

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.

On last Monday the Democrats of this city gained a decisive victory over the Republicans in the city election.

They elected Mayor, Marshal, Treasurer and a Councilman from the first and second wards. The Republicans elected a Recorder by one majority and a Councilman in the third ward by three majority.

About ten or a dozen Democrats were out of the city and did not vote, which alone prevented an overwhelming and clean sweep.

This significance is not to be found in the fact that Republicans scratched their tickets, for those who watched the canvass of the vote as it progressed were impressed with the fact that Democrats scratched nearly or about as much as did Republicans.

This significance is to be found in the fact that quite a number of Republicans who have never voted Democratic ticket before, on last Monday voted the straight Democratic ticket, and declared their purpose to do so hereafter, not only in city but other elections.

It was this vote in fact which defeated the Republicans and placed the city actually in doubt, where Republicans heretofore had from 30 to 40 majority.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

The President's message is a broad, comprehensive document including all principal subjects bearing upon the state of the Union.

It has been a long time since the country has had such a full, earnest and frank statement of the condition of the country.

The President sets out by stating that our relations with foreign powers are friendly. Calls attention to the fact that the Austrian government refused to receive the newly appointed American minister on account of his religion, and denies its right to do so.

He is opposed to our construction of the Nicaraguan canal. Insists that the Chinese must be protected here under our treaty relations with Chinese and hints at further restriction measures.

Recommends more stringent naturalization laws, a reduction of tariff duties, a suspension of the silver circulation act of 1878. The message deals in words of emphatic condemnation of the crime of polygamy and favors its speedy extinction.

The document is an able state paper and should be read by all.

WAS CAN VOTE?

Please state the law as to whether persons attending school can acquire the right to vote in this city. A difference of opinion exists.

J. B. The law is found in the constitution of the State, Section 4, Art. 2, which reads as follows:

"For the purpose of voting, no person shall be deemed to have gained or lost a residence by reason of his presence or absence, while employed in the service of the United States, or of this State; nor while engaged in the navigation of the waters of this State, or of the United States, or of the high seas; nor while a student of any seminary of learning; nor while kept at any almshouse, or other asylum, at public expense; nor while confined in any public prison."

It was both a lack of good judgment and of good policy to appoint all three of the police commissioners of Portland, as the Governor has done, from among Republicans.

One Democrat might have been put on the board to represent the 2000 Democratic tax-payers of that city. People may look out for some curious things to transpire at the elections to be held in the near future in that city.

Ira Davenport, late Republican candidate for Governor of New York, spent $60,000 in the late election, and was defeated after all. Gov. Hill, the Democratic candidate, was out but $1,000 or $1,500. J. W. Wadsworth, Republican candidate for State Treasurer, spent $49,000, only to meet defeat, but he is a millionaire and will not miss it.

The complete official returns of the late election in New York give the following Democratic majorities: Hill, for Governor, 11,691; Jones, for Lieutenant Governor, 9,162; Cook, Secretary of State, 14,947; Fitzgerald, for Treasurer, 11,867; O'Brien, for Attorney General, 12,251.

Congress opened last Monday. John Sherman was elected President of the Senate and Carlisle was elected Speaker of the House.

Both houses, after organization, adjourned out of respect to the memory of Vice-President Hendricks.

A. Nolter, formerly of the Standard, will commence the publication of the Weekly World, at Portland, on the 24th inst. The World will be Democratic and we wish it abundant success in all honorable efforts to advance the cause of democracy.

John W. Daniel, the most brilliant orator of the South, and an able law writer, has been nominated by the Democratic legislative caucus of Virginia for Senator in place of Little Billy Malone.

How inexplicably sad it is to think that Congress will be in session for the next eight months.

CORRESPONDENCE

Oakville.

Farmers are improving the good days by plowing and sowing grain.

D. C. Currie, who has been traveling and visiting in some five different States, reports times better and money more plenty here than any place he was in, also spoke of a gentleman hauling corn ten miles and selling it at 15 cents per bushel.

Saturday night Robert Smith, accompanied by a party of young folks, on their way to attend singing school, had the misfortune to drive upon a stump, thereby upsetting the wagon, but fortunately for the occupants they were thrown into a mud hole, which eased their fall and, perhaps, saved me from a more serious accident.

Johnny McBride lost a valuable horse last week by it rearing forward in the stall and striking its head with such force against a beam as to kill it.

Mrs. Wm. Conroy, who is afflicted with a severe catarrh on her hand, is much better.

Prof. J. B. Gilson bid us farewell. He goes to spend the winter in Pennsylvania with his parents.

Miss Lou Couey has left Oakville and will make her place of abode for the winter. We are sorry to lose her.

Miss Mattie Smith is visiting friends in Corvallis.

Miss Emma Walton, of Oak Creek, is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Albert Waggoner, of Halsey, was in Oakville during the week.

B. W. Boyles has gone from this vicinity to make his fortune and home in Sprague, W. T.

Miss Lou Stockton makes quite a prepossessing appearance on her pretty and spirited white pony.

J. A. McCullough and family, of Halsey, were the guests of R. A. Bamford a portion of last week.

A. Y. Smith has returned to his home on Lobster.

It depends on the L. I. society whether we shall have an enjoyable Christmas or not.

