We are indebted to J. B. Hornor, of Newburg, for the report of the Teachers' Institute found on this and the first page. As he does not present all of the time any omission, if any there are will no doubt be corrected.

The most trains now arrive here at 11:30, standard time, or 11:38 city time. They should not only time by the same as the railroad time. Many other places are following their time under the new order of things.

Frank Kenton's newspaper agency is quite a convenience to the public. He furnishes nearly all the leading papers at the publishers' regular price thus saving the subscriber the trouble, risk and expense of sending to publishers.

How often do we hear of the sudden fatal termination of a case of croup, when a young child has been attacked by the prompt use of Ayer's Cherry Emulsion? Be wise in time, and keep a bottle of it in hand, ready for instant use.

Purge out a lurking danger that undermines health, and the constitutional vigor will return. These who suffer from an enfeebled and disordered state of the system, should take Ayer's Sarsaparilla to cleanse the blood, and restore vitality.

Mr. H. Ewert makes himself known in another column. He probably has as fine a stock of jewelry, watches, diamonds, etc., as to be found in the Willamette Valley outside of Portland, and should be liberally patronized by old and young.

While you are visiting other places during holiday days, do not forget that at L. E. Blain's, you can find several articles peculiarly suited for presents, such as a splendid line of silk handkerchiefs, gentlemen's jewelry, ties of all kinds, except railroad ties, suspenders, gloves, etc.

Lane county now comes to the front and claims the oldest pioneer, it being asserted that G. B. Garner came here in October, 1830, which certainly places the narrow passaged county front. In the same time why this silence on the part of Linn county?

Read the new ad. of M. Nolan. He has a splendid stock of holiday goods, well selected, which everybody should at least examine. His stock is really novel and deserves being reduced, which as his prices are very reasonable no doubt will be done.

Being County Clerk is next to running a newspaper. Recently Linn's general clerk received a mortgage by sale to be recorded, for which the sender asked him to take his pay. On a blessed hope of "immortality," it was recorded and the reckoning will be made hereafter.

Last Sunday the M. E. Sunday School at Shedd Station decided to have a Christmas tree in the church edifice at that place on the evening of the day before Christmas. Committees to make arrangements were appointed, and a cordial invitation extended to the public.

One day recently on coming to the office we found a large "white" pony in the stable, and a "black" one in the corral. We did not know but a robbery had been committed, but we found the short bit in the drawer all right. We afterwards ascertained that it was the work of a drunken man.

Best made on the Pacific Coast, without any exception. They are new "man" mounted these matches on small seals, and no doubt will soon be for sale in every store in Albany. Our citizens should show their appreciation for home industry by asking for, and using no other.

SCHOOL DISCIPLINE.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Institute be tendered to the Honorable Superintendent, Prof. F. A. Messer, for the courtesy, kind manner and energy with which he has conducted the Institute.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to each of the County newspapers.

Resolved, That the teachers of Linn county, Oregon, request the Honorable Superintendent of the State Normal School at Corvallis, to send to each of the teachers of Linn county, Oregon, a copy of the report of the directors of the State Normal School at Corvallis, Oregon, and to ascertain the terms of instruction and at what time he could visit the teachers of the above named county and give them such instruction as they, and that the Supt. give notification through the columns of the papers.

Institute was called to order by Vice Pres. J. L. Gilbert. After stating the program for the afternoon he called for the reading of the report of the committee on resolutions.

After stating the utility of Directors Convention, Supt. Messer introduced Mr. David Williams, of Lebanon, who introduced the subject of "Our Schools Thirty Years Ago." Being one of Oregon's Pioneers he interested the audience with some of the early history of our Linn county schools, and was followed by Messrs. J. A. McHugh and Mr. Jackson.

On motion D. V. S. Reid introduced the subject of "Past and Present of Directors," and was followed by J. W. Cusick and Supt. Baird of Oregon City.

Being a member of a committee I was present at the "Directors' Convention" but a short time and consequently cannot give a full report, but I can say that the large audience was composed of directors and clerks who represent about twenty different school districts, and there were many others there who are candidates for these positions at the next school election, and who mean to endeavor to make the offices honorable as well as useful; and there were scores of others who have no special aspirations, but feel an intense interest in popular education, which is the only safeguard of our nation. The meeting was the first or one of the first of the kind ever held in the county and was in every respect a success.

Ecclesiastical and Musical Entertainment: Held in the Auditorium of the State Normal School, at Corvallis, Oregon, Dec. 6, 1883.

Instrumental music, "Citrae Sonata Waltz," by the Latur orchestra.

Ex-Supt. J. L. Gilbert delivered a very appropriate salutatory.

Prof. J. H. Roberts, formerly principal of one of the leading grade schools of New York declared, "Order for a Picture."

Veal duet, "Lullaby," by Miss Eva Cowan and Ora Ballard, sung by special request.

Delmo Johnson declaimed, "The Piano."

Mr. C. B. Montague, of Lebanon, lectured on the subject, "The Days of Shakespeare." The speaker's criticism was wise and discriminating, his language was classical, and the eulogy was such as only Shakespeare deserves.

Addie Gibler sang a conito solo, "Ninety-Five."

Instrumental music, "Venice Schottische" by the Latur orchestra.

Maud Nickerson recited "Baby in Church."

Instrumental duet, "Among the Pines," by Misses Edie Deany and Frank Gilbert.

"The Advertisement Answered" was declaimed by Prof. J. H. Roberts.

Veal duet by David McDonald and Eva Cowan.

Recitation, "Alton Bayne" by Miss Ida Coulter.

Veal duet, "Beautiful Moonlight" by Miss Francis Gilbert and Miss Mary Montague.

"Eamus O'Brien" was declaimed by Prof. Roberts.

Supt. F. A. Messer delivered a short valedictory in which he paid a tribute to the professor in office, and expressed his thankfulness to the people in general.

Instrumental music by Latur Orchestra, "Solitude Schottische."

The Teachers' Institute was dismissed by the Rev. Henderson of the Free Presbyterian Church.

In conclusion I will say that the performers from the Latur Academy and Lebanon public school kindly prepared for the exercises of the evening (and the spirit of the moment) and assisted materially in making the entertainment a treat. Each performer deserves special mention but Mr. Editor as you tell me to condense I will oblige by saying they did well. Your reporter has attended other institutes in various places; but has never seen hospitality extended so heartily as there. This with the general cooperation of all concerned made the institute a literary feast.
