

DIABOLICAL.

One of the most flagrant and diabolical Southern outrages that has ever come to our knowledge during the dark and gloomy days of Ku Kluxism, was perpetrated at the late election in Tennessee. In the city of Memphis, where the colored outnumber the white voters largely a Democratic majority of nearly 5000 was rolled up. And all this was brought about on account of thousands of these negroes going up to the polls and openly and shamelessly voting the Democratic ticket. And in doing this they seemed to glory in the funeral aspect of the "grand old party." Was such an outrage ever committed against any party as this? Does this not call for a committee, appointed by the Senate, with Hoar as chairman, to investigate this outbreak of colored Ku Kluxism? The Watchman, colored organ, published at Memphis, although it loyally supported the Republicans, throws full light upon the subject as follows: "Such a thing will ever exist as long as the bosses and old worst leaders stand at the head of the ranks and give commands, and at the time they are needed, they fall to the rear and leave the bag for the negro to hold. Somebody will learn something after awhile." Ah, indeed! Yes somebody will learn something after awhile. That lesson is now being learned by the colored voters of the country. It is, that after all the professions of kindly interest in the welfare of the negroes by the Republican party, light suddenly breaks in upon the benighted minds of the colored people disclosing the fact that all the use the Republican party ever had for the negro voter was to use him on election day to vote the Republican ticket, and that the Democratic party is a far better friend to them than the Republicans are. Well, we all live and learn.

CONFUSED.

The Statesman is evidently very much confused. Last week it stated that the call for bonds was made now in just such amounts as the law required. The law requires the Secretary of the Treasury to redeem four millions per month without discretion. But since the first of July the "calls" for bonds amount to forty-seven millions, being very much in excess of that required by law. The same paper in its issue of August 29th stated that our legislature in 1870 appropriated $200,000 of the school funds to build the locks at Oregon City. Our neighbor is wrong here again. The $200,000 appropriated by that legislature was from the proceeds of the sale of the 500,000 acres of internal improvement lands and not from the school fund.

WELL SAID.

General Master Workman Powderly in a speech lately delivered in Penna., said: "The Knights of Labor have no sympathy with the Chicago Anarchists. Anarchy is destructive of everything that is good, and men who destroy life and property with the torpedo and dynamite are the worst kind of enemies to honest labor." This is the spirit and sentiment of true citizenship.

The United States is a free country, and one of the privileges enjoyed by the people is the right to hang anarchists. It takes a little while to do it properly, but it can be done just the same. We prefer that the verdict in the Chicago cases will do more to check undesirable immigration than all the laws that could be passed. The anarchist has a better show in Germany and Russia than in our great republic. In a country ruled by a hereditary monarch, his blows are directed against an individual or a privileged class, and he naturally obtains the sympathy of the masses. In a republic his defiance of law is an insult to the whole people, and he is regarded by every citizen as an enemy.

The late election of the Democratic candidates on the state ticket in Kansas is a colored man, the name of the Democratic candidate for Governor in Pennsylvania is Black, and the name of the Democratic candidate in the same state for Secretary of Internal Affairs in Africa, would seem to indicate that the colored line has been entirely obliterated.

Clifton B. Fisk, Prohibition candidate for Governor of New Jersey, made a speech the other day at Pitman Grove in that state, in which he stated that his party was receiving large accessions daily, and that three-fourths of these accessions in northern New Jersey were from the Democratic party.

The Democratic majority in Alabama was over one hundred thousand for Governor. This is one of the states where we were told by the Republicans that the Democrats were so badly divided they would likely lose the state.

Since July 1st the calls for the redemption of United States bonds amount to $47,000,000. And still the Republican papers are gasping for breath like a drowning man just as he gets his head out of water.

A Chicago clergyman said in a sermon Sunday that atheism was the root of anarchy. Why not reverse it and say that anarchy is the root of atheism.

HE IS A CANDIDATE.