If our U. S. mail carrier and his gang do not stop killing our cats and claiming glory for coon scalps, there will be mob law instituted to fit their case.

Lebanon.

Mr. A. Cowan left Monday morning by the Short Line to visit his old Eastern home near St. Louis, Mo. He will also visit in Kentucky.

Mrs. C. H. Harmon's mother and sisters are visiting with her from Portland.

W. H. Reed has returned from Spokane Falls, where he reports everything booming.

Mr. C. B. Montague is a great deal better, and they think the danger is now past.

Mrs. J. Davidson returned to Vancouver Saturday morning.

Mrs. J. L. Cowan is visiting in Portland this week.

Mr. Andrews little boy, that was so severely burned by falling in the fire, is getting along nicely.

The ladies of the 1st Presbyterian Sabbath School are going to have a Christmas ladder Christmas eve, for the little ones.

Mr. C. McDonald returned from New Jersey, and is again at his post of duty. He brought Miss Minnie as far as Baker City, where she will spend the winter with friends.

Mr. C. M. Talbot has on a fine lot of toys for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McDonald returned last Thursday, after wandering in California, Eastern Oregon and W. T., contented to stay in old Linn awhile longer.

Waits by the Way.

Creswell is a beautiful little village in Lane county, Oregon, situated on the line of the O. & C. R. R., with a population of 250. One good thing they have no saloon in the place.

Traveling on the wagon road for about ten miles through a stretch of fine farming country, showing prosperity in the way of good improvements, we reach Goshen at the foot of a hill. Store and P. O. at this place. Continuing on we find numerous bop yards, three-fourths of which stand unbarred.

Brownsville.

Sheriff Charlton, in company with Mr. Jesse Ribble, paid our burg on official visit on Monday, and relieved our citizens of some of their surplus "filthy lucre."

O. P. Coshov, jr., went to Portland Friday on business, and has not yet returned.

Rev. C. Spury, Henry Blakely, W. C. Cooley, John Willson and Mrs. Willson all returned from Pendleton on last Thursday, where they had been in attendance as witnesses in the case of the State vs. J. H. Willson, charged with horse stealing. Mr. Willson was acquitted of the charges and returned home with the others.

Sam Willson, who has been in the Wood River country in Idaho for the last two years working in the mines and prospecting, returned home on last Thursday.

Rev. I. D. Driver held quarterly meeting at the Methodist Church here on Saturday and Sunday last.

N. B. Standish leaves for the old Illinois in Pennsylvania on Monday next, where he goes to assist in settling up the estate of his father, who died recently in that State.

Mr. Abrams, of Indiana, father of O. P. Abrams, of Crawfordville, was in town Tuesday. He leaves for his home in the East on next Monday.

The many friends of A. J. Warren will be glad to learn that he is slowly but surely improving in health. His daughter, Mrs. Illey, of Eastern Washington, who has been with him for some weeks, returned to her home on Friday.

Mrs. Florence Snyder started for San Jose, Cal., on Friday, where she goes for her health.

W. W. Stevenson went as far as Portland with his sister, Mrs. Snyder, and returned home on Monday.

Tangent.

We acknowledge a friendly visit from Brick Dust, and we find his conversation as interesting as his letters to the Democrat. We hope to hear from him often, as "Little Snowflake" takes a great interest in reading his letters.

Nimods in every direction. We don't know what stimulated the hunters of Tangent on last Wednesday morning, as they were all out bright and early. Of course they were not hired by the Albany boys.

Mrs. A. A. Smith, of Salem, was visiting friends in Tangent last week.

Rev. Mr. Edwards, of the Christian Church, will preach to the people of Tangent twice a month.

Mr. Ghernum near Salem was in Tangent Tuesday evening inquiring for his son, who left his home very mysteriously one day last week. The last we saw of him he was going South.

Hog killing seems to be in order this week.

Z. Beard has bought a lot of Mrs. E. W. LeFrancis, and is improving it. The school of this place will close this Friday evening with an entertainment. Will reopen the 1st Monday in January. The teacher wishing an expression from his scholars to see how many wanted him to continue as teacher of the school, furnished each one with a piece of paper, and all those in favor of his teaching should make a cross and those that were not to make a straight mark. Each slip of paper was returned with a cross, showing that they were all in favor of retaining him as teacher. We think it a good recommendation out of a school of sixty, and not one scholar dissatisfied.

Miss Ida Smith has been quite sick for several days.

Also Mrs. R. E. More. Tangent is to have a Christmas tree at the church Christmas eve.

Little Snowflake.

A Captain's Fortunate Discovery. Capt. Coleman, schr. Weymouth, plying between Atlantic City and N. Y., had been troubled with a cough so that he was unable to sleep, and was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It not only gave him instant relief, but allayed the extreme soreness in his breast. His children were similarly affected and a single dose had the same happy effect. Dr. King's New Discovery is now the standard remedy in the Coleman household and on board the schooner. Free trial bottle of this Standard Remedy at Foots & Mason's Drug Store.

Recently commended the State Ins. Co. ALABAMA OR., Oct. 2, 1885. It gives me pleasure to bear testimony to the promptness, fairness, and full and satisfactory settlement of my loss by the State Ins. Co. of Salem, Oregon. They having paid me the full amount of my claim within a week after my sworn statement was filed with them. I therefore heartily recommend this company to the farmers of Oregon.
