An interesting address of welcome was made by Mrs. H. H. Wagoner, of St Louis, and telling speeches were made by Mrs. Clara Hoffman, of Kansas city Mrs. Ed. Pitts Stevens, of California, and Miss F. E. Willard.

On Thursday morning the first report, after the season of prayer, was or the Work among Foreigners, by Mrs S. F. Grubb, of Missouri, the head of that department. This report showed that 30,000 pages of German literature had been distributed during the year in twelve States and several Territories. The report of the corresponding secre tary, Mrs. C. B. Buel, of Connecticut, giving a rapid review of the work of the last decade, among other interesting facts, mentioned that temperance and hygienic laws are now taught compulsorily in the schools of New York Michigan, Vermont, New Hampshire and Rhode Island. The treasurer's report showed the receipts for the past year, $8,$05; expenditures $6,581, leaving a balance on hand of $2,224. The Superintendent of the Flower Mission department is an invalid, but her report was on hand, and was read by another, being received by a rising vote of thanks. Carse, of Chicago, on the Union thirty per cent during the year. Soveral of the prominent workers were like Chicago he probably would not publicly presented with baskets of flowers in token of their devotion and success. During the afternoon session politics got into the discussion, and matters wers lively.

On Thursday evening the Pickwick was again jammed, and an overflow meeting was held in the lower hall. The principle meeting began with a Bible Reading by Mrs. Hannah Whitall Smith, claiming that God is in the midst of their work, and whoever opposes it will be found to be fighting against God.
