge and taken from our midst by accidental drowning one of our members and beloved brother, Willis Knighten, therefore be it

Resolved, That we extend to the bereaved family and friends our deepest sympathy.

Resolved, That we should be admonished by this sad bereavement to be all the more ready, for in such an hour as you think not the hour of man cometh death.

Resolved, That these resolutions be upon the minutes of this Lodge and that a copy be sent to the bereaved family of the deceased brother and that a copy be furnished the county papers with a request that they publish the same.

JOHN LUTCH, J. F. ARCHIBALD, J. J. BRADY, Committee.

A camp meeting will be held in Sodaville, beginning June 7, 1883.

A little son of Mr. David Pierce, of Harrisburg, a few days ago in taking a stroll from a drawer caught in the trigger of a pistol, discharging it, the ball going through one of his hands cutting a finger off.