Albany Democratic City Convention. A mass meeting of the Democracy of Albany will be held at the COURT HOUSE on Saturday evening, December 13th, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Mayor, Recorder, Marshal and Treasurer to be voted for at the election on Monday, December 15th, 1885. The Committee recommend that the various Ward meetings be held on Friday evening, December 12th, at 7 o'clock at the following places: First Ward—Upstairs in the Circuit Court room. Second Ward—In the County Court room. Third Ward—In the office of the Farmer's Warehouse. Each ward meeting will nominate one candidate for Councilman and select a member of the City Central Committee. BY ORDER OF THE COMMITTEE. Second Corps. There are now a few stories that are so profitable in second crop countries as the Willamette Valley. We have mentioned heretofore second crops of plums, blackberries, strawberries, etc. Tuesday Mr. C. C. Cherry had such a second growth apple from his yard in this city, and we understand there are many other yards in Albany with them now partly developed. Perhaps as remarkable a case of second growth is that reported in reference to Mr. P. H. Bowman's tobacco crop, across the Willamette. Notwithstanding several severe frosts, generally death to tobacco, a second crop has come up on Mr. Bowman's place. It is now three feet high and doing well. Next. A Forker and a Train of Cars. On Friday morning of last week the Brownsville train on the Narrow Gauge was approaching the suburbs of Long Station a member of the porcine family, generally called a hog, temerously jumped on the track in front of the engine. Whether the aforesaid hog was immense, small, lean or fat is not known to us, but it is reported as a fact that in all events, however low pork may be in Albany, at Long Station it was high enough to throw some of the cars from the track, delaying the train for some time. A Bicycle Accident. Last Monday while Mr. Mack Monteth was going along Fourth street from the western part of the city on his bicycle a cultus dog ran in front of him in such a manner as to throw him heavily to the ground, so that he struck on his head and right arm, causing a fracture of the bone of the latter. He was taken home on a day in a senseless condition, but is now rapidly recovering from the effects of the accident. Like all bicycle riders he "dogged" the dogon dogs which overliantly obstruct their way. A Senseless Law. One of the most senseless, old maid laws, ever passed is that turned out by the last Legislature requiring a bicycle to stop within one hundred yards of a team coming towards it. All through the East bicycles are treated the same as other vehicles, and the riders of them have the same rights that the rider of a horse has. The next thing we know our boys will send through some statute prohibiting women from wearing bangs or requiring men to discontinue the use of flashy neck-ties for fear something will be scared or shocked. Arm Broken. On last Monday afternoon while the three sons of Z. Bryant, who lives below this city, on the opposite side of the river, were returning from school all on one horse, the animal started quickly to one side to avoid a mudhole, when he was all thrown to the ground in a pile. Johnny falling on the dinner pail with his arm between his body and the pail. Both bones of the forearm were broken near the wrist. Dr. Mason was called and repaired the arm in good shape. An H. G. Man. Several months ago a man named Harrington was placed in the jail here for certain misdemeanors at Harrisburg. Last Monday he again appeared at the jail and wanted some more free "grub"; but instead of that, acting in a highly ungentlemanly manner peculiar to tramps and bummers generally was conducted to the dingy quarters of the city calaboose. He got five days. A Feigning Case. The first of the week C. H. Stewart, of this city, Geo. W. Shays, Sr., and Jr., A. Ames and T. W. Fields, of Sweet Home, were subpoenaed to Portland, before the U. S. Court as witnesses in the case against James Herling, charged with perjury in the matter of the final settlement of some government land a year or two ago. We Go into Better. Several weeks ago we told a big old story on Mr. J. D. Cress, our genial friend across the river. We are now able to stretch it on the same gentleman. A few days ago he sold to a citizen of Albany four sacks, or eight bushels, of oats, that weighed twelve bushels and twelve pounds, 111 pounds to the sack or 564 pounds to the bushel. Monteth & Saitenbach.

