A MAN ABOUT TOWN.

The M. A. T. has spoken with many Albany people who remember hearing "Prof." Morris say while in Albany that he was a married man ; and yet a few weeks ago he passed himself off to a Columbia county girl as single and married her.

O

In past years our neighbors in Benton county have suffered greatly from depredations by watermelon thieves,and do not propose to stand it this year. Watermelons are as good as cash, and the melon thief is as bad as any other thief. The boys will confer a great favor by leaving them alone this fall.

O

Small boys should begin selling old iron, tin cans and bottles,for the circus is coming.

O

Those who remember the newspaper controversy of several months ago between Mr Barrows and Mr Simpson are now making comments. Mr Barrows put up the whole money and was ready to trot his colt. The M. A. T. understands he is "looking out for 1888 and is ready to put up again on some more two year olds." The controversy was an interesting one, and there are many who would like to see it continue.

Body of an Unknown Man.

Last Sunday while on the island near Barrows slough, along the Willamette,about three miles south of this city, Mr. Sam Gurley discovered the half decomposed remains of a man, lying on the bank of the river, the head down stream, and a foot thrown over a willow. The indications were plain that the body had been washed there during high water and left as the water went down. The flesh was nearly gone, but a few patches of hair in the back of the neck were gray, indicating that the man must have been fifty to sixty years of age. He wore a red shirt, an old pair of pants, and a pair of brogan shoes, with a cut in one of them, probably made by an ax. Near the body was a coat and vest, and an old wallet. A Coroner's Jury, consisting of T J Stites, Geo E Fish, C F Casey, W L Vance, T L Wallace and J J Dorris, was called, and found that the person came to his death from cause or causes unknown to the jury, and that his name is unkown. A man chopping wood on the bank of the Willamette at Corvallis last winter suddenly disappeared, and was never heard of again. The cut by an ax in the brogan makes it look as if he might be the man.

The Horse Trots.

The first trot mentioned last week to have taken place yesterday between the get of McKnight Brother's Oneco, Delco being named, and Mr. Ans, Marshall's Alwood Breeze, was declared off on Thursday evening of last week, by Mr. Marshall failing to put up the remaining $125 of the purse. . It is to be regretted the race could not have been trotted, as it promised to be a fine one. Already Delco has displayed phenominal speed for a two year old, having trotted on trial, with little training, in three minutes. He promises to be the coming horse in Oregon.

Race No. 2, between Mr. W. F. Barrows' Onero and one of two of Mr. Shannon's two year olds from Alwood Breeze,was declared off in the same manner by a failure on the part of Shannon to put up the remaining $125. It is the general opinion that Onero, though 16 hands high,would have won with ease, as he has already shown a good gait, and great reliability. Considerable disappointment has been expressed over the failure of both trots. As it is it places Oneco stock on top in the public estimation.

"United Order of Honor."

On last Tuesday evening at O. F. Hall, a lodge of the above name was instituted by Mr. Alex Rachenstein. It is a mutual life insurance society with several new and prominent features, and admits of insurance from $500 to $3000, and weekly benefits of $5 to $15. The following officers were elected :

Jas V Pipe, President.
Geo W Keeney, Vice President.
J H Burkhart, Secretary.
O B Winn, Treasurer.
M H Ellis, Medical Examiner.
Miss Weiss, Conductor.
Mrs Dr Ellis, Chaplain.

The following district officers for the district from Salem to Ashland were appointed : C B Winn, President, M H Ellis, Medical Examiner, J H Burkhart, Secretary.

Shot for a Wild Animal.

On Friday evening of last week three boys aged fifteen to eighteen, named Bishop, Todd and Jennings, living on Hamilton Creek, went coon hunting. While beating about for coons young Jennings concluded to frighten the Todd boy, who was at their camping place. Making a noise like a wild animal he approached through the thick bushes. The boy was frightened as expected and called on his companion for help. Young Bishop grasped a shot gun and aiming it towards the noise fired, hitting the Jennings boy in the body, killing him almost instantly, his cry telling his companions the kind of animal that had been shot. The unfortunate accident has cast a deep gloom over the community. The deceased was a bright, fun-loving boy, and hardly anticipated such a serious termination to a joking act.

