

The Democrat.

FRIDAY, JUNE 4, 1886

Napoleon Davis is said to be a fine scholar and will make an excellent Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Charley Nickell for State Printer is a rattling, energetic business man and should receive a big vote.

If you want to take the State Treasury out of the hands of a powerful ring who will control it for mercenary purposes, then vote for G. W. Webb for State Treasurer.

If every voter in the state were acquainted with R. F. Gibson he would have an immense majority for Secretary of State. Be sure his name is on your ticket.

J. J. Shaw, Democratic candidate for District Judge, is an able incorruptible lawyer and will make a good Judge. Be sure and vote for him.

When you make out your ticket to vote next Monday, cast your eye along down it and see that the name of P. M. Smith is on it for Assessor.

Mr. Carl will be elected Treasurer by a large majority, notwithstanding the Disseminator denounces him for the crime of being poor, "bankrupt" as it calls it.

Now, Democrats, up and at the enemy next Monday. Let the pull be a long one, a strong one, and a pull altogether. Let the victory be overwhelming and without the loss of a man.

The fact that you would like to be "mouseth of all you survey" does not make you a good Surveyor. By the way if you want a good Surveyor vote for J. E. McAdoo.

If it be true that the commission business does not pay, as is often said, that is no reason why you should forget that Enoch J. Miller and L. W. Pomeroy are candidates for County Commissioners.

News comes from all parts of the county that the people without regard to party intend to give Judge Strahan a big home vote as a rebuke to the Disseminator's slanderous attack upon him.

We understand that a certain class of Republicans are offering to trade off Sheriff, Clerk and nearly every other man on their ticket in order to elect a Senator. Democrats, keep your eyes open.

The abusive attacks made upon our fellow townsman, Judge Strahan, by the Herald is producing its natural result. Many Republicans are declaring their purpose to vote for the Judge on account of these unwarranted attacks.

Messrs. Henry, Hannard, Montany, Blevins, Miller and Sewank, Democratic candidates for the Lower House of the Legislature, are gentlemen of experience and ability and we predict the election of each.

If you want an easy conscience, one that plainly tells you that you have performed well an important public duty, then vote for J. P. Galbraith for County Clerk. His qualifications are beyond dispute.

Read the very excellent letter of the coming Governor elect, Penneyer, on the outside page of this issue of the Democrat. It would be an act of foolishness to elect such a henchman of corporations for Governor as Cornelius. Happily everything points to the election of Mr. Penneyer.

The charges of bad faith against C. A. Johns would justify any Republican making open war upon him as they are doing in Polk and Marion. Many Republicans are working openly for Geo. W. Belt, his opponent for Prosecuting Attorney.

Mr. Reid has made the most active energetic and successful School Superintendent the county has ever had. He has raised the standard of our public schools to a plane where they are the pride of the people. Voters know and appreciate this fact, and scores of Republicans will attest their appreciation by voting for him.

There comes a time in every voter's life when he has an opportunity to cast a vote of which he will always be proud. The time has come, and that vote will be cast for "Vanny" Smith for Sheriff. If we had as many millions as his majority will be hundreds we could say off nearly half the national debt. His vote will be "way up."

The ordinary pride of citizenship dictates to every voter to vote for Penneyer for Governor. He is a dignified, educated gentleman of the old school, and would be a credit to the people of the state. He is, besides, the true friend of the people. Cornelius on the other hand is uneducated and unable to speak or write the English language correctly and is the friend of corporations and capital.

We have it from reliable sources that the Herald in its last issues before election will have some highly sensational articles about certain Democratic candidates. Pay no attention to it.

The paper that made the slanderous attacks upon Penneyer, Strahan and other candidates that the Herald has, will not hesitate to make any kind of an attack upon other candidates when it is too late to reply. It is entirely

"A MATTER OF BUSINESS" - AGAIN

The suit referred to was brought against Linn county and J. K. Charlton, as Sheriff of Linn county, and that gentleman authorizes us to state that the first answer was verified by Mr. Andrews but refused by himself, and for that reason was stricken out in Judge Deady's court; also, that the amended answer, which is now pending, was verified by both Mr. Andrews and himself.

Correct as far as it goes, but the falsity consists in what is suppressed. Mr. Andrews refused to verify the second answer until it was so completely emasculated as to render it manifestly bad upon its face. And he will not verify an answer presenting a good, complete and sufficient issue. We say again that Mr. Andrews refused to verify such answer as the attorneys for the county prepared, and such was legally necessary to try the issue. Geo. E. Chamberlain, Dist. Attorney, and R. S. Strahan, who appear for the people and against the Scotch company, know the facts and will verify the statements we have made. If Mr. Andrews thinks with the Scotch company that lands are not assessed high enough, let him say so openly. If not then why not verify the answer?