A Stimulating Railroad Meeting. Another railroad meeting was held on Thursday evening of last week at the Court House. Hon. J. K. Weatherford was elected Chairman and C. E. Wolverson Secretary. Judge Strahan upon being called upon stated the object of the meeting, and urged the necessity of the people of Albany taking active steps immediately towards raising the subscription proposed, as the Railroad Company would soon set definitely on their route across the country, and if anything is done it is to be made up by the people of Albany alone, with little assistance from the county proclatna. Stop worrying so much about getting your friends and relatives Christmas presents, until you have called at French's Jewelry Store and priced his fine line of holiday goods. You can buy at your price until Jan. 1st. Weather. Summary of Meteorology for Nov. 1885, from observation taken at Albany, Linn Co., Oregon, by John Briggs, Esq. Highest Bar. 30.10; lowest, 29.05; mean, 29.65. Highest Temperature, 62; lowest, 34; mean, 47.2. Mean at 7 a. m., 44; 2 p. m., 52.16; 9 p. m., 46.46. Prevailing winds, S. Maximum velocity force, 6. Total rainfall and melted snow during month, 8.40 inches. Number of days on which .01 inch or more rain fell, 19. Number of days of cloudiness, average 8 in scale of 10, 13. Thunder storms, 4th and 5th. Of 50 observations 34 were cloudy, 9 fair, 9 clear, 13 foggy and 25 rainy. Fishery and Mason have an uncommonly large variety of fine goods for the holidays. See their albums, photograph and autographs. A Curious Freak. The circulation of the Oregonian in Albany is larger than it was before the meeting of the State Legislature. Probably the same could be said of other places in Oregon. As Mitchell was evidently helped by the Oregonian so the Oregonian seems, on the face of it, to have been benefited by the almost universal censure heaped on it by the press of Oregon. It is a man or paper would obtain strength they cannot, it seems, secure it better than by being a few defamers who will make it a business to run them down to the lowest depths. This is a peculiar world anyway. Christmas Goods at Melvins'. You want to get your holiday goods, the same as everything else, at bottom prices, don't you? Well, then, call on A. B. Melvins. He has a varied line of goods suitable for holiday presents, and you should not buy without seeing them. They consist of toilet sets, beautiful frames, handbags, silk and other handkerchiefs, elegant brushes, hand-looking-glasses, hosiery, fads, and fancy goods generally. Remember and call on A. B. Melvins'. Musical people will find a splendid stock of guitars, violins, new style of accordions, mouth organs, etc., at Foshy & Mason's. For a fine opera glass call at French's. Price of Wheat. Wheat has fallen to 60 cents and is liable to fall more. There seems to be nothing to keep it up. We once predicted it would raise to 70 or 75. That is the way it looked very good. We are unable to figure any such result out now though, and have given fears lest even less than 60 cents will follow. For a nice piece of silverware cheap call at F. M. French's. Do not Worry. A Linn county widow who recently left her three children with a farmer in the country, came to this city and was married, and has not been heard of since, by her children, is probably simply on her "honey-moon" trip down the Valley. Her friends should have no grave fears in the matter. A Sabbath School Convention is being held this week at the Baptist Church. Election. The following are the officers elect of Albany Lodge No. 4, I. O. O. F.: J. F. Hall, N. G.; M. H. Ellis, V. G.; W. Peterson, R. S.; W. H. Warner, P. S.; W. C. Twissel, Treasurer; J. M. Ketchum, E. A. Parker and T. J. Suits, Trustees. Books and Shoes. A. B. Melvins has the largest stock of books and shoes in Albany, and is making prices to suit the times. Ladies' kid button shoes at $1.75 and $2. Ladies' pigskin goat, button, 1.50 and $1.75. Send this week. DEMOCRAT to your sporting friends in the East, and show them what kind of a country this is for game. ABOUT ALBANY. Thursday of last week was a dreary day for ducks, geese, snipe and yellow hammers within a radius of ten miles around Albany. The members of the Albany Rod and Gun Club at that time had their first match hunt. Good duck weather induced game to fly low, an auspicious event for a large number of death quacks. As a result one of the riders, published in our last issue, jumped an average of twenty-one teal duck, the other an average of fifteen. Or, if you prefer, mallard for a standard, divide these figures by two. The actual average for the whole club was nearly fifteen pieces of game. Parties seeking a country where fine advantages are offered for hunting will please take notice at this very large average. At nine o'clock on Thursday evening the hunters presented their game to three disinterested judges who counted it separately for each rider. The result was as follows: SLOAN'S TEAM. Burr Sloan—2 geese, 3 mallard, 17 ducks, 3 teal, 1 pheasant, 4 snipe, 5 yellow hammers..... 