Jury List.

The following is a list of the Jury drawn for the special term of Circuit Court for Linn county, called by His Honor Judge Boise to be held on the 19th day of September in this city :

R A Irvine, C W Cole, D D Michael, Albert Savage, J H Marks, John Robb, Louis Stringer, Wm Patter, M C Gill, J C Bilyeu, Cal Burkhart, S Cannon. Wm Drinkard, A McFerron, Alexander Gilkey, Wm McCoy, C R Holt, C W Richardson, J B Roberts, S P Berry, J G Powell, Dave Meyers, S A Looney, J R Baltimore, John McFarland, F P DeVaney, John Nichols, D M Walters, E C Keebler, T M Rinehart, S R Claypool.

The Fair at Salem.

For the fair to be held at Salem,beginning on Sept. 12th, there have been fifty-one entries in the running races and forty-two in the trotting races. Besides the horse races there will be twenty-six bicycle races on a quarter mile track made for the purpose. This will be an important feature. Two Albany young men, we understand,will enter. In the booths, there will be some good county exhibits,and a fine exhibition of horses and cattle may always be depended on. It is the only fair we have that calls itself a state fair, and we advise everybody to go.

Immense Bargains.

Standard white shirts, 65 cents ; Boss of the Road overalls, 50 cents ; 4 pair of seamless socks, 25 cents ; regular price 4 for 50 cents, and other bargains to match, at A. B. McIlwain's.

DEAR LAND.

E. E. McKinney, John Shafer and Wm. Pearson, of Marion county, own about 700 acres of land in this county, on the line of the Oregon Pacific, beyond the Santiam. T W Gentry occupied the land, and W D Bilyeu was agent for the owners. The track of the O P as laid out, will cross the land, about six acres being used by the road. The Railroad made a tender of $60 an acre for this, $20 more than every other land owner had received ; but the owners demanded $700 as a compromise, three or four times what was asked by any one else. Pending negotiations work of grading proceeded across the land. Finally, it was asserted, the owners through their agents interfered with the work of grading, whereupon the Company obtained a temporary injunction before Judge Whitney, in the County Court in this city restraining such interference. Then Mr Bilyeu, as prosecuting witness swore out a warrant,before George Humphrey, Esq., for the arrest of John German and seven other laborers for trespass, and they were arrested by Sheriff Smith and Monday and Tuesday German was tried before Justice Humphrey for the offense mentioned. Hon L H Montanye, Tilmon Ford and Hewitt & Bryant appeared for the prosecution and L Flinn, Wolverton & Irvine and W R Bilyeu for the defendants.

After a hearing of the case Justice Humphrey found the defendant, John German, guilty of trespass, and fined him $21 and costs, the fine being large enough to admit of an appeal. An appeal was immediately taken to the Circuit Court, and a motion made for a change of venue in the seven other cases. Before acting on the same the prosecution moved for a dismissal of them, which disposed of them.

In the case tried the injunction mentioned was offered in evidence ; but was objected to by the prosecution, and objections sustained by the Justice,on the grounds that it was void.

Considerable interest has been manifested in the case by the public. As the grade has been completed over the farm in question the object of the sustenance of the injunction is to secure the right to lay the rails over the same. This will be tried at a special term of the Circuit Court Sept. 19th.

Yesterday German was taken before County Judge Whitney, on a writ of habeas corpus, which was being argued at the time of going to press.

Albany's Schools.

The Catholic school opened at this city Monday with an average attendanc,most of the old students appearing and several new ones.

The Central school will begin business next Monday with Prof. D. V. S. Reid at the helm. He will be assisted by Misses Kirkpatrick, Irvine, Brink, McNeil, Bodine and Lillie Robertson, able corps of teachers.

The Collegiate Institute will open on Tuesday with an able corps of teachers. The instructors will be Rev. E. N. Condit, A. M., President, Wallace H. Lee, A. B., Rev. J. B. Braun, A. M.,and a lady teacher for the primary department. The students this year will have the advantages of a fine telescope and microscope among other apparatus, also instruction in French and German, under the able tutorship of Rev. Braun. The literary societies will be kept up,and no pains will be spared by the faculty to make the school a progressive one. The new Board of Directors consists of the following :

1888—S E Young, J C Powell, F M Redfield, L Flinn, Rev Prichard.

