CORRESPONDENCE

Fine

At the adjourned meeting held at the Ward school house on the evening of the 10th inst., Mr. Clayer was elected Director to serve three years and Mr. Barger Clerk for one year.

There was a grand ball at the Hop house last Friday evening. About twenty numbers were sold.

Mrs. Hendricks, of Morrow county, was in the neighborhood one day last week.

Mrs. Emma Allison, who has been so very ill at Harriburg, was able to come home last week, and will soon be able to be around again.

Virgil Sittes carries the mail now. Samuel Allison and family, of Junction City, were visiting his father last Sunday.

Mrs. Fitchell was sick a few days last week. It was first thought she had the fever, but it turned out to be nothing more than a cold.

Peoria. Peoria is situated on the east bank of the beautiful Willamette river, and is surrounded by a fine body of grazing land. It is chiefly noted as a summer resort for invalids.

Miss Emma Johnson is visiting at her grandfather's, Mr. James Garrett. Dave Crews has his steam laundry in running order.

Mr. Keston moved into town last week. The familiar face of Jack Bear is again seen on our streets after an absence of 10 years.

John Porter sold a fine span of horses for $1100, more or less, last week. The fine weather is starting the plows up all over the neighborhood, and fall grain looks fine.

All the grain in the warehouse at Peoria has been sold. Dave Gibson has taken the contract to haul the lumber for Greg Carter and John McBride's new warehouse.

F. Clingman is training Mr. Caldwell's fine colt to trot. F. L. Bayne is breaking 40 acres of sod for I. Johnson.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Martha J. Hatter, who departed this life March 9th, 1887, aged 68 years.

Dearest mother thou art gone, And for thee we deeply mourn; But while our hearts are deeply riven, We know that thou art safe in heaven.

Gone from the friends she loved below, To realms of purer love; To feast on pleasures pure and sweet, In that bright, world above.

Her sparkling eyes, and smiling face, Oh earth we'll see no more; But yet again we hope to meet her, O'er on the other shore.

Weeping we gathered around her, And gazed upon her calm sweet face; Where loving hands had crowned her, For her last resting place.

Her body sleeps in death's embrace, Among the silent dead; Soon o'er her grave the grass shall wave And flowers their fragrance shed.

But her spirit has fled, to loved ones above, And rejoices with them in God's heavenly love, And one day all radiant by the heavenly gate For the loved ones she left, we think she'll await.

Rest on loved one, thou hast no fear, Thy suffering now is o'er; And trusting and hoping to meet again, Where we shall part no more.

Dark and dreary is our dwelling, Lonely are our hearts to-day; For one that we loved so dearly, Has forever passed away.

Heaven now retaineth our treasure, Earth her loved ones keeps; And the substance love to linger, O'er the grave where mother sleeps.

TO WHOM It May Concern. ALBANY, OR., March 9th, 1887. Self preservation is the first law of nature. Among my old friends and customers who have been trading with me for the last ten years, and who still do the same and profit thereby, some designing party with enmity in his soul is circulating the report that because some one else received the sugar contract that was let last week by certain business managers I am higher in price than others, Gentlemen, it was impossible for me to get the above contract, as I was not asked for a bid, why, is best known to themselves. By billing and ascertaining my prices you can judge for yourselves whether Justice has been done to you or not, and whether the prices of my goods are not as low or lower than any other house. In case that I should be compelled to give up my business on account of the above, I will be compelled to become an office seeker. Very respectfully yours, P. COHEN.

Sheriff's Sale. In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Linn County. Z. F. Moody, Governor, R. P. Just Received BY Samuel E. Young, A full assortment of the celebrated BROADHEAD DRESS GOODS. Read what the manufacturers say. WHAT WE GUARANTEE FOR THE DRESS GOODS OF OUR MANUFACTURE. To be made from the very best material, by skillful workmen, with the latest and most approved machinery, and to be the cheapest goods in the market when service is considered. Are so thoroughly finished that they can be worn in damp weather or a shower, without fear of being ruined by curling or shrinking. The manufacturing, dyeing and finishing is done in such a manner that the goods can be washed if desired, without the least injury to the fabric. Our goods are wool dyed, and color as fast as the purest dyes and greatest care and skill can make them. Goods show just what they are and will be until worn out, as there is no weight, stiffening, or artificial lustré used to increase the weight or finish; as is the case with a large class of goods in the market, but which disappears after a few day's service. As manufacturers we have taken great pains to supply an article in every way reliable, and unsurpassed by similar goods, either foreign or domestic, and would respectfully ask an examination of the various styles and shades to be found on and by merchants who are agents for the goods. Samples sent by mail. SAMUEL E. YOUNG. CLEARANCE SALE. Fall and Winter Goods. 90 DAYS. Julius Joseph's.
