

Prohibition at Astoria is being pushed with vigor. Geo. Johnson, Secretary of the Columbia River Fishermen's Union, and a prominent Knight of Labor, seems to be the leader of the movement.

Secretary Lamar has restored to settlement by actual settlers lands heretofore withdrawn from markets in the interest of railroads, amounting to 25,000,000 acres.

The Roseburg Review will say that without question Mr. Cleveland's administration is regarded by the people as honest, impartial and successful. Strange to say, the negroes have not been returned to slavery.

The pope has sent a letter to Dr. McGlynn, of New York, saying if he does not come to Rome in 40 days the extreme penalty of the church—excommunication, will be visited upon him. It will be remembered that the Dr. ordered Henry George's land theory.

Judge Woods, of the United States Supreme Court, died a few days ago, and now President Cleveland will be called upon to fill the vacancy. We suppose he will do as his predecessors have done—appoint a man of his own party. By the way, it would be the proper thing to do, as there is but one Democrat on the bench.

The Secretary of the Treasury has issued the 149th call for the redemption of bonds. The amount of the call is $19,717,500, being the last of the 3 per cent bonds. No more bonds are redeemable until 1891, at which time $250,000,000 of 4 1/2 per cent become due. After which no more fall due until 1907, when $737,797,500 4 per cent become due.

Republican journals are now becoming the most strenuous advocates we have of the doctrine of free trade. Such as Harper's Weekly, the Evening Post, Springfield Republican, the Oregonian and others go rather ahead of such papers as the New York Star, Boston Post and other conservative Democratic papers on this subject.

The Jacksonville Sentinel says Jackson county will go Democratic on the prohibition question by at least 800 majority. By the way, Mr. Sentinel, it is said that Multnomah will go Republican on that question by at least 3000 majority, at least a number of Republicans in that county confidently claim it. Respectfully referred to the Telegram.

A characteristic bit of assumption is that put forth by some of the Republican statesmen that the Senate will not confirm any nominee for the vacancy in the Supreme Court whose views of the Constitution do not agree with those of the partisan majority. These men seem to be unaware of the fact that the last general election lifted the mortgage which they claimed to have on the Government.

A few days ago a Portland lawyer, in moving for a transfer of the case of Neal vs. Foster from the Circuit Court of this district to the U. S. Court, said that he had no hope of obtaining justice before Judge Boise. This attack is so utterly vicious and unbecoming for as to create heated indignation all over the third district. Judge Boise's personal and judicial integrity is above reproach, and this man only brings shame upon his own head in making such an attack.

O'Brien, the Irish editor, who came over to Canada last week from Ireland, to speak in the interest of Home Rule for Ireland, and especially to expose the alleged brutal conduct of Landowners, governor-general of Canada, evicting tenants from their ancestral estates in Ireland, was nobly rebuffed at Orangeburg at Toronto, Hamilton and Kingston where he made speeches. He was made the object of showers of stones and brick bats at each place, but escaped unhurt.

DEATH OF E. L. BRISTOW.

On last Saturday E. L. Bristow, of Salem, after a protracted illness, died at the age of 55 years. M. Bristow was born in Illinois, and came to Oregon in the pioneer days, and settled in Lane county, in which county he lived until 1874, when he removed to Salem. For some time he was engaged in the mercantile business in Eugene City, but on his removal to Salem he became editor and manager of the Daily Mercury, but after a few years he retired from the newspaper business, and engaged in the grocery business, but finally gave up this business and became business manager of the Daily Standard at Portland, but his health failed and he again retired from the newspaper business. He was a member of Anniversary Lodge, No. 13, I. O. O. F., of Salem, and had been a zealous worker in this order for many years. He was Past Grand Master and also Past Grand Patriarch. He was representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge hall in San Francisco in 1869. He was a devoted Odd Fellow, and in his intercourse with the world at large he labored earnestly and devotedly to exemplify the beautiful lessons of the mystic rites of that order. He was a man whose honor and integrity were above reproach. The world is a poorer man in not having more such exemplary citizens. Peace to his ashes.

"BE HONEST."

The Corvallis Chronicle advises the DEMOCRAT to be "honest." It is evident, that, from the tone of the article in the Chronicle, and its general course, that no one better understands the sad consequences of being dishonest than the Chronicle man himself. Then the Chronicle man would not have us "be a fool." Here again it is evident that the disadvantages and unhappy consequences of being a fool are not more fully felt by any one than our contemporary. The extraordinary character of the very tender interest which the Chronicle takes in the weal of the DEMOCRAT is shown in the fact that that paper very earnestly desires us not to be a "fool." All this nice talk which the Chronicle has chosen to indulge in concerning the DEMOCRAT has no other nor greater provocation than the mere fact that the DEMOCRAT very earnestly hopes that the Oregon Pacific railroad may be built on East from Albany to make connection with the Chicago and Northwestern. But the Chronicle says the company is a fraud, does not pay its debts, etc. That is no reason why the DEMOCRAT should oppose the construction of the road. The DEMOCRAT makes no war upon an individual or corporation simply because it fails to meet its pecuniary obligations. It leaves matters of that nature to be adjudicated by the Courts. It knows nothing of the manner in which the Oregon Pacific does business. People who credit that company for money or labor furnished, simply take their chances on its being able to meet its obligations, just as they would take chances on giving credit to the proprietors of the Chronicle. It goes without saying that the DEMOCRAT utterly condemns all fraudulent transactions, lying, cheating, etc., and our manner of life has been such that where we are known it is not necessary for us to repeat this in every issue of our paper. The charge that the proprietors of the DEMOCRAT are "craven, cowering toadies," is impudently, cowardly, mean, contemptible and without color of justification. We are satisfied that when the Chronicle editor views his own language in a cool moment, he will see that we have characterized it rightly and justly.

The Oregonian says that the number of persons who pay the United States liquor tax in the four prohibition states is as follows: Iowa, 4033; Kansas, 1825; Maine, 1262; Vermont, 446.

The Portland News comes out squarely for prohibition.

The DEMOCRAT invites the farmers of Lane county to contribute to its columns on any subject that will interest the agricultural classes. In a certain county paper several are discussing the question: "Resolved, that there are more profitable uses to which the farmers of the Willamette Valley can put their best land than wheat raising, resulting in considerable interest. Sell it."

President Cleveland will go fishing in a day or two. The Albany boys have already been.

News & Notes.

Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town: "I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and lameness, and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth, and removed completely all disease and pain."