1889—A Wheeler, E Quackenbush, L E Blain, H W Corbett, Wm M Ladd.

1890—J L Cowan, Geo E Chamberlain, John Conner, J P Galbraith, Rev S G Irvine.

J P Galbraith, President ; Geo E Chamberlain, Secretary and Treasurer.

Worth Attending.

To-night (Friday) Miss Hallie Parrish, perhaps the best vocalist in Oregon, certainly a most popular one at Albany, and Prof. Parvin, the skilful musician of the same place, will give an entertainment at the Opera House, which promises to be a very fine affair. They will be assisted by Mrs Parvin, who will recite several selections, and some of our best local talent. Give them a full house. Admission 50c., gallery, 25 cents.

Following is the program :

Duet—"The Fishermen" (Gabussi,) Miss Hallie Parrish and Mr. Parvin.

"Lucky Boy."

The following from the Brownsville correspondent of the Lebanon Express is a good description of the new mine discovered by several Brownsville men :

G A Dyson, W B Standish and Jode Moore, who for some time past have been prospecting on the Calipooia, also the Blue river, have at last been amply rewarded in their endeavors to locate the supposed vein that has furnished colors and free gold, to the two rivers For many years past it has been the opinion of mining experts that in the neighborhood of the head waters of the Calipooia, extensive veins of gold bearing quartz must exist. G A Dyson,the original locater of the Big Camas fraction mine, adjoining Big Camas No. 2, Idaho, which has recently been sold for $4,000,000, on a late prospecting tour, has located on the divide of the Blue and Calipooia rivers, a quartz lead known as the "Lucky Boy," which judging from present indications is rich in the precious metal. An opening,seven and one-half feet has been made through the lead, showing a well defined ledge, of over seven foot of gold bearing quartz, the foot walls being of granite,with hanging walls of porphery, giving evidence of a true fissure vein. Two foot of decomposed quartz next to the foot wall is rich in free gold,assaying $20 to the ounce. Extensions of this claim have been taken up, but there yet remains miles of unexplored country which from all indications may contain extensive quartz leads equally as rich in gold. Situated 45 miles from Brownsville,comparatively easy of access, there is no reason why others should not be successful with the locators of the "Lucky Boy."

A Crook County Murder.

John Combs, Deputy Sheriff of Crook County, was in Albany Tuesday on his way to Eugene City. He brought Todd, the murderer of Jim Brackett with him and left him at The Dalles. Last week Todd and Brackett had a quarrell in a Mitchell saloon when the former shot the latter, killing him almost instantly. Todd was held to await the action of the Grand Jury, without the benefit of bail, and there being no safe jail in Crook County he was taken to The Dalles. Mr Combs had subpoenas for several witnesses in the Curran horse stealing case, which will be tried at Prineville at the next term of Court.

His Dry Goods.

The fall and winter stock of dry goods received at McIlwain's, is a large one, well selected, embracing all the latest novelties, and in quantity and of a quality not surpassed here. Do not buy without examining.

CURRENT EVENTS.

We don't know anything about booms,in Oregon. Read the following from a San Francisco paper about Monrovia, in Southern California : "A year ago last May when Monrovia was laid out, acre property was worth $250. Now it is worth $4,000. Town lots that fourteen months ago were worth $150 now figure at $5,000 and $6,000 on the choice streets. There are two banks in Monrovia, and two churches are now being built,one costing $7,000,the other about $8,000. Two school buildings are also under way, one of which will cost $15,000. J M Studebaker and Clem Studebaker,the South Bend, Indiana, wagon manufacturers, and J I Case, the owner of Jay Eye See, are building winter residences $7,500 each. E. F Spence, the banker, is building a $12,000 home there,and G B Lampert,cashier of the Granite Bank, is building a residence worth $10,000. Monrovia has 1,300 people,and is growing fast."

Southern Oregon rather has the best of the Willamette Valley on the fruit question this year.

