WASHINGTON LETTER.

A correspondent wants to know what the civil service law and rules are, and to the appointment of what officers and clerks they apply. We will briefly answer our friend. These laws apply only to the appointment of clerks in the government service as follows They regulate the appointment of clerks in each customs district of the United States where the clerks and persons employed by the collector, naval officer, surveyor and apprairers, or either of them number fifty or more.

WANTS TO KNOW,

The customs districts where the employed number fifty or more at present are as follows: New York City, Boston, Philadelphia, San Francisco, Balti- years. more, New Orleans, Chicago, Burling ton, Vt., Portland, Me., Detroit and

These laws also regulate the appointment of clerks and persons employed or in the public service, at any post office in the United States where the number of such clerks and persons equal fifty or more. The post offices which now employ fifty or more clerks and persons and which fall within the law are, Albany, N. Y., Baltimore, Bestor, Brocklin, Buffalo, Chicago, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Detroit, Indianapolis, Kansas City, Louisville, Mil. waukee, Newark, New Orleans, New York City, Philadelphia, Pittsburg,

Francisco and Washington City. These laws also apply to the appointment of clerks and subordinates in the several departments at Washington such as the Department of State, Department of War, Department of the Treasury, Department of Justice, Post Office Department, Department of the Navy, and Department of the Interior But our friend is anxious to know in how or in what manner these appointments are controlled and regulated by the civil service laws. Under an act of congress, approved Jan. 16th, 1883. a Civil Service Commission was authorized to be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to be composed of three members, not more than two of whom shall be adherents of the same political party. This commission appoints Chief examiner and examining boards CZEMA, or Salt Rheum, with its agonizing itching and burning, instantly relieved by a warm bath with CUTICURA SOAP, and a single application of CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure. This repeated daily with two or three does of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the in various parts of the country, where those who desire to make application for any of the clerkships mentioned in this article, may go before said board to be examined touching their qualifications and fitness for the particular

Will McDonald, 2542 Dearborn St., Chicago, restefully acknowledges a cure of Eczema or Salt theum on hand, neck, face, arms, and legs for sevknees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors These applicants are examined in orthography, penmanship, arithmetic, bock keeping, English grammar, letter writing, geography, history and government of the United States, It will be seen from the above that very few. relatively speaking, of those in the employ of the United States, are appoint. told tortures from Eczema, which appeared on his hands, head and face, and nearly destroyed his eyes.

After the most careful dectoring and clerkship for which they make applica-

The appointment of none of the fo lowing officers is regulated by these laws: Clerks and other employes of the Senate and House of Representa tives, clerks and employes in the Executive office, assistant secretaries, chief clerks and heads of bureas and divisions in the several departments mentioned above, Cabinet officers, Judges of the Sapreme, Circuit and District Courts of the Courts of Claims Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, marskals and clerks of these several courts, diplomatic, consular and other officers of the United States in foreign countries, collectors of internal revenue, postmasters of all classes, clerks and employes of postmasters, unless the number of such clerks and employes equal or exceed fifty, United States district attorneys and marshals in al the judicial dustricts of the Union, regis. ters and receivers at all the United States land offices, Indian agents, governors, chief justices, associate justices and secretaries of the several territories of the Union, superintendent of mints and a thousand and one other officials to numerous now to mention.

Our correspondent will see from the above that the civil service law applies only to a very small portion of the government service, and that exclusively to aubordinate positions, and that when our Republican friends talk about being pleased with President Cleveland's civil service views we simply hear the rejoicing of those whose hearts are made glad at the mere opportunity would respectfully inform the public that they manufacture to order, and will keep or anticol collection. They are entirely selfish about the matter. They would not enforce the principle of civil service reform when they were in power, and would set it saide if they should ever come into power again.

> The Republican party has experi enced too many disgraces and rebukes on account of its scallawage and its failures, to continue the preposterous pretension of containing all the goodness and the ability.

The Republicans are beginning to lafter all.

(From our regular correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, MARCH, 14th, 1885. Public attention is now naturally centered on President Cleveland and his newly chosen advisers, and every thing in regard to their movements and intentions is eagerly heard. The tene of impartial comment is favorable to the new regime, and it is commanding respect and popularity from the start by the dignity and discretion shown in every act. There are great expectations as to what wil be accomplished in the next four

During this transition period in history upon which the country is now entering. Washington will be the cynosure of the nation's eyes. instead of interest ending with the expiration of the Forty Eight Congress, it rather begins, for Congress did little and the Cleveland adminis tration must do a great deal, change in the offices, which began at noon on the 4th of March by the ransfer of executive power from Mr Arthur to Mr. Cleveland, goes on from point to point. The changes in men as well as in principles will be very great. Nothing dramatic will occur, but the political situation will Providence, Rochester, St. Louis, San be interesting. There will be a new political atmosphere, and with changes some novelties in habits and principles of government may be expected.

President Cleveland has already introduced some innovations at the White House. The household is required for an eight o'clock breakfast something unheard of before at the Executive Mansion, and the library which has heretofore been controlled by the sweepres and house cleavers until noon, is now ready for business callers at an early hour.

