A MAN ABOUT TOWN.

PRED P. NUTTING, Local Editor.

The Man About Town observes that San Francisco people have gone mad on the out of a restaurant for non-payment of his wheat question, a madness equal to the supper. madness of the old mining craze. Thursday of last week, $1.26 per bushel was paid, and at the time it was quoted at Soc. in New York. As Oregon wheat had been excluded and we had none in our warehouses, the Valley was not struck by the inflation. There is danger of an immense cloud burst on the wheat question.

Quality more than quantity is what makes a newspaper valuable. By the way it may be noticed that there are no elephants in Oregon, and most of the hippopatamuses are patent ones,