The following from the Oregonian shows how easy it is to manufacture rumors : "It is rumored in railroad circles that the Oregon Pacific is to have its terminus in Portland. The story goes that it secured a loan of $10,000,000 to enable it to pay off its old indebtedness and to build across the Cascades from large stockholders of the Chicago & Northwestern, on condition that the road be built into Portland."

Edison has patented a contrivance for turning the heat of a furnace into light and power.

Col John Lee of the Indian school at Salem obtained eleven new students for the school while in California recently, and they have just arrived at Salem.

Wheat has received a bad blow. Those who thought there was poetry in its being quoted at $1.25 in San Francisco when it was only 80c. in New York can now see the evil effects of prices boomed by gambling.

In the great international yacht race between the Volunteer and Thistle, betting seems to be in favor of the Scotch boat, the Thistle.

Lives there a man with soul so dead who never to himself hath said, I'll pay, before I go to bed, the debt I owe the printer ? Yes, there are some we know full well, who never such a tale could tell, but they, we fear will go to —— well, the place where there's no winter.—Ex.

Michael Carlin was found dead in the basement of the Villard House ruins last Tuesday, with indications that he had been murdered.

A Watermelon Raid.

One night last week at that late hour when it is said "that all honest men are asleep." three young men were stealthily riding along the road a few miles east of the city towards the residence of Mr. Bridges. The sun that evening had set in a sea of glory, and the great, broad western sky was still shimmering from the blood-red sun now sunk far below the western horizon. The moon, with her dim, pale light, was trying to light up the deserted earth, which at this season of the year,and in this latitude and longitude, is always subjected to a great overhanging pall of smoke that settles down upon it from the burning forests in the mountains. The stars were vainly attempting to make themselves seen through the cloudy atmosphere. The Katy-did was sighing a sad requiem over the grave of the dying day The weary farmer, who had been in the field "from early morn to dewy eve" was gently resting in the arms of Morpheus, dreaming of the day when wheat would be worth $1 per bushel. The jaded farm horse stood at the manger quietly munching the new made hay. Tired nature itself seemed to have come to a state of rest and quietude. These were the surroundings of the three night prowlers bent on mischief. They are of the class that St. John, (not the thorn in the Republican side,) had in his mind's eye when he said : "And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil." And it is the experience of nearly every man who has arrived at the age of maturity, that a dark night is a far more favorable time to raid a watermelon patch than in open broad day light. But as the sequel will show a watermelon raider is not always safe even in a dark night. The watch dogs of the farmers for miles along the road which the raiders were traveling gave the alarm by loudly barking when they passed, and Mr Bridges, hearing them, began to surmise that "there was a nigger in the fence." Near and nearer they came as could be told by the barking of the dogs. Finally they arrived within a hundred yards of Bridges' watermelon patch, when they came to a halt, dismounted, hitched their horses, and with a sack each, they set out to the patch. Bridges "set out" too along through his corn patch. The raiders had their sacks about filled with melons and would soon be ready to retreat with their plunder. Bridges was unarmed, but he determined to show fight, so he took off a boot and just as one of the raiders started off Bridges pounced down upon him knocked him down and began pounding him with his boot, but the raider recovered his standing and started to run, but Bridges, with the alertness of a prize fighter was down on the fellow again when he tumbled down again and began to beg "for God's sake don't kill me." Bridges agreed to hold up if he would tell his name and that of his companions. This he agreed to do. Bridges called to a friend at his house for a light. The light was brought, but neither could recognize the raider. He gave his name as M—— and that of the other two raiders as C—— and P——. They then let the raider go. The other two made their escape in the beginning of the melee. It was afterwards ascertained that the captured raider had given his own name correctly but had given the names of two well-known respectable citizens as his companions. After a few days Mr. Bridges learned who the real parties were, but we think they were punished enough and will not make their names public. We venture the prediction, however, that when they go to Bridges again they will be more particular about getting caught.

Teacher's Examination.

The following teachers are in attendance at the public examination in this city this week : Miss Mellie Allen, Miss Isabelle Bodine,Miss Belle Banta,Miss Mary Blount, Miss Jennie Blount, J K Buff, I D Boyer, B A Childers, Miss E A Collins, Mrs Dodd, Miss Lelia Edwards, Miss Lydia Charlton, Miss Laura Farrow, Miss Agnes Greene, Miss Susie Howard, Miss Hattie Long,Miss Clara McMeeken, Miss Ella Philippi, Miss Edith Pentland, Mr Amasa Moses, Miss M C Reynolds, Miss Sarah Williams.