Let voters look out for all kinds of sensational and slanderous stories to be started on Democratic candidates. The Disseminator started the story that Penneyer was a Know Nothing and its editor sat in the Court House and heard Penneyer deny the charge in the most emphatic way and then in his next issue virtually repeated the charge. It then charged Judge Strahan with having voted to purchase the locks, and when we pointed him to the page of the Senate Journal which shows that Judge Strahan voted to reject the bill on its first reading, he refused to correct his false charges. We were told by this editor in the beginning that he would not engage in mud slinging, but the above shows him to have violated his promise in toto, so we are justified in saying to the voters of the county look out for all kinds of reports in that paper, but place no reliance in its unjust attacks upon Democratic candidates.

The State Senators elected next Monday will hold over and help elect a United States Senator to succeed Senator Dolph. If Dawson or Johnson should be elected they would, of course, support whom the Republican caucus should nominate. That man will be Geo. H. Williams, or some other equally objectionable Republican. Neither one of these men dispute this fact. Now, how can any Democrat vote for either one of these men? The Democrat that does simply votes for a Republican for United States Senator. Can any Democrat assume such a responsibility? What if one vote alone should be sufficient to elect Williams, and what if that one vote was Dawson's? And suppose Dawson should be elected by a few Democratic votes? No, let no Democrat vote for Dawson, as he is as much the enemy of the Democratic party as any Republican.

We repeat that we said last week that Black's bill does not affect the mortgage tax law, and we challenge the Disseminator or even any person who understands how to construe a plain law to show a single point in which it annuls that law. The mortgage tax law had two objects. One was to make certain that the loan debt should pay its part of the taxes to maintain county and state government, while the other was to secure the payment of the taxes in the county where the mortgage was recorded. These are both secured as well since as before the passage of Black's bill. The Disseminator is simply pettifogging when it tries to make people believe otherwise.

Dawson has a great deal to say about Black being absent at so many roll calls in the Legislature. Mr. Peery, who was a member at that time and who occupied a seat near Mr. Black, says that if the people knew the reason of this they would see at once that it was to his credit. He says Mr. Black was on several important committees which would hold meetings in the morning and adjourn just in time to get into the house after roll call and before any business was transacted. As a matter of fact Mr. Black was one of the most industrious members of the House.

Cornelius, in his opening campaign speech at Portland, declared positively that he had never employed Chinese in his life. This was according to the report of the News and Oregonian, both Republican. The World last week published affidavits from three of Cornelius' neighbors to the fact that he had employed them to work on his farm, and now Cornelius comes forward and acknowledges that he did hire them and at this late date wishes to say the above papers misrepresented him. This is worse than to have stuck to his first falsehood.

In 1880 when Dawson was in the Legislature, W. R. Bilyeu, who was then in the Senate, secured the passage of the mortgage tax law in the Senate and it was sent to the House, where it died. The record fails to show that Dawson ever put forth a single effort to secure its passage. And now he is perambulating the county denouncing men for being unfriendly to the law. Such double dealing will bring its reward. Vote for Black and Irvine.

Republicans and Democrats alike will vote for Judge Strahan and thereupon rebuke the scandalous attacks made upon him by the Herald.

Vote for Butler for Congress and you will perform an important public duty.

UNDERSTANDING WORK.

On May 15th, 1886, at the instance of Mr. J. L. Gilbert, I entered into a definite and firm agreement that neither of us should go to the places already appointed and published for the political speaking on the canvass of the county on those days, excepting "Scioto." The following affidavit is offered to corroborate the truth of the above statement.

I, H. Farwell, County Treasurer of Linn county, Or., being first duly sworn, depose and say, that in a conversation with J. L. Gilbert, of Lebanon, in my office, on or about the 15th day of May, 1886, that the said J. L. Gilbert, who is candidate for the office of County School Superintendent, said to me that he wanted to see D. V. S. Reid, who is candidate for the same office, and make arrangements with the said D. V. S. Reid to not go around on the canvass of the county with the other candidates for office, and that he preferred to stay at home, and that he did not feel like spending any money for that purpose, and that he did not approve of canvassing the county.

I have lived up to the agreement above quoted and which is in accordance with the wishes expressed by Mr. Gilbert as indicated by the above affidavit, while Mr. Gilbert has, so far, been on every place on the canvass contrary to the agreement with me. He is making deceitful and personal attacks upon me while he is thus violating his honor in breaking this agreement made by him with me at his own request. I respectfully submit the above facts for the consideration of the voters of Linn county, and regret very much that he has thus placed me in a position in which I cannot reach the people to rectify the matter except by resorting to the press and regret also that space is so limited that I cannot give the details of his misrepresentations and personal attacks.