Smoking is prohibited in the offices pose to earn their own salaries, and Merrick, Mrs. Mary T. Lathrap, Gov.

sands of government clerks who have for years been drawing bountiful salaries of the tax payers money and doing no work. If the principle will be stricken from the Federal pay rolls, without impairing the transaction of business. Officers of the Treasury Department, for instance, have testified that the clerciol force there could be reduced one third without detriment to the service.

Inasmuch as President Cleveland s a worker, it has been rumored that the social interests of the White House will suffer under his administration. He will not give so many grand and expensive entertainments to the favored few in official life, but he will devote more time to receiving the people. There will not be so much formality and court like etiquette observed at the White House. but guests will enjoy themselves as much if not more. My prediction is founded partly on a clause in Mr. Cleveland's inaugural address. The should be calculated to inculcate habits of economy, to avoid restless extravagance and to restore simplicity more in harmony with the spirit of republican institutions. The sent. iment had caused a good deal of gossip in Washington social circles. Society people do not doubt that the President means what he says, and that his entertainments will be for the public to a greater extent and for state dinners and exclusive receptions to a smaller extent than has been the rule for the last twenty years. Lavish expenditure upon entertainments at the White House and in the Cabinet households compels extravagance in other official circles where it is oppressive. Secretary Bayard has neither the means nor the disposition to imitate the constant festivities, receptions and ceremonies of his predecessor. The brilliant entertainments of the Frelinghuy. sens will be in seed by a certain element of Washington society, but the extravagent methods inaugurated by the last Secretory of State proved very oppressive to the foreign diplomats who come here to represent their governments on small salaries. The army and navy officers and many others in official and social life who felt bound to keep up the standard of extravagant display established, will find out that Cleveland has "views," welcome change that will diminish the expense of a Washington winter.

TEMPERANCE DEPARTMENT,

Wemen's Christian Temperance Union

DIFFERENCE OF LATITUDE.

At Clarence, Mo., the W. C. T. U. roted at a late meeting, to be non-parisan. That means the ladies will continue to do their level best for the success of the Democratic party first, and for temperance second.

At a regular meeting of the Piano, III., Union, resolutions were adopted voting the society non-partisan. That means for the success of the Republican ticket first and for temperance second. When about 400 sisters of the North and South met in convention at St. onis, they decided by an immense majority to be partisans for prohibition, that is, to make the remeval of the fell scourge of death from their homes, an issue superior to that of the party politics of the police force and of the county officers. They decided it was better to try and secure an honest 1 atriotic government, than to see all the best interests of the nation sacrificed n the unending personal and party squabbles of two sets of filibustering political buccaneers, and they determined to be prohibitionists in politics, the only place where prohibition principles are of any practical value whatever.

These good women met as sisters ealeusies and heartburnings for ever.

But it would be asfe to "guess" that the two Nonpartisan Unions referred to above, were they to meet together, one from Illinois and the other from Missouri, a pitched battle would as naturally ensue as were El Mahdi and Gen. Wolseley with their armies to come together in a favorable field of action .- Los Angeles Censor.

A GLORIOUS MEETING!

An audience of eleven thousand perof the White House, and the methods sons gathered in the Hall of the Expoof doing work there have been sim. sition Building at New Orleans on plified by the discharge of one half March 13th, to listen to temperance of the clerical force. Fewer employes talk from netable orators and workers. and plenty of work for these who The National Temperance Society gave remain, is the motto of the President | the afternoon session to the W. C. A PRIZE FOR LITTLE FOLKS.

A kind gentleman who believes temperance education offers a set pretty prize cards to that scholar every Band of Hope who shall during this first quarter, recite the best lesson and pass the best examination in th new Band of Hope Lesson Manual.

The newly enfrauchised women Canada have aided the election of temperance officials in several towns in the province of Ontario. It is said, however, that there is still some "backwardness about coming forward" to vote, which ought not to bc. The ballot box is as sacred as the cradle. Neither can be safely neglected. Out Of our merchants, millers and distillers of both comes evil unless carefully watched and tended. Mothers, who purport of it was that the social and remember your mistakes at the cradle side, do not fail to do what you in by sheltering your grown-up boys from In debt they run, assign their fund, the curse of the dram shop.

France is waking up to the temper ance reform. Its frugal people are made paupers at altogether too rapid a rate by the cafes and cabarets, which average one to each 105 people through out the country.

HEALTH, WEATLH AND HAPPINESS Are more intimately connected wit

a sound stomach and good conditios of the blood than most people suppose. Thin blood means weakness, languor and misery. A dyspeptic stomach means all the horrors you can think of. Brown's Iron Bitters means enriched blood, good digestion, healthy appetite, sweet sleep and vigorous trength, Mr. Henry Hallam, flouth Depu'y Collecter Internal Revenue, $17th street, St. Louis, says; "Brown's Baltimore, Maryland, writes: I en-Iron Bitters relieved me of dyspep- dorsed the Red Star Cough Cure. sia, purified my blood, and gave me an applitie." Thousands of others testify in the same way.

Thereis a good deal of impertinment humor and "sarkasum" in the Republican papers no vadays, But we can pardon it when we consider relief is permanent, and there is no the occasion which draws it out. They feel like the poet : When I reflect on what I is,

And what I used to was, I thinks I've threwed myself away. Without sufficient cause." President Cleveland was 48 years old last Wednesday.
