BABY HUMORS And all Skin and Scalp Diseases Speedily Cured by Cuticura.

Our little son will be four years of age on the 23rd inst. In May, 1885, he was attacked with a very painful breaking out of the skin. We called in a physician who treated him for about four weeks. The child received little or no good from the treatment, and the breaking out continued by the physician to be a hives in an aggravated form, became larger in blotches and more numerous. We were frequently obliged to get up in the night and rub him with soda in water, strong liniments, etc. Finally, we called other physicians, until no less than six had attempted to cure him, all alike failing, and the child steadily getting worse and worse, until about the 15th of last July, when we began to give him Cuticura. Resolved to try Cuticura, and the Cuticura Soap. Soap naturally, and by the last of August he was nearly well that we give him only one dose of the Resolvent about every second day for about ten days longer and he has never been troubled since with the horrible humors. In all we used less than one box of Cuticura Resolvent, a little less than one box of Cuticura Soap, and only one box of Cuticura Soap. H. R. VAN, Co., Livingston Co., Ill. Cuticura Resolvent is sold in all drug stores.

A Word About Catarrh. "It is the mucous membrane, that wonderful semi fluid envelope surrounding the delicate tissues of the air and food passages, that Catarrh makes its stronghold. Once established, it runs into the very veins, and renders life but a long and painful breath of misery and disease, dulling the sense of hearing, transmitting the power of speech, distorting the faculty of sight, salting the breath, and killing the refined pleasures of taste. Indolence, by crowding on from a simple cold in the head, it attacks the membranous lining and envelopes the brain, causing through the delicate case and causing inflammation, abscess and death. Nothing short of total eradication will secure health to the patient, and all afflictions are simply protracted sufferings, leading to a fatal termination. Sufferers in this case, by immediate and simple administration, has never failed; even when the disease has made frightful inroads on delicate constitutions, hearing, smell and taste have been recovered, and the disease thoroughly driven out."

Washington.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 8th, 1887. Secretary Fairchild has issued a circular in writing proposals for the sale of a large amount of 4 1/2 per cent United States bonds and 4 per cent bonds and also Pacific railroad bonds, with a rebate of 2 per cent per annum on the amount prepaid. Explanatory of this action Secretary Fairchild says he thought it the best thing he could do under the circumstances - his purchase of bonds being for the purpose of providing for the sinking funds and the anticipation of interest is for the purpose of removing the surplus. The interest referred to in the order amounts to $22,319,784 and the sinking fund to about $46,000,000, added to the $200,000,000 of 3 per cent bonds previously applied to that fund. The Secretary says that the surplus can only be disposed of through the co-operation of the bond-holders, and that if they do not accept the terms of his offer to them, it would appear that they are not greatly in need of money.

The Controller of the currency has given notice to the national banks requiring them to submit to him a full statement of their affairs at the close of business August 1st - in default of which they will be fined and the sums paid into the United States Treasury - the purpose being to see whether these institutions have their finances in proper shape to meet any requirements necessary in handling this year's crops.

During the month of July 10,316 names were added to the pension rolls by the Democratic Administration, which, according to Republican partisans, has nothing but hatred and hostility to the Union Veterans.

The pension which was put through by Forger Harvey, as Attorney for a widow, turns out, upon closer investigation, to be a fraud - and now nearly $20,000 was at the last moment, saved to the Government. The Pension Office offers a great field for fraudulent manipulations, but the evildoers almost invariably come to grief; two men have just been arrested in West Virginia on a charge of forgery in connection with a pension case.

Public Printer Benedict's reply to the New York Tribune's charge that he discriminated against Union soldiers in making appointments or dismissals is clear and convincing to the last degree, showing, as it does, that Mr. Benedict is a true and careful guardian of the interests of the soldiers, for according to an actual census of the office, taken by him, about one-half of his employees are either Union Veterans or their widows and children - all of whom are protected in their positions by a special statute, but which the present Printer's Republican predecessors ignored when it applied to Democratic Union soldiers - examples that might well warrant retaliations in kind on his part - still he has done so but, impartially given, to all whom it is due, the benefits of this class legislation. Mr. Benedict has increased the working capacity of the establishment, although compelled to reduce the force, and has won the lasting gratitude of all the employees by paying semi-monthly, instead of monthly, as was the rule under the Republican regime.