Albany, Or., June 2nd, 1886. Respectfully submitted, D. V. S. REID.

The program of the Republicans to elect if possible a majority of both branches of the Legislature, so that they will be able to apportion the state for members of the Legislature at the next session in such a manner as to enable them to hold that body for years to come. Their purpose will be to unite Marion with Linn in one senatorial district, and thus to render the Democrats of Linn powerless in the way of electing Senators. They will pursue this course with all the counties of the state, and thus gerrymander the districts so as to render the Democrats in the state powerless. For this reason Democrats should come out in solid phalanx and vote for Black, Irvine and all our candidates for the Lower House.

The Disseminator man is very much worried because we denied the report that Mr. Carl had once been a saloon keeper. Our denial was based upon the statement of two gentlemen who claimed to know that the statement was untrue. We have no knowledge of the facts in the case, but now as the Disseminator man is so anxious about matters of this kind, we would suggest that he inquire into the tipping habits of a couple of candidates on the Republican county ticket. Come now no dodging.

Ex-Supt. Gilbert issued only 30 teachers certificates at public examination during his entire term, and 11 of those at one time on March 31st, 1882, being to his own students from the Sinitiam Academy, while Supt. Reid up to the present time has granted 66 at public examination, which shows that the latter is not influenced by the $2.50 fee to make private examinations so easy that the paltry fee will secure a certificate or in any manner influence an examination.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Brownsville.

Tuesday Mr. S. P. Barger moved his furniture into the building recently erected by F. Hume.

Last Thursday evening J. D. Arthur's returned from across the mountains.

Mr. John Stringer is making preparations for establishing a bakery in the room vacated by S. P. Barger.

Tuesday Mr. C. H. Cable went after his wife who has been visiting relatives near Lebanon since Saturday.

Thomas Ryan, of Oregon City, passed through town on his way home from the Blue River mines. Mr. Ryan has a claim in that region, and reports several parties at work on the river.

H. W. Goddard, for a long time agent for the Narrow Gauge at this place, has accepted a position in the receivers office at Portland, and with his family moved Tuesday.

The Baptist Church has been newly painted by Messrs. Brusha and Thompson, and now has the appearance of a new church.

Monday the Brownsville creamery turned out one hundred and twenty-five pounds of butter.

Mr. T. S. Pillsbury, who has been confined in his room for seven weeks, is able to be at the store.

Mr. W. D. McGee commenced a writing school in the public school house in North Brownsville last Monday evening.

Ernest Ross, while playing on the turn table at the depot with several other boys, got his foot severely mashed.

Several of our citizens out of curiosity attended the Mormon meeting Sunday, which has been in progress for several days near Crawfordville.

"Brick Dasi," the energetic correspondent of Chicken Bristle, caused our countenance to beam with delight by expelling his genial physiognomy to our vision last Friday.

Last Friday morning our town was thrown into excitement by the report being circulated that Dr. N. H. Young had attempted the ruin of a little girl eight years old, the daughter of Mr. Harris. The enraged father gave the Dr. a severe beating and twenty-four hours to leave the town. The Dr. denies the charge and has been here and in the vicinity since. He is reported to have gone to Albany to make arrangements for bringing suit against Mr. Harris.

On account of the presence of the candidates of all parties, our town was quite a metropolitan air last Friday. All of the Democrats with whom your correspondent held conversation seemed confident of their election. Their assurance increased as they got over the county. The ticket will be scratched but little if any here, and we predict the election of the entire ticket by good majority. Among the distinguished visitors present last Friday besides the candidates were Hon. J. K. Weatherford, Hon. W. R. Bilyeu and Justice Geo. Humphrey.

Tuesday night, at the residence of Mrs. M. R. Keeney, a sister of the bride, Miss Carrie Pearl was married to Dr. N. H. Young.

Mr. J. P. Galvair returned home Tuesday night from the canvass, accompanied by ten of his Eastern relatives.

Oakville.

The Alliance picnic on last Saturday was largely attended. The Tangent Band favored us with music. For beginners they do splendid. Rev. Webb, of Albany, made a speech of almost an hour's duration, after which J. M. Marks, of Lebanon, favored us with a short speech. In the afternoon short speeches were made by Mrs. M. A. H. Johnson, R. A. Bamford and others.

The Ladies Improvement Society sold candies, nuts, oranges and other articles, from which they made quite an addition to their funds.

All is well that ends well, but a pole in the earth without water in it is not a well.
