Settler's Guide.

Mr C G Burkhart, immigration agent for Linn county, has just issued a Settler's Guide, which confers great credit on him. Sixty-four pages are devoted to a description of Linn county, one intended to convey to the outside world an honest idea of our resources and advantages. Burkhart & Pfeiff- Stites, D D G M : er did the typographical work, a neat job. The Settler's Guide is being distributed gratuitously and is sure to do much towards advancing the interests of this county.

A Good Record

Mr John Wills, of Syracuse precinct, recently sold his wheat, over 5000 bushels, in Salem, for 711/2 cents net. That is what might be called a big bargain these low priced days. Mr Wills had nine acres that averaged 45 bushels machine measure. On being weighed the average was increased to 48 bushels an acre. There was a big smile of satisfaction on Mr Wills face that we would like to see chronic on the Oregon farmer's countenance.
