ENCOURAGING TO READER'S.

The Arizona Miner publishes the following, and calls it reliable: H. H. White, who has been working on the Dankirk mine for some time past, last Sunday, while reading the Bible under the large pine east of the mine about half a mile, becoming absorbed in thought unconsciously dropped the Holy Book from his hands in such a way that it fell over a precipice about fifty feet high. Descending into the canyon to recover it, Mr. White found it lying upward opened at the gospel of St. Matthew, chapter vii, while a large piece of rich quartz, which had been dislodged by its fall, lay on top, tearing a jagged hole in the seventh verse, so familiar to all Christians: "Ask and it shall be given you; seek and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you." Accepting this as a good omen, Mr. White searched, and in a few moments, succeeded in locating the ledge, which was over two feet in width, and assayed $225, on an average, to the ton. The mine is considered the richest thing yet struck in this district, and an offer of $5000 made the fortunate owner of it was declined.
