

KEEP THE PEACE.

For the last two months we have been pained to see a spirit manifested in the state to introduce factional quarrels and broils in the state. The truth is that these differences are mere personal ones and have no place in the affairs of the party, and it should not be compelled to carry these burdens of individual members of the party.

The Boston Herald in passing very casually remarks that the census of Massachusetts shows that she has 442,612 legal voters. Now the total vote for president in that state last fall was 303,000, or 140,600 short of the total number of voters.

The Weekly World, the new Democratic paper started at Portland by A. Nolte, formerly of the Standard, has made its appearance. It is an eight page sheet, very neat and clean, and has the pure, unadulterated Democratic ring that has always characterized the various journals which "Tony" has conducted.

W. H. Mansfield has stepped down and out of the Benton Leader, and M. L. Pipes takes his place. We wish "Billey" success in whatever undertaking he may engage, and we think we may safely predict that Mr. Pipes will maintain the reputation of the Leader as the "leader" of Benton county journalism.

Having met with a very serious trouble with my family, causing the breaking of one bone of arm and cutting of forehead and other bruises to my wife, and knowing a number of my old friends would like to hear about it, I therefore write through your columns.

From the prospects we would judge considerable preparation was being made for matrimony soon in our quiet little city. We wish them all success.

Miss Edith Pentland is visiting her parents during Christmas. She is attending the Willamette University.

Christmas passed off quiet in Scio, and all seemed to enjoy it. There will be a grand ball given on Friday night in honor of the New Year in Scio.

W. E. Kelly, formerly of Scio, now of Albany, smiled on us last Monday evening. We are always glad to see him.

Chicken Bristle.

One bright morning last week as I was sitting in my office, thinking of the many trials and heartaches which struggling humanity is subject to on this green carpeted earth of ours, a gentle ring at the door bell brought me to my feet. Hastily turning my paper collar, I carefully opened the door.

On Christmas eve there was a large crowd of children and grown folks at the 1st Presbyterian church, where two ladders had been decorated and hung with many nice presents. Each of the S. S. scholars were remembered by their teachers. A veritable Santa Claus was in attendance and added to the children's delight.

There is to be another match hunt on Thursday with a supper and ball in the evening at the St. Charles. Alively time is looked for.

Charles Hackleman is enlarging his store, and in a few days will bring on a stock of dry goods. He has Lucius Gilbert clerking for him.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. Meyers, on the 21st of Dec., a girl.

Prof. W. E. Lee, Principal of the Public Schools, has been discharged by the directors. He was a good instructor and the scholars advanced under his teaching, but he probably was a little hazy. Parents ought to think over the matter of school teaching, and be willing to allow the teacher to control the scholars and not take their children out of school every time a correction is made.

Mr. Gus. Corrie and bride, of Portland, spent a few days at the residence of the groom's father, in this vicinity.

On last Sabbath Willamette Sabbath School selected the following officers to serve during the ensuing year: Superintendent, D. C. Corrie; Secretary, C. C. McBride.

The winter term of the school at Oakville closed last Wednesday. It was under the efficient management of Miss Jane McDaniel, who is an excellent teacher.

Miss Maggie McBride has returned to Oakville to spend the holidays.

Brownsville.

Happy New Year!

Miss Doria Riley left for McMinnville Tuesday. She will attend College there during the remainder of the year.

There are rumors afloat of a prospective creamery. We earnestly hope the citizens of this place will encourage all such movements. Such an institution would be of great benefit to the farmers. No better place than Brownsville could be selected for that industry. Come on with your creamery.

John Sperry and wife, of Portland, are visiting friends and relatives in and about Brownsville.

Ripe strawberries were found near here Tuesday and brought to town for exhibition.

Last Saturday night, after witnessing three victims ride the goat, climb the red hot stove pipe, etc., the Odd Fellows repaired to the store of Col. W. Cable and to the number of about forty indulged in a cold oyster supper.

The R. A. M. of this place installed last Saturday night the following officers: J. M. Waters, H. P.; F. F. Croft, King; Thos. Kay, Scribe; R. N. Thompson, C. H.; J. M. Howe, F. S. J.; J. B. R. Morelock, R. A. C.; W. B. Smith, G. M.; 3rd Vell; W. D. Blinnock, G. M.; 2nd Vell; O. P. Cushman, G. M.; 1st Vell; J. P. Galbraith, Sec.; J. M. Moyer, Treas.; R. H. Carl, Sentinel.

J. E. Eastham and brother, of Peterson's Butte, spent Christmas day and night in this city.

Last Saturday night Uncle Bobby Martin, alias "The Government," went out to see his children, who live with Mrs. Martin, the former wife of Uncle Bobby. Upon the approach of Mr. Martin the children ran in the house and the door was barricaded against the father, whereupon Mr. Martin seized an ax, knocked down the door, and it is alleged threatened to take the life of the inmates. Upon this charge "The Government" was arrested and tried before six Jurymen, Justice of the Peace and J. C. Averill, presiding. Barrister E. D. Johnson, City Marshal elect, appeared on the prosecution, while Uncle Bobby was his own attorney. The trial lasted nearly the entire day and was submitted to the jury at six o'clock. The jury soon brought in a verdict of guilty, and the defendant was bound over to await the action of the Grand Jury. Justice of the Peace, H. J. C. Averill, placed his bonds at five hundred dollars.

Christmas passed off quietly. Many of the young folks attended the Christmas tree and ball at Coburg, and reported it an enjoyable affair. A few went to the ball and sociable at Harbourside the next evening.

Miss Ella Thompson is home from Salem for the holidays. Her friends are all pleased to see her once again.

Mr. Boyd from Eugene has taken charge of the Wyatt place. Mrs. Wyatt intends to have a portion of the place planted in corn in the spring, thinking that will be a more profitable crop than wheat or oats.

Miss Laura Bromley has given her pupils a two weeks vacation, to extend over the holidays.

Fairview.

Pine.

So far as we know every one in this part spent a "merry Christmas."

On the Sunday previous to Xmas, Rev. Davis, the Evangelical minister from Albany, preached a very interesting Christmas sermon at the Fairview Church.

On the following Tuesday, according to previous arrangements, eighteen men and boys, with R. Millhollen and James Willbanks as Captains, engaged in a hunting match, which resulted in favor of Millhollen's nine, the score standing twenty-five hundred to eighty hundred in favor of the boys mentioned nine. All the participants were treated to a fine supper the next evening by the defeated side, at the residence of Wm. Millhollen.

The Hulbert's and all relations partook of a family dinner at the old home-stead Xmas day.

Hunting good.

Messrs. Purdy and Taylor will give a New Year's ball at the Hop house Thursday evening. It is said that an oyster supper is on the program.

The West Point Odd Fellows have decided to build a new hall at Coburg, and have begun work on the same.
