TUTT'S PILLS

TORPID BOWELS, DISORDERED LIVER, and MALARIA.

From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Sick Headache, fullness after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Eructation of food, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, A feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored Urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. As a Liver medicine TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the Kidneys and Skin is also prompt; removing all impurities through these three "scavengers of the system," producing appetite, sound digestion, regular stools, a clear skin and a vigorous body. TUTT'S PILLS cause no nausea or griping nor interfere with daily work and are a perfect

HUMOROUS MATTERS.

The umbrella is the best Christian after all. It always keeps lent.

The woman who sailed with Noah during the flood were the first Ark angels.

Love letters should be placed in pigeon holes, because these places are suggestive of billing and cooing.

"My failings to virtue's," is what a toper said the other day while balancing himself against the church wall.

Candid Cupids were among the ornaments at a recent fashionable dinner, and the gentlemen present tried hard to discover which were the most dressed—the sugar gods or the lady guests.

An experienced married man of Plattsburg says: "If there is one time more than another when a woman should be entirely alone, it is when a full line of clothes comes down in the mud."

A dandy at a hotel table, who wanted the milk passed to him, thus asked for it: "Please send your cow this way." To whom the landlady retorted as follows: "Waiter, take the cow down to where the calf is bleating."

A good old man, up in the North Woods of Pennsylvania, went to prayer meeting the other night, and unwittingly fell asleep. He was called up to offer prayer, and being dutifully punched by his better half, bellowed out: "Hang it, Betsy, kindle it yourself."

A big Hoosier from the West, on paying his bill in a London restaurant, was told that the sum put down didn't include the waiter. "Wal," he roared, "I didn't eat any waiter, did I?" He looked as if he could, though, and there was no further discussion.

"How did you come to get married?" asked a man of a very homely friend. "Well, you see," he replied, "after I'd vainly tried to win several girls that I wanted, I finally turned my attention to one that wanted me, and then it didn't take long to arrange matters.',

"Yes," she said, "Mary came near being an old maid. You see, her father was a governor, her brother a colonel, and her brother-in-law was a scientist of note. Being of such a distinguished family, she had to be very particular whom she married, and she came billng near not getting anybody."

"You forgive your little cousin for whipping you, don't you, Charley? You know that the good angels love little boys who forget and forgive."

"I ain't mad with him any more aunty, but I'm going home to eat lots of oatmeal, and I'll bet I can lick him when I come back."

An Iowa boy, aged fifteen, worked a month for the physician of the neighborhood, and was given, instead of the $10 which he expected, a receipted bill for professional services which the doctor had rendered on the occasion of his birth. The boy can now see that it would have been $10 in his pocket if he had never been born.

It is well enough to advise a young man to overcome all obstacles by "taking the bull by the horns;" but when the youth is in the middle of the field and the bull is coming toward him with his head down and his tail lashing in the air, the young man prefers to take the fence. It would be decidedly unwholesome to take the bull by the horns under these circumstances.

Gentleman to horse dealer:

"You fooled me in that horse."

"What, I? Never!"

"Yes; you said that he had no defects, and I find that he is blind of an eye."

"Why, that's not a defect; that's a misfortune."

A New York optician says that he has a customer who keeps six pairs of spectacles in wear, reading with one, writing with another and walking with another, and having duplicates of all three in fine frames for occasions when full dress seems necessary.

Among the stories of sword fishes to be found in marine jurisprudence is one of a fish which sent its sword through the copper sheathing, an inch board under the sheating, a three inch plank of hard-wood, the solid white oak timber twelve inches thick, then through another 2½ inch hard oak ceiling and fizally into the head of a barrel, of oil where it remained.

Sir Samuel W. Baker, the African explorer, states that the camel will cross the deserts with a load of 400 pounds at the rate of thirty miles a day in the burning heat of Summer and require water only every third or fourth day. In the cooler months the animal will work for seven or eight days without water, and if grazing on green foliage without labor will drink only once a fortnight.

Louisiana suffered nearly $18,000,000 damages by flood the past year.

GEMS OF THOUGHT.

True joy is a serene and sober motion; and they are miserably out that take laughing for rejoicing, the seat of it is within, and there is no cheerfulness like the resolutions of a brave mind, that has fortune under its feet.

Readers are not aware of the fact, but a fact it is of daily increasing magnitude, and already of terrible importance to readers, that their first grand necessity in reading is to be vigilantly, conscientiously select; and to know everywhere that books, like human souls, are actually divided into what we may call "sheep and goats," the latter put inexorably on the left hand of the Judge; and tending, every goat of them, at all moments, whither we know, and much to be avoided, and, if possible, ignored by all sane creatures!

Nothing is such an obstacle to the production of excellence as the power of producing what is good with ease and rapidity.

If you seek advice about your own concerns, one will say it is white and another will swear it is black.

We mortals, men and women, devour many a disappointment between breakfast and dinner-time; keep back the tears and look a little pale about the lips, and in answer to inquiries, say: "Oh, nothing!" Pride helps us, and pride is not a bad thing when it only urges us to hide our own hurts—not to hurt others.

Petty vexations may at times be petty, but still they are vexations. The smallest and most inconsiderable annoyances are the most piercing. As small letters weary the eye most, so also the smallest affairs disturb us most.

Thoughts shut up want air, and spoil like bales unopened to the sun.

The fate of war is to be exalted in the morning, and low enough at night! There is but one step from triumph to ruin.

Every duty we omit obscures some truth we should have known.

Let a man learn to look for the permanent in the mutable and fleeting; let him learn to bear the disappearance of things he was wont to reverence, without losing his reverence; let him learn that, though abyss open under abyss, and opinion displace opinion, all are at last contained in the eternal cause.

I do not see why a successful book is not as great an event as a successful campaign, only different in kind and not easily compared.

Pleasure is very seldom found where it is sought; our brightest blazes of gladness are commonly kindled by unexpected sparks. The flowers which scatter their odors from time to time in the path of life grow up without culture, from seeds scattered by chance.

The fewer words the better prayer.

Joaquin Miller is of the opinion that polygamy is on the decrease in Utah. The people there will cease to be "saints" he told the House committee on Territories the other day, when they are shown their true condition, which has been carefully hidden from them by designing men.

An old lady, says the New York Morning Journal, offered District-Attorney Olney six eggs as an inducement to show leniency to her son who was lately indicted for stealing. Strange to say, Mr. Olney refused the princely present. Evidently he was not aware of the fact that at this season of the year "eggs is eggs."

The south believes that education and morals should go hand in hand. Consequently the people of Mississippi have impeached their state superintendent of public instruction on account of his habitual intemperance.

A Perfect Combination with two Salient Advantages—Why it Concerns us.

"There is no mistake about it," remarked Dr M F Flowers, of Gadsden, Missouri, "Benson's Capcine Porous Plasters are one of the greatest combinations ever produced. They have two kinds of advantages over all others, which we may call the mino and the major. First, they are clean and pleasant to use, never soiling the hands nor the linen of the wearer. Second, they are quickly and powerfully. I have tried the Capcine Plaster on myself for pneumonia, and on my patients for various diseases, such as neuralgia, muscular rheumatism, lumbago, kidney trouble, etc., and in all cases relief has followed in from three to forty-eight hours."

Dr Flower merely voices the written or oral opinion of thousands in his profession. Benson's Capcine Porous Plasters are the perfect external application. he genuine have the word Capcine cut in the centre. rice 25 cents.
