JANE EYRE,

That Converted Jew.

Rev W O Turner, Presiding Elder of the Walla Walla district thus goes for Barnhart, "the converted Jew," who was in Albany several months ago ;

A certain religious trainp not long since passed through this country, claiming to be seriously questioned ; but that he is a true gon, and are placing great reliance on it. Christian you will judge for yourself after I state facts that have been given me. He came to Pomeroy some months since and passed himself off as a Methodist. He then ber of years. Changes should be made. went to Lewiston and claimed to a Presbyterian. Soon after he made the Colfax people a visit, and there was an ardent Baptist. He had occasion to visit Palouse City, and finding the Campbellites in the ascendancy. he became a most ardent and zealous advocate of that faith. Some people in this country in their broad charity (?) think him crazy. Others of severer judgment pronounce him "a whited sepulchre," a base imposter.