The Oregonian concludes that inasmuch as Blaine has taken the stump in Maine, that he is out of the race for president in 1888, giving as a reason that Blaine knows that the stump is no place to train for the presidential nomination. But this is not in harmony with the course of Blaine's life, for Blaine's mistakes are the path of his past life as thickly as mosquitoes infect a Louisiana swamp. His moral perceptibilities are so blunted that he sees no impropriety in a man, while a candidate, perambulating the whole country in a sort of hippopotamus style, pleading with voters for their support. He holds affronted in attempting to defend his Mullan letter record shows beyond cavil that he does not know what kind of place a presidential candidate should train in. The Oregonian knows full well that Blaine is a very poor stick for Republicans to nominate for president in 1888, but notwithstanding that, that paper should not console itself with the hope that Blaine is not a candidate, for the marks of the soiled hand of the cunning wire puller are plainly discernible on all the wires of the country now used to direct the operations of the Republican machine. If nothing else, the Oregonian man is an astute politician of very far reaching capacity, as was clearly shown when he declared on the eve of the National Republican Convention in 1884, substantially that Blaine could not be elected. That paper is now prepared to warn Republicans that neither Blaine, Logan nor Evans can be elected, and it is right, neither one of them can be. In fact, as the horoscope now shows, no Republican can be elected in 1888. The indications now point strongly to the fact that that party has elected its last president.

HE WAVERED.

Blaine made a speech the other day at South Paris, Maine, in which, speaking of the temperance question, he said, "the Republican party has never wavered in support of prohibition." This is additional proof that Blaine either presumes upon the gross ignorance of the people, or that he has no regard for the truth of history. Of the dozens of times when that party has wavered in support of prohibition, we need only mention the time when Blaine himself in 1884, standing as the then great leader and chosen representative of the Republican party, not only wavered but absolutely cravenly refused to vote for a prohibitory amendment in his own state, when the eyes of the whole nation were watching intently to see what he would do.

ANOTHER.

Another bond call for ten millions was made the first of the week by Acting Secretary Fairchild. This makes forty-seven millions since the first of July. This will knock the breath out of little 7x9 Republican papers so completely that they will hardly recover in time to denounce this Democratic administration for not paying off the public debt any faster or another call for ten millions will be made. The Justices of the Peace of the rural districts of Georgia, in the absence of regular lawyers, transact a good deal of professional business for their neighbors. On one occasion, one of the gentry was employed to draw a deed of marriage settlement. The estate was limited to the use of the bride during her life, "and at and after her death, to the child or children of the said Susan Jones, she may have by the said Thomas Smith, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns." "What do you think of it?" asked Smith of a lawyer to whom he showed the document. "I think," answered the lawyer, "that whoever drew this deed was determined to be should be no trouble by reason of failure of issue."

We have been told for several years by the economists that the existing coinage law would gradually drain the country of gold and flood it with silver. The falsity of this predic on is proven by the hard figures in the report of the director of the mint. For the past year the imports of gold have exceeded the exports by about thirteen million dollars, while the exports of silver have exceeded the imports of the same metal by about fifteen million dollars. In short, our gold supply has increased, while our silver has found a market abroad.

An Atlanta, Ga., newspaper thus sums up the result of a month of prohibition in that city: "Less money in the city and state treasury; less business houses occupied; less people in the city; less morality; less drunkenness; more crimes and criminals; more poor people out of employment than ever before; more taxes put upon the people; more extra license imposed upon the merchants, and more dissatisfaction among all people than ever has existed before."

Next Monday Mr. C. H. Hewitt, lawyer, formerly of this city, and J. B. Fithian, formerly of the Standard, will commence the publication of a Democratic daily paper in Portland. Success, gentlemen.

New Furniture.

A new and elegant line of furniture just received at W. Formiller & Co's. Their cherry goods are fine. Their new center tables are the best and most stylish in the market. For first-class furniture call on them.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Rock Hill.

Farmers doing harvesting. They will not raise as much wheat heretofore as heretofore. They will raise stock. On last Saturday Mr. Eastman, living on the side of Peterson's Butte, set fire to some dead grass in his yard, when it spread and burned up his old house, (he is now living in his new one), and burned up some fencing, etc. Crops here were not so good as in other parts of the valley. Apples and plums are almost a failure around this vicinity. Potatoes and vegetables generally very scarce. John Muselman hauled a load of oats to the machine last week which, when threshed, made 35 bushels. Jeff Tally hauled a load that made 35 bushels, John Gallaway's load made 29 bushels and Tom Warren's 34.

Mr. A. Dodge got kicked very badly with a horse the other day, which will lay him up for awhile. Mr. Harvey Veder has just got back from Eastern Oregon. Mr. Wm. Wilson, of Sadaville, left for Eastern Oregon, to be gone a short time.

Also Mr. I. Kirkendall and George Vandepool started for the mountains a few days ago on a hunting and fishing expedition. The roads are full of hunters going to the mountains. Milton Weisfall will soon move to Sadaville. Mr. Boyle will soon move to his farm from Sadaville.