Capt Phil Goodwin, of Wilmington, Ill., arrived in Albany last Tuesday and is the guest of his aunt, Mrs S E Young. Phil resided in Albany about five years, nearly fifteen years ago.

Mr W B Gilson, agent of the Daily News, of Portland, was in the city Wednesday. The carrier here deserted the paper, which has been coming and accumulating at the depot for over a week.

Mrs. Jesse Elder and Mrs A J McMillan arrived in Albany Thursday evening of last week from the East. On reaching here Mrs Elder learned by telegraph of the sudden death of her husband, a civil engineer, at Kansas City,

Mr. Geo. H. Nutting, a brother of the local editor of the DEMOCRAT, a resident on the Clawhammer, Crook county, was in the city the first of the week on a visit. His partner Mr Roberts, has been in Brownsville during the week.

L W Deyoe, H Lampman, and Jasper Luper and son returned from the mountains Friday after a very hilarious time with streaked luck. Following was the record of deer killed : Lampman,6 ; Deyoe,3 ; Luper, 3 ; son, 2—14. As it is only a fair kill it can be vouched for.

Fred Davis, press and advance agent of the S H Barrett's circus, was in Albany Saturday with his advertising car and a large corps of bill posters, and painted the town in many colors. See big adv. If considerable space is given please excuse us as circus day only comes about once a year in Oregon.

W F Read, A B Woodin, Rob't Brown and A Rhodes, returned last Friday from their Santiam mines much pleased with the prospects. The DEMOCRAT has repeatedly asserted its belief in the presence of rich ledges there, and believes these gentlemen have struck it. It will take work and capital, though, to get at the precious metal.

PINE.

Harvest is about over, crop light.

Mr Luckey has recently finished baling hay at his farm in this vicinity. In seven days five men baled 75 tons of hay, which will be shipped via the Narrow Gauge later in the season.

Hop-picking will begin Monday week.

Caspar Vondran, of Albany has recently been visiting his parents in this locality.

Miss Lillian McNary returned to her home in Salem last week.

Mr E F Wyatt has his farm house newly painted. Russell did it.

Our troubulous threshing crew finally served an attachment on the machine and are now running it to make their harvest wages out of it.

Mr East, of Iowa in company with O P Coshow, of Brownsville has been looking in this vicinity for a location.

Two runaways to chronicle this week. Mr McNary's team ran away and crippled one of the horses so badly that they think it will have to be killed, besides bruising Mr McNary severely about the head. Mr Morrow's team ran and crippled a horse, but it will probably recover.

Lo Allingham, of Camp Polk was visiting relatives here last Saturday and Sunday.

Prof Woodruff, vocalist of Lebanon, is in the city.

Hon F A Watts has an addition on his drug store.

Mrs. Mary Holmes, of Peoria, was in the city last week.

Davis Bros., are taking in a good deal of grain in their warehouse. It was thought at first that the wheat would be stored in Corvallis generally, but it has proven untrue. We think the warehouse at this place will be full.

A Card.

Mr. M. L. Pipes and J. R. N. Bell,editors respectively of the Benton Leader and Roseburg Review, have seen fit to criticize, most severely and unjustly, the action of the M. E. Church South as regards the Agricultural College. They have invited and encouraged communications from the representatives of the church in answer to these criticisms, assuring us, repeatedly, that to those they criticized they were willing to grant, as a matter of simple justice, aside from "generosity," a full hearing in their columns in reply.

Provoked by a statement in my communication Mr. Bell made a bitter personal attack upon me in the Review, and refused access to his columns in reply.

Mr. Pipes indorsed the attack by publishing in his paper, with favorable comments, published my rejoinder,Bro. Bell's response, and then refused me a second hearing in his own paper. Mr. Bell's charge of dissimulation, upon which he lays so much stress, in his late effusion, was fully met in the rejected articles.

After this statement of what these magnanimous editors call "generosity," I may be excused from noticing anything coming from that source.

Most respectfully,
J. W. CRAIG.