596 W. D. Taylor—21 snipe..... 216 W. W. Taylor—13 snipe, 1 pheasant, 200 W. M. On Friday evening the members of the Club jubilated over the hunt in a game supper at the Revere House, Captain Burkhardt's team footing the bill, a fact greatly appreciated by Capt. Sloan's team. Captain is good, and we are particular on this point in writing the high sounding name. The supper was one of the finest ever served in Albany, if the universal expression of the hunters is authority, and it certainly should be. Mr. Garret and wife "did themselves proud" in getting up this supper. At the conclusion of the supper Capt. Burkhardt challenged Capt. Sloan for another hunt with the same teams. The match will come off on Wednesday, Dec. 9th. The Salem Minstrels. The H. A. C. Minstrels, of Salem, will exhibit in this city on Thursday evening of next week Dec. 10th. They gave great satisfaction in Salem, and are said to be ahead of most professionals. Though amateurs they go to their performance with business. They are the product of good variety. Keller & Kelley in their double dops are said to be first-class, and Billy Dagan can't be surpassed in comedy. His Kate Castleton is immense. Ted Piper an old Albany boy, is interloper, and a good one. The whole performance is one our citizens should see. When she left that city her daughter, Mrs Dr. Irvin, was much improved in her health. Dr. W. Capp, homeopathic physician here, has opened an office in Baker City. Mrs Capp is still here and will not join her husband for a few months. James Morgan of Seiad left the first of the week for Washington Territory. He will go to Cleveland, near which he talks of taking up some land. Dr. E. R. Barker, of Centerville, formerly of this city has been in Albany on a visit. He reports times in E. O. as better, if anything, than through the Valley. W. B. Rice, wife and daughter returned on Saturday noon from a visit to several days to Ashland. While gone Mr. Rice was under care of his father Dr. D. B. Rice for a few days. Mr. Leonard Halston returned to his ranch near Arlington (see Albany) on last Monday. After a sojourn here of only a few days. We are glad to know of Leonard's success in the stock business. Mr. R. S. Owen is canvassing the county selling a fine lot of needles as has ever been introduced. He received over 150,000 from the east last week. He will sell you 140 for 50 cents. Mr. John Millard, who has been in the East several weeks, arrived home yesterday afternoon with a car load of blooded cattle, consisting of Mr. Durham and Gernsey's, the finest ever brought to this part of Oregon. A MAN ABOUT TOWN. The Man About Town has witnessed few more interesting sights than that of counting the game of the Albany Rod and Gun Club last week. Goose upon goose, plump and sleek, duck upon duck, from the large pretentious mallard to the small, insignificant teal; now and then a sprig tall or spoon bill, and a variety of the "scare" "slathers" of snipe with their long bills and often badly mutilated bodies; a few bud eating pheasants; plenty of yellow hammers, which the farmers carefully compare to see killed off; four coon scalps; a long, black wenzel, a peevish house rat; some sparrows, hawks, etc., dropping from the bags; some mere dead weight, but in the opinion of the sportsmen's vocabulary. These were what one saw. The contending sides watched with increasing interest the large or small loss as the wares were emptied, and when the score was announced the victorious side answered it with the shout of a dozen base ball clubs. Match hunts are great features in the fall life of a Webfoot and the counting of the game is not the least of the interesting part of it. Few things possess more food for rumination than the experience of men running for office, so as far as promises are concerned. The Man About Town feels called upon to warn men seeking office just in that they can't sometimes most always tell how things will go from the number of promises of support which they receive. For carefully crooked agreements are common as to those of election time. A man can easily count a hundred chickens in two dozen eggs before election, only to find after election that they have nearly all been set on before. The public generally has a loose, faithless style of telling everybody who approaches them "Yes, yes, I am your man." This is soon as well in the signing of promissory petitions, sometimes the same name appearing on all sides of a question. Very few men seem to have the backbone to say no to anything, even to an invitation to drink. Many men seeking office need some good outspoken friend to tell them how the land lays. Remember the S. S. Institute at the Baptist Church, beginning to-night (Thursday) with sessions Friday and Saturday, both afternoon and evenings. BARRIED.