Secretary Lamar's request that the heads of bureaus of the Interior Department present their annual reports much earlier than heretofore strongly tends to confirm the general impression that he will soon be transferred to the Supreme Bench. Mr. Lamar would adorn that lofty tribunal as few men in America could, for, in addition to being the first among Southern Statesmen and Jurists, his mind is cast in a judicial mould. President Cleveland says of him, that of all the men he has ever met, he believes Secretary Lamar to possess the clearest and most profound intellect.

About twenty patent Attorneys of Washington who were the beneficiaries of Bacon's generosity with the public funds have been notified that unless they immediately refund the sums borrowed - some $5000 - it will be considered cause for disbarment from practice before the Interior Department; the bondsmen of the late financial clerk have signified their willingness to pay his defalcation when it is certified to properly.

The chief topic of local interest is the trial of naval surgeon Crawford for leading astray a school girl of thirteen and Madam Grundy is expecting sensational developments. The Judge has decided an important and interesting legal point - that the case can be tried under the Edmunds Utah law - the first of the kind on record here. I think a conviction rather doubtful, for the reason that one of the Government's principal witnesses has been spirited away, the little co-repondent is in New York, but process has been issued for her.

Mrs. Cleveland is gleefully sporting herself in the foamy waves of Buzzards Bay on the coast of New England. The other day in the little village of Marlow, where she stops, it was noised abroad that Mrs. Cleveland was going to take a plunge in the surf, but when she appeared on the beach 2000 people were assembled to see the sight, yet I need hardly add they were disappointed.

Theater Towns. An exchange in speaking of some of the cities of the N.W. theater towns places them as follows: Port Townsend, W. T. Good town to steer clear of. Salem, Or. An indifferent show town. Seattle, W. T. Good show can play three nights. Spokane Falls, W. T. Combinations take desperate chances in playing. Walla Walla, W. T. Good one night town. Astoria, Or. One night town and indifferent at W. T. Good one night town. Dayton, W. T. Good one night town.

Nether Blaine nor Sherman nor Alliston can be elected President. Ex-Postmaster-General Hutton sees this clearly and admits it. By taking one step after another in this direction he will finally arrive at the great truth that the Republicans who could be elected are all dead.

CHURCH FACTS. A church organ constructed entirely of paper is on exhibition at Milan. A Florida woman has made a bed quilt containing 16,000 pieces less than the size of a man's thumb nail. A tramp has been invented for telephoning at sea, by which conversations are said to be carried on miles apart with no wire. Javelle water, used to remove tea and coffee, grass and fruit stains from linen is said to be: Mix well in an earthen vessel one pound of sal soda, five cents worth of chloride lime and two quarts of soft water. The large dog kennels at Lancaster have been marked by many curious holes in the ground lately. Investigation has shown that they are receptacles for puppies, dug by the larger dogs to keep the little ones cool during warm weather. The city of Paris is shown by official statistics to have consumed last year 4,000,000 eggs. It also drank 87,500,000 gallons of wine, 3,172,000 gallons of spirits and liquor and something over 12,000,000 gallons of cider and of beer, or 6,000,000 and over of each. Recent experiments are said to have shown that a small weighing a quarter of an ounce, when crawling up a window, was able to lift vertically 2 1/2 ounces, or nine times its own weight. Another small, weighing one-third of an ounce, drew horizontally on a table seventeen ounces, or fifty times its own weight. Artificial clouds were recently made for the protection of vines from frost at Pagny, on the Franco-German frontier. Liquid tar was ignited in tin boxes and pieces of solid tar on the ground near the vines. Large clouds of smoke arose and protected the vineyard for two hours. Although the vines in the neighborhood were injured by the frost, all that remained under the clouds were left uninjured. Of course this contrivance can succeed only in the calm weather, but it is only in calm weather that white frosts occur. A clock recently patented in France is in imitation of a tambourine, on the parchment head of which is painted a circle of flowers, corresponding to the hour figures of ordinary dials. On examination two bees, one large and the other small, are discovered crawling among the flowers. The small bee runs rapidly from one flower to another, completing the circle in an hour, while the large one takes twelve hours to complete the circuit. The parchment surface is unbroken, and the bees simply laid upon it, but two magnets connected with the clock work inside the tambourine move just under the membrane, and the insects, which are of iron, follow them.

THE ALLIGATOR'S MEAL. An observer says an alligator's throat is an animated sewer. Everything which lodges in his open mouth goes down. He is a lazy dog, and instead of hunting for something to eat, he lets his victuals hunt him. That is, he lies with his great mouth open, apparently dead, like the possum. Soon a bug crawls into it, then a fly, then several gnats and a colony of mosquitoes. The alligator doesn't close his mouth yet. He is waiting for a whole drove of things. He does his eating by wholesale. A little later a lizard will cool himself under the shade of the upper jaw. Then a few frogs will hop up to catch the mosquitoes. Then more mosquitoes and gnats will light on the frog. Finally a whole village of insects and reptiles settle down for an afternoon picnic. Then all at once there is an earthquake. The big jaw falls, the alligator blinks one eye, gulps down the entire menagerie, and opens his great front door again for more visitors.