Mrs. Mary Henderson, of Eugene, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Miller. Robert Nichols and wife are in from Eastern Oregon visiting. Farmers hauling grain and preparing for winter. Strange that a Rock Hiller would hire a school mara to help stack straw, yet he did.

ROCK HILLER.

Mabel.

There is not much going on in Mabel at present, as most of the inhabitants are off picking hops. Riggs & Son are repairing the mill dam some. They have a fine lot of lumber on hand and are ready to wait for any one who may come along. T. A. Lewis and family came over from Crawfordville yesterday. He will return to-day taking a load of lumber with him, leaving the family with his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Crawford, for a short time.

Mr. Cleaver, of Lebanon, is getting his house nearly ready for his family, and will move over in a short time. We would like to welcome a number more such people to our neighborhood. Mr. Walling, former partner of T. A. Riggs, is engaged to run the mill on Mill Creek for Eider Whitmore. Mr. Smith is getting along finely putting in logs to run down the Mohawk next winter. He has a contract of a million feet for Crawford & Fuller, and will probably furnish Riggs & Son with logs for the next season.

There is room for a good many more settlers here on good land, and lumber is very cheap so a man can build with a very small outlay of capital, so if you see any one looking for a location send him over this way.

MABELITE.

Nestucca Bay.

The weather is fine, and now is the time for the valley people to enjoy the fresh sea breezes and fine boat riding on Nestucca Bay. Good sail boats can be had for $1 per day and row boats for 50 cents. Fine trout and flounder fishing at the mouth of little Nestucca Bay. A boat from Sherryngers fishery captured two sharks on Friday night just outside the reef of rocks at the mouth of the Bay. The town of Woods, on the big Nestucca River, is improving rapidly. The latest enterprise of the place is the packing house of Backler & Co., which is doing quite a business. Most of the campers are coming to Cape Lookout and Sab Creek. Both nice places to camp. The steamer "Rain Cloud" is expected in next week after a load of salmon for the new cannery at Tillamook Bay. Salmon fishing is in full blast. Bots average from 20 to 30 a night.

BREAKER.

Brownsville.

Hop picking commenced Monday. F. F. Croft returned from Portland last Saturday. Mr. Jay Bishop and wife spent last Saturday and Sunday with her parents near Rock Hill. C. N. Scott partly paid off most of his hands last Saturday.

Mr. P. Masten and family, of Prineville, are here visiting relatives. The little daughter of Mr. Evans, living about 1 1/2 miles above town, had the misfortune of cutting one of her fingers off last Sunday evening.

Misses Shrobo and Newman, of McMinnville, were here visiting Rev. Sherry's family last Monday and Tuesday. Mr. Eastman and wife, living near Rock Hill, were in town Monday. R. H. Carl and wife returned from Albany Tuesday.

J. H. Stine will soon commence the publication of a weekly newspaper here, to be called the Informer. The first issue will be out Sept. 10th.

FARMERS! BEFORE YOU BUY A RIGHT TO ANY GATE, BE SURE AND SEE MASON'S WHEEL GATE! PATENTED JUNE 8, 1886. The superior points of excellency claim- ed for this gate are: The running gear can be attached to any common gate. Any intelligent boy of 10 who is "handy with tools" can make the gate or attach the running gear to another gate. The entire cost of the gate need not exceed $4; the purchaser furnishing and setting the posts (in the ground or frame, as desired) and hanging the gate. No high posts are needed. No extra framing is needed at the bottom. All the running gear at the top, hence it cannot become clogged with mud, snow or ice of any kind. It does not fall up nor tip over to scare horses. It requires but little force to operate it; a 12 foot gate rising only one-third of an inch to each foot of opening, and the entire rising and falling is only 2 inches, and this on wheels or rollers. It uses no lever or complicated machinery. There is no need of arms, though they can be used if desired. It never gets out of order so as to hinder its working. In opening and shutting gear is all broken or removed, it is still the best gate made to open and shut by hand. It fastens and locks itself so as to be tight and stock proof. It can be opened and shut without getting off a horse or bicycle, or out of a wagon. It is the simplest in construction, the easiest to operate, the cheapest to make, and the best gate in existence. Rights will be sold as cheap or cheaper than for any good gate. No other gate has half so many excellent and superior points. A few minutes examination will prove the truth of these statements. Go and see a model at Peters & Stewart's, Albany, Or. Local agents wanted in every town of the county to make and sell gates.