The Ohio pot is preparing to boil over again with bad politics and set the embers of ambition to blazing. Now that Texas has gone "wet," the great Prohibition orators lately at work in that state have dried up.

A school-teacher's switch should be a whole bone, of course. It makes the boys blubber. A protective tariff is a tax which a man pays for the privilege of eating food, wearing clothes and living in a house. It is believed that Tuttle's reputation has been so badly hurt that he will apply for a pension.

There are two Fairchilds. The big one is Secretary of the Treasury, and is busy paralyzing the National debt. One hundred and twelve saloon-keepers took out $1,000 licenses in Minneapolis last Tuesday. People Demand Protection - Patent Medicines. What are they? As a general thing they are prescriptions having been used with great success by old and well-read physicians. Thousands of invalids have been unexpectedly cured by their use, and they are the wonder and dread of physicians and medical Colleges in the U. S. so much so, that physicians graduating at Medical Colleges are required to discontinue proprietary medicines, as through them they employ doctor lines his most profitable practice. As a manufacturer of proprietary medicines, Dr. G. Green, of Woodbury, N. J., advocates most cordially - in order to prevent the risk of the sick and afflicted being liable to, almost daily by the use of patent medicines put out by inexperienced persons for aggrandizement only, and the employment of inexperienced and incompetent operators with their patients and robbing them of their money and health - for the good of the afflicted that our government protect its people by making it a crime to regulate the practice of medicine by inexperienced and more thoroughly educated physicians, and thereby keep up the honor and credit of the profession, also form laws for the recording of recipes of proprietary medicines, under examination and decision of experienced chemists and physicians appointed for that purpose by the Government, before they are licensed for general use. He would most freely place the recipe of Bosche's German Syrup and Green's August Flower under such laws, had he the proper protection, and thereby save the prejudices of the people, and avoid the competition and imitation of worthless medicines. - Chicago Mail.

Curious Facts.

The Secretary of the Navy has let the contract for the construction of five new navy vessels as follows: Cruiser No. 1, the Newark, is awarded to Cramp & Son for $1,400,000, according to the Department's plans for the hull, and the contractor's plans for the machinery. Cruiser No. 2 to Cramp & Son on the contractors' plan for $1,300,000. Cruiser No. 3 to the Union Iron Works, of San Francisco, on the Department's plans for the hull and machinery for $1,425,000. The gun boats Nos. 3 and 4 are awarded to N. F. Palmir, Jr., & Co., of New York, at $400,000 each.

Bob Lincoln is spoken of as the rising star in the Republican party. He is not a star of the first magnitude as far as good taste goes. He recently made a speech at a State reunion of the old settlers of Iowa, those who were therefore 160 in his time, he said, "I am too good a Republican not to take the progress of your state as a reason for the advanced stand you take in politics." To a mixed audience of courteous hosts on a non-political occasion, such a remark was an insult, and the remarker must be a feather-head. His distinguished father would never have been guilty of such ill manners.

The invitation of Gov. Foraker, of Ohio, to President Cleveland to visit Columbus has created great astonishment in Washington, and it is even rumored that it has become a source of unending amusement at Oak View. Foraker's premature discharge of opinion regarding the rebel flag episode was followed by a bitter attack on the President at the Toledo Convention, and his smoothly worded telegram to Mr. Cleveland is considered ludicrous in its bad taste.

The following simple and simple remedy for the bite of a rattlesnake is furnished by the Baker City Revue: Take a vessel large enough to submerge the bitten part; place in it a strong solution of saltpetre - common saltpetre and water - then place the affected part in the solution, and in less than ten minutes the poison will entirely leave the wound. Experience has taught us this, and we can recommend it to any one so afflicted.

There have been twenty-two Presidents of the United States. Five of them were elected at fifty-seven, and six attained that great office before the age of fifty. Three military men past sixty have been elected; two died very young, and the other was General Jackson, and he was but sixty-one when elected.

Congress will be called upon at its next session to provide for a new member of the Cabinet, whose title shall be Receiver and Filer of Invitations to Visit the Cities of the Interior." He will be the hardest worked member of the presidential family.